About the University

Introduction to the University

Point Loma Nazarene University (PLNU) is a liberal arts institution affiliated with the Church of the Nazarene. Accredited by the WSCUC Senior College and University Commission, Point Loma offers degree programs at the baccalaureate and graduate levels. The university's main campus is located on the Point Loma peninsula between the San Diego Bay and the shores of the Pacific Ocean with additional campus sites in San Diego, Mission Valley, and Bakersfield and currently enrolls nearly 4,200 students.

Heritage

In 1895, Phineas F. Bresee, a minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church, and J. P. Widney, a Methodist layperson and former president of the University of Southern California, founded the Church of the Nazarene in Los Angeles, California. Their primary purpose was to bring the good news of the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the poor and underprivileged. In 1902, Dr. Bresee founded Pacific Bible College, at the urging of several laypersons. Its purpose was to train ministerial and lay leaders for the new denomination.

Through the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Deets, Pacific Bible College was able to purchase the Hugus Ranch in northeast Pasadena. With the subsequent move to the new Pasadena campus in 1910, the institution became Nazarene University and enlarged the scope of the curriculum to include a typical program in the liberal arts. In 1924, it was reorganized as Pasadena College (PC), the undergraduate honor society known as Sigma Phi Mu was organized, and a system of student government was instituted.

Pasadena College received initial accreditation from the Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools in 1943 and from the Western College Association in 1949. In 1951, PC received state accreditation of its education program, and the Board of Trustees approved the addition of graduate education in 1965. Faced with a growing enrollment and the need for expansion, the college moved to San Diego's historic Point Loma peninsula in the summer of 1973. Today, as Point Loma Nazarene University, the institution offers numerous majors in various academic degrees, is approaching an enrollment of 4,200 at all of its teaching locations with a faculty and staff of 662, and enjoys an ocean-front campus in San Diego and strategically located branch campuses throughout southern California.

Church and University

Point Loma Nazarene University maintains its regional and international affiliation with the Church of the Nazarene through its theological and mission commitments. It is owned and governed by its Board of Trustees who oversee the affairs of the university as a self-selecting and self-perpetuating body.

The Church of the Nazarene is an international protestant denomination in the Wesleyan-holiness tradition with an evangelical Christian mission emphasizing salvation and holy living. The relationship of the university with the denomination is characterized by a mutual commitment to the doctrine and mission of the church and to its ministry and service in a global context.

The University Community

The Students. The university welcomes qualified students who desire higher education in a context of vital Christianity. The role of Point Loma in higher education is fulfilled by helping students realize their mental, physical, social, moral, and spiritual ideals. The university's belief is that a personal commitment to Jesus Christ is the basis for achieving self-worth and understanding, the motivation for building a just social order, and the means for relating to God through worship and service.

The Faculty. The Point Loma faculty is composed of Christian teachers/scholars who are dedicated to teaching and other scholarly activity in an environment "where minds are engaged and challenged, character is modeled and formed, and service becomes an expression of faith." Individuals serving as faculty are committed to lifelong learning and teaching. They strive to exemplify excellence in their profession and model a personal understanding of the interconnectedness of faith, learning, and living.

The Staff. The university community also includes qualified persons who provide vital support services to academic and co-curricular enterprises. Often directly involved in the lives of students and faculty, dedicated staff work diligently to provide services that make a quality difference at Point Loma.

The Alumni. Graduates and former students of Point Loma Nazarene University are an equally important-though extended-part of the university community. They embody the mission and goals of the university and seek to make a difference all over the world. Alumni participate in the life of Point Loma as well through giving opportunities and frequent memorable events on campus.

University Mission

Vision Statement

Point Loma Nazarene University will be a nationally prominent Christian university and a leading Wesleyan voice in higher education and the church - known for excellence in academic preparation, wholeness in personal development, and faithfulness to mission.

Mission Statement

To Teach ~ To Shape ~ To Send

Point Loma Nazarene University exists to provide higher education in a vital Christian community where minds are engaged and challenged, character is modeled and formed, and service is an expression of faith. Being of Wesleyan heritage, we strive to be a learning community where grace is foundational, truth is pursued, and holiness is a way of life.

Mission Context

The university, established in 1902 by the Church of the Nazarene, offers quality liberal arts and professional programs on its campus in San Diego and select graduate and professional programs throughout the denomination's Southwest Educational Region.

Core Values

- Excellence in teaching and learning - Teaching and learning constitute the central and defining activities of Point Loma Nazarene University. Faculty believe that effective teaching includes maintaining a vital relationship with one's discipline, establishing a positive connection to students, and building bridges among the students as a community of learning with the academic material.
- An intentionally Christian community - PLNU wants students to be participants in a community of learning who intentionally think and behave as Christians in all of their endeavors. Through many curricular and co-curricular activities, PLNU builds a community where women and men are challenged to explore ways to align their hearts and minds to that of Christ.
- Faithfulness to our Nazarene heritage and a Wesleyan theological tradition - While working cooperatively with the whole church of Jesus Christ, the university is committed to maintaining and celebrating our denominational ties with the Church of the Nazarene and embracing the distinctives of that tradition.
- The development of students as whole persons - A complete education prepares women and men to live full lives that integrate the pursuit of knowledge with beliefs, values, and actions. Holistic learning prepares students to make a positive difference in the world.
- A global perspective and experience - PLNU students should be equipped to become "world citizens." The university provides academic coursework, international study, field research, and ministry experiences that aid students in becoming conversant with the complexities of life in the global community.
- Ethnic and cultural diversity - PLNU recruits women and men from a variety of cultural, ethnic, and socio-economic backgrounds as students, faculty, and staff. A willingness to hear and learn from many diverse voices is foundational to a Christian liberal arts education and prepares students to become truly educated people, equipped to live in a diverse society and world. The university therefore actively pursues ideas, practices, and relationships that honor diversity and encourages engagement with others different from one's self in order to grow in community with and be reconciled to one another.
- The stewardship of resources - PLNU considers itself to be caretaker of all that has been entrusted to the university (people, facilities, money, and knowledge), using resources in a way that reflects the purposes of God and protects the goodness of God's creation.
- Service as an expression of faith - The university community understands itself to be stewards, not owners, of time, talent, and selves. Part of the call to Christians is to serve the world, working to better the condition of humankind both locally and globally.

Institutional Learning Outcomes (ILO)

Institutional Learning Outcomes (ILO's) at Point Loma Nazarene University are the broad, over-arching outcomes aligned with university mission and core values that inform program outcomes in the university's academic, co-curricular, and support units. These ILO's capture the breadth of the PLNU experience and community and help define its uniqueness. For students beginning their educational experience, the ILO's determine those focal points that mark their journey, and for graduate and adult students continuing their academic careers, the ILO's define both the starting point and the direction of their ongoing journey. For the PLNU staff and faculty, the outcomes explicitly articulate the institution's expectations. They guide the community in discussions around questions of faith, profession, social justice, personal relationships, service, giftedness, political and community engagement, and life choices.

The university and the student work cooperatively to achieve ILO's, so that students will be prepared to live faithfully as engaged, growing Christians who seek to model the character of God in their lives. These students will also possess curiosity for life-long learning; the ability to think critically about global challenges; the ability to identify, create and weigh alternative viewpoints and opinions; and the ability to imagine and enact characteristically Christian ways of addressing these challenges. To assist students in achieving these ILO's, the university offers students a safe environment to challenge the status quo, to engage intentionally in discussions that test the foundation of their views, to build a respect for the stewardship of creation, to show compassion toward those in need, and to respect the diversity of opinions within and outside the Christian faith community.

"As a community of faithful learners, Point Loma Nazarene University's purpose for learning is to engender greater and deeper love for God and all that God has created, exploring the world in the confidence of God's grace. As a university seeking faithfulness to the Wesleyan tradition, we do not see learning and faith as two separate and distinct spheres that need to be forced together. Rather, we engage in the learning process as a people striving to live faithfully toward Jesus Christ, who calls us to this love of God and neighbor. We pursue such faithful learning, living and loving in the community. We pursue the vocation of learning together in the very presence of the God of the universe, freeing us to ask hard questions about our beliefs, ourselves and our world." (A Wesleyan Approach to Faithful Academic Life, PLNU, from 2009 edition).

As a learner-centered expression of our mission statement, the ILO's describe how members of the Point Loma Nazarene University community will demonstrate learning, growing and serving.

Context #1: Learning, Informed by our Faith in Christ

ILO #1: Students will acquire knowledge of human cultures and the physical and natural world while developing skills and habits that foster life-long learning.

Context #2: Growing, in a Christ-Centered Faith Community

ILO #2: Students will develop a deeper and more informed understanding of self and others as they negotiate complex environments.

Context #3: Serving, in a Context of Christian Faith

ILO #3: Students will serve locally and/or globally in vocational and social settings.

The university seal is used on all official documents. It consists of a shield picturing the symbols of VENIA (Grace), VERITAS (Truth) and SANCTITAS (Holiness), themes that-in keeping with the heritage of Point Loma Nazarene University-have been identified with the Wesleyan-holiness tradition.

University Profile

Programs at the graduate level are organized for the general purpose of giving the student a fundamental understanding and thorough mastery of a major field of study and of advanced preparation for a professional career.

Graduate Programs exist to:

- Recognize and foster superior scholarship through post-baccalaureate instruction, seminars, and research;
- Develop professional skills and competence;
- Encourage the acquisition and mastery of responsible and thorough methods of research;
- Enable students to improve their ability to think critically and achieve a greater measure of intellectual independence;
- Encourage the integration of the student's faith and learning; and
- Accelerate the engagement of graduates' faith in their professions.

Graduate study requires independent direction, a mature approach to study, and a commitment to professional goals. Students who have demonstrated a high level of achievement in undergraduate work and who want to increase their professional skills, expand their knowledge, and qualify for more demanding responsibilities are invited to apply for admission to Point Loma Nazarene University's Graduate Studies programs.

Courses and programs are offered through departments and schools of the university. Faculty determine the standards of admission, the standards for retention, the requirements for graduation, regulations governing transfer credit, and other matters pertaining to academic activities and responsibilities of graduate students. Thus, to receive graduate credit and to be eligible for a graduate degree, a student must be properly admitted to a graduate degree program and must meet the standards set by the faculty.

Community Standards

Above all, Point Loma Nazarene University is a Christian community. Regardless of personal religious perspectives, when students enroll at Point Loma, they have entered into this unique community. Thus, the university community hopes that students will sense the love and holiness that characterizes life in Christ throughout their time of participation in the community. Faculty and staff desire to model that life in all they do.

Studying in a Christian community has several ramifications. First, it has an impact on the quality of workmanship - Christians offer God and each other their very best work. Students and faculty alike are held to a very high standard of workmanship. Second, work in a Christian community is characterized by integrity; there is a level of trust that makes life in Christian community uplifting. Third, work is grounded in Christ-like love and service. Faculty and students commit themselves to service in their professions, community, and places of worship. Fourth, students, faculty, and staff are expected to live disciplined lives. Living and working in Christian community affects our life-style choices.

University Facilities

The Point Loma campus of 93 acres was first established as an educational site by the Theosophical Society of America and has been occupied since by Balboa University, California Western College, and United States International University. The early occupants of this property erected a number of wooden buildings, some of which have been renovated and are still in use as designated historical sites. Since 1953, numerous additional buildings have been constructed, and today the main campus includes art studio facilities, a theatre, physical education complex, the Fermanian School of Business and Business Center, the Cooper Music Center with its 400-seat Crill Performance Hall, Colt Hall, Nicholson Commons, Draper Hall, Smee Hall - School of Theology and Christian Ministry, and the Bond Academic Center. Buildings of historical interest include the Greek Amphitheatre, first of its type to be built in the United States; Mieras Hall, built in 1901 by the Spalding family; and Cabrillo Hall, originally the home of Madame Katherine Tingley, leader of the Theosophical Society.

Other Teaching Locations

Mission Valley

The PLNU additional location in the Mission Valley area is a 51,000 square-foot structure and houses offices and classrooms for the graduate and adult degree completion programs in clinical counseling, education, and business administration. This facility brings Point Loma's programs nearer to the heart of the city. The first floor houses Graduate Services, and the remainder of the facility features the Whitcomb Family Prayer Chapel, classrooms, graduate, and adult degree completion programs.

Bakersfield

Located in the culturally diverse San Joaquin Valley, the university's additional location in Bakersfield is committed to serve Kern County and the surrounding areas. The Bakersfield facility is centrally located for the convenience of students and accessible from Route 99 and all major connectors to the area. Classes are held in instructional facilities conducive to the delivery of higher education in a pleasant atmosphere.

Ryan Library

Ryan Library supports student learning in an environment that combines the traditional values of the liberal arts university with the technological advances of the 21st century. Library faculty and staff are dedicated to serving the information needs of students, faculty, and all others affiliated with the university. The library is home to a variety of comfortable learning spaces: rooms for group work and projects, clusters of soft seating, areas for quiet study, and more. In addition, Ryan Library is home to over 170,000 volumes, including books, periodicals, and several specialized collections. The library also subscribes to numerous online databases, many of which provide full-text access. For items not held by the library, InterLibrary Loan services provide access to resources located throughout the region and the world. Online access to library resources and services is available through the Ryan Library webpage at <http://www.pointloma.edu/library>. In classroom settings and one-on-one consultations, librarians teach students how to find appropriate resources, create effective search strategies, and evaluate online information. The work of the library faculty and staff fosters the pursuit of knowledge, excellence in teaching and learning, and respect for inquiry and diverse points of view.

Information Technology Resources

Internet Services (Email and Web)

Students can conduct research and communication using the campus wireless network. Each student is given a network account, an email account (which may be used after graduation), and a network area for storing files, presentations, assignments, attachments, etc. In addition to telephone and written correspondence, email is a recognized means of official university-to-student communication. Students are expected to read their university email on a regular basis. When away from the university, students can access their email account via the web. Students are also able to go online to register for classes, check grades, and view their class schedule and other student information in their portal. The Point Loma Nazarene University Web Portal can be accessed at <http://my.pointloma.edu>.

Graduate students have access to a variety of technology resources - at the additional locations, as well as from their homes and offices. Wireless Internet access is available at each additional location allowing access to the internet, as well as the following PLNU resources:

- Point Loma Portal - <http://my.pointloma.edu>
- PLNU Email - <http://gmail.pointloma.edu>
- Learning management system - <http://canvas.pointloma.edu>
- Library research materials - www.pointloma.edu/library
- Student resource materials - <http://www.pointloma.edu/experience/offices/student-services/graduate-student-resources>

Help Center

Assistance for PLNU-related technology is available for all graduate students by phone and email:

- 619-849-2222
- Help@pointloma.edu

Classroom Technology

All classrooms at each of the additional locations are equipped with hardware to assist both students and instructors in the presentation of course material. This includes a DVD player, data projector, digital presenter, and computer.

Purchasing Technology

Students may purchase the Microsoft Office suite at a discounted rate through journeyed.com. Students are also provided anti-virus software at a significant discount. Discounts on additional software, as well as both Apple and Microsoft hardware are also available through PLNU.

Special Collections

The San Diego main campus of Point Loma Nazarene University is not only a garden spot overlooking the San Diego Bay to the east and the Pacific Ocean to the west. It also is home to several collections and works of public art.

Paintings from the Spiros John Karras Collection of California Plein Air paintings, housed primarily in Cooper Music Center, are prominently displayed for public viewing. The Fischer Collection (a rare and unique set of matched, hand-made string instruments for use by faculty and student string quartets) is housed in Cooper Music Center and may be viewed and heard in public recitals.

Ryan Library has two collections of note: special collections of the writings of Arminius and John Wesley and the William C. and Frances Vaughters collection of pre-Columbian artifacts. In addition to these collections, the campus is home to various works of art. As a former center for the Theosophical Society, original buildings feature interior woodworking by Reginald Machel. Ryan Library houses sculptures of the artist Scott Stearman and an original Norman Rockwell painting created for use as a Saturday Evening Post cover.

Two monumental works of sculpture grace the campus in Point Loma: The Calling, by Scott Stearman, and Centenary Passage, by Peter Mitten. The first was presented to the university by the Women's Auxiliary to portray Jesus' calling of the disciple Peter as a symbol of the "divine calling to all, the assurance of Christ's constant companionship, and the invitation to become fishers of men." The second is a 10-foot work of granite and bronze created by local artist and former Point Loma Nazarene University faculty member in the Department of Art and Design. It was commissioned to commemorate the university's centennial during the 2001-2002 academic year.

Department of Public Safety

It is the intention and resolve of the Department of Public Safety to provide a safe environment for the university. To this end, the department strives to provide a safe environment in which students are free to learn and faculty may teach without undue concerns for safety. The university also has obligations to meet federal regulations relating to the reporting of crime.

The Department of Public Safety strongly encourages victims and witnesses to report all crime and suspicious incidents against persons or property, both to administrative offices of regional teaching locations and to the department in San Diego. All teaching locations maintain and frequently review evacuation procedures. Students are urged to take precautions regarding the protection of personal property, since the university cannot be responsible for the theft of personal property.

Additional resources regarding public safety are available at the Web site maintained by the Department of Public Safety. Students may also contact Public Safety directly at (619) 849-2201.

Accreditation and Memberships

Point Loma Nazarene University is numbered among those institutions of higher education that meet or exceed the rigorous standards of accrediting associations and commissions. Point Loma Nazarene University is accredited by the WASC Senior College and University Commission (WSCUC), for which it periodically completes a self-study that addresses recognized standards and principles of excellence.

WSCUC may be contacted at 985 Atlantic Avenue, Suite 100, Alameda, CA 94501, or by telephone at (510) 748-9001.

State Authorization

State authorization is a formal determination by a state that Point Loma Nazarene University (PLNU) is approved to conduct activities regulated by that state. PLNU is not required to obtain state authorization in every state, and the University has opted at this time not to seek authorization in some states. Additionally, PLNU meets the criteria for an exemption from state authorization in certain states. In other states, PLNU is unable to offer distance education courses or internship/field experience opportunities. A current list of authorizations and exemptions is available on the institutional website.

State and Federal Policies

Notice of Non-Discrimination

In accordance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Point Loma Nazarene University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, age, or national origin. Furthermore, as required by Title IX of the 1972 Education Amendments, Point Loma Nazarene University does not discriminate on the basis of gender in its educational programs, activities, or employment policies. Point Loma Nazarene University also provides equal opportunity for qualified persons with handicaps in compliance with the requirements of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. The Director of the Academic Support Office provides advice and support to students with disabilities. Inquiries and appeals regarding compliance with these federal requirements may be directed to the Vice President for Student Development, Nicholson Commons, Office 303, (619) 849-2313.

Reservation of Rights

Point Loma Nazarene University reserves the right to make changes in the academic catalogs regarding personnel listings, tuition and fees, majors and minors, course offerings, course sequencing, and other provisions and requirements relative to academic programs, within the student's term of attendance.

Education Records (FERPA) and Directory Information

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 as amended affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. These include: 1) the right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days of the day the university receives a request for access, 2) the right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading, 3) the right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student's education records, and 4) the right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by Point Loma to comply with the requirements of FERPA.

FERPA has specifically identified certain information called directory information that may be disclosed without student consent. Although directory information may be disclosed without student consent, PLNU is not required to release directory information.

The university has defined directory information as name, address (including electronic mail), telephone number, date and place of birth, major field of study, dates of attendance, enrollment status, degrees, honors and awards received, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, degree candidacy, and the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended. This information may be provided, upon review by the Vice Provost for Academic Administration, as public information or to individuals who demonstrate a valid need to contact students.

Periodically, PLNU conducts formal and informal photo and video shoots (around the campus and at off-campus events and activities) for use in university publications, social media, promotional videos/commercials, and the PLNU Web site. Students who require that no identifiable image be used by the university must notify Marketing and Creative Services in writing prior to the second Monday of each semester. Students should email their request to photo-optout@pointloma.edu and include their full name and student ID number. In addition, PLNU may submit information about students' participation in school activities to media outlets. Students who require that their names be excluded from such stories must notify Marketing and Creative Services in writing prior to the second Monday of each semester.

The university may disclose education records to college officials with legitimate educational interests. A college official is a person employed by the university; a member of the Board of Trustees; or an individual serving on a committee, such as disciplinary or grievance committees. A college official has a legitimate educational interest if the information aids the official in fulfilling professional functions. PLNU also includes among college officials a student appointed to an official committee or assisting another official in performing tasks and outside service providers who perform an institutional service of function such as attorneys, auditors, and the National Student Clearinghouse. The university may also disclose education records to post-secondary institutions in which a student is seeking or intending to enroll, or is already attending if the disclosure is for purposes related to the student's enrollment or transfer.

Questions relative to FERPA policies should be referred to the Office of the Vice Provost for Academic Administration or may be referenced at FERPA.

Student Consumer Complaint Process

The U.S. Department of Education has amended the Higher Education Act (HEA) authorizing the "Program Integrity Rule." This amendment provides, among other things, regulations associated with the federal student financial aid program that require colleges or universities authorized to offer postsecondary education in one or more states to ensure access to a complaint process 34 CFR 668.43(b) that will permit student consumers to address the following:

1. Alleged violations of State consumer protection laws that include but are not limited to fraud and false advertising;
2. Alleged violations of State laws or rules relating to the licensure of postsecondary institutions; and
3. Complaints relating to the quality of education or other State or accreditation requirements.

To access a copy of PLNU's student complaint process, click here.

An individual may contact the Department of Consumer Affairs of the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education for review of a complaint. The Bureau may be contacted at 2535 Capitol Oaks Drive, Suite 400, Sacramento, CA , 95833, at their website: <http://www.bppe.ca.gov/enforcement/complaint>, via email at bppe@dca.ca.gov, or by phone or fax at (916) 431-6959 PH, (916) 263-1897 FAX.

Religious Expression

Founded in 1902, Point Loma Nazarene University (PLNU) is a Christian university committed to the liberal arts and professional preparation. A combination of challenging academics, deep spirituality, and service-centered action prepares students for living purpose-filled lives and integrating knowledge with beliefs, values, and actions.

Being of Wesleyan heritage, and affiliated with the Church of the Nazarene, we strive to be a learning community where grace is foundational, truth is pursued, and holiness is a way of life. We also strive to provide a learning and living environment that promotes safety, transparency, personal integrity, civility, mutual respect, and freedom from unlawful discrimination.

This integration of faith and learning is recognized by the United States and California Constitutions and many state and federal laws. For example, exemptions in Title IX(1) and the California Equity in Higher Education Act(2) recognize the right of religious educational institutions such as PLNU to incorporate religious beliefs into all aspects of university life and maintain faith-based standards of behavior to which all community members voluntarily agree to follow. A full statement of PLNU's mission and community expectations for faculty, staff and students can be found at:

Policy Statements

Notice of Non-Discrimination

In accordance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Point Loma Nazarene University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, age, or national origin. Furthermore, as required by Title IX of the 1972 Education Amendments, Point Loma Nazarene University does not discriminate on the basis of gender in its educational programs, activities, or employment policies. Point Loma Nazarene University also provides equal opportunity for qualified persons with handicaps in compliance with the requirements of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. The Director of the Academic Support Office provides advice and support to students with disabilities. Inquiries and appeals regarding compliance with these federal requirements may be directed to the Vice President for Student Development, Nicholson Commons, Office 303, (619) 849-2313.

