

BST - BIBLE

BST 1001 Old Testament History and Religion (GE) (2 Units)

Within the context of the history of Israel, an overview of the literature of the Old Testament with special attention to its literary history and theological themes.

Online.

BST 1002 New Testament History and Religion (GE) (3 Units)

Within the context of Christian origins, an overview of the canonical literature of the New Testament with special attention to its literary history and theological themes.

Online.

BST 3004 (B,C,J,L,N) Biblical Perspectives (GE) (4 Units)

This course reflects PLNU's commitment, as a Christian liberal arts college, to nurturing an appreciation for Scripture as the basis for creative personal faith and human life in the modern world. It is designed to foster knowledge and understanding of the literature and history of the Bible and to integrate faith, learning, and living from a Wesleyan perspective.

Offered as BST 3004B, BST 3004C, BST 3004J, BST 3004L, and BST 3004N.