

PRELIMINARY CREDENTIALS

Completing credential courses does not guarantee the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC) will issue a credential. If any requirements for a preliminary credential are altered by the CTC during the candidate's program, the candidate will be held responsible for those requirements in accordance with regulations designated by this accrediting agency.

Preliminary Teaching Credentials

The School of Education offers a specially designed preliminary teaching credentials approved by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing:

- Multiple Subject teaching credential program is designed for candidates seeking to teach at the elementary grade levels or in P - Adult self-contained, general education classrooms.
- Single Subject teaching credential program is designed for candidates seeking to teach at the junior high, middle school, or high school levels or in a departmentalized setting serving grades P - Adult.
- Mild/Moderate is one (1) of the two (2) Educational Specialist Preliminary teaching credentials. This authorization is related to services for individuals with a primary disability of specific learning disabilities, emotional disturbance, mild/moderate mental retardation, other health impairment, and autism spectrum disorders within the disability area.
- Extensive Support authorization is related to services for individuals with a primary disability for autism, moderate/severe disability, emotional disturbance, deaf-blind, and multiple disabilities.

This preliminary credential consists of 23-29 units of coursework and 10 units of clinical practice (student teaching) culminating in a preliminary teaching credential (total: 33-39 units).

The candidate then has the option to finish Phase II of the Master of Arts in Teaching degree.

Phase II usually takes place after a candidate has obtained the preliminary credential and has obtained a first teaching position. Phase II consists of 7-13 units, depending on the program, for a total of 46 units.

Program Learning Outcomes

Candidates who complete the Master of Arts in Teaching Preliminary Teaching Credentials and Professional Services Credentials will be able to:

Equip

- Promote the success of all students by being servant leaders who serve collaboratively and effectively with professional excellence, honesty, integrity, and sensitivity.

Transform

- Demonstrate the positive power of diversity and advocacy for universal social justice within their classrooms, schools, districts, and communities; and
- Apply faith-based influences and beliefs within educational organizations.

Empower