Reservation of Rights

Point Loma Nazarene University reserves the right to make changes in the academic catalogs regarding personnel listings, tuition and fees, majors and minors, course offerings, course sequencing, and other provisions and requirements relative to academic programs, within the student's term of attendance.

Education Records (FERPA) and Directory Information

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 as amended affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. These include: 1) the right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days of the day the university receives a request for access, 2) the right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading, 3) the right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student's education records, and 4) the right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by Point Loma to comply with the requirements of FERPA.

The university has defined directory information as name, address (including electronic mail), telephone number, date and place of birth, major field of study, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, degree candidacy, and the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended. This information may be provided, upon review by the Vice Provost for Academic Administration, as public information or to individuals who demonstrate a valid need to contact students. Photographs of students may also be used in various university publications or on the university website. Students who prefer that their photograph not be used, must inform the Office of Marketing and Creative Services of their request prior to the second Monday of each semester.

The university may disclose education records to college officials with legitimate educational interests. A college official is a person employed by the university; a member of the Board of Trustees; or an individual serving on a committee, such as disciplinary or grievance committees. PLNU also includes among college officials a student appointed to an official committee or assisting another official in performing tasks. A college official has a legitimate educational interest if the information aids the official in fulfilling professional functions.

Questions relative to FERPA policies should be referred to the Office of the Vice Provost for Academic Administration or may be referenced at FERPA.

Student Consumer Complaint Process

The U.S. Department of Education has amended the Higher Education Act (HEA) authorizing the "Program Integrity Rule." This amendment provides, among other things, regulations associated with the federal student financial aid program that require colleges or universities authorized to offer postsecondary education in one or more states to ensure access to a complaint process 34 CFR 668.43(b) that will permit student consumers to address the following:

1. Alleged violations of State consumer protection laws that include but are not limited to fraud and false advertising;
2. Alleged violations of State laws or rules relating to the licensure of postsecondary institutions; and
3. Complaints relating to the quality of education or other State or accreditation requirements.

To access a copy of PLNU's student complaint process, click here.

An individual may contact the Department of Consumer Affairs of the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education for review of a complaint. The Bureau may be contacted at 2535 Capitol Oaks Drive, Suite 400, Sacramento, CA , 95833, at their website: <http://www.bppe.ca.gov/enforcement/complaint>, via email at bppe@dca.ca.gov, or by phone or fax at (916) 431-6959 PH, (916) 263-1897 FAX.

Official Catalog

As the on-line catalog is considered to be the official document relative to academic program offerings and charges, any print-outs of pages taken from the on-line version are, by definition, unofficial.

Admissions

University Admission Policies and Program Eligibility

Admission Policies

Admission to Point Loma Nazarene University graduate programs is selective and is determined by university standards. Applicants are evaluated on their individual scholarly potential to complete graduate-level course work and curriculum requirements. It is expected that each student has adequate academic preparation for the intended major area of study. Students apply for admission to the university and eligibility to a specific program through the Office of Graduate Admissions. Acceptance to the university for post-baccalaureate study does not mean eligibility for a specific degree or certificate program. Program eligibility is determined by the appropriate academic department or school.

Program Eligibility Policies

Program eligibility is decided by the more specialized program standards within each academic department or school. Specific programs may require a national entrance examination and the meeting of other eligibility standards. Each student must satisfy all eligibility requirements for the specific program of interest and have an approved program of study filed with the Office of Records as part of the program eligibility process.

Graduate Program Eligibility Guidelines

Students should refer to the department or school website or in subsequent pages of this catalog for the specific program requirements for eligibility to the program for which the student is applying. Being admitted to the university does not guarantee acceptance into a specific graduate program.

Policy Regarding False Information

A student's acceptance to Point Loma Nazarene University post-baccalaureate program is contingent upon the truthfulness of the information contained in the application materials. Discovery of false information prior or subsequent to admission is grounds for immediate dismissal. Such dismissal results in the forfeiture of all charges, tuition, and fees paid as well as all academic credits earned. If the student is enrolled and attending courses at the time of dismissal, the resulting grade for those courses will be recorded as a grade of WF (withdrawal while failing).

Change of Program

If a graduate student wishes to change programs within the academic department/school, the student must file a change of program form with the Office of Records before course work may begin in the new program. Students who fail to file the form risk not receiving financial aid or credit for work done toward program completion. Students must meet all program eligibility requirements for the specific program of interest and have an approved program of study filed with the Office of Records. If a graduate student decides to change academic departments/schools within the university, the student must submit a new application for program eligibility to that specific academic department or school.

Re-Application for Admission

Students who decide to enroll in a different academic department or school of the university, progress from post-baccalaureate credential to graduate program, or begin a second graduate degree program must submit a new application online to the Office of Graduate Admissions as well as the academic department or school and meet all program eligibility requirements. Students who have been administratively withdrawn from the university must submit a new application online and new application fee to the Office of Graduate Admissions, regardless of their intentions. Students who have previously applied to the university and have not yet been accepted to the university or the academic department or school for which they applied may request a reactivation of their application, if within three years of the initial date of filing.

Graduate Student Services

Graduate student support services are comprised of the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies Admissions, the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies Student Financial Services, Graduate and Professional Studies Center for Student Success, the Office of Records, Information Technology Services, Ryan Library, and Common Knowledge Bookstore. These support services are available to graduate students through the respective branch campuses and online.

Computer and Internet Acceptable Use Policy (AUP)

Point Loma Nazarene University encourages the use of technology for learning, communication, and collaboration. It is the responsibility of students who utilize university resources to do so in a responsible, legal, and ethical manner. Users must respect the rights and privacy of others and act in compliance with all university policies as well as federal, state, and local laws.

PLNU reserves the right to restrict the use of its computer facilities and to limit access to its networks when faced with evidence of violations of policies or standards, of contractual obligations, or of federal, state, or local laws. The university has the right to remove or limit access to materials posted on or transmitted by its computers. By connecting to the campus network, the user agrees to the terms and conditions of the Acceptable Use Policy. Actions deemed detrimental or inappropriate when accessing university and Internet resources may be viewed by clicking Acceptable Use Policy.

Graduate Admission to the University

Application Guidelines

Before a student is considered for admission to the university for a post-baccalaureate program, the student must have on file with the Office of Graduate Admissions the following documents:

1. Application: a completed Graduate Application for admission (application to be completed online);
2. Letters of Recommendation: two or more letters of recommendation with at least one from a professional supervisor and at least one from an academic reference with direct knowledge of the applicant's ability to succeed in graduate education. In the case where a professional reference is not available, an additional academic reference is appropriate. In the situation where a recent academic reference is not available, an additional professional reference is appropriate;
3. Fee: the application fee currently in effect (students seeking admission to programs in the School of Theology and Christian Ministry may request a waiver of the application fee based on financial need);and
4. Transcripts: official transcripts showing completion of a baccalaureate and, if applicable, a higher-level degree from an institution that is accredited by a regional accrediting association with a cumulative grade-point average of 3.00 or higher (with the exception of the Master of Ministry requiring a cumulative grade-point average of 2.75 or higher).

Application Priority Dates

Point Loma Nazarene University accepts students for admission in fall, spring, and summer semesters. Applications received 30 days prior to the start of the semester are given priority consideration. Application priority dates can be found on the Graduate Admissions website at www.pointloma.edu/gradapp.

Individual academic departments and schools evaluate whether or not the student applicant meets the eligibility requirements and notifies the Office of Graduate Admissions regarding the program eligibility decision. The Office of Graduate Admissions will, in turn, notify the student applicant. Program eligibility is dependent on the student's acceptance to the university.

Admission Application Fee

An application fee (see Tuition and Fees) must accompany each post-baccalaureate application. The fee is non-refundable. Applicants to the School of Theology and Christian Ministry may request a waiver of this fee based on financial need.

Tuition Deposit

All applicants who are officially admitted to a graduate program must submit a $100, non-refundable tuition deposit to confirm their intent to attend. The tuition deposit is applied to the first semester of enrollment.

Provisional Admission

Candidates may be admitted officially to the university upon receipt of all materials (see above). However, candidates may be allowed to begin classes with provisional status if they have not submitted an official transcript but have filed an unofficial copy (showing completion of a baccalaureate and, if applicable, a higher-level degree) and a receipt showing that official transcripts have been requested. Financial aid will not be available to provisionally admitted students until they have been admitted formally to the university and have been removed from provisional admission status. After the first semester of provisional status, subsequent registration is suspended until full admission status is confirmed.

Admission under Exception

Applicants who do not meet the minimum standards for admission, but who can demonstrate an exceptionally rich experiential background and/or have shown a dramatic change in academic performance, may petition the academic department or school for a special review of their status. The academic department or school reviews the petition along with the student's application package and determines the merits and appropriateness of the request.

In order to apply for admission under exception, the applicant must also provide a statement outlining the applicant's reasons and justification for requesting an exception to admission policies with supporting documentation. The applicant is also required to schedule an interview with a Point Loma Nazarene University academic advisor from the school to which the applicant is applying.

Following the interview, the academic advisor submits a summary of the applicant's interview and petition package to the department chair or dean of the school. Students admitted under the Exceptions Policy with a GPA less than 2.750 will be admitted with conditions and must achieve a grade point average of 3.000 or better in their first semester (or first 6 units). The Graduate and Extended Studies Committee or designee is the final authority for admission under exception policy.

There is no exceptions policy for the Doctor of Nursing Practice program.

Graduate Standing and Appeals

- Graduate Special Standing. This status is assigned to students who are not pursuing a degree or credential program. A maximum of six units of appropriate course work taken as a special standing may be used in a graduate program. Graduate students in special standing are not eligible for financial aid. Contact the Office of Graduate Admissions for assistance with the Graduate Special Standing process and a Graduate Special Application for Admission.
- Graduate Regular Standing. This status is granted to a student who has met all admission requirements. Applicants are notified of their status in their first semester of enrollment.
- Appeals. Any appeals must be made by the candidate through the program director and school dean to the Associate Vice President for Admissions.

International Student Admission

PLNU is approved by the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) to admit non-resident students under an F-1 Visa for the purpose of pursuing a graduate degree on a full-time basis. Full-time enrollment is defined as six units per semester. An F-1 student is a non-immigrant who is pursuing a "full-time course of study" toward a specific educational or professional objective at an academic institution in the United States designated by the DHS. Once the educational or professional objective has been attained, the F-1 student is expected by the U.S. government to return to her/his residence abroad. An I-20 (Certificate of Eligibility) for a non-immigrant student is issued by the university after the student has submitted all required admission materials and has a confirmation of admission to PLNU.

Required Documentation for International Student Admission

The following documentation is required for admission of international students:

1. Application: a completed application for admission;
2. Letters of Recommendation: two or more letters of recommendation, as required by the appropriate program to which the student is applying;
3. Fee: the application fee currently in effect (students seeking admission to programs in the School of Theology and Christian Ministry may request a waiver of the application fee based on financial need);
4. Transcripts: official transcripts showing completion of a baccalaureate and, if applicable, a higher-level degree from an approved institution (NOTE: transcripts of academic work outside the United States must be evaluated by an approved credentialing service agency);
5. Affidavit of Support: as required for all international students by the U.S. government, an original copy of financial certification no older than six months that shows adequate funds for the program of study (NOTE: though required only for the first year of attendance, the applicant should indicate how the remaining years during program completion will be financed); and
6. Proof of Language Proficiency: The university requires a score of 216 (computer-based) or 550 (paper-based) on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) examination or a score of 80 on the TOEFL IBT. (NOTE: PLNU's college code is 4605; international students who receive a bachelor's degree from a U.S.-approved post-secondary institution where English is the principal language of instruction may receive a waiver of the TOEFL).

International students are encouraged to contact the Director of International Student Services at the university for more information at (619) 849-2524 or may contact that office by email at internationalstudentsdirector@pointloma.edu.

Financing a PLNU Education

Payment Information

Billing Process

A Statement of Account, which contains the class schedule as well as the semester charges and financial aid, is posted to the student portal of all registered students prior to the beginning of each semester. An email is sent to the student's PLNU Gmail account with a link to a statement that has been generated. The Statement of Account serves as the invoice from which payment should be made. In addition, monthly statements are generated electronically on the student portal for students who continue to have an owing balance, and an e-mail reminder is sent to the student (and/or to another individual specified by the student) directing the student to view the statement online.

Payment Options

Payments can be paid in cash, check, money order, cashier check, or electronic check. Credit cards and debit cards are not accepted. Electronic check payments can be made at my.pointloma.edu. All other payments should be made at/sent to: 3900 Lomaland Drive, San Diego, CA 92106.

- Payment in Full. Payment of total charges for the enrolled session is due by the end of the second week of classes. The actual date will be specified on the student's monthly bill.

- Multiple Payments. Payment of total charges for a semester may be divided into two or three equal payments. All charges must be paid before the end of the applicable term and accounts may be placed on hold until the final payment is received. Students interested in this option must enroll in PLNU's Tuition Installment Plan (TIP) through the student portal by the semester's payment due date. This option is subject to a $30 (for three-pay) or $20 (for two-pay) non-refundable enrollment fee and is unavailable after the term's payment due date.
- Financial Aid. Students desiring to use scholarships, grants, and/or loans to pay their charges must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at www.fafsa.gov. Students must notify the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies Student Financial Services if they expect to receive scholarships or grants from outside agencies, including employer reimbursement. Students who do not complete the financial aid application process by the payment deadlines will be subject to late fees and required to pay their balances in full.

Late Fees

Students who do not settle their bills by the above mentioned methods will be charged a late fee of 5% of their owing balance. The late fee will be charged at the end of the last business day of the second week of classes. The university reserves the right to remove students from classes for non-payment. Students paying their bills with financial aid must have completed a FAFSA and any other required documents and be packaged with financial aid in order to avoid a late fee. Any part of the bill that is not covered by 'Pending Aid' will be subject to late fees. Students enrolled in PLNU's Tuition Installment Plan (TIP) by the semester due date are not charged late fees unless the payment contract is canceled, past due, or does not cover the full balance. Delinquent or returned payments will incur a $25 late or returned check fee.

Holds

A financial hold will be placed on all accounts with an owing balance and will not be released until the student has settled the account. A financial hold will prevent class registration, transcript and/or diploma release, and participation in the commencement ceremony.

Tuition Refund Policy

Students may receive a full or partial refund for any dropped course provided that: 1) the course is dropped within the parameters of the refund schedule 2) the course is dropped via online registration, email, or a signed Change of Schedule form is turned into the appropriate campus location by the close of the business week for which the student wishes to receive a tuition refund (Friday at 4:30 pm, exempting holidays). Dropping courses may change a student's financial aid eligibility. Students should check with a Graduate and Professional Studies Student Financial Services Advisor before making any changes to their schedule.

For refund and financial aid purposes, the last day of attendance will be defined for face to face classes as the last date of physical attendance in class and for online classes as the last day the student made an online contribution beyond logging in (responded to an online question, posted an assignment or otherwise actively participated).

Refund Schedule

	100% Refund	75% Refund	50% Refund	25% Refund	NO REFUND
COURSE DROPPED WITHIN:

Other	Refund is based upon the percentage of class time elapsed in proportional configurations manner to the semester and quad schedules.

Thesis Extension Fee

If a thesis or applied project is required for a degree program, students are expected to complete a thesis or applied project in a timely manner. When additional time for completion is required by the student, an extension fee is charged to the student's account. The fee allows students to remain in the university system for library resources privileges, access to the computer system, and other support services. The fee is charged each semester until a grade for the thesis or applied project is recorded in the Office of Records. While the fee generates an account charge to students, no additional units are applied to the transcript. The extension fee is automatically charged to the student account, requiring no formal registration by students.

If a student withdraws from the academic program prior to completing the thesis or applied project, the course will be graded NC (No Credit) or F. Students who are readmitted into their program will be required to file a petition with the academic department chair or school dean to register for the balance of units in the required thesis or applied project. If a balance exists in the student's account, the payment of regular tuition and fees will be required prior to being readmitted.

Graduation Fee

A non-refundable graduation fee is charged to all students during the final semester during which they are candidates for a degree. The fee supports the costs associated with graduation, especially the activities around Commencement convocation. The fee is assessed once per degree, even if the student does not plan to participate in graduation exercises.

ePortfolio Technology Fee

Point Loma Nazarene University has adopted a web-based tool, LiveText ePortfolio, to provide students a place to create and store an online ePortfolio. The use of this technology also allows the university to collect student work and assess academic programs. Students are being assessed a non-refundable LiveText ePortfolio technology fee. A one-time fee of $120 will be charged to each MBA, MSN, and MS Biology student associated with a specific course toward the beginning of the student's program.

FERPA

Students are responsible for handling all financial matters related to their attendance at the university. FERPA, the federal "Privacy Act," prohibits sending statements to or discussing financial matters with a spouse or parent of students 18 years of age or older without written permission of the student. To read more about FERPA, click here . Students may grant another individual permission through their student portal in the Information Releases section under the Profile Update header.

Financial Aid at PLNU

The financial assistance program at Point Loma Nazarene University consists primarily of Federal Direct loans, but also includes a limited number of federal, state, and institutional grants, and external scholarships and grants awarded by corporations and civic organizations. Financial assistance is intended to recognize and assist students who otherwise would be unable to attend the university.

The university recognizes that the primary responsibility for paying expenses rests with the student (and spouse, if married) and parents (of federally-determined dependent students) who are expected to contribute in proportion to their resources. Any financial assistance awarded by the university is intended to help bridge the gap between the student's expected family contribution and the cost of attending PLNU.

Some forms of financial assistance are awarded to students based on need. A student's financial need is determined by completion of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Various federal and state regulations, institutional policies, and funding-level limitations may affect the types and amounts of financial assistance that a student may receive from year to year. Additionally, changes in information, enrollment, or circumstances may cause financial assistance awards to be reduced, increased, or eliminated subsequent to the initial determination of these awards. The reduction or elimination of awards may cause a student to owe a balance to the university.

Applying for Aid at PLNU

To receive any type of federal or state aid at PLNU, the student must complete the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) or renewal FAFSA each academic year of enrollment. The information on the FAFSA is transmitted to the schools listed by the student on the application. PLNU's school code for this purpose is 001262. The FAFSA application can be submitted online at www.fafsa.gov. Financial Aid may be renewed each academic year, provided students remain financially and academically eligible (Review Graduate Satisfactory Academic Progress policy here and the Adult Degree Completion Satisfactory Academic Progress here). An award letter is issued to students after they have been fully accepted into an eligible program at PLNU and have completed a FAFSA application. In order for aid to disburse to the student's account, it must be accepted online through PLNU's student portal at my.pointloma.edu. Many loans begin accruing interest at the time of disbursement or shortly thereafter; we recommend that students carefully consider their needs and accept the least amount of loans necessary to cover educational expenses.

Financial Need

Financial Need is defined as the difference between the student's Cost of Attendance (COA) for the academic year and the "Expected Family Contribution" (EFC) as determined by completion of the FAFSA.

The Cost of Attendance is determined by the university and is based on an estimation of reasonable expenses incurred by the majority of students, including tuition, fees, room and board, books and supplies, transportation, and miscellaneous costs. (See Table below for information on the calculation of COA).

The Expected Family Contribution (EFC) is a statistical figure based on a federally mandated formula using the financial information provided on the FAFSA by the student (and parents or spouse, if applicable) that represents the student's ability to contribute to the cost of the education.

Cost of Attendance Calculation:

Fees	May include estimated or actual Assessment and Student Teaching fees.
Tuition	Set at assumed enrollment status amounts unless otherwise requested. Graduate students are generally assumed to be enrolled full time (in six units per semester), except for Master of Ministry and Master of Biology students who are generally assumed to be enrolled half time

	(in three units per semester). Teaching Credential students are generally assumed to be enrolled half time (in six units per semester). Adult Degree Completion students are generally assumed to be enrolled full time (in twelve units per semester). Tuition budget may be adjusted based on actual enrollment status upon request.
Room & Board (Average Grocery, Rent)	Determined by CSAC's Student Expense Budget for California. May be adjusted based on length of enrollment (single quad/full semester).
Books & Supplies (Books, Educational Supplies, Course Fees, Computer Expenses)	Determined by CSAC's Student Expense Budget for California. May be adjusted based on enrollment status (full time, 3/4 time, half time).
Miscellaneous (Health and Miscellaneous)	"Other expenses" category determined by CSAC's Student Expense Budget for California. May be adjusted based on length of enrollment (single quad/full semester).
Transportation	Cost of transportation to and from classes. Determined by CSAC's Student Expense Budget for California. May be adjusted based on enrollment status (full time, 3/4 time, half time).
Loan Fees	Estimated cost.

Appeals for Special Circumstances

Federal regulations provide the Graduate and Professional Studies Student Financial Services office with discretionary authority to make case-by-case adjustments to student FAFSA data in cases of special circumstances. Special circumstances include:

- Documentable significant reductions to income (Loss of job, reduction of work hours, marital separation, etc.)
- Unusually high medical or dental expenses (only uninsured amounts not included on tax return)
- A parent attending college (for Dependent students only)
- Dependency status appeals (for Dependent students only)

If a student believes there are special circumstances that should be reviewed, the student must submit an Appeal Form for Special Circumstances (available at the Graduate and Professional Studies Student Financial Services office at the Mission Valley campus or online with supporting documentation. After initial review of the appeal, additional documentation may be required. Students will be notified of the result of the appeal via email.

Financial Aid Programs

Need-Based Federal Grant Programs

PELL Grant

The Pell Grant is awarded to undergraduate students with a qualifying Expected Family Contribution (EFC) as determined by the FAFSA. Pell Grant is gift aid and does not have to be repaid. It can be used to help pay university charges (tuition and fees, on-campus room and board) or living expenses. The maximum award for the 2018-2019 Academic Year (AY) is $6,095. Graduate students, teaching credential students and students pursuing a second Bachelor degree are not eligible for the Federal Pell Grant.

Students may be eligible for other forms of federal need-based aid. Additional information may be obtained from the Graduate and Professional Studies Student Financial Services office.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (SEOG)

SEOG is a form of "campus-based" federal gift aid that is awarded to Pell Grant recipients who have a qualifying Expected Family Contribution (EFC). Since SEOG funding is extremely limited, not all students who qualify receive an award. The maximum SEOG Grant for the 2018-2019 Academic Year (AY) for Adult Degree Completion students is $260; however, final award decisions are subject to the final campus-based fund allocation awarded to PLNU. Students who have an EFC of $0 and are not full Cal Grant recipients will be considered as a priority group for funding.

Need-Based State Aid

For details about any California state fund programs, students may visit the California Student Aid Commission (CSAC) website at www.csac.ca.gov.

Cal Grant for Adult Degree Completion Students

Cal Grant is a program of the California Student Aid Commission (CSAC). Students may receive a Cal Grant for a maximum of four academic years (eight semesters) of undergraduate study. In addition, teacher credential students who received Cal Grant as undergraduates may be eligible for a two-semester extension of their benefits. Students must meet income and asset ceiling and family size limits. Award amounts are determined annually by the passing of a final State of California budget; all Cal Grant awards listed on an award letter are to be considered "estimated" until the final budget is passed into law by the California legislature.

CSAC notifies new Cal Grant recipients whether they have been awarded an Entitlement or Competitive Cal Grant. Before a Cal Grant award can be added to a student's Financial Aid Award Letter, the Graduate and Professional Studies Student Financial Services office must review the data provided by the student and parents on the FAFSA to make sure that the student is financially eligible.

Cal Grant A is for students from low to middle income families. It is restricted to paying tuition and mandatory fee charges only. The award amount of the Cal Grant is determined upon approval of a final State of California budget.

Cal Grant B is for students with exceptionally high need (based on the FAFSA). During the first year of the award, Cal Grant B pays an Access Grant. PLNU credits these funds directly to the student's account to help pay down semester charges. However, the student has the option of receiving Access Grant funds as a check each semester by submitting the 2018-2019 Cal Grant B Access Funds Form to the Graduate and Professional Studies Student Financial Services office before the end of each semester Add Period. After that date, the semester Access Grant is credited to the student's account. During the second and subsequent years, Cal Grant B includes a tuition and fee-paying component in addition to Access. The award amount of the Cal Grant and Access Grant is determined upon approval of a final State of California budget.

Application Process for New Cal Grants for Adult Degree Completion Students

Students must have submitted a 2018-2019 FAFSA (www.fafsa.ed.gov) by March 2, 2018, and a verified grade-point average (GPA) to the California Student Aid Commission (CSAC) by the same date. High school seniors must request that their high school provide this information to CSAC electronically. Current PLNU students who are California residents and who have completed 24 or more college units should request that the PLNU Office of Records submit their GPA to CSAC.

Transfer Entitlement Cal Grants for Adult Degree Completion Students

Students who graduated from high school after June 30, 2000, attended a California community college, and then transferred to PLNU may be eligible for a Cal Grant Transfer Entitlement award (also known as the California Community College Transfer Entitlement award). This award is either a Cal Grant A or B. To qualify, you must have at least a 2.4 community college GPA, meet the Cal Grant financial and eligibility requirements, be under 28 years of age as of December 31 of the award year and apply by March 2. You must transfer from a California Community College to PLNU in the award year for which the award is offered. Students must complete a G-6 self-certification form by logging into WebGrants at: www.webgrants4students.org.

For details about requirements for the 2018-2019 Cal Grant, students may visit the California Student Aid Commission (CSAC) website at www.csac.ca.gov.

Renewal Cal Grants for Adult Degree Completion Students

All Cal Grant recipients must meet income and asset ceiling and family size limits established annually by the California Student Aid Commission (CSAC) in order to have their Cal Grant renewed for the 2018-2019 Academic Year. Students may renew a Cal Grant award for up to four academic years (eight semesters), including semesters students received the grant at other schools. Submission of a verified GPA is not required to renew a Cal Grant. Students who received a Cal Grant at another institution must complete Form G-10 (Grant Record Change Form for Students), contact CSAC at 1-888-224-7268, or update their institution on WebGrants for Students at www.webgrants4students.org.

Cal Grant and the California Dream Act for Adult Degree Completion Students

The California Dream Act of 2011 allows students without lawful immigration status but who meet certain requirements to apply for and receive state financial aid at California private colleges. The award amount of the Dream Act Cal Grant is determined upon approval of a final State of California budget.

For details about applying for a Cal Grant under the Dream Act, visit the California Student Aid Commission (CSAC) website at www.csac.ca.gov.

Cal Grant Teaching Credential Program (TCP)

Cal Grant A or B recipients who meet the following requirements should contact the California Student Aid Commission (CSAC) for information and application materials or visit CSAC at: www.csac.ca.gov:

1. Have received a bachelor's degree;
2. Are accepted to and have enrolled in a professional teaching preparation program (Master of Arts in Teaching - MAT or Teaching Credential program) at PLNU within 15 months of the end of the semester for which the recipient last received a Cal Grant payment;
3. Have not received or submitted an application for a Preliminary Teaching Credential;
4. Do not currently possess any other initial teaching credential;
5. Continue to maintain financial need for a Cal Grant and meet income and asset ceiling and family size limits.

To be eligible for the Cal TCP Program, students must be enrolled at least half time. Students enrolled less than full time will have their Cal Grant awards pro-rated. The tuition and fees component of the Cal Grant cannot pay more than the student's tuition and fee charges for the semester.

Students interested in applying for the Cal Grant TCP must submit a G-44 form to CSAC, and the Commission must approve the application prior to PLNU awarding the Cal Grant.

Need Based Federal Loan Programs

Subsidized Direct Loans

The Federal Subsidized Direct loan is a low-interest student loan borrowed directly from the U.S. government designed to help students pay for college. The Subsidized Federal Direct Loan is available for Adult Degree Completion and Teaching Credential students as long as the student has not met the Undergraduate Subsidized Loan aggregate limits. It requires financial need as determined by the FAFSA and is not based on creditworthiness. The student is not responsible for paying interest that accrues while the student is enrolled at least half-time (6 units for Adult Degree Completion and Teaching Credential students). Direct Loan interest rates and origination fees are published annually by the Department of Education. The interest rates become effective on July 1st of each year and the origination fees become effective on October 1st of each year. Understanding the importance of repaying any federal student loan taken while in school is critical. Sample loan repayment schedules are available for students at <https://studentloans.gov>. For more information on the Federal Student Loan programs and interest rates, please click here. The determination of an academic year may vary by program. Graduate students are not eligible for Subsidized Direct Loans.

Students are required to complete Federal Direct Loan Entrance Counseling and a Loan Agreement or Master Promissory Note (MPN) before any Federal Direct Loan funds are released. Entrance Counseling is a mandatory federal requirement to advise student borrowers of their rights and responsibilities in receiving a student loan. Loan amounts are generally released in one disbursement for each semester attended. Students may accept all or a portion of their Federal Direct loan eligibility. We recommend that students carefully consider their expenses and other financial resources before determining the amount of loan to accept. Entrance Counseling and completion of a Loan Agreement (Master Promissory Note) may be completed online through the Federal Direct Loan website at <https://studentloans.gov> and more information can be found at the Graduate and Professional Student Services section of the Point Loma Nazarene University website at www.pointloma.edu/gradsfs.

When a student graduates, withdraws from the university, takes an approved leave of absence, or drops below half-time status (registered for less than three units in a semester for a graduate student or less than six units in a semester for Adult Degree Completion and Teaching Credential students), Federal Direct Loan Exit Counseling is required. This is a mandatory federal requirement for all students who have received a Federal Direct Loan. Exit Counseling may be completed online through the Federal Direct Loan website at <https://studentloans.gov>. Additional information may be obtained from the Graduate and Professional Studies Student Financial Services office.

Repayment begins six months after the student graduates, withdraws, or drops below half-time status (i.e. less than three units for graduate students or less than six units for Adult Degree Completion and Teaching Credential students).

Yearly amounts:

Adult Degree Completion Freshmen (0-24 units)	$3,500
Adult Degree Completion Sophomore (25-56 units)	$4,500
Adult Degree Completion Junior and Senior (57+ units)	$5,500
Teaching Credential	$5,500
Graduate Students	$0 (not eligible for Subsidized Loans)

Federal Work-Study

The Federal Work-Study (FWS) program is awarded to eligible students, on a request-basis. It is only guaranteed if the student acquires on-campus employment. Students eligible for Federal Work-Study awards are not guaranteed employment. If awarded Federal Work-Study, the student should contact the Student Employment Office to secure employment at (619) 849-2633 or online at www.pointloma.edu/work. FWS is disbursed in the form of bi-weekly paychecks from the cashier's office in Draper Hall or by direct deposit.

Non-Need Based Federal Loan Programs

Unsubsidized Federal Direct Loan

The Unsubsidized Federal Direct Loan is a low-interest student loan borrowed directly from the U.S. government designed to help students pay for college. The Unsubsidized Federal Direct Loan does not require financial need and is not based on creditworthiness. The borrower is responsible for paying all the interest that accrues, from disbursement until the loan is fully repaid. Direct Loan interest rates and origination fees are published by the Department of Education. The interest rates become effective on July 1st of each year and the origination fees become effective on October 1st of each year. Understanding the importance of repaying any federal student loan taken while in school is critical. Sample loan repayment schedules are available for students at <https://studentloans.gov>. For more information on the Federal Student Loan programs and interest rates, please click here. The determination of an academic year may vary by program.

Students are required to complete Federal Direct Loan Entrance Counseling and a Loan Agreement or Master Promissory Note (MPN) before any Federal Direct Loan funds are released. Entrance Counseling is a mandatory federal requirement to advise student borrowers of their rights and responsibilities in receiving a student loan. Loan amounts are generally released in one disbursement for each semester attended. Students may accept all or a portion of their Federal Direct loan eligibility. We recommend that students carefully consider their expenses and other financial resources before determining the amount of loan to accept. Entrance Counseling and completion of the Loan Agreement (Master Promissory Note) may be completed online through the Federal Direct Loan website at <https://studentloans.gov> and more information can be found at the Graduate and Professional Studies Student Financial Services section of the Point Loma Nazarene University website at www.pointloma.edu/gradsfs.

When a student graduates, withdraws from the university, takes an approved leave of absence, or drops below half-time status (registered for less than three units for a graduate student or less than six units for a Teaching Credential or Adult Degree Completion student in a semester), Federal Direct Loan Exit Counseling is required. This is a mandatory federal requirement for all students who have received a Federal Direct Loan. Exit Counseling may be completed online through the Federal Direct Loan website at <https://studentloans.gov>. Additional information may be obtained from the Graduate and Professional Studies Student Financial Services office.

Repayment begins six months after the student graduates, withdraws, or drops below half-time status (i.e. less than six units in a semester for Adult Degree Completion and Teaching Credential students or less than three units in a semester for Graduate students).

Graduate or Professional Students Annual Loan Limit	Not Applicable (all graduate and professional students are considered independent)	$20,500 (unsubsidized only)
Subsidized and Unsubsidized Aggregate Loan Limit	$31,000-No more than $23,000 of this amount may be in subsidized loans.	$57,500 for undergraduates-No more than $23,000 of this amount may be in subsidized loans. $138,500 for graduate or professional students-No more than $65,500 of this amount may be in subsidized loans. The graduate aggregate limit includes all federal loans received for undergraduate study.

Federal Direct Parent Loan for Dependent Students (PLUS)

The Direct Parent PLUS Loan is a credit-based loan available to parents of dependent undergraduate Adult Degree Completion and Teaching Credential students who file a 2018-2019 FAFSA. Although the loan is not based on need, the FAFSA must be completed. The PLUS Loan annual borrowing limit is equal to the student's cost of education minus any other financial aid awarded. We recommend that students and parents carefully consider their expenses and other financial resources before determining the amount of loan to accept. Direct Parent PLUS Loan interest rates and origination fees are published by the Department of Education. The interest rates become effective on July 1st of each year and the origination fees become effective on October 1st of each year. Repayment begins 60 days after the loan is fully disbursed or borrowers may request a deferment or forbearance of repayment until their student leaves the university. The application and Loan Agreement (Master Promissory Note) may be completed online at <https://studentloans.gov>. Normally, PLUS Loan amounts are released in one disbursement for each semester attended. If the parent wishes to have the entire loan disbursed in a single semester, the parent must specify this on the online PLUS loan application. Loan origination fees will be charged in accordance with federal regulation from any Federal Parent PLUS Loan funds disbursed to the student account. For additional information, please visit the Graduate and Professional Studies Student Financial Services section of Point Loma Nazarene University's website at www.pointloma.edu/gradsfs.

Federal Direct Graduate PLUS Loan

The Federal Direct Graduate PLUS Loan is a credit-based loan for which graduate students only may apply. The Direct Graduate PLUS Loan is intended for graduate students whose educational costs exceed their Unsubsidized Federal Direct Loan eligibility. Although the loan is not based on need, the FAFSA must be completed. For more information on the Federal Student Loan programs and interest rates, please click here. Repayment begins 60 days after the final loan disbursement is made for the academic year. Students can begin the application process online at <https://studentloans.gov>.

Students are required to complete the Federal Direct Graduate PLUS Loan Application, Loan Agreement (Master Promissory Note) and Entrance Counseling before any Federal Direct Graduate PLUS Loan funds are released. Entrance Counseling is a mandatory federal requirement to advise student borrowers of their rights and responsibilities in receiving a student loan. Loan amounts are generally released in one disbursement for each semester attended. Students may accept all or a portion of their maximum Direct Graduate PLUS Loan eligibility, which is limited by the Cost of Attendance and the amount of other aid awarded. We recommend that students carefully consider their expenses and other financial resources before determining the amount of loan to accept. The application, entrance counseling, and completion of the Loan Agreement (Master Promissory Note) may be completed online through the Federal Direct Loan website at <https://studentloans.gov> or by visiting the Graduate and Professional Studies Student Financial Services section of Point Loma Nazarene University's website at www.pointloma.edu/gradsfs.

Federal Nursing Student Loan

The Nursing Loan is a low-interest federal loan for Adult Degree Completion students enrolled in the RN to BSN program who demonstrate exceptional financial need. The interest rate is fixed at 5.00% for the life of the loan and begins accruing nine months after graduation, withdrawal, or dropping to less than half-time status (i.e., less than six units for Adult Degree Completion students). Repayment also begins at that time. Students have up to ten years to repay the loan. Payments are made through PLNU's loan servicer, ECSI. Students awarded a Nursing Loan must complete Entrance Counseling and sign a Promissory Note each semester before funds can be credited to their student account. Because of limited funding, there is no guarantee that a student will continue to receive Nursing Loan funding in subsequent years. Students must complete a 2018-2019 FAFSA to determine eligibility.

Federal Nursing Faculty Loan

The Federal Nursing Faculty Loan is a low-interest federal loan for graduate Nursing students only who intend to become full-time Nursing faculty. When meeting the Nursing faculty requirements, the interest rate is fixed at 3% for the life of the loan and begins accruing interest three months after graduation, withdrawal, or dropping to below half-time status. Loans may be forgiven up to 85% when the commitment to full-time Nursing faculty is completed. Otherwise, repayment begins nine months after graduation, withdrawal, or dropping to below half-time status, if not employed full-time as a Nursing faculty member. (Employment verification forms must be submitted to the PLNU Nursing department in order to postpone repayment and receive forgiveness.) Students have up to 10 years to repay the loan. Payments are made through PLNU's loan servicer, ECSI. Students awarded a Nursing Faculty Loan must sign a Promissory Note and complete online Entrance Counseling before funds can be credited to the student's account. Because of limited funding and Nursing faculty requirements, the Nursing Faculty Loan is managed through the School of Nursing.

Other Federal Aid

Federal TEACH Grant- Graduate students and Teaching Credential students only

The TEACH Grant program provides funds to students who are completing coursework needed for a career in teaching and agree to teach, for at least four complete academic years, in a high-need field (see this Federal List) at an elementary/secondary school, or educational service agency that serves students from low-income families (see this Federal List).

The amount of TEACH grant available is subject to current federal regulations. Interested students may contact the Graduate and Professional Studies Student Financial Services office.

In order to receive the TEACH grant, students must meet all of the following criteria:

- Must have and maintain at least a 3.25 cumulative GPA (New students qualify through their Bachelor Degree or previous Masters degree) in an eligible post-baccalaureate program.
- Must complete the FAFSA.
- Must sign an annual Agreement to Serve, promising to teach in a high-need field at an elementary school, secondary school, or educational service agency that serves students from low-income families for at least four complete academic years after completing (or ceasing enrollment in) the course of study for which the student received the grant.
- Must complete annual Entrance Counseling, which informs the student of their rights and responsibilities.
- Enrollment must fall within the TEACH Grant Authorized Course List, since the TEACH Grant is designed for specific programs leading to highly qualified teachers.

IMPORTANT: If a student does not complete their service obligation, all TEACH Grant funds received will be converted to a Direct Unsubsidized Loan. The student must then repay this loan to the U.S. Department of Education, with interest charged from the date the TEACH Grant was disbursed.

Learn more here on the Department of Education's Website.

Other Non-Need Based Loan Programs

Private Loans

Private Loans are offered by various lenders who set their own criteria on credit and interest rates. Interest rates may be higher than the Federal Direct Loan and Grad PLUS Loan. Interest rates are based on PRIME or LIBOR plus a percentage tier that may range from 0% to 12% depending on the borrower's credit and, if required, co-signer's credit. Students should research different lenders since the criteria, interest rates, and repayment incentives on a Private Loan will vary.

Department/School Awards

Each year, various academic departments and schools award a limited number of scholarships to selected students. Students should contact their academic department or school for applications and deadlines.

Financial Aid from Outside Agencies

Various organizations, such as businesses, community groups, churches, etc. administer scholarships based on merit, community service, organizational affiliation, academic performance, or educational objective. Some of these awards require financial need. It is the student's responsibility to research outside scholarship opportunities. The PLNU website includes a link to an outside scholarship resource, and many other scholarship searches are available online (such as collegeboard.org, fastweb.com, petersons.com). Once awarded, it is the student's responsibility to contact the outside agency sponsoring the scholarship award and request that it send the scholarship check to PLNU. Outside scholarship awards are generally divided evenly over both the fall and spring semesters, unless the scholarship donor specifically states otherwise. Even if the scholarship donor sends the funds directly to the student, the award must still be treated as a resource, which means that other aid in the student's package may need to be reduced or canceled to prevent the student from being funded in excess of campus charges, financial need, and/or cost of attendance.

ROTC and Vocational Rehabilitation

Both Reserve Officers Training Corps (ROTC) and Vocational Rehabilitation (Voc Rehab) help students to pay tuition and fee charges. The award amount must be verified by the organization providing the financial assistance. Vocational Rehabilitation is treated as need-based aid and can limit a student's eligibility for need-based financial aid programs.

VA Benefits

Veterans Administration (VA) benefits are awarded to veterans of the Armed Services and dependents who qualify. VA Benefits are certified by the university and may be paid directly to the student or credited to the student's account.

The student is responsible for accurately reporting on the FAFSA the expected monthly amount of VA Benefits and the number of months the benefit will be received. Inaccurately reported VA Benefits could result in adjustments to the student's overall financial aid package.

Questions regarding VA benefits should be directed to www.gibill.va.gov or 888-442-4551. Questions regarding PLNU application of VA benefits can be directed to veteranservices@pointloma.edu.

Other Resources

If a student receives any form of non-PLNU financial assistance, such as outside scholarships or employer reimbursement, previously awarded financial aid may need to be reduced so that funding does not exceed financial need or cost of attendance. Whenever possible, the Graduate and Professional Studies Student Financial Services office will reduce loan amounts before adjusting grant or scholarship assistance.

Tuition Remission

PLNU employees may be eligible for tuition remission and should contact the Office of Human Resources at 619-849-2200 or visit the Human Resources webpage for more information.

NOTE: Although tuition remission is a benefit, it is also a resource and may limit the student's eligibility for federal, state, and institutional aid.

Potential Limitations or Forfeiture of Financial Assistance

The following situations may limit or eliminate financial aid eligibility:

- Not a U.S. citizen or an eligible non-citizen.
- Not enrolled in a degree-seeking program.
- Attending courses through a special standing status.
- Received federal financial aid at another institution for a period of time that overlaps with a period of enrollment at PLNU.
- Registered less than half-time in a semester (3 units per semester for graduate students or 6 units for Adult Degree Completion and Teaching Credential students).
- Not meeting Satisfactory Academic Progress standards (see below).
- Defaulted on previous federal student loans (students may regain eligibility after having made satisfactory arrangements with the collection agency or the U.S. Department of Education).
- A balance owed as a result of the over-awarding of a federal grant or loan (In this case students are required to either provide written documentation of an approved and current repayment arrangement or to pay the over-awarded balance in full).

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)

In accordance with the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, all post-secondary institutions must establish a Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) policy. At Point Loma Nazarene University, all students receiving federal and state financial aid are required to make satisfactory progress in order to maintain eligibility for financial aid programs. PLNU's SAP policy requires all students to complete at least 2/3 of all attempted units (the quantitative requirement). In addition, to satisfy the qualitative requirement, Graduate and Teaching Credential students must maintain a minimum cumulative Grade-Point Average (GPA) of 3.0 at the end of each semester. Master of Ministry students must maintain a minimum cumulative Grade-Point Average (GPA) of 2.75 at the end of each semester. Adult Degree Completion students must maintain a minimum cumulative Grade-Point-Average (GPA) of 2.0 at the end of each semester and maintain a minimum cumulative Grade-Point Average of 2.0 at the end of each semester for all courses taken at PLNU in the student's designated program of study. For more complete information on the university's SAP policy, students may view our SAP Policy online for Graduate and Teaching Credential students here or for Degree Completion students here. You may also contact the Graduate and Professional Studies Student Financial Services office for more information.

Requirements, Deadlines, and Application Procedures

All students requesting financial assistance must do the following:

1. Make formal application for admission, be officially accepted into an undergraduate Adult Degree Completion, preliminary teaching credential or post baccalaureate program by the Office of Graduate Admissions and be enrolled at least half-time;
2. Complete and file the FAFSA.

Financial awards are generally made for two or three consecutive semesters (depending upon the academic program). These awards are disbursed on a semester basis, provided the student completes the required procedures and remains financially and academically eligible.

More information regarding requirements, deadlines, and application procedures can be obtained on our website at www.pointloma.edu/gradsfs.

Withdrawals

At the time a student leaves the university, all accounts must be paid in full. Any unpaid balance will accrue interest at ten percent (10%) per annum. In addition, Point Loma Nazarene University may report unpaid accounts to a national credit bureau. Students are responsible for paying all collection costs, including attorney fees and court costs as deemed reasonable, in the event a suit is instituted. Transcripts will not be released, nor will a student be permitted to participate at commencement exercises or receive a diploma, until all accounts at the university have been paid. Any financial aid received for a period in which a student withdraws will be subject to Title IV regulations and may need to be adjusted or returned.

Operational costs are sometimes affected by factors over which PLNU has no control. Therefore, the charges and financial-aid policies quoted in this catalog are subject to change without notice. (NOTE: Students should also see the information on withdrawal under the section entitled Academic and General Policies in this catalog.)

Students who have taken out student loans to pay for any portion of their education are required to complete federal Exit Counseling when graduating, withdrawing, or dropping below half-time enrollment from the university. Online Exit Counseling for Direct Loans or TEACH grants can be completed at <https://studentloans.gov>. Online Exit Counseling for Perkins and Nursing loans can be completed at <https://borrower.ecsi.net/>. Failure to complete Exit Counseling may cause a hold to be placed on transcript and diploma release.

University Policies

Credit Hour Policy:

According to the United States Department of Education with regard to the credit hour definition, one semester unit represents an hour (minimum fifty minutes) of class time per week for at least 15 weeks (Carnegie definition). Two hours of preparation are normal for each hour of class.

Face-to-face instructional hours are equivalent to the following:

1 credit hour = 750 minutes instructional time

2 credit hours = 1500 minutes

3 credit hours = 2250 minutes

4 credit hours = 3000 minutes

Web-Facilitated courses use web-based technology to facilitate what is essentially a face to face course. These offerings can be up to 25% online/web-based work.

Hybrid or Blended courses use online and face to face delivery. A substantial proportion of the content (between 26% and 79%) is delivered online, and it typically uses online discussion and has a reduced number of face to face meetings.

Online courses have the majority of content online and typically do not have face to face meetings.

Academic unit leadership will monitor the unit of credit policy through the course syllabus, schedule, and faculty governance policies and procedures.

Academic Honesty

The Point Loma Nazarene University community holds the highest standards of honesty and integrity in all aspects of university life. Any violation of the university's commitment is a serious affront to the very nature of Point Loma's mission and purpose.

Violations of academic honesty include cheating, plagiarism, falsification, identity fraud, aiding academic dishonesty, and malicious interference.

Cheating is the use of unauthorized assistance that results in an unfair advantage over other students. It includes but is not limited to: bringing and/or using unauthorized notes, technology or other study aids during an examination; looking at other students' work during an exam or in an assignment where collaboration is not allowed; attempting to communicate with other students in order to get help during an exam or in an assignment where collaboration is not allowed; obtaining an examination prior to its administration; allowing another person to do one's work and submitting it as one's own; submitting work done in one class for credit in another without the instructor's permission.

Plagiarism is the use of an idea, phrase, or other materials from a source without proper acknowledgment of that source. It includes but is not limited to: the use of an idea, phrase, or other materials from a source without proper acknowledgment of that specific source in a work for which the student claims authorship; the misrepresentation and/or use of sources used in a work for which the student claims authorship; the use of papers purchased online as all or part of an assignment for which the student claims authorship; submitting written work, such as laboratory reports, computer programs, or papers, which have been copied from the work of other students, with or without their knowledge and consent.

Falsification is the alteration of information or forging of signatures on academic forms or documents. It includes but is not limited to: using improper methods of collecting or generating data and presenting them as legitimate; altering graded work and submitting it for re-grading; falsifying information on official academic documents such as drop/add forms, incomplete forms, petitions, recommendations, letters of permission, transcripts or any other university document; misrepresenting oneself or one's status in the university.

Academic identity fraud is the act of allowing a person to impersonate the registered student, by doing the academic work and by submitting it as if it were the work of the registered person. This encompasses both face to face and online environments. It includes, but is not limited to: having another person complete a course assignment, take an examination, respond to discussion board questions, or complete any kind of academic exercise on behalf of the registered student. In such cases, it may be considered collusion to commit fraud on the part of both parties.

Aiding academic dishonesty is assisting another person in violating the standards of academic honesty. It includes but is not limited to: allowing other students to look at one's own work during an exam or in an assignment where collaboration is not allowed; providing information, material, or assistance to another person knowing that it may be used in violation of academic honesty policies; providing false information in connection with any academic honesty inquiry.

Malicious intent is misuse of academic resources or interference with the legitimate academic work of other students. It includes but is not limited to: removing books, journals, or pages of these from the library without formal checkout; hiding library materials; refusing to return reserve readings to the library; damaging or destroying the projects, lab, or studio work or other academic product of fellow students.

A student remains responsible for the academic honesty of work submitted in PLNU courses and the consequences of academic dishonesty beyond receipt of the final grade in the class and beyond the awarding of the diploma. Ignorance of these catalog policies will not be considered a valid excuse or defense. Students may not withdraw from a course as a response to a consequence.

Response Procedure

The following response procedure is recommended to faculty who discover a violation of academic honesty:

1. Fact-Finding: The faculty member should attempt to speak or otherwise communicate informally with the student as the first step.
2. Communication of Consequence: Once the violation is discovered, the instructor should send a written communication to the student regarding the incident and the consequences. Instructors can give students an "F" on a specific assignment or an "F" in the course as a consequence of violations of academic honesty. In cases of academic identity fraud, the act or acts could be interpreted as a criminal offense and could mean administrative withdrawal from Point Loma Nazarene University.
3. Internal Communication: The instructor must send a report of the incident to the program director, department chair or school dean, the college dean, and the Vice Provost for Academic Administration. The report should include a description of the violation, the action taken, and evidence of the violation. The official record of the incident is maintained by the Office of Records.
4. Further Action: If a student has been guilty of prior instances of misconduct, additional disciplinary steps may be taken by the program director or the college dean in consultation with the reporting instructor(s). These additional steps should be communicated to the student in writing and reported to the Vice Provost for Academic Administration for inclusion in the student record. Depending upon the seriousness of the incident or pattern of incidents, further actions can include probation, suspension, or expulsion.

Appeal Procedure

The following appeal procedure should be used by a student who wishes to appeal consequences associated with a finding of academic dishonesty.

1. Instructor: The student should present a written appeal of the penalty to the instructor involved. The instructor should respond in writing, with a copy of the student appeal and instructor response also sent to the program director.
2. Program Director or School Dean: In the event that satisfactory resolution to the appeal is not achieved between the student and the instructor, the student may submit the appeal in writing to the program director or school dean, who will review the appeal and send a written ruling to the student and instructor, college dean and Vice Provost for Academic Administration.
3. College Dean: Student appeals not resolved at the departmental or school level should be taken to the appropriate college dean for review. The college dean will review the appeal and send a written ruling to the student, instructor, and department chair or school dean, and Vice Provost for Academic Administration.
4. Administrative Committee: Student appeals not resolved at the college dean level can be submitted to an administrative committee including the uninvolved college dean, an uninvolved school dean, and a member of the Graduate and Extended Studies Committee appointed by the Provost, and the Vice Provost for Academic Administration. The appeal decision reached by this committee is final.

Academic Behavior Policy

Both faculty and students at Point Loma Nazarene University have the right to expect a safe and ordered environment for learning. Any student behavior that is disruptive or threatening is a serious affront to Point Loma Nazarene

University as a learning community. Students who fail to adhere to appropriate academic behavioral standards may be subject to discipline. Although faculty members communicate general student expectations in their syllabi and disruptive student conduct is already addressed in the Graduate and Professional Studies Student Handbook, the purpose of this policy is to clarify what constitutes disruptive behavior in the academic setting and what actions faculty and relevant administrative offices may take in response to such disruptive student behavior.

"Disruption," as applied to the academic setting, means classroom, instructor or classmate-related or online student behavior that a reasonable faculty member would view as interfering with or deviating from normal classroom, class-related, or other faculty-student activity (advising, co-curricular involvement, etc.). Faculty members are encouraged to communicate positive behavior expectations at the first class session and to include them in course syllabi. Examples of disruptive classroom behavior include, but are not limited to:

- persistent speaking without being recognized or interrupting the instructor or other speakers;
- overt inattentiveness (sleeping or reading the newspaper in class);
- inordinate or inappropriate demands for instructor or classroom time or attention;
- unauthorized use of cell phone or computer;
- behavior that distracts the class from the subject matter or discussion;
- unwanted contact with a classmate in person, via social media or other means;
- inappropriate public displays of affection;
- refusal to comply with reasonable instructor direction;
- invasion of personal space, physical threats, harassing behavior or personal insults and/or
- rude, insensitive or uncivil behavior in online course discussion boards.

The policy applies if the behavior is reported by a faculty member or academic administrator and occurs exclusively or primarily in a student-faculty member interaction whether in a physical or online classroom environment. Incidents which involve both academic and non-academic behavior may result in responses coordinated by the Vice Provost for Academic Administration and the academic program director.

Civil and polite expression of disagreement with the course instructor, during times when the instructor permits discussion, is not in itself disruptive behavior and is not prohibited.

Some students possess medical or psychological conditions that may affect functioning within the standards of the university. Although such students may be considered disabled and are protected under the Rehabilitation Act/ADA, they are required to meet the fundamental university academic and behavioral policy as described in the Graduate and Professional Studies Student Handbook, the Graduate and Professional Studies Catalog and/or faculty syllabi.

Response Procedure

The following response procedure is recommended to faculty who witness or experience disruptive behavior, either in the classroom or in contact with an enrolled student outside the classroom. Depending on its severity, disruptive behavior would result in responses from an escalated use of the strategies below:

1. Verbal and/or written request to stop behavior and warning of potential consequences.
2. Exclusion from the current class period/activity.
3. E-mailed report to dean, Vice Provost for Academic Administration and the program director (in cases of a severe instance, or multiple instances) depending on faculty wish and severity, may result in:
 - Filing of report and no further action.
 - Student meeting with VPAA and the academic program director to develop and sign classroom behavior and growth plan detailing appropriate behaviors and consequences for failure to comply.

Depending on the frequency and severity of the student behavior, consequences may include permanent exclusion from a specific class up to and including administrative withdrawal from the university.

Note: Faculty should immediately report by phone students in an academic context who express either intent to harm themselves or to harm others to the Office of the VPAA or the academic program director, in that order. (University personnel observing non-academic behavior incidents on the part of graduate students should report non-academic incidents to the academic program director or building manager.) If events occur in classes after university business hours, faculty should call Department of Public Safety and ask to speak to the highest ranking officer who will notify administrative personnel. Students who report a tendency to self-harm will not be subject to disciplinary action for making PLNU officials aware of that tendency.

Education Records (FERPA) and Directory Information

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 as amended affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. These include: 1) the right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days of the day the university receives a request for access, 2) the right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading, 3) the right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student's education records, and 4) the right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by Point Loma to comply with the requirements of FERPA.

FERPA has specifically identified certain information called directory information that may be disclosed without student consent. Although directory information may be disclosed without student consent, PLNU is not required to release directory information.

The university has defined directory information as name, address (including electronic mail), telephone number, date and place of birth, major field of study, dates of attendance, enrollment status, degrees, honors and awards received, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, degree candidacy, and the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended. This information may be provided, upon review by the Vice Provost for Academic Administration, as public information or to individuals who demonstrate a valid need to contact students.

Periodically, PLNU conducts formal and informal photo and video shoots (around the campus and at off-campus events and activities) for use in university publications, social media, promotional videos/commercials, and the PLNU Web site. Students who require that no identifiable image be used by the university must notify Marketing and Creative Services in writing prior to the second Monday of each semester. Students should email their request to photo-optout@pointloma.edu and include their full name and student ID number. In addition, PLNU may submit information about students' participation in school activities to media outlets. Students who require that their names be excluded from such stories must notify Marketing and Creative Services in writing prior to the second Monday of each semester.

The university may disclose education records to college officials with legitimate educational interests. A college official is a person employed by the university; a member of the Board of Trustees; or an individual serving on a committee, such as disciplinary or grievance committees. A college official has a legitimate educational interest if the information aids the official in fulfilling professional functions. PLNU also includes among college officials a student appointed to an official committee or assisting another official in performing tasks and outside service providers who perform an institutional service of function such as attorneys, auditors, and the National Student Clearinghouse. The university may also disclose education records to post-secondary institutions in which a student is seeking or intending to enroll, or is already attending if the disclosure is for purposes related to the student's enrollment or transfer.

Questions relative to FERPA policies should be referred to the Office of the Vice Provost for Academic Administration or may be referenced at FERPA.

Application for Graduation

A student who intends to graduate must complete an Application for Degree Candidacy (online or in the Office of Records in Mission Valley). The form must be filed with the Office of Records no less than 60 days prior to the anticipated degree posting date. Graduation fees will be applied to the student's account. Work for all courses considered for a degree must be completed prior to the anticipated degree posting date. Passing grades for all courses must be recorded prior to a degree posting. Posting dates are available on the academic calendar. All candidates must complete all program courses to participate in Commencement unless all of the following are met:

- There are no more than 4 units lacking to complete the required units for the program (no more than 6 units lacking for the Master of Arts in Clinical Counseling and the Master of Science in Athletic Training)
- There is an approved plan to complete the remaining units in the immediately following term
- Payment in full of all financial obligations to the university, including a graduation fee

Examinations

Examinations may be deferred due only to illness or other equally valid conditions over which the student has no control. Approval for deferral must occur before the scheduled examination. Faculty and/or the department or school has the authority to grant examination deferral.

Class Attendance

Regular and punctual attendance at all class sessions is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. Therefore, regular attendance and participation in each course are minimal requirements. Absences are counted from the first official meeting of the class regardless of the date of the student's enrollment. If more than 20 percent of the classes are reported as missed, the faculty member may initiate the student's de-enrollment from the course without advance notice to the student. If the date of de-enrollment is past the last date to withdraw from a class, the student will be assigned a grade of "F" or "NC." There are no refunds for courses where a de-enrollment was processed.

A student who registers late must, therefore, be exceptionally careful about regular attendance during the remainder of the course. Registered students who neither attend the first class session nor inform the instructor of record of their desire to remain in the class may, at the request of the instructor, be removed from the class roster.

Exceptions to the foregoing attendance regulations due to extenuating circumstances beyond the student's control may be granted only by appeal to the Vice Provost for Academic Administration. Students should consult the syllabus of each course for specific applications of and elaborations on the above attendance policy.

Online Class Attendance

Students taking online courses are expected to attend each week of the course. Attendance is defined as participating in an academic activity within the online classroom which includes posting in a graded activity in the course. (Note: Logging into the course does not qualify as participation and will not be counted as meeting the attendance requirement.)

Students who do not attend at least once in any 3 consecutive days will be issued an attendance warning. Students who do not attend at least once in any 7 consecutive days will be dropped from the course retroactive to the last date of recorded attendance.

Students who anticipate being absent for an entire week of a course should contact the instructor in advance for approval and make arrangements to complete the required coursework and/or alternative assignments assigned at the discretion of the instructor. Acceptance of late work is at the discretion of the instructor and does not waive attendance requirements.

Academic Accommodations

While all students are expected to meet the minimum standards for completion of this course as established by the instructor, students with disabilities may require academic adjustments, modifications or auxiliary aids/services. At Point Loma Nazarene University (PLNU), these students are requested to register with the Disability Resource Center (DRC), located in the Bond Academic Center. (DRC@pointloma.edu or 619-849-2486). The DRC's policies and procedures for assisting such students in the development of an appropriate academic adjustment plan (AP) allow PLNU to comply with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities

Act. Section 504 (a) prohibits discrimination against students with special needs and guarantees all qualified students equal access to and benefits of PLNU programs and activities. After the student files the required documentation, the DRC, in conjunction with the student, will develop an AP to meet that student's specific learning needs. The DRC will thereafter email the student's AP to all faculty who teach courses in which the student is enrolled each semester. The AP must be implemented in all such courses.

If students do not wish to avail themselves of some or all of the elements of their AP in a particular course, it is the responsibility of those students to notify their professor in that course. PLNU highly recommends that DRC students speak with their professors during the first two weeks of each semester about the applicability of their AP in that particular course and/or if they do not desire to take advantage of some or all of the elements of their AP in that course.

Registration and Records

Transcripts

A complete and official transcript is available from the Office of Records. Official transcripts cost $5.00 each and can be ordered through the student/alumni portal or by going to the National Student Clearinghouse website (<https://mystudentcenter.org/>). Requests not submitted through online ordering require an Official Transcript form from the Records Office website and a student's handwritten signature. Transcripts marked for pick up will not be released to anyone other than the student except by a signed, written authorization submitted to the Records Office; photo i.d. is required for pick up. Unofficial transcripts are free and available through the student portal as well as at the Office of Records. Expedited processing and mailing options may be available for an additional fee.

Course Offerings and Class Schedules

All course offerings are posted on the university website. The university reserves the right to cancel any class with insufficient enrollment and make necessary changes in its schedule and programs.

Course Numbering System

- 400-499 Upper-division courses open to post-baccalaureate students with the approval of the school dean or department chair upon the recommendation of the program director/coordinator.
- 500-599 Transition or post-baccalaureate courses applicable to a certificate, credential, or a master's degree program.
- 600-699 Graduate courses applied to a master's degree program.
- 700-799 Post Masters courses open to students who hold a valid master's degree.

Prerequisite/Co-Requisite

Some courses listed in this Graduate Catalog stipulate either a prerequisite or a co-requisite. A prerequisite is a condition or requirement that must be fulfilled prior to enrolling in a course, such as a specific student classification, permission of the instructor, or another course. A co-requisite refers to a condition or a requirement that must be met prior to or concurrent with enrollment in a course.

Add/Drop Policy

Adding a Class. The deadline for students to register for courses is the last day of the second week of the semester or the last day of the first week of a Quad. Exceptions to this deadline will only be considered if students have extenuating circumstances beyond their control and the student completes a change of schedule form, with the approval of the school dean/department chair and the Vice Provost for Academic Administration. The form is then filed with the Office of Records.

Dropping a Class. Students may drop a course through the first 50% of the period of offering; enrollment will be deleted from the student's permanent record. After that, a student with extenuating personal circumstances may request permission of the program director (or the representative director in the case of programs in the School of Education) to withdraw from the course. If approved, a W will appear on the transcript with no impact on the GPA. If the petition is not approved or not submitted, the grade of WF will be assigned or a letter grade in accordance with the grading policy noted in the syllabus as determined by the instructor of record. Students should consider refund and transcript implications when dropping a class.

Maximum and Minimum Course Loads

The maximum course load for a graduate program is 12 units in a semester. Overloads may be carried with the written approval of the Vice Provost for Academic Administration on the recommendation of the school dean/department chair. This must be filed with the Office of Records prior to the applicable registration period. For financial aid purposes, the minimum full-time course load for graduate students is six units per semester. For further information regarding financial aid, students should contact their Student Financial Services representative.

Independent Study

Independent studies at the university level enable students to enrich their academic experience by pursuing topics and research in a closely supervised program with an academic supervisor. In such a study, a qualified student works with the instructor to develop a plan and syllabus. Graduate students may receive credit for up to six units of independent study to be applied to their degree program. No more than four units may be received from one project or study.

An independent study form and proposal must be submitted with a registration form to the program director, with an approved copy filed with the Office of Records. The independent study must be approved by the instructor, department chair or school dean, and the respective college dean. Independent study fees may apply depending on circumstances.

Grades and Appeals Process

Grading System

Traditional letter grades (A, B, C, D, F) including plus and minus grades are used to indicate the level of scholarship earned for each course. Except for the correction of an error, all traditional letter grades are final at the conclusion of the academic term. Once the degree has been posted on the student's official transcript, no change of grade action is allowed for courses leading to the degree. The grade of C is the lowest grade acceptable for graduate credit.

[H] Audit. The grade assigned when a course is taken as an audit course. A student wishing only exposure to a course may elect to audit the course. The student registers in the regular manner and pays an audit fee. Regular attendance at all class meetings is the responsibility of the student, but written assignments and examinations are not mandatory. A grade of H is entered only for satisfactory attendance; a grade of F is entered for non-attendance. Courses audited carry no credit toward the grade-point average, graduation requirements, or meeting professional requirements. Audit units count toward the student's course load, except in determining financial aid, and may be repeated.

[I] Incomplete. A grade of Incomplete is given for work which has been completed partially in a satisfactory manner, but which, for valid reasons such as illness or death in the family, is not finished. The grade of I is to be given only on the basis of extraordinary circumstances clearly beyond the student's control. The grade of I is regarded as a deficiency grade and may be removed by the assignment of additional work to make up the deficiency; or, in cases where the incomplete is assigned because of inability to take a final examination, by a special examination. A grade of Incomplete must be made up, if at all, by the end of the next regular semester. Until made up, a grade of I is considered as F in determining the student's grade-point average, and eligibility for financial assistance. Note: Federal fair use policy requires ending access to Canvas resources after three weeks. Instructors should keep this in mind when establishing incomplete grade resolution requirements and deadlines.

[IP] In Progress. A provisional grade assigned to courses, such as fieldwork courses, that extend longer than a semester due to the nature of the course requirements. The grade of IP carries no grade points and is replaced by the grade earned when the requirements for the course are properly completed. If the work is not completed within one calendar year from the end of the semester date of enrollment, the course registration will be concluded and a grade of No Credit [NC] assigned or a grade based on completed work for computation into the grade-point average.

[NC] No Credit. The grade recorded for all non-passing work in those courses graded on a Credit/No Credit basis. The NC grade has no grade-point value and no effect on the grade-point average. In order to complete an NC course to meet degree or credential requirements, including one that was an IP and reverted to NC, a student assigned this grade must register again for the course.

[W] Withdrawn. This grade is recorded when a student doing passing work is given permission by the program or Branch Campus director to drop a course after the first 50 % of the course (for exceptional circumstances such as personal and family emergency).

[WF] Withdrawn under failing conditions. This grade is recorded when a student does not request permission or whose petition to withdraw from a class is denied after 50% of the class has passed. A grade of WF is considered the same as an F in calculating the grade-point average.

Grade Points. Letter grades are converted to numerical equivalents for computation according to the following scale.

Courses in which grades of H, IP, W, CR, and NC are received are not included in determining the grade-point average.

Minimum Grades Required. Except as indicated below, all students admitted to a post-baccalaureate program must maintain a grade-point average of 3.000 (B) or better as a condition of remaining in the program.

- The minimum acceptable grade-point average for Master of Ministry students is 2.750.
- The grade-point average is computed on all courses taken since admission to graduate study. Courses accepted as transfer credit are not used in computing the grade-point average.
- Students may repeat courses in which they earned a grade lower than a C. Students in the Master of Science in Nursing and Doctorate of Nursing Practice may repeat courses in which they earned a grade lower than a B. If this is done, each grade appears on the transcript, but the lower grade is not used for grade-point calculation. Students receiving Veterans Benefits may not be eligible for benefits when repeating a course.

Course Grade Appeals

It is the responsibility of the faculty to evaluate student performance and assign grades. The university has established a course grade appeal policy, however, that may be used when a student believes the syllabus was not followed in the grade calculation or if it is thought that grading was done in a capricious and arbitrary manner. The appeal policy does not include student dissatisfaction with a grade based on the faculty member's professional judgment. A Course Grade Appeal Form is available at each campus location, in the Office of Records, and on the PLNU website and must be filed by the last day of the following semester in which the grade was given.

Academic Standing

Normal Academic Progress

The academic progress of all students is reviewed by the Vice Provost for Academic Administration. Those who maintain the minimum required grade-point average are in satisfactory scholastic standing and as such are making progress toward a degree. To remain free of academic probation, students must earn a minimum cumulative grade-point average specified by the program in which they are enrolled. A cumulative GPA of 3.000 is required of all programs with two exceptions: The Master of Arts in Ministry degree requires a cumulative GPA of 2.750 and the Doctorate of Nursing Practice (DNP) degree requires a cumulative 3.200 GPA for graduation.

Unsatisfactory Academic Progress

Point Loma takes seriously a student's inability to make satisfactory progress toward the goal of a degree. The university works with students placed on academic probation to create links between them, faculty advisors, program directors, and other support programs. Policies concerning students on academic probation are administered by the Vice Provost for Academic Administration.

Note: Students who receive federal, state, or veterans aid must meet certain qualitative and quantitative standards of academic progress. As a result, it may be possible for a student to be on academic probation at the university but be ineligible for federal, state and veterans aid. Additional information on PLNU's financial aid satisfactory progress policy is available in the PLNU Student Financial Services Office.

Academic Warning

Students whose semester or session GPA is below acceptable standards may receive a letter of Academic Warning. This includes courses without final grades, such as in progress courses or incomplete courses.

Academic Probation Alert

Students whose cumulative GPA meets the minimum standard for academic good standing, but whose session GPA for a regular semester falls below the program minimum, are placed on alert status. While not technically on academic probation, these students are under the strict supervision of the Office of the Vice Provost for Academic Administration and may be required to repeat courses in which they received a low grade.

Academic Probation

Students whose cumulative GPA falls below minimum standards are placed on academic probation. Probationary students who fail to earn the minimal required session GPA for their program the following semester are disqualified from continuing at the university.

Continuance on Academic Probation

Students who are on probation and earn at least the required GPA for their program during the current session, but whose cumulative GPA is below that standard, may be continued on academic probation at the discretion of the Vice Provost for Academic Administration, considering all factors. These students are under the strict supervision of the Office of the Vice Provost for Academic Administration.

Academic Disqualification

Students whose cumulative GPAs fall below the minimum requirements for two consecutive semesters are disqualified. Students who are disqualified from continuation at the university due to performance below minimum GPA standard will receive a letter from the Vice Provost for Academic Administration describing the reason for the disqualification, the student's eligibility or ineligibility to apply for readmission and the route to readmission if eligible.

Degree Requirements

Applicable Catalog

Students in continuous enrollment may elect to graduate under the curricular requirements of either the Catalog for the year in which they enter the university or the Catalog of a subsequent year. Those whose enrollment is not continuous (i.e. not enrolled for more than one semester) as regular students are subject to the Catalog requirements for the year in which they re-enter the university or that of a subsequent year of enrollment. A student may not combine requirements from two or more catalogs.

Department/School Recommendation for a Degree

Prior to recommending a student for a degree, the department or school evaluates the student's progress based on the department/school's student learning outcomes, grade-point average, and other requirements. The Office of Records reviews documents prior to degree posting to assure that all requirements for graduation have been met. All work taken toward a degree must be completed in full before posting. Degrees are conferred six (6) times per year at the close of each traditional quad. Commencement convocation is held once a year at the close of the spring semester. All candidates who completed their work and had their degree posted in the current academic year may participate. A candidate who is deficient in meeting graduation requirements by an amount which could reasonably be earned in the summer sessions following may be permitted to participate in the spring commencement. These students are recognized publicly as summer graduates (indicated in the commencement program). The diploma is available to summer graduates upon satisfactory completion of all work for the degree after the closest degree confirmation date.

Time Limit for Completion of a Graduate Degree

All requirements for graduate degrees must be completed within an eight-year period from the time of initial enrollment in the program.

Certificate Requirements

Optional certificates are offered in some schools or departments. The requirements governing certificates are as follows:

- A certificate is a skill-based program responsive to employer and/or market need that supplements a student's graduate or degree completion studies. Point Loma Nazarene University offers certificates which may be one of three types: academic, professional development or attendance certificates.
- Academic certificates will be between six (6) and eighteen (18) graduate level units. Professional development certificates are based on a ten (10) hours per CEU formula. Attendance certificates are awarded on the basis of full session attendance.
- 50% or more of the units being applied to the certificate must be unique to that certificate.
- Only academic certificates that appear in the student's catalog of record may be earned at the point of graduation.
- Students must earn a 3.0 cumulative grade point average for an academic certificate with no grade lower than C.
- Of the total graduate units in the academic certificate, a minimum of two-thirds must be earned in residence.

- Academic certificate programs will state clearly whether they can be applied to a PLNU degree.
- Neither professional development nor attendance certificates can be converted to academic credit or applied to university programs or degrees.

Transfer Credit

Transfer credit is defined as graduate credit earned at another regionally accredited institution. Students may request transfer courses to be considered for application to a degree program. Any transfer courses to be considered for application to a degree program must be recommended by the school dean/department chair with final approval residing with the Vice Provost for Academic Administration. No more than six transfer units may be applied to a degree, and all coursework must have been completed within the last seven years at a regionally accredited institution and may not have been previously used for completion of a graduate degree program.

Curricular Exceptions

Occasionally, an exception to the requirements in this catalog may be appropriate. For consideration of a curricular exception, students must file a Curricular Exceptions petition (form available online) with their program advisor. The program advisor will make a recommendation to the appropriate school dean or department chair. If approved by the school/department, the petition will be forwarded to the Vice Provost for Academic Administration for final approval. Decisions regarding exceptions are based on the merit of each individual case.

All curricular exceptions combined may not exceed 20% of the total units required for the degree or credential. The rationale for such changes must be substantiated with official academic records that become part of the student's PLNU academic records.

Examples of curricular exceptions include: a course replacement of a required course in the curriculum with a course taken at another institution; a course substitution of one PLNU course substituting for another PLNU course; and/or a course is waived, requiring the student to take an elective to replace the unit requirement for the program.

Thesis/Graduate Project

The purpose of a thesis or graduate project is to give students experience in carrying out the kind of research they may expect to do throughout their professional careers. A thesis/graduate project involves investigation of primary sources. It may involve a re-examination or re-evaluation of primary sources that others have already studied in an effort to confirm or revise the conclusions of others. It may involve a new program of testing and analyzing procedures or methods. It is intended to demonstrate the student's ability to work independently on a problem, to demonstrate wide familiarity with the literature in the field of the program, to demonstrate command of the techniques and principles of research, and to demonstrate ability to form valid generalizations from the data used.

For those graduate programs requiring a thesis or applied project, the school or department has determined the unit credit required for completion of the thesis/applied project. Students will be assigned an advisor to assist and supervise their work. Students are expected to complete this final phase of their graduate study in a timely manner. If, however, the student requires additional time for completion, an extension fee will be charged each semester until the thesis/applied project grade is recorded (see fee schedule).

Students who have not completed the thesis/applied project after registering for all the units of thesis work required for their major course of study will be routinely registered each subsequent semester for "thesis extension" until completion. This action will add a thesis extension fee, generating a bill but no additional units. Automatic registration will continue each semester until the final grade has been posted by the thesis advisor. This process allows the students to remain registered in the university system for library resources, computer system, and other support services.

The registration for the extension is automatic. However, if a student "opts out" of this option prior to completing thesis work, the course will be graded No Credit or F. For a student to opt back into the program to complete the thesis/applied project, the student is required to file a request for readmission and registration for the balance of units for the original required thesis course. In addition, the school/department makes a determination on the merits of the readmission request. If a balance exists in the student's account, the payment of regular tuition and fees will be required prior to readmission.

Multiple Master's Degrees

A graduate student may earn more than one master's degree from Point Loma Nazarene University by meeting all university and academic department/school requirements and fulfilling all graduation requirements for each degree. When a second degree is pursued in the same academic discipline (e.g., the School of Education or the Fermanian School of Business, etc.), two-thirds of the courses for the second degree must be distinct from the first degree.

Students desiring to pursue two graduate programs concurrently must apply for program eligibility for both programs and be accepted into those programs. In addition, they must meet with the program director of both graduate degree programs in order to plan the joint course of study. Concurrent graduate program students must meet the requirements of both programs, as stated above.

Withdrawal and Readmission

Withdrawal from the University

There are times when a student finds it necessary to withdraw from the university. In order to avoid being administratively withdrawn, courses and incompletes being converted to a failing grade, and financial payments going into default, students are required to notify the Office of Records and complete a Notice of Intent to Withdraw from the university. If withdrawal occurs while a student is registered for classes, students must follow the procedures listed below for withdrawing from a course.

Withdrawal from a Course

Students may drop a course at any time up to the last day allowable to drop a course. If this action leaves the student with no further courses, a withdrawal form (available online) must be filed in a timely manner. Students with extenuating circumstances, such as personal or family emergencies after the last day to drop, may contact the Vice Provost for Academic Administration. If the action is approved, courses are then graded with a W (withdrawal) unless the faculty deems the student's performance to be unsatisfactory at the time of withdrawal, at which point a WF grade would be assigned.

Students who cease attending or never attended a course for which they are registered receive an F in that course if accepted procedures for dropping/withdrawing are not followed.

Financial implications for withdrawals may be found under "Refund Policy."

Leave of Absence

Students may apply for a leave of absence from their program. For those receiving financial aid, the maximum leave of absence allowed is 180 days in any 12 month period for professional or personal reasons. Students with an approved leave of absence continue to be considered "in-school status" for Title IV loan repayment purposes.

A leave of absence form must be submitted for approval to the appropriate academic department or school, must be accompanied by the student's signature, and must have a reasonable expectation for return to the university within the specified time. Upon return, students must resume coursework at the same point in their academic program.

The completed leave of absence form is filed in the Office of Records. Failure to return in a timely manner initiates an administrative withdrawal from the university as of the initiating date of the leave of absence. When leaving and returning from the leave of absence, the student is required to confirm with the Office of Records which academic catalog will apply to their program once they continue their program. This withdrawal may have financial aid implications, such as the expiration of a loan's grace period and may cause a student loan to immediately be in repayment.

Readmission

Students who have been admitted to the university, have attended classes, and have subsequently withdrawn formally or taken a leave of absence for more than one semester (or two sequential Quads) must complete a Readmit form through the Office of Graduate Admissions. Students who have been administratively withdrawn must submit a new application and pay a new application fee in all cases. Students who have not been enrolled for three calendar years from the last date of attendance must submit a new application and pay a new application fee for graduate admission. Students who are successfully readmitted are subject to the program requirements of the catalog under which they re-enter unless a leave of absence has been granted.

Administrative Withdrawal

Students who have not attended or enrolled in a course for one semester, are not currently completing coursework, have not filed an approved leave of absence with the Office of Records, and have not officially withdrawn, will be administratively withdrawn. Such withdrawal may have financial aid implications. Students with this status must submit a new application to the university and to their degree program.

Official Catalog

As the online catalog is considered to be the official document relative to academic program offerings and charges, any print-outs of pages taken from the online version are, by definition, unofficial.

Withdrawal and Readmission

Applicable Catalog

Students in continuous enrollment may elect to graduate under the curricular requirements of either the Catalog for the year in which they enter the university or the Catalog of a subsequent year. Those whose enrollment is not continuous

(i.e. not enrolled for more than one term) as regular students are subject to the Catalog requirements for the year in which they re-enter the university or that of a subsequent year of enrollment. A student may not combine requirements from two or more catalogs.

Maximum and Minimum Course Loads

The maximum course load for an adult degree completion student is 17 units. Overloads may be carried with the written approval of the Dean of the College of Extended Learning on the recommendation of the academic unit leader. This must be filed with the Office of Records prior to the applicable registration period. If a student has failed a PLNU course or is on academic probation the academic unit leader, in consultation with Student Financial Services, can limit the number of units in a given term. For financial aid purposes, a full-time course load for adult degree completion students is twelve units per semester; a three-quarter course load is nine units; and a half-time course load is six units. For further information regarding financial aid, students should contact their Student Financial Services representative.

Transcripts

A complete and official transcript of coursework is available in the Office of Records. By federal law, requests must be accompanied by a written signature. Transcripts may not be released to anyone other than the student except by written authorization. Unofficial transcripts are available from the Office of Records. Forms for ordering both are available on the university website. Current students may print their own unofficial transcripts from the university website. Expedited processing and electronic ordering of transcripts are both available for an additional fee.

Course Offerings and Class Schedules

All course offerings are posted on the university website. The university reserves the right to cancel any class with insufficient enrollment and make necessary changes in its schedule and programs.

Prerequisite/Co-Requisite

Some courses listed in this catalog stipulate either a prerequisite or a co-requisite. A prerequisite is a condition or requirement that must be fulfilled prior to enrolling in a course, such as a specific student classification, permission of the instructor, or another course. A co-requisite refers to a condition or a requirement that must be met prior to or concurrent with enrollment in a course.

Credit Hour Policy

According to the United States Department of Education with regard to the credit hour definition, one semester unit represents an hour (minimum fifty minutes) of class time per week for at least 15 weeks (Carnegie definition). Two hours of preparation are normal for each hour of class.

Face-to-face instructional hours are equivalent to the following:

1 credit hour = 750 minutes instructional time
2 credit hours = 1500 minutes
3 credit hours = 2250 minutes
4 credit hours = 3000 minutes

Web-Facilitated courses use web based technology to facilitate what is essentially a face to face course. These offerings can be up to 25% online/web based work.

Hybrid or Blended courses use online and face to face delivery. A substantial proportion of the content (between 26% and 79%) is delivered online, and it typically uses online discussion and has a reduced number of face to face meetings.

Online courses have the majority of content online and typically do not have face to face meetings.

Academic unit leadership will monitor the unit of credit policy through the course syllabus, schedule, and faculty governance policies and procedures.

Add/Drop Policy

Adding a Class. The deadline for students to register for courses is prior to the first day of class. Exceptions to this deadline will only be considered if students have extenuating circumstances beyond their control with the approval of the school dean/department chair and the Dean of the College of Extended Learning. Documentation is then filed with the Office of Records.

Dropping a Class. Students may drop a course through the first 50% of the period of offering; enrollment will be deleted from the student's permanent record. After that, a student with extenuating personal circumstances may request permission of the program director to withdraw from the course. If approved, a W will appear on the transcript with no impact on the GPA. If the petition is not approved or not submitted, the grade of WF will be assigned or a letter grade in accordance with the grading policy noted in the syllabus as determined by the instructor of record. Students should consider refund and transcript implications when dropping a class.

Academic Honesty

The Point Loma Nazarene University community holds the highest standards of honesty and integrity in all aspects of university life. Any violation of the university's commitment is a serious affront to the very nature of Point Loma's mission and purpose.

Violations of academic honesty include cheating, plagiarism, falsification, identity fraud, aiding academic dishonesty, and malicious interference.

Cheating is the use of unauthorized assistance that results in an unfair advantage over other students. It includes but is not limited to: bringing and/or using unauthorized notes, technology or other study aids during an examination; looking at other students' work during an exam or in an assignment where collaboration is not allowed; attempting to communicate with other students in order to get help during an exam or in an assignment where collaboration is not allowed; obtaining an examination prior to its administration; allowing another person to do one's work and submitting it as one's own; submitting work done in one class for credit in another without the instructor's permission.

Plagiarism is the use of an idea, phrase, or other materials from a source without proper acknowledgment of that source. It includes but is not limited to: the use of an idea, phrase, or other materials from a source without proper acknowledgment of that specific source in a work for which the student claims authorship; the misrepresentation and/or use of sources used in a work for which the student claims authorship; the use of papers purchased online as all or part of an assignment for which the student claims authorship; submitting written work, such as laboratory reports, computer programs, or papers, which have been copied from the work of other students, with or without their knowledge and consent.

Falsification is the alteration of information or forging of signatures on academic forms or documents. It includes but is not limited to: using improper methods of collecting or generating data and presenting them as legitimate; altering graded work and submitting it for re-grading; falsifying information on official academic documents such as drop/add forms, incomplete forms, petitions, recommendations, letters of permission, transcripts or any other university document; misrepresenting oneself or one's status in the university.

Academic identity fraud is the act of allowing a person to impersonate the registered student, by doing the academic work and by submitting it as if it were the work of the registered person. This encompasses both face to face and online environments. It includes, but is not limited to: having another person complete a course assignment, take an examination, respond to discussion board questions, or complete any kind of academic exercise on behalf of the registered student. In such cases, it may be considered collusion to commit fraud on the part of both parties.

Aiding academic dishonesty is assisting another person in violating the standards of academic honesty. It includes but is not limited to: allowing other students to look at one's own work during an exam or in an assignment where collaboration is not allowed; providing information, material, or assistance to another person knowing that it may be used in violation of academic honesty policies; providing false information in connection with any academic honesty inquiry.

Malicious intent is misuse of academic resources or interference with the legitimate academic work of other students. It includes but is not limited to: removing books, journals, or pages of these from the library without formal checkout; hiding library materials; refusing to return reserve readings to the library; damaging or destroying the projects, lab, or studio work or other academic product of fellow students.

A student remains responsible for the academic honesty of work submitted in PLNU courses and the consequences of academic dishonesty beyond receipt of the final grade in the class and beyond the awarding of the diploma. Ignorance of these catalog policies will not be considered a valid excuse or defense. Students may not withdraw from a course as a response to a consequence.

Response Procedure

The following response procedure is recommended to faculty who discover a violation of academic honesty:

1. Fact-Finding: The faculty member should attempt to speak or otherwise communicate informally with the student as the first step.
2. Communication of Consequence: Once the violation is discovered, the instructor should send a written communication to the student regarding the incident and the consequences. Instructors can give students an "F" on a specific assignment or an "F" in the course as a consequence of violations of academic honesty. In cases of academic identity fraud, the act or acts could be interpreted as a criminal offense and could mean administrative withdrawal from Point Loma Nazarene University.
3. Internal Communication: The instructor must send a report of the incident to the program director, department chair or school dean, the college dean, and the Dean of the College of Extended Learning and the Vice Provost for Academic Administration. The report should include a description of the violation, the action taken, and evidence of the violation. The official record of the incident is maintained by the Office of Records.
4. Further Action: If a student has been guilty of prior instances of misconduct, additional disciplinary steps may be taken by the program director or the college dean in consultation with the reporting instructor(s). These additional steps should be communicated to the student in writing and reported to the Vice Provost for Academic Administration for inclusion in the student record. Depending upon the seriousness of the incident or pattern of incidents, further actions can include probation, suspension, or expulsion.

Appeal Procedure

The following appeal procedure should be used by a student who wishes to appeal consequences associated with a finding of academic dishonesty.

1. Instructor: The student should present a written appeal of the penalty to the instructor involved. The instructor should respond in writing, with a copy of the student appeal and instructor response also sent to the program director.
2. Program Director or School Dean: In the event that satisfactory resolution to the appeal is not achieved between the student and the instructor, the student may submit the appeal in writing to the program director or school dean, who will review the appeal and send a written ruling to the student and instructor, college dean and Vice Provost for Academic Administration.
3. College Dean: Student appeals not resolved at the departmental or school level should be taken to the Dean of the College of Extended Learning for review. The college dean will review the appeal and send a written ruling to the student, instructor, and department chair or school dean, and Vice Provost for Academic Administration.
4. Administrative Committee: Student appeals not resolved at the college dean level can be submitted to an administrative committee including two uninvolved college deans, and a member of the Graduate and Extended Studies Committee appointed by the Provost, and the Vice Provost for Academic Administration. The appeal decision reached by this committee is final.

Class Attendance

Regular and punctual attendance at all class sessions is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. Therefore, regular attendance and participation in each course are minimal requirements. Absences are counted from the first official meeting of the class regardless of the date of the student's enrollment. If more than 20 percent of the classes are reported as missed, the faculty member may initiate the student's de-enrollment from the course without advance notice to the student. If the date of de-enrollment is past the last date to withdraw from a class, the student will be assigned a grade of "F" or "NC." There are no refunds for courses where a de-enrollment was processed.

A student who registers late must therefore be exceptionally careful about regular attendance during the remainder of the course. Registered students who neither attend the first class session nor inform the instructor of record of their desire to remain in the class may, at the request of the instructor, be removed from the class roster.

Exceptions to the foregoing attendance regulations due to extenuating circumstances beyond the student's control may be granted only by appeal to the Dean of the College of Extended Learning. Students should consult the syllabus of each course for specific applications of and elaborations on the above attendance policy.

Online Class Attendance

Students taking online courses are expected to attend each week of the course. Attendance is defined as participating in an academic activity within the online classroom which includes posting in a graded activity in the course. (Note: Logging into the course does not qualify as participation and will not be counted as meeting the attendance requirement.)

Students who do not attend at least once in any 3 consecutive days will be issued an attendance warning. Students who do not attend at least once in any 7 consecutive days will be dropped from the course retroactive to the last date of recorded attendance.

Students who anticipate being absent for an entire week of a course should contact the instructor in advance for approval and make arrangements to complete the required coursework and/or alternative assignments assigned at the discretion of the instructor. Acceptance of late work is at the discretion of the instructor and does not waive attendance requirements.

Academic Behavior Policy

Both faculty and students at Point Loma Nazarene University have the right to expect a safe and ordered environment for learning. Any student behavior that is disruptive or threatening is a serious affront to Point Loma Nazarene University as a learning community. Students who fail to adhere to appropriate academic behavioral standards may be subject to discipline. Although faculty members communicate general student expectations in their syllabi and disruptive student conduct is already addressed in the Graduate and Professional Studies Student Handbook, the purpose of this policy is to clarify what constitutes disruptive behavior in the academic setting and what actions faculty and relevant administrative offices may take in response to such disruptive student behavior.

"Disruption," as applied to the academic setting, means classroom, instructor or classmate-related or online student behavior that a reasonable faculty member would view as interfering with or deviating from normal classroom, class-related, or other faculty-student activity (advising, co-curricular involvement, etc.). Faculty members are encouraged to communicate positive behavior expectations at the first class session and to include them in course syllabi. Examples of disruptive classroom behavior include, but are not limited to:

- persistent speaking without being recognized or interrupting the instructor or other speakers;
- overt inattentiveness (sleeping or reading the newspaper in class);
- inordinate or inappropriate demands for instructor or classroom time or attention;
- unauthorized use of cell phone or computer;
- behavior that distracts the class from the subject matter or discussion;
- unwanted contact with a classmate in person, via social media or other means;
- inappropriate public displays of affection;
- refusal to comply with reasonable instructor direction;
- invasion of personal space, physical threats, harassing behavior or personal insults and/or
- rude, insensitive or uncivil behavior in online course discussion boards.

The policy applies if the behavior is reported by a faculty member or academic administrator and occurs exclusively or primarily in a student-faculty member interaction whether in a physical or online classroom environment. Incidents which involve both academic and non-academic behavior may result in responses coordinated by the Vice Provost for Academic Administration, The Dean of the College of Extended Learning and the academic program director.

Civil and polite expression of disagreement with the course instructor, during times when the instructor permits discussion, is not in itself disruptive behavior and is not prohibited.

Some students possess medical or psychological conditions that may affect functioning within the standards of the university. Although such students may be considered disabled and are protected under the Rehabilitation Act/ADA, they are required to meet the fundamental university academic and behavioral policy as described in the Graduate and Professional Studies Student Handbook, the Graduate and Professional Studies Catalog and/or faculty syllabi.

Response Procedure

The following response procedure is recommended to faculty who witness or experience disruptive behavior, either in the classroom or in contact with an enrolled student outside the classroom. Depending on its severity, disruptive behavior would result in responses from an escalated use of the strategies below:

1. Verbal and/or written request to stop behavior and warning of potential consequences.
2. Exclusion from the current class period/activity.
3. E-mailed report to program director, dean, and the Vice Provost for Academic Administration (VPAA) (in cases of a severe instance, or multiple instances) depending on faculty wish and severity, may result in:
 - Filing of report and no further action.
 - Student meeting with VPAA and the dean and/or academic program director to develop and sign classroom behavior and growth plan detailing appropriate behaviors and consequences for failure to comply.

Depending on the frequency and severity of the student behavior, consequences may include permanent exclusion from a specific class up to and including administrative withdrawal from the university.

Note: Faculty should immediately report by phone students in an academic context who express either intent to harm themselves or to harm others to the Office of the VPAA, the Dean of the College of Extended Learning or the academic program director, in that order. (University personnel observing non-academic behavior incidents on the part of graduate or Adult Degree Completion students should report non-academic incidents to the academic program director or building manager.) If events occur in classes after university business hours, faculty should call Department of Public Safety and ask to speak to the highest ranking officer who will notify administrative personnel. Students who report tendency to self-harm will not be subject to disciplinary action for making PLNU officials aware of that tendency.

Academic Accommodations

While all students are expected to meet the minimum standards for completion of this course as established by the instructor, students with disabilities may require academic adjustments, modifications or auxiliary aids/services. At Point Loma Nazarene University (PLNU), these students are requested to register with the Disability Resource Center (DRC), located in the Bond Academic Center. (DRC@pointloma.edu or 619-849-2486). The DRC's policies and procedures for assisting such students in the development of an appropriate academic adjustment plan (AP) allows PLNU to comply with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act. Section 504 (a) prohibits discrimination against students with special needs and guarantees all qualified students equal access to and benefits of PLNU programs and activities. After the student files the required documentation, the DRC, in conjunction with the student, will develop an AP to meet that student's specific learning needs. The DRC will thereafter email the student's AP to all faculty who teach courses in which the student is enrolled each semester. The AP must be implemented in all such courses.

If students do not wish to avail themselves of some or all of the elements of their AP in a particular course, it is the responsibility of those students to notify their professor in that course. PLNU highly recommends that DRC students speak with their professors during the first two weeks of each semester about the applicability of their AP in that particular course and/or if they do not desire to take advantage of some or all of the elements of their AP in that course.

Examinations

Examinations may be deferred due only to illness or other equally valid conditions over which the student has no control. Approval for deferral must occur before the scheduled examination. Faculty and/or the department or school has the authority to grant examination deferral.

Grading System

Traditional letter grades (A, B, C, D, F) including plus and minus grades are used to indicate the level of scholarship earned for each course. Except for the correction of an error, all traditional letter grades are final at the conclusion of the academic term. Once the degree has been posted on the student's official transcript, no change of grade action is allowed for courses leading to the degree. The grade of 'C' is the lowest grade acceptable for credit.

[CR] Credit. The grade utilized for designated courses which are graded on a Credit/No Credit basis. Courses graded Credit are counted toward a student's total number of units but have no grade-point value and no effect on the grade-point average.

[I] Incomplete. A grade of Incomplete is given for work which has been completed partially in a satisfactory manner, but which, for valid reasons such as illness or death in the family, is not finished. The grade of I is to be given only on the basis of extraordinary circumstances clearly beyond the student's control. The grade of I is regarded as a deficiency grade and may be removed by the assignment of additional work to make up the deficiency; or, in cases where the incomplete is assigned because of inability to take a final examination, by a special examination. A grade of Incomplete must be made up within two weeks of the end of the course. If the work is not completed, the grade earned will be entered according to completed work for computation into the grade-point average. Until made up, a grade of I is considered as F in determining the student's grade-point average, and eligibility for financial assistance. Note: Federal fair use policy requires ending access to Canvas resources after three weeks. Instructors should keep this in mind when establishing incomplete grade resolution requirements and deadlines.

[IP] In Progress. A provisional grade assigned to courses, such as field work courses, that extend longer than a term due to the nature of the course requirements. The grade of IP carries no grade points and is replaced by the grade earned when the requirements for the course are properly completed. If the work is not completed within one calendar year from the end of the term date of enrollment, the course registration will be concluded and a grade of No Credit [NC] assigned or a grade based on completed work for computation into the grade-point average.

[NC] No Credit. The grade recorded for all non-passing work in those courses graded on a Credit/No Credit basis. The NC grade has no grade-point value and no effect on the grade-point average. In order to complete an NC course to meet degree or credential requirements, including one that was an IP and reverted to NC, a student assigned this grade must register again for the course.

[W] Withdrawn. This grade is recorded when a student doing passing work is given permission by the program director to drop a course after the first 50 % of the course (for exceptional circumstances such as personal and family emergency).

[WF] Withdrawn under failing conditions. This grade is recorded when a student does not request permission or whose petition to withdraw from a class is denied after 50% of the class has passed. A grade of WF is considered the same as an F in calculating the grade-point average.

Grade Points. Letter grades are converted to numerical equivalents for computation according to the following scale.

Courses in which grades of IP, W, CR, and NC are received are not included in determining the grade-point average.

Minimum Grades Required. All students admitted to an adult degree completion program must maintain a program (major course of study) grade-point average of 2.000 (C) or better and a cumulative grade-point average of 2.000 (C) or better as a condition of remaining in the program.

Students are required to earn at least a "C" in all program courses to graduate. Students may repeat courses in which they earned a grade lower than a C. If this is done, each grade appears on the transcript, but the lower grade is not used for grade-point calculation. Students receiving Veterans Benefits may not be eligible for benefits when repeating a course.

Course Grade Appeals

It is the responsibility of the faculty to evaluate student performance and assign grades. The university has established a course grade appeal policy, however, that may be used when a student believes the syllabus was not followed in the grade calculation or if it is thought that grading was done in a capricious and arbitrary manner. The appeal policy does not include student dissatisfaction with a grade based on the faculty member's professional judgment. A Course Grade Appeal Form may be obtained from the Office of Records and must be filed by the last day of the following term in which the grade was given.

Certificate Requirements

Optional certificates are offered in some schools or departments. The requirements governing certificates are as follows:

- A certificate is a skill based program responsive to employer and/or market need that supplements a student's graduate or degree completion studies. Point Loma Nazarene University offers certificates which may be one of three types: academic, professional development or attendance certificates.

- Academic certificates will be between six (6) and eighteen (18) graduate level units. Professional development certificates are based on a ten (10) hours per CEU formula. Attendance certificates are awarded on the basis of full session attendance.
- 50% or more of the units being applied to the certificate must be unique to that certificate.
- Only academic certificates that appear in the student's catalog of record may be earned at the point of graduation.
- Students must earn a 3.0 cumulative grade point average for an academic certificate with no grade lower than C.
- Of the total graduate units in the academic certificate, a minimum of two-thirds must be earned in residence.
- Academic certificate programs will state clearly whether they can be applied to a PLNU degree.
- Neither professional development nor attendance certificates can be converted to academic credit or applied to university programs or degrees.

Independent Study

Independent studies at the university level enable students to enrich their academic experience by pursuing topics and research in a closely supervised program with an academic supervisor. In such a study, a qualified student works with the instructor to develop a plan and syllabus. Adult degree completion students may receive credit for up to six units of independent study to be applied to their degree program. No more than four units may be received from one project or study.

An independent study form and proposal must be submitted with a registration form to the program director, with an approved copy filed with the Office of Records. The independent study must be approved by the instructor, academic unit leader, and the respective dean. Independent study fees may apply depending on circumstances.

Prior Learning Credit

In addition to the program units earned through the adult degree completion program, additional semester units must be earned to meet the degree completion requirements of 120 total semester units. A maximum of 24 units can be evaluated for credit through the following non-traditional methods:

- Testing (CLEP, Dantes)
- Prior Learning for university academic credit as evaluated by the American Council on Education (ACE) or the Council on Adult and Experiential Learning (CAEL) or the Military Experience credit

American Council on Education (ACE) provides guidance on workplace learning. See <http://www.acenet.edu/higher-education/topics/Pages/Adult-Learners.aspx> for more information.

Credit for Prior Learning (CPL) is not credit for "life experience." It is credit for prior learning and students must demonstrate through a portfolio that learning has taken place. The faculty will evaluate the portfolio to determine how much credit should be given for the learning accomplished. The student is responsible for any costs accrued for completing the evaluation.

Transfer Credit

Transfer credit is defined as undergraduate credit earned at other accredited institutions. Students in adult degree completion programs must transfer in a minimum of forty (40) units. At least 36 units must be taken in residence.

Academic Standing

Normal Academic Progress

The academic progress of all students is reviewed by the Dean of the College of Extended Learning. Those who maintain the minimum required grade-point average are in satisfactory scholastic standing and as such are making progress toward a degree. To remain free of academic probation, students must earn a minimum cumulative grade-point average specified by the program in which they are enrolled. The Adult Degree Completion program requires a GPA of 2.0 for the major course of study, with a minimum grade of C grade counting toward the completion of a program requirement. Consistent with undergraduate degree policy, a cumulative GPA of 2.000 is required for graduation.

Unsatisfactory Academic Progress

Point Loma takes seriously a student's inability to make satisfactory progress toward the goal of a degree. The university works with students placed on academic probation to create links between them, advisors, program directors, and other support staff. Policies concerning students on academic probation are administered by the Dean of the College of Extended Learning.

Note: Students who receive federal, state, or veterans aid must meet certain qualitative and quantitative standards of academic progress. As a result, it may be possible for a student to be on academic probation at the university but be ineligible for federal, state and veterans aid. Additional information on PLNU's financial aid satisfactory progress policy is available in the PLNU Student Financial Services Office.

Academic Warning

Students whose semester or session GPA is below acceptable standards may receive a letter of Academic Warning. This includes courses without final grades, such as in progress courses or incomplete courses.

Academic Probation Alert

Students whose cumulative GPA meets the minimum standard for academic good standing, but whose session GPA for a regular semester falls below the program minimum, are placed on alert status. While not technically on academic probation, these students are under the strict supervision of the Office of the Dean of the College of Extended Learning and may be required to repeat courses in which they received a low grade.

Academic Probation

Students whose cumulative GPA falls below minimum standards are placed on academic probation. Probationary students who fail to earn the minimal required session GPA for their program the following semester are disqualified from continuing at the university.

Continuance on Academic Probation

Students who are on probation and earn at least the required GPA for their program during the current session, but whose cumulative GPA is below that standard, may be continued on academic probation at the discretion of the Vice Provost for Graduate and Professional Services, considering all factors. These students are under the strict supervision of the Office of the Vice Provost for Graduate and Professional Services.

Academic Disqualification

Students whose cumulative GPAs fall below the minimum requirements for two consecutive semesters are disqualified. Students who are disqualified from continuation at the university due to performance below minimum GPA standard will receive a letter from the Dean of the College of Extended Learning describing the reason for the disqualification, the student's eligibility or ineligibility to apply for readmission and the route to readmission if eligible.

Withdrawal and Readmission

Withdrawal from the University

There are times when a student finds it necessary to withdraw from the university. In order to avoid being administratively withdrawn, courses and incompletes being converted to a failing grade, and financial payments going into default, students are required to notify the Office of Records and complete a Notice of Intent to Withdraw from the university. If withdrawal occurs while a course is still in progress, students must also follow the procedures listed below for withdrawing from a course.

Withdrawal from a Course

Students may drop a course at any time up to the last day allowable to drop a course. If this action leaves the student with no further courses, a withdrawal form (available online) must be filed in a timely manner. Students with extenuating circumstances, such as personal or family emergencies after the last day to drop, may contact the Center for Student Success to begin the process for withdrawal. If the action is approved, courses are then graded with a W (withdrawal) unless the faculty deems the student's performance to be unsatisfactory at the time of withdrawal, at which point a WF grade would be assigned.

Students who cease attending or never attended a course for which they are registered receive an F in that course if the above procedures for dropping/withdrawing are not followed.

Financial implications for withdrawals may be found under "Refund Policy."

Readmission

Students who have been admitted to the university, have attended classes, and have subsequently withdrawn formally or failed to register for more than one semester (or two sequential Quads) must complete a Readmit form through the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies Admissions. Students who have been administratively withdrawn or who have not been enrolled for three calendar years from the last date of attendance must submit a new application in all cases. Students who are successfully readmitted are subject to the program requirements of the catalog under which they re-enter unless a leave of absence has been granted.

Administrative Withdrawal

Students who have not attended or enrolled in a course for one semester, are not currently completing coursework and have not officially withdrawn, will be administratively withdrawn. Such withdrawal may have financial aid implications. Students with this status must submit a new application to the university and to their degree program.

Curricular Exceptions

Occasionally, an exception to the requirements in this catalog may be appropriate. For consideration of a curricular exception, students must file a Curricular Exceptions petition with their program director. The program director will make a recommendation to the appropriate dean. If approved by the Dean of the College of Extended Learning. Decisions regarding exceptions are based on the merit of each individual case.

All curricular exceptions combined may not exceed 20% of the total units required for the degree or credential. The rationale for such changes must be substantiated with official academic records that become part of the student's PLNU academic records in the Office of Records.

Examples of curricular exceptions include: a course substitution of one PLNU course substituting for another PLNU course; or a circumstance requiring the student to take an elective to replace the unit requirement for the program.

Application for Graduation

A student who intends to graduate must complete an Application for Degree Candidacy obtained from their Student Services Counselor. The form must be filed with the Office of Records no less than 60 days prior to the anticipated degree posting date. All work taken toward a degree must be completed in full with passing grades recorded prior to the anticipated degree posting date. Degrees are conferred three (3) times per year at the close of each academic term. If all program requirements for the semester of application are not completed, the student must reapply for graduation. Degrees are posted in the semester of final registration and/or completion of final requirements.

Commencement convocation is held two times a year, at the close of the fall and spring terms. All candidates who completed their work and had their degree posted in the current academic year may participate. A candidate who is deficient in meeting graduation requirements by nine (9) units may be permitted to participate in the following commencement. The diploma is available to graduates approximately 10 weeks after satisfactory completion of all work for the degree after the closest degree confirmation date.

All candidates must complete all program courses to participate in Commencement unless all of the following are met:

- There are no more than nine (9) non-program units lacking to complete the required units for the degree; and
- There is an approved plan to complete the remaining units in the immediately following term

Graduation Honors

Graduation with Latin Honors. The university recognizes academic excellence with the following honors designation based exclusively on the residential grade-point average (GPA earned in residence at PLNU):

- Summa cum Laude (highest honors), 3.900 and above
- Magna cum Laude (high honors), 3.700 to 3.899
- Cum Laude (honors), 3.500 to 3.699

Final honors are designated on diplomas. To be considered for honors a student must have a minimum cumulative grade-point average of 3.500, including all transfer work. The specific level of honors noted above is only based on PLNU residential units.

The university announces unofficial honors during the commencement ceremony using these calculations and based on units earned by the conclusion of the previous term. Official honors are posted with the degree.

Education Records (FERPA) and Directory Information

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 as amended affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. These include: 1) the right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days of the day the university receives a request for access, 2) the right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading, 3) the right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student's education records, and 4) the right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by Point Loma to comply with the requirements of FERPA.

FERPA has specifically identified certain information called directory information that may be disclosed without student consent. Although directory information may be disclosed without student consent, PLNU is not required to release directory information.

The university has defined directory information as name, address (including electronic mail), telephone number, date and place of birth, major field of study, dates of attendance, enrollment status, degrees, honors and awards received, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, degree candidacy, and the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended. This information may be provided, upon review by the Vice Provost for Academic Administration, as public information or to individuals who demonstrate a valid need to contact students.

Periodically, PLNU conducts formal and informal photo and video shoots (around the campus and at off-campus events and activities) for use in university publications, social media, promotional videos/commercials, and the PLNU Web site. Students who require that no identifiable image be used by the university must notify Marketing and Creative Services in writing prior to the second Monday of each semester. Students should email their request to photo-optout@pointloma.edu and include their full name and student ID number. In addition, PLNU may submit information about students' participation in school activities to media outlets. Students who require that their names be excluded from such stories must notify Marketing and Creative Services in writing prior to the second Monday of each semester.

The university may disclose education records to college officials with legitimate educational interests. A college official is a person employed by the university; a member of the Board of Trustees; or an individual serving on a committee, such as disciplinary or grievance committees. A college official has a legitimate educational interest if the information aids the official in fulfilling professional functions. PLNU also includes among college officials a student appointed to an official committee or assisting another official in performing tasks and outside service providers who perform an institutional service of function such as attorneys, auditors, and the National Student Clearinghouse. The university may also disclose education records to post-secondary institutions in which a student is seeking or intending to enroll, or is already attending if the disclosure is for purposes related to the student's enrollment or transfer.

Questions relative to FERPA policies should be referred to the Office of the Vice Provost for Academic Administration or may be referenced at FERPA.

Degree Program Information

Masters

Master of Arts in Teaching, Preliminary Teaching Credentials

The School of Education offers a specially designed Master of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.) degree that includes one of the four preliminary teaching credentials approved by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing:

- Multiple Subject - teaching credential program designed for candidates seeking to teach at the elementary grade levels or in P - Adult self-contained, general education classrooms.
- Single Subject - teaching credential program designed for candidates seeking to teach at the junior high, middle school, or high school levels or in a departmentalized setting serving grades P - Adult.
- Mild/Moderate - one of the two (2) Educational Specialist Preliminary teaching credentials. This authorization is related to services for individuals with a primary disability of specific learning disabilities, emotional disturbance, mild/moderate intellectual disability, other health impairment, and autism spectrum disorders within the disability area.
Moderate/Severe - authorization related to services for individuals with a primary disability for autism, moderate/severe intellectual disability, emotional disturbance, and multiple disabilities.

*Completing credential courses does not guarantee the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC) will issue a credential. If any requirements for a preliminary credential are altered by the CTC during the candidate's program, the candidates will be held responsible for those requirements in accordance with regulations designated by this accrediting agency.

The M.A.T. is offered in two (2) phases to candidates who hold a Bachelor's degree:

1. Phase I consists of 23 -29 units of coursework and 10 units of clinical practice (student teaching) culminating in a preliminary teaching credential (33 - 39 units). The candidate is not required to finish Phase II of the M.A.T. degree in order to earn the preliminary credential.
2. Phase II usually takes place after a candidate has obtained the preliminary credential and has obtained a first teaching position. Phase II consists of 7-13 units, depending on the program, for a total of 46 units.

Program Learning Outcomes

Candidates who complete the Master of Arts in Teaching, Preliminary Teaching Credentials and Professional Services Credentials will be able to:

Equip

- Promote the success of all students by being servant leaders who serve collaboratively and effectively with professional excellence, honesty, integrity, and sensitivity.

Transform

- Demonstrate the positive power of diversity and advocacy for universal social justice within their classrooms, schools, districts, and communities; and
- Apply faith-based influences and beliefs within educational organizations.

Empower

- Reflect and engage in on-going scholarly, professional, and spiritual growth; and
- Serve effectively as research-based, transformational leaders within their classrooms, schools, districts, and communities.

Program Eligibility for the Master of Arts in Teaching and Preliminary Teaching Credentials

- Proof of a score on the California Basic Educational Skills Test (CBEST) or another form of Basic Skills Testing as approved by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing. This exam need not be passed prior to admission but must have been attempted by the candidate;
- Education and Grade-Point Average: Teacher candidates must have completed a baccalaureate or higher degree from a regionally accredited college or university. A cumulative undergraduate grade point average of 3.000 is required in order to be admitted into the M.A.T./credential program. Candidates with a cumulative grade point average lower than 3.000 may apply for "Admission under Exception:"
- Two or more letters of recommendation from appropriate persons who have the knowledge of the applicant's character and ability to work with children or youth. (References from friends or relatives are not appropriate);
- M.A.T. interview: All candidates must complete a personal interview with a program admissions chair.

Graduation Requirements

1. A completed Application for Degree Candidacy (online or in the Records Office, Point Loma campus);
2. Satisfactory completion of the prescribed course of study with a cumulative grade-point average of 3.000 or higher;
3. Completion of the approved graduate program consisting of a minimum of 46 units;
4. A recommendation from the program coordinator and director of the Branch Campus;
5. All accounts paid in full;

6. All requirements for graduate degrees must be completed within an eight (8)-year period from the time of initial enrollment in the program.

Common courses required of all Multiple, Single, and Special Education Preliminary Credentials:

- EDU 600 - Foundations of Education and Learning Theory (3)
- EDU 602 - Foundations of Special Education (3) *
- EDU 603 - Classroom Assessment and Research Practices (3)
- EDU 617 A, B, C, D - Teaching and Learning Capstone: Contemporary Issues in the Vocation of Education (.5 - 2)
- EDU 601 - Language Acquisition and Diverse Populations (3) *
OR
- EDU 653 - Principles of Language Acquisition for Students with Moderate/Severe Disabilities (3) **

Total Common Courses Required for all Preliminary Credentials: 13 Units

Note(s):

*Course requires 20 clock hours of observation and participation specific to culturally and linguistically diverse learners in a culturally diverse and inclusive school setting.

Course requires 20 clock hours of observation and participation specific to learners with moderate/severe disabilities in addition to culturally and linguistically diverse in a culturally diverse and inclusive school setting.

Teacher Education candidates who have completed fourteen (14) units of Education coursework at Point Loma Nazarene University required for their bachelor's degree may complete the remainder of the teaching credential within the Master of Arts in Teaching degree, requiring the addition of the Reading and Literacy Added Authorization eight (8) units and six (6) elective units to complete.

Preliminary Multiple Subject Teaching Credential and Intern Program

A Multiple Subject Teaching Credential enables a candidate to teach in a self-contained (P-Adult) classroom in California. Candidates receive coursework in educational research and theory as well as methodology in reading, language arts, and mathematics. Credential requirements are subject to change based on state and federal requirements which supersede any existing catalog requirements.

Candidates for the Multiple Subject credential must complete the 13 units listed above under Common Courses.

Program Learning Outcomes

Candidates who complete the Master of Arts in Teaching (Multiple Subject) program will be able to:

- EDU 612 - Differentiated Mathematics Instruction for All Learners (3) **

Note(s):

*Course requires 20 clock hours of participation in a classroom specific to literary instruction in a culturally diverse and inclusive school setting. Candidates work with a small group in the area of literacy under the direction of a cooperating teacher.

Course requires 20 clock hours of observation and participation specific to math instruction in a culturally diverse and inclusive school setting.

Clinical Practice

Clinical Practice is the culminating experience in which candidates work full time in classrooms under the guidance of cooperating teachers in public or private schools assigned by the field experience coordinator at the branch campus.

Traditional Candidates take:

- EDU 630 - Elementary Clinical Practice I (CalTPA Cycle 1) (4)
- EDU 6CP1 - Clinical Practice Seminar I (1)
- EDU 634 - Elementary Clinical Practice II (CalTPA Cycle 2) (4)
- EDU 6CP2 - Clinical Practice Seminar II (1)

OR Candidates who are under an intern contract with a school district take:

- EDU 648 - Intern Support Seminar (3) Each Quad, Up to six (6) times
- EDU 632 - Intern Elementary Clinical Practice I (CalTPA Cycle 1) (4)
- EDU 6CP1 - Clinical Practice Seminar I (1)
- EDU 636 - Intern Elementary Clinical Practice II (CalTPA Cycle 2) (4)
- EDU 6CP2 - Clinical Practice Seminar II (1)

Total Multiple Subject Clinical Practice Courses: 10 Units

Total Courses Required for M.A.T. Phase I for Multiple Subject Candidates: 33 Units +Up to 18 additional units for Interns

Preliminary Single Subject Teaching Credential and Intern Program

Individuals who plan to teach at the secondary level pursue the Single Subject credential in an approved discipline of their choice. A Single Subject credential enables a candidate to teach in a departmentalized (P-Adult) classroom. Credential requirements are subject to change based on state and federal requirements which supersede any existing catalog requirements.

Candidates for the Single Subject credential must complete the 13 units listed above under Common Courses.

Program Learning Outcomes

Candidates who complete the Master of Arts in Teaching (Single Subject) program will be able to:

Equip

- Possess the skills and dispositions to develop instructional plans and engage students in content-specific learning experiences that lead to improved student outcomes.

Transform

- Possess the skills and dispositions to promote the learning of diverse learners at the secondary level;
- Utilize subject-specific pedagogy, content-related literacy instruction, and developmentally appropriate instruction to support learning for all students; and
- Reflect positive personal presence, age-appropriate strategies, and research-based knowledge of adolescent psychology to create safe classroom environments that promote learning for all students.

Empower

- Analyze assessment data from instruction through thoughtful reflection that informs professional practice for continual improvement.

Single Subject Specific Courses

- EDU 620 - Literacy Instruction for Secondary Teachers (3)
- EDU 621 - General Methods for Secondary Teachers (3)

Note(s):

*Course requires 20 clock hours of participation in a classroom specific to literacy instruction in a culturally diverse and inclusive school setting. Candidates work with a small group in the area of literacy under the direction of a cooperating teacher.

Course requires 20 clock hours of observation and participation specific to content area teaching strategies in a culturally diverse and inclusive school setting.

Choose one of the content-specific pedagogy courses:

The Single Subject Content Methods courses (EDU 622-EDU 629) consist of 15 hours of assigned coursework and 30 hours with a subject-specific mentor. Candidates should contact their program advisor about dates for these courses.

- EDU 622 - Methods of Teaching Secondary Language Arts (3)
- EDU 623 - Methods of Teaching Secondary Mathematics (3)
- EDU 624 - Methods of Teaching Secondary Science (3)
- EDU 625 - Methods of Teaching Secondary Social Science (3)
- EDU 626 - Methods of Teaching Secondary Foreign Language (3)
- EDU 627 - Methods of Teaching Secondary Visual Arts (3)

- EDU 628 - Methods of Teaching Secondary Physical Education (3)
- EDU 629 - Content-Specific Pedagogy of Secondary Teachers (3)

*Other Credential Requirements

- Subject Matter Competence:
 - Single Subject candidates may meet this requirement by completing a state-approved subject matter program or by passing the appropriate CSET. Information about examinations is available at each branch campus.
 - Multiple Subject candidates are required to pass the CSET: MS (101, 202, and 103).
 - Special Education candidates may meet this requirement by completing a state-approved subject matter program or passing the CSET in an NCLB-core subject area.
- Professional Preparation: met by completing the sequence of courses for the appropriate credential program.
- US Constitution: Knowledge of the Constitution is demonstrated by either a California Commission on Teacher Credentialing approved college level course, by exam, or by a workshop followed by an exam offered by PLNU.
- Developing English Language Skills: Met by passing one of the following courses: EDU 610 (Multiple Subject or Special Education) or EDU 620 (single subject).
- Teacher Performance Assessment (TPA)/E-Portfolio: All candidates are also required to successfully pass California's Teacher Performance Assessment (TPA). All credential candidates are required to establish an electronic portfolio, providing evidence of meeting required competencies.
- Current CPR Certification: Successful completion of an approved infant-child-adult CPR course and documentation of that fact is required before applying for a preliminary credential.
- Computer Level I Competencies: Computer Level I competencies are imbedded into Education coursework and successful completion of coursework will meet this standard.
- Health Clearance: Evidence must be presented that the candidate is free from tuberculosis.
- Certificate of Clearance: Teacher candidates must possess or apply for a Certificate of Clearance or CCTC document that requires fingerprinting clearance as they apply for admission to the credential program.
- Reading Instruction Competence Assessment (RICA): Multiple Subject and Education Specialist candidates are required to pass the Reading Instruction Competence Assessment (RICA) exam prior to applying for a teaching credential.

*Note: The above must be completed in order to obtain a credential.

Point Loma Nazarene University provides a handbook for each credential program. The M.A.T. Candidate Handbook is provided to those applying to the program and contains the actual forms required for credential program admission, fieldwork, and clinical practice, as well as the instructions for completion.

Once admitted to the program, candidates are assessed during each course as well as in their fieldwork experiences. Decisions regarding each candidate's ability to continue in the program are made prior to both the first and second student teaching assignments.

Upon successful completion of all requirements and coursework, candidates may apply for the appropriate Preliminary credential with the credential analyst at the branch campus.

The California Teaching Performance Assessments (TPA)

The School of Education implements the CalTPA as one of several measures to assess candidate proficiency and the preliminary credential program effectiveness for ALL preliminary credential programs. The CTC requires that all credential candidates pass the Teaching Performance Assessment before applying for a teaching credential as defined in Standard 19 of the 2042 credential document.

Information about TPA

All preliminary teacher candidates at Point Loma Nazarene University in Multiple Subject, Single Subject, and Special Education programs are required to participate in the Teaching Performance Assessment (CalTPA) program, as defined in Standard 19 of the 2042 credential document, while engaged in coursework leading to a credential.

The CalTPA process is an integrated part of the individual class coursework and clinical practice experience.

All candidates are required to follow the calendar and deadlines of the CalTPA process and must receive a passing score on all four tasks to be recommended for a teaching credential.

The Teacher Education Assessment Fee of $500.00 includes all assessment services except a fee of $50.00 for late submission per task and a rescoring fee of $75.00 for each re-submitted task.

The content of the four tasks will be introduced, practiced and completed throughout the preliminary credential course of study following an intentional course sequence:

1. Subject Specific Pedagogy Task
2. Designing Instruction Task
3. Assessing Learning Task
4. Culminating Teaching Experience Task

Submittal procedures for each of the four performance assessment tasks are as follows:

- Every candidate submits Tasks 1 through 4 on the dates designated using the Task Stream E-Portfolio system.
- The Task 3 submission includes the required student work samples scanned and uploaded into Task Stream.
- The Task 4 submission includes the required attachment of student work and the required video tape of the teaching sequence uploaded into Task Stream.
- Any task not submitted to Task Stream by the date and time designated is charged an additional $50 late fee.
- Task scores are provided to candidates within three weeks after submittal.
- Each task is scored on a 4-point rubric as prescribed by the CCTC.
- Candidates must achieve a score level of 3 or 4 to pass each task.

If a candidate does not score above a score level 2 for a task that is submitted, the following procedure will be implemented.

- The candidate reviews the instructional material provided through EDU600A and the assessor comments, and completes the resubmittal form.
- The candidate rewrites the task and submits the first rewrite including a $75 rescoring fee.
- The candidate's rewrite of the task is scored. If the candidate scores above a score level 2, the task is complete.
- If the candidate does not score above a score level 2, the candidate meets with the TPA Liaison or designee and enrolls in EDU 691 Special Studies (1 unit) where specific content is covered in the student's area of need.
- The candidate rewrites and resubmits the task and pays an additional $75 rescoring fee.
- The candidate's rewrite is rescored.
- If after the second rewrite the candidate does not score above a score level 2, a special review of the candidate's status in the program is completed with the Branch Campus Director, TPA Liaison, and the candidate's advisor to consider removal from the credential program.
- At the end of the CalTPA process, the candidate must have a cumulative score of 12 points across all 4 tasks in order to have successfully completed the CalTPA.
- If a candidate does not pass a task, he or she may not continue taking further CalTPA tasks until passage of prior tasks. All candidates must successfully pass the CalTPA in order to be recommended for a Preliminary Credential by Point Loma Nazarene University.
- Candidates receive a certification of completion recorded on their transcript upon successfully completing all 4 tasks of the CalTPA.
- All candidates must adhere to the University's Academic Honesty Policy as written in the Graduate Catalog.

Title II Information

According to federal regulations, all accredited departments, schools, and colleges of education are required to report information regarding their candidates' passing rates on examinations. A summary of the passage rates may be found on the PLNU web site at www.pointloma.edu/education

Clinical Counseling

The Master of Arts in Clinical Counseling (MACC) program can be completed in two years of continuous enrollment. Classes are designed as collaborative learning experiences where students and instructors are engaged in asynchronous dialog throughout the week. Students learn in community as they participate in a cohort experience that not only provides for a great learning environment, but also develops a network of friends who share common goals.

Students in the MACC program will decide, by the end of their first year, whether to pursue clinical hours to become either a Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor (LPCC) or a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT). During the second year of the program, students enroll in supervised practicum as clinical counseling trainees. Our practicum students are required to serve the community of San Diego by providing no/low-cost counseling at our on-site training clinic in Mission Valley before being placed in off-site practicum locations.

Upon graduation the student applies to the Board of Behavioral Sciences to become a registered intern and then continues to accrue the necessary hours of clinical experience in order to sit for the state licensing examination to become either an LPCC or an LMFT.

Program Learning Outcomes for Clinical Counseling

The core curriculum of the Master of Arts in Clinical Counseling program is to develop students with these key outcomes:

1. Students will articulate a clear, accurate understanding of their professional identity as either an LMFT or LPCC, or both.
2. Students will demonstrate knowledge of the fundamental domains in their selected area of specialization, in professional clinical counseling (i.e., foundations; counseling prevention, and intervention, diversity & advocacy; assessment; research & evaluation; and diagnosis) or marriage and family therapy (i.e., human development, family dynamics, systemic thinking, interactional theories, traditional and contemporary marriage and family theories, research and cultural context).
3. Students will demonstrate ability to apply relevant research and evaluation models in practice of clinical counseling.
4. Students will demonstrate skills and practices of clinical counseling in the delivery of mental health services (e.g., assessment, diagnosis, treatment, termination, documentation, & ethical practice).
5. Students will deliver mental health services with multicultural competence and sensitivity.
6. Students will demonstrate ability to integrate faith with clinical counseling practice in clinically appropriate, culturally sensitive, and ethical manner.

Admission Requirements

Point Loma Nazarene University assesses the Master of Arts in Clinical Counseling applicants on the basis of evidence submitted via application documentation. Applications will be processed upon receipt of all required materials. To be admitted into the Clinical Counseling program, an applicant must meet these requirements:

1. Submit a completed Point Loma Nazarene University online application form.
2. Have earned a bachelor's degree or graduate degree from an accredited institution, with a cumulative undergraduate or graduate grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 or higher on a 4.0 scale (*). All hours at the degree level from accredited institutions will be considered in calculating the cumulative GPA. Applicants must submit one official transcript from all colleges and universities attended for undergraduate and graduate work.

Note: Official Transcript: a transcript with a registrar's seal from the institution granting credit sent directly to Point Loma Nazarene University, 3900 Lomaland Dr., San Diego, CA 92106

If your University provides official electronic transcripts, please email to gradprocessing@pointloma.edu.

1. Submit a professional resume.
2. Submit a 500-600 word () Statement of Purpose addressing the following topics:
 - A personal statement on why you wish to participate in the MASOL program,
 - Your current philosophy of leadership,
 - Your relevant academic and professional experience, and
 - Your future career or life goals.

(*) Contact a graduate enrollment counselor regarding the exceptions process if you don't meet the minimum GPA requirement.

()The five-paragraph essay is to be formatted in APA style and should reflect your best writing. For help in writing the essay, see statementofpurpose.com. Your paper will be graded on a 5-point scale, and you must receive a minimum 3.5 to meet the benchmark.

Admissions UNDER EXCEPTION

Applicants who do not meet the minimum standards for admissions, but who can demonstrate an exceptionally rich experiential background and/or have shown a dramatic change in academic performance, may petition the academic department or school for a special review of their status. The academic department or school reviews the petition along with the student's application package and determines the merits and appropriateness of the request.

A copy of the petition must be filed with the Office of Graduate Admissions. In order to apply for admissions under exception, the applicant must also provide a statement outlining the applicant's reasons and justification for requesting an exception to admission policies with supporting documentation. The applicant is also required to schedule an interview with a Point Loma Nazarene University academic advisor from the school to which the applicant is applying.

Following the interview, the academic advisor submits a summary of the applicant's interview and petition package to the department chair or dean of the school. The Graduate and Extended Studies Committee is the final authority for admissions under exception.

Graduation Requirements

1. Successful completion of all core requirements, an area of concentration, and the project or thesis,
2. A completed application for degree candidacy conveyed to the Office of Records,
3. All student accounts paid in full, and
4. All requirements completed within eight years from the time of initial enrollment.
5. A personal interview (in person or using video conferencing technology) with the student will take place at the end of the program to review the things that have been learned and how the student felt the program equipped him/her for servant leadership. The interviews are designed to ensure that the student has a clear understanding of the material covered in courses taken and to evaluate the effectiveness of the program.

Note: Student reviews will be in person (face-to-face) or use video conferencing technology. To comply with U.S. Department of Education and accreditation requirements, students are required to show a government issued photo I.D.

TOTAL: 63 Program units

Education, Master of Arts

Program Description

The Master of Arts degree in Education is an advanced academic degree that builds upon an appropriate undergraduate foundation. A total of 36 semester units are required to complete this program. The curriculum for each of the specializations in this degree links theory to practice for teachers, counselors, principals, and those in educational roles outside of the K-12 setting.

Program Learning Outcomes

Candidates who complete the Master of Arts in Education program will be able to:

Equip

- Promote the success of all students by understanding, responding to, and influencing the larger political, social, economic, legal, and cultural context.

Transform

- Promote the success of all students by modeling a personal code of ethics and developing professional leadership capacity.

Empower

- Promote the success of all students by collaborating with families and community members, responding to diverse community interests and needs, and mobilizing community resources.

Program Eligibility for the Master of Arts in Education

- Proof of completion of the California Basic Educational Skills Test (CBEST) or equivalent accredited by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CCTC). A minimum score is not required and applicants who do not pass the CBEST can be admitted and will be provided support to pass the CBEST as soon as possible. Candidates seeking a Master's degree which does not include an approved CCTC credential are not required to take the CBEST or equivalent exam;
- A cumulative undergraduate grade point average of 3.000 is required to be admitted in the M.A. in Education program. Candidates with a cumulative grade point average less than 3.000 may apply for "Admission under Exception" which is reviewed by the program director and dean;
- A writing sample that indicates graduate-level ability; and
- An interview with the appropriate program director or Admissions chair at a branch campus.

Applicants who do not meet the above standards but can demonstrate that they have an exceptionally rich experiential background and/or have demonstrated dramatic change in academic performance may petition the School of Education to review their status.

Graduation Requirements

1. A completed Application for Degree Candidacy (online or in the Records Office, Point Loma campus);
2. Satisfactory completion of the prescribed course of study with a cumulative grade point average of 3.000 or higher;
3. Completion of the approved graduate program consisting of a minimum of 36 units;
4. A recommendation from the program coordinator and director of the branch campus;
5. All accounts paid in full; and
6. All requirements for graduate degrees must be completed within an eight-year period from the time of initial enrollment in the program.

Up to six units of post-baccalaureate coursework aligned with the course of study below, and unused for a previous master's degree, may be transferred from other institutions toward this degree. Candidates desiring to transfer coursework must petition this through their advisor during the first semester of enrollment.

Transfer of Credits

Up to six units of approved post-baccalaureate coursework aligned with the course of study below, and unused for a previous Master's degree, may be transferred from other institutions toward this degree. Candidates desiring to transfer coursework must petition this through their advisor during the first semester of enrollment.

The Master of Arts in Education degrees are considered advanced degrees beyond preliminary teacher credential coursework, signified by GED course numbers. Prior coursework taken toward a preliminary teaching credential cannot be used as credit toward a PLNU Master of Arts in Education degree, concentration in Counseling and Guidance or Educational Administration. However, graduate credit earned toward a Clear Teaching credential may be approved for credit toward all of the concentrations in the Master of Arts in Education degree. PLNU credential candidates may utilize up to 12 units of post-baccalaureate credential coursework. Graduate credits purchased through PLNU for completion of a district-sponsored Induction Program may be applied toward the Master of Arts in Education, concentrations in Educational Administration and Leadership in Learning.

Concentrations

The Master of Arts in Education offers three concentrations: (1) Counseling and Guidance; (2) Educational Leadership; or (3) Teaching and Learning.

- Counseling and Guidance
- Educational Administration
- Leadership In Learning

Counseling and Guidance

The purpose of the concentration in Counseling and Guidance is to prepare counselors for service to students in a changing world. Candidates have three options:

1. Candidates desiring to serve as school counselors in California's public schools complete the Pupil Personnel Services (PPS) credential that requires forty-eight (48) semester units listed below, or
2. Candidates can complete the Master of Arts degree with the required thirty-six (36) units, or
3. Candidates can complete the Master of Arts degree with a specialization in College Counseling and Student Development

The admissions requirements for the above options are identical and students can complete a change of degree/program form to move from one option to the other.

Program Learning Outcomes for the Master of Arts in Education - Counseling and Guidance

The program learning outcomes for the Master of Arts in Counseling and Guidance are built on and related to the School of Education outcomes symbolized in three themes: equip, transform, and empower. The Counseling and Guidance concentration implements these major themes in the curriculum.

Leadership In Learning

The Master of Arts in Education with a concentration in Leadership In Learning strategically refines the ability of educators to deeply understand and apply "best practices" and the latest research on effective teaching to significantly improve student learning in diverse settings. This program substantially builds on the foundation of initial teacher preparation and the California Standards for the Teaching Profession (CSTP). This program also supports those candidates seeking advanced levels of teaching and learning practice for working with families, churches, businesses, or community entities.

Candidates serving in private schools or charter schools, or others who are not part of a Beginning Teacher induction program may earn a California Commission for Teacher Credentialing (CTC) approved 2042 Multiple or Single Subject Clear Credential as part of the Master of Arts program.

Other options for fulfilling the program elective requirements offer an in-depth emphasis/authorization to be chosen from a variety of areas including:

- Reading and Literacy Added Authorization
- Diverse and Cross Cultural Environments for Leaders
- Instructional Leadership
- Instructional Design with Technology
- Leading Instructional Design for Professionals
- Clear Teaching Credential

*Up to twelve (12) units of approved post-baccalaureate coursework from PLNU may be applied to this degree.

Program Learning Outcomes for the Master of Arts in Education - Leadership In Learning

The program learning outcomes for the Master of Arts in Education with a concentration in Leadership In Learning are built on and related to the School of Education outcomes that are symbolized in three themes: equip, transform, and empower. Maestria En Cristiana Ministerio

Master of Arts in Christian Ministry

Mission Statement

Graduate programs exist primarily as a response to the need for post-graduate theological education for ministry in the Southwest Educational Region of the Church of the Nazarene served by Point Loma Nazarene University. This graduate program exists in a community of learning and living in covenant to Christ, embodied in a Christian liberal arts context. This offers the strength of rich diversity of various Christian traditions and of critical reflection in the inter-disciplinary relationship of learners and leaders. Therefore, those providing leadership in the program see their task as:

- Preparing both clergy and lay leaders for serving in Christian congregations and related institutions;
- Preparing scholars for higher education in the public realm, the church, and the academy; and
- Enlarging the vision of practical theology and Christian mission as a public enterprise, responding to the increasingly complex theological, ethical, and socio-political issues facing the worlds of the present and the future.

Program Description

The Master of Arts in Christian Ministry program is designed to educate and accommodate students who live at a distance (often in ministry assignments). Courses are offered in one week intensives or during weekends. Students are expected to engage in completing online discussions, reading assignments, and writing term papers as part of the hybrid classes. The curriculum has a strong emphasis on both academic rigor (preparation for possible continuation of graduate studies) and practical ministry. This program is offered in English and Spanish.

The degree is designed around four central emphases which are highlighted in the core courses:

- Christian Formation
- Christian Scripture
- Church in Mission
- Christian Tradition

Prior to completion of the thirty-six (36) required units for the PLNU Master of Arts in Christian Ministry degree, students will have the option to request of the Office of Records that the PLNU degree not be posted, allowing the maximum number of units to be utilized toward the completion of the Master of Divinity degree as outlined in the partnership agreement between PLNU and Nazarene Theological Seminary.

Vision Statement

The purpose of this degree is to provide a program in academic and professional ministry competencies rooted in the classic theological disciplines and engaged with contemporary life, resulting in leadership skills in the formation of character in Christian communities. The desired outcome is the integration of theology and ministry culminating in graduates who are “practical thinkers and thinking practitioners.” The program builds on basic prerequisites in undergraduate work and professional experience, providing education intended to lead to lifelong learning.

Program Learning Outcomes

Students who successfully complete PLNU's Master of Arts in Christian Ministry program will be able to:

- Incorporate Christian formation in the local congregation and the life of the candidate;
- Interpret scripture especially as related to preaching and teaching in the local church;
- Explain the nature, mission, and social context of the Church, especially as related to ecclesial practices and leadership of the pastor in the local congregation; and
- Analyze theology, ethics, and Church history, especially as related to the Wesleyan tradition in contemporary ministry.

Program Eligibility for the Master of Arts in Christian Ministry

- Completion of a baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution or the equivalent;

Master of Business Administration

Program Description

The PLNU Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree provides a balance of qualitative and quantitative business knowledge and prepares the students with the wisdom to make critical decisions with purpose. The Fermanian School of Business offers the MBA in three (3) formats: an Evening or Online MBA for experienced working professionals that can be completed in two years, and a Daytime MBA for recent college graduates designed to be completed in one year.

Program Learning Outcomes

Candidates who complete the Master of Business Administration program will be able to:

- Demonstrate competency of the concepts, models and theories in the core business disciplines.
- Integrate learning across core business disciplines to identify key strategies and opportunities.
- Identify business issues and recommend solutions using analytical and critical thinking skills.
- Evaluate the impact of business decisions in a global context.
- Analyze the ethical impacts of executive-level decision making.
- Convey ideas and decisions clearly through effective communication.
- Demonstrate the ability to work collaboratively and function as an effective team member.

Candidates who complete the concentration in Organizational Leadership will be able to:

- Apply organizational behavior concepts to analyze and make recommendations regarding corporate culture.

Candidates who complete the concentration in Innovation and Entrepreneurship will be able to:

- Apply innovation and entrepreneurship knowledge and methods in the development of viable innovations.

Candidates who complete the concentration in Project Management will be able to:

- Apply project management knowledge, concepts and processes in the development of a project management plan.

Candidates who complete the concentration in Healthcare Management will be able to:

- Apply project management knowledge, concepts and processes in the development of a project management plan for a healthcare environment.

Graduation Requirements

1. A completed Application for Degree Candidacy (online or in the Office of Records, Point Loma campus).
2. Successful completion of all required curriculum with a minimum of 42 semester units of coursework.
3. Achievement of a cumulative GPA of 3.000 or higher. A student may earn a maximum of six units of "C" grades in the program. Any course in which a student receives a grade lower than a "C" must be repeated and the units will not be added to earned units.
4. All accounts paid in full.
5. All requirements for graduate degrees must be completed within an eight-year period from the time of initial enrollment in the program.

Program Prerequisite

All students must successfully complete the Excel Leveling Module, or equivalent, prior to their first course in the program.

Course Prerequisites

Prerequisite Leveling Modules are required for BUS 615 Accounting for Decision Making, BUS 670 Financial Management, and BUS625 Applied Research Methods. All students must successfully pass the prerequisite leveling modules prior to beginning to respective courses.

Evening and Online MBA Program

The Evening and Online MBA programs are for experienced working professionals who want to take control of their career by acquiring four important drivers of influential leadership - deep qualitative and quantitative business knowledge, wisdom in the face of difficult business decisions, a powerful personal network, and inspiration to follow your purpose. The program is designed to be completed in two years. However, students may accelerate their program or extend it over a longer period of time to accommodate their schedules.

A collegial environment supports depth of learning and builds strong relationships among faculty and peers. In the cohort model, students progress through the curriculum together, completing the 36 units of core business courses and 6 units of electives. Students may select from four concentrations, including Organizational Leadership, Innovation and Entrepreneurship, Project Management, and Healthcare Management. The Online MBA offers the Organizational Leadership concentration in an online format. All students may take any concentration in a face-to-face format.

The Fermanian School of Business Evening MBA program is committed to serving the experienced business professional with the best value in quality, academic rigor, professional support services, and individual attention to support students in meeting their academic and professional goals.

Total: 42 units

Additional Concentrations

MBA students may earn additional concentrations (Evening and Online) or a concentration (Daytime) by taking the six required units for each concentration. Students must notify the program director prior to the completion of the 42 units in their current program of their intention to earn an additional concentration, with a subsequent change of program form filed with the Office of Records.

Once a degree is posted, MBA alumni have the option of earning a Graduate Certificate in Business Administration rather than an additional concentration.

Master of Science in Athletic Training

The Master of Science in Athletic Training is a 60-unit program comprising two eight-week summer terms and four traditional 16-week terms.

The MS-AT is designed to prepare highly knowledgeable and career-focused professionals for the dynamic and rapidly growing field of athletic training. The MS-AT will challenge and fully equip students to become highly effective allied health care professionals and lifelong learners who incorporate a Christian perspective, academic excellence and professional/relational proficiency. The MS-AT will consist of extensive laboratory and clinical experiences designed to provide a multifaceted learning experience that incorporates current research and scholarly instruction. The desired outcome of the curriculum is to emphasize an evidence-based approach to healthcare with the integration of Christian faith to produce intellectually and spiritually sound clinicians who are service oriented and focused on providing patient-centered care. Graduates will achieve the entry-level competencies necessary to take and pass the certification examination offered by the National Athletic Trainers' Association Board of Certification (NATABOC).

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the Master of Science in Athletic Training (MS-AT), the successful student will be able to:

1. To prepare students to demonstrate competency in interpreting evidence-based research and improving clinical standards and practice through clinical question development and research methodology
2. To prepare students to develop expertise in the athletic training domains through an integrative experiential clinical model
3. To equip students with appropriate knowledge and educational foundation required for an entry-level Certified Athletic Trainer
4. To prepare students to establish and understand the importance of inter-professional relationships, while collaborating with other health care professionals to become effective communicators
5. To prepare students to demonstrate preparation, knowledge and skill in the delivery of comprehensive health care to a diverse set of patients with musculoskeletal injuries and conditions and illnesses in a distinctly moral and ethical manner, integrating Christian faith with clinical practice.

Program Eligibility

The Masters of Science in Athletic Training program has two routes for admission, with each route requiring the prospective student to complete the required course prerequisites. These routes include:

1. A student who has obtained a bachelor's degree and the essential prerequisites from a regionally accredited college or university. Applicants will apply through the university's application process.
OR
2. The 3+2 accelerated program in coordination with the Bachelor of Arts in Exercise and Sport Science (Pre-Allied Health Concentration) and prerequisites at Point Loma Nazarene University. Advising for this route of admission is critical and applicants will apply directly through the department using an internal application.

To be reviewed for acceptance into this program, the following must be in place:

- It is highly recommended to submit completed admission application by December 1.
- To be considered for admission, applicants must submit the following:
- Completed application through the graduate website or completed internal application
- Official transcripts from all colleges/universities attended
- Cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher in last 60 undergraduate credits
- Prerequisite course GPA of 3.0 or higher with no course grade below a "C" and all prerequisites taken in the previous seven years
- Official GRE Scores
- Hours verification form (200 hours volunteering under the direct supervision of a certified athletic trainer)
- 3 Letters of Recommendation which describe academic and clinical abilities (1 must be from a certified athletic trainer that has observed your clinical skills and another must be from a professor/teacher who can describe your academic abilities)
- (International Students Only) - applicants who have completed their undergraduate degree outside of the United States are required to achieve an acceptable score on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), minimum 550 (paper-based), or 80 (internet-based).
- Prerequisite Courses (Prerequisite course syllabi are required at the time of application)
- Human Anatomy + Lab

- Human Physiology + Lab
- Kinesiology or Biomechanics
- Exercise Physiology + Lab
- General Psychology
- Athletic Training/Care and Prevention of Athletic Injuries
- General Chemistry + Lab

Recommended Courses

- Statistics
- General Physics

Additional information

- If a combined Anatomy/Physiology course is taken, two semester or three quarter courses are required.
- Prerequisite courses may be repeated only once; the second grade will then be used to calculate GPA.
- Pass/Credit grades for prerequisite courses will be accepted if the granting institution has a C or better basis for a grade of Credit/Pass.
- Courses which have received advanced placement credit (AP or CLEP) may fulfill prerequisite requirements. The credit hours and grade points will not be computed in the GPA calculation.
- Students who are offered admission are required to financially commit and enrollment deposit with the Office of Graduate Admission. Generally, the deposit must be received within two weeks of notification of admission.
- Students must satisfactorily complete all remaining prerequisite course requirements in accordance with the admission requirements before beginning MS AT coursework.
- Accepted students are required to meet technical standards and specific health requirements (e.g., vaccinations).
- Persons who have been dismissed from another athletic training program are not eligible for consideration for admission to Point Loma Nazarene University.
- Applicants who decline or are denied admission may reapply in any subsequent year. Admission requirements are subject to change, and admission in one year does not guarantee admission in any subsequent year.
- Persons who cannot pass an FBI/Department of Justice Background Check are not eligible for clinical education rotations and are not admissible to the program.
- Point Loma Nazarene University considers all applicants without regard to race, religion, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, marital status, sexual orientation, special needs, veteran status or any other characteristic protected by applicable state or federal civil rights laws. Some information requested in the application is requested for federal or accreditation reporting and will not be used in a discriminatory manner.

Post -Admission Documentation

- After admission into the MS in Athletic Training program, the following documentation must be submitted to the AT program director prior to the beginning of any coursework:
- CPR Certification. Emergency Cardiac Care or CPR/AED for the Professional Rescuer (note: online CPR courses and Lay Responder Certification are not accepted)
- Immunizations record (e.g., hepatitis B, TB-test within the past 2 months, etc.)
- Federal background check will be completed upon arrival to campus in the summer

Graduation Requirements

1. Successful completion of all didactic and clinical requirements with a minimum 3.0 grade point average
2. A completed application for degree candidacy conveyed to the Office of Records,
3. All student accounts paid in full, and
4. All requirements completed within three years from the time of initial enrollment.

Master of Science in Kinesiology

The Master of Science in Kinesiology (MS-KIN) is designed to prepare highly knowledgeable and career-focused professionals for the dynamic and rapidly growing fields of exercise science, sport management, sport performance. The MS-KIN program develops graduates who integrate the current best research evidence with professional practice to solve relevant problems in the disciplines related to Kinesiology. Students collaborate with faculty and professional colleagues to improve outcomes in clients, patients, or business systems related to healthcare, sport, and fitness. Student will also gain advanced specialization and/or certification in a discipline of their choice through focused study in a concentration.

The MS-KIN is a 30 unit accelerated graduate program designed especially for young professionals and recent graduates of a four year baccalaureate degree program. The program has a common core and a concentration of 17 units. Upon completing the core, all students will choose from one of three areas of concentration: Exercise Science, Sport Performance, or Sport Management. Students who choose the Sport Management concentration may substitute up to 6 units from the Fermanian School of Business MBA courses for core requirements.

A fourth concentration in Integrative Wellness is a fully online track with 12 units of foundational course requirements and 18 units in the concentration.

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon completing the core curriculum of the MS-KIN, students will be able to:

1. Appraise current research data in Kinesiology and integrate it into professional practice to solve relevant problems and make effective decisions.
2. Work independently and with a team to persuasively communicate essential information in their discipline.
3. Demonstrate appropriate breadth of knowledge of the background and principle research in their specialization in order to conduct an independent research project.
4. Serve various populations, integrating compassionate care and the Christian faith with their professional practice.
5. Pursue an active and growing involvement in their discipline by achieving advanced certification and/or membership in a related professional organization.

Upon completing an area of concentration, students are expected to attain the following outcomes:

Exercise Science

1. Incorporate current best evidence to make effective decisions about the optimal care of patients and clients.
2. Apply knowledge of the metabolic and physiologic benefits of exercise toward creating effective exercise interventions to treat and prevent metabolic diseases.
3. Work with a team of colleagues to perform common laboratory assessments to determine health, fitness, and disease states in a series of patients.

Sport Performance

1. Integrate clinical experience with the use of the current best evidence to make effective decisions about the optimal care of patients and clients.
2. Develop and apply technical knowledge in sports performance and/or sports medicine through direct patient care and client interaction that improves health outcomes.
3. Work with a team of colleagues to construct and present a critical appraisal of a current topic to enhance professional practice in sport performance.

Sport Management

1. Demonstrate essential knowledge of basic management and prioritization principles in the business of sport.

2. Work with a team of colleagues to construct and present an effective risk management plan and operating budget for a sport, fitness, or physical education setting.
3. Develop technical knowledge, effective leadership, and decision-making skills while performing professional service (at least 100 hours) related to sport management.

Integrative Wellness (online program)

1. Apply evidence-based coaching strategies and behavior change techniques to facilitate meaningful lifestyle changes and improved health outcomes
2. Collaborate with colleagues in a wide variety of settings to provide an integrative and holistic approach to healthcare, health education, and health promotion
3. Evaluate the influence of biopsychosocial factors on health, healing, and well-being to design lifestyle interventions to prevent and manage chronic diseases.

Program Eligibility

To be reviewed for acceptance into this program, the following must be in place:

- Completed application for admission to the PLNU Graduate programs and Master of Science in Kinesiology program, including a $50 non-refundable application fee.
- Personal essay that describes why the candidate desires to participate in the Master of Science in Kinesiology and outlines professional goals for the future
- Baccalaureate degree from a regionally-accredited institution, as evidenced on an official transcript with a posted degree.
- Undergraduate GPA of 3.0 or higher.
- Two references (e.g., professors or employers)who have current knowledge of the applicant's character, academic ability, and professional potential.
- Special Undergraduate course prerequisites:

Exercise Science concentration - courses in Human Anatomy and Physiology, Structural Kinesiology/Biomechanics, and Exercise Physiology

Sport Performance concentration - courses in Human Anatomy and Physiology, Structural Kinesiology/Biomechanics, and Exercise Physiology; BOC-Certified Athletic Trainers or Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialists (NSCA) will be looked upon favorably for graduate assistantships.

Sport Management - no prerequisite courses are required. However, students enrolling in courses in the Fermanian School of Business will need to meet any prerequisites for those courses.

Integrative Wellness (online program) - no prerequisite courses are required. However a baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution in a health, wellness or fitness related program OR a non-health related baccalaureate degree and an NCAA accredited health, fitness, or wellness certification (or equivalent) is required.

Graduation Requirements

1. Successful completion of all core requirements, an area of concentration, and the project or thesis,

Nursing, Master of Science in Nursing

Program Description

The Master of Science in Nursing program at Point Loma Nazarene University is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education and approved by the California Board of Registered Nurses. The program is designed for working professionals with classes held one to two nights per week and some Saturdays. Clinical Nurse Specialist options are available in the following areas:

- Adult/Gerontology Nursing
- Pediatric Nursing
- Family/Individual Health

There is also an option to obtain an MSN with a specialized concentration in education or business. Eight units of specialized coursework must be taken in either education or business for the concentration option. The MSN is designed to provide the Registered Nurse with an MSN in preparation for roles in leadership/management or education. The MSN degree without specialization is an interdisciplinary degree. Depending on which degree concentration is selected, nurses may be prepared for the following positions: adjunct professor, clinical nurse educator, staff developer, unit based educator, patient education coordinator, magnet coordinator, nurse manager, nurse lead, nursing supervisor, nursing project manager, quality manager, quality improvement coordinator, or case manager.

Program Learning Outcomes

Candidates who complete the Master of Science in Nursing program will be able to:

- Inquire Faithfully: The student will demonstrate knowledge, skill, and behavior of the evidence-based practice of nursing which integrates growth in reasoning, analysis, decision-making, and the application of theory with the goal of advocating for others and/or self. This includes holistic nursing skills and the nursing process.
- Care Faithfully: The student will embrace a calling to the ministry of compassionate care for all people in response to God's grace, which aims to foster optimal health and bring comfort in suffering and death.
- Communicate Faithfully: The student will actively engage in the dynamic interactive process, both intrapersonal and interpersonal, with the goal of advocating for others and/or self. This includes effective, culturally appropriate communication which conveys information, thoughts, actions, and feelings through the use of verbal and nonverbal skills.
- Follow Faithfully: The student will integrate the ordinary work* by complying with and adhering to regulatory and professional standards (e.g., American Nurses Association Code of Ethics, The California Board of Registered Nursing, Scope of Nursing Practice, PLNU School of Nursing Handbook). This includes taking responsibility, being accountable for all actions, and treating others with respect and dignity.
- Lead Faithfully: The student will incorporate a foundational relationship with Christ and others and embrace a willingness to serve others in the midst of life circumstances (e.g., illness, injustice, poverty). The student will model the need for "Sabbath Rest" as a means of personal renewal, and true care of self, so that service to others is optimally achieved. The student will incorporate the characteristics of a servant leader including: humility, courage, forgiveness, and discernment.

*Defined as claiming the challenge from Florence Nightingale that nursing is a "divine imposed duty of ordinary work."

Program Eligibility Master of Science in Nursing (M.S.N.)

Registered Nurse (R.N.) Entry Without Bachelor of Science in Nursing Degree (B.S.N.)

- An Associate Degree in Nursing (ADN) or equivalent degree from a National League for Nursing (NLN), Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) or regionally accredited program (i.e., WASC);
- Current California licensure as a registered nurse;
- At least one year of continuous full-time nursing experience in a United States healthcare facility within the previous five years; current employment strongly recommended;

- Official transcripts from previous colleges and universities. All foreign transcripts must have a course by course evaluation by World Education Services or another member of the National Association of Credential Evaluation Services that includes a degree equivalency and GPA;
- A college grade-point average of 3.000 (candidates with a grade-point average of 2.700 to 2.999 may be considered under the Exceptions Policy - see Admission Requirements and Procedures, Admission under Exception);
- A completed university application (available on the website);
- Two professional recommendations (professional recommendation form available on the website);
- A completed School of Nursing graduate program application;
- A personal essay of 250 words demonstrating graduate level writing skills and the importance of graduate study to the applicant;

- An interview with the graduate nursing selection committee;
- Basic computer literacy which includes knowledge of Explorer, Word, Outlook, PowerPoint, and the ability to perform an internet database search; and
- Completion of baccalaureate courses in nursing research, statistics, nursing leadership, and community health nursing.

English Language Requirements

A satisfactory command of the English language is required for admission to the Graduate School of Nursing. All applicants whose native language is not English, must meet this requirement - including international applicants, permanent residents, immigrants, and transfer students who are not citizens of the United States on the date of admission. A Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) is the measure of competency. The test must have been taken within the past two years with minimum scores of:

- 550 for the paper-based test

- 80 for the internet- based test with a minimum section requirement score of 20 in reading, listening, speaking, and writing. Only the following countries are exempt from proof of English proficiency: Australia, Canada, Ireland, United Kingdom, and New Zealand.

Other Provisions

To satisfy the requirements of the university's clinical agencies, upon acceptance into the program students are required to provide copies of the following documentation:

- Current California licensure as a registered nurse;
- Current Healthcare Provider CPR certificate from the American Heart Association;
- Completed School of Nursing Health Form Packet with proof of immunizations (the university only accepts copies of official immunization record or paper documentation of titers);
- Current TB screening upon admission into the program; 2 step process;
- Current HIPAA certificate;
- Infection Control Module; and
- Background check and drug screening (failure to pass this may result in an inability to complete the program).

Per agreement with the San Diego Nursing Service Education consortium and affiliated hospitals, a background check and drug screening is required prior to the student's first clinical experience. If a red flag occurs from either the background check or drug screening, this may result in immediate dismissal from the program.

NOTE for non-enrolled students taking graduate courses: we recommend allowing non-Bachelor prepared students to take 500 level classes and Bachelor prepared students to take 600 level classes that do not have the clinical component.

Exceptions Policy

Applicants who do not meet the above eligibility standards, but who can demonstrate an exceptionally rich experiential background and/or demonstrate dramatic change in academic performance, may petition the School of Nursing to review their status (see Admission Requirements and Procedures, Admission under Exception).

Graduation Requirements

1. A completed Application for Degree Candidacy (online);
2. Completion of the approved graduate program, including a comprehensive exam.
 - 37-38 units for B.S.N. entry
 - 48-49 units for R.N. entry
3. A cumulative grade-point average of 3.000 or higher. A minimum grade of B- is required to progress in the program. Students needing to repeat more than two courses may not progress in the program and may be dismissed; and
4. All accounts paid in full.
5. All Comprehensive Exams must be submitted within 1 year from when the exam was originally due. Failure to meet this requirement will result in dismissal from the program.
6. All requirements for graduate degrees must be completed within an eight-year period from the time of initial enrollment in the program.

Core Courses for R.N. to M.S.N.

For those entering the program with an R.N. (without a B.S.N.), the three (3) courses below must be successfully completed before advancement in the M.S.N. GNSG 600 level courses. The courses must be taken in order and outside transfer is not accepted. These courses are not required for those entering with a B.S.N.

Total Required Clinical Hours for M.S.N. with CNS (500)

Total M.S.N. with CNS (R.N. entry): 50 units

Total M.S.N. with CNS (B.S.N. entry): 39 units

Organizational Leadership

The Masters of Arts in Organizational Leadership is offered in a distance education format and specifically designed to align with the PLNU mission to equip, empower, and transform individuals for servant leadership in a dynamically changing world. The program provides academic preparation that can be immediately applied to the life situations in which the students live and it is a direct response to the strategic priorities of the university.

The MA in Organizational Leadership is an approved program under PLNU's WASC Regional Accreditation. Though this is not an ACBSP approved program, for those interested in that type of program, PLNU offers an MBA through its Fermanian School of Business.

*Those who graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Organizational Management from PLNU with a 3.75 GPA will be given advanced standing in this program.

Program Learning Outcomes

The Point Loma Nazarene University Master of Arts in Organizational Leadership graduate is prepared for expanded roles within his or her organization through enhanced abilities to:

1. Evaluate how Christian virtues support the practices of leadership within an organizational system.
2. Interpret how organizational knowledge relates to management, the practices of planning, leadership of change and conflict, and oversight of human resources, and illustrate how that integrates with Christian, legal, and regulatory roles.
3. Analyze the evidence of personal leadership style, strengths, and skills, and how that supports their various functions within an organization.
4. Adapt leadership concepts to real-life organizational situations.

Graduation Requirements

1. Successful completion of the required Strategic Organizational Leadership curriculum with a minimum of (36) semester units of coursework. Students receiving Advanced Standing will be required to complete a minimum of (30) semester units.
2. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher. No more than two "C" grades are permitted to fulfill required courses in the program. A third "C" requires one of the three courses to be repeated. Any course receiving a grade lower than a "C" must be repeated and the units will not be added to earned units.
3. Successful completion of the two culminating courses with a minimum of "B-" grade.
4. Successfully complete a personal interview (in person or using video conferencing technology) at the end of the program to review the things that have been learned and how the student felt that the program equipped him/her for servant leadership. The interviews are designed to ensure that the student has a clear understanding of the material covered and to evaluate the effectiveness of the program. To comply with U.S. Department of Education and accreditation requirements, students are required to show a government issued photo I.D.

Course Requirements

This program can be completed in less than 2 years (approximately 15 months). Classes are designed as collaborative learning experiences where students and instructors are engaged in asynchronous dialog throughout the week. It is comprised of 8 four credit-hour courses and 4 one unit courses (36 credit hours). Students learn in community as they participate in a cohort experience that not only provides for a great learning experience, but develops a network of friends who share common goals.

- SOL 601 - Assessing Leadership Skills (4)
- SOL 602 - Concepts of Strategic Leadership (4)

Special Education, Master of Arts

Program Description

The Master of Arts degree in Special Education is an advanced academic degree. A Clear Education Specialist credential may be completed within this degree with an additional three (3) units. One of the following Added Authorizations is included within the degree: Adapted Physical Education (APE), Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD), Early Childhood Special Education (ECSE), Emotional Disturbance (ED), Other Health Impairment (OHI), Orthopedic Impairment (OI), and/or Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI). A total of 36 semester units are required for the degree. The curriculum provides a deeper specialization in contemporary issues in the field of special education.

Program Learning Outcomes

The program learning outcomes for the M.A. in Special Education are built on and related to the School of Education outcomes that are symbolized in three themes: equip, transform, and empower. The M.A. in the Special Education program then applies these major themes to this program.

Candidates who complete the Master of Arts in Special Education program will be able to:

Equip

- Promote the success of all students by being a servant leader that serves collaboratively and effectively with professional excellence, honesty, integrity, and sensitivity.

Transform

- Engage in ways of thinking and being to embrace the positive power of diversity and advocacy for universal social justice within the classrooms, schools, districts, and communities.
- Apply faith-based influences and beliefs within educational organizations.

Empower

- Reflect and engage in on-going scholarly, professional, and spiritual growth.
- Serve as research-based transformational leaders within their classrooms, schools, districts, and communities.

Program Eligibility to the Master of Arts in Special Education

- Education and Grade-Point Average: Candidates must have completed a baccalaureate or higher degree from a regionally accredited college or university. A cumulative undergraduate grade point average of 3.000 is required to be admitted into the Master of Arts in Special Education program. Candidates with a cumulative grade point average less than 3.000 may apply for "Admission under Exception;"
- Two or more letters of recommendation from appropriate persons who have the knowledge of the applicant's character and ability to work with children or youth. (References from friends or relatives are not appropriate.);
- Master of Arts in Special Education interview: All candidates must complete a personal interview with an admissions chair.

Graduation Requirements

1. A completed Application for Degree Candidacy (online or in the Records Office, Point Loma campus);
2. Satisfactory completion of the prescribed course of study with a cumulative grade-point average of 3.000 or higher and no grade lower than a C in any course;
3. Completion of the approved graduate program consisting of a minimum of 36 units;
4. Recommendation from the program coordinator;
5. All accounts paid in full;
6. All requirements for graduate degrees must be completed within an eight (8)-year period from the time of initial enrollment in the program.

The Master of Arts in Special Education builds on the foundation of the Preliminary Education Specialist credential and the Council for Exceptional Children's Professional Standards. Candidates develop advanced level knowledge, skills, and dispositions aligned with professional standards and directly apply research-based theory and "best practices" as they teach students with special needs in their own classrooms.

The Clear Education Specialist credential requirements can be incorporated into this advanced degree and are strategically aligned and blended with Induction requirements to equip special education to address the Clear (Level II) credential proficiency requirements as they complete their Induction requirements.

Up to six (6) units of post-baccalaureate coursework aligned with the course of study below may be transferred from other institutions toward this degree. Candidates seeking transfer credit should make this request during the first semester of enrollment. Candidates who completed their preliminary Education Specialist, Mild/Moderate credentials through PLNU may apply up to 12 units of this coursework toward the MA in Special Education. Candidates who completed their preliminary Education Specialist, Moderate/Severe credentials through PLNU may apply up to 12 units of this coursework toward the MA in Special Education. Candidates who completed both their preliminary Education Specialist, Mild/Moderate and Moderate/Severe credentials through PLNU may apply up to 15 units of this coursework toward the MA in Special Education.

Credential

Clear Administrative Services Credential

Program Description

The Clear Administrative Services Credential program builds upon the preliminary administrative credential and prepares school administrators to establish and sustain a vital learning community that supports powerful teaching and learning for the success of all students. This is an evidence-based program. Candidates develop a plan for their graduate level coursework and fieldwork, building on the evidence of prior knowledge, skills, and dispositions that they bring into the program. This program is aligned with the California Professional Standards for Educational Leaders (CPSELs).

All instructors are veteran school leaders with decades of experience as principals and district office administrators. Their background and experiences are diverse and include schools and districts with special needs in Title 1, Program Improvement, Curriculum Audits, diverse demographic, language and socio-economic populations.

Program Learning Outcomes

Candidates who complete the Clear Administrative Service Credential program will be able to:

Equip: Promote the success of all students by:

- Demonstrating an understanding of the greater political, social, economic, legal, and cultural context;
- Responding to and influencing the greater political, social, economic, legal, and cultural context; and
- Demonstrating the development of professional leadership capacity.

Transform: Promote the success of all students by:

- Responding to diverse community interests and needs;
- Collaborating with families and community members; and
- Modeling a personal code of ethics.

Empower: Promote the success of all students by:

- Facilitating the development, articulation, implementation, and stewardship of a vision of learning that is shared and supported by the school community;

- Advocating, nurturing, and sustaining a school culture and instructional program conducive to student learning and staff development and growth; and
- Ensuring management of the organization, operation, and resources for a safe, efficient, and effective learning environment.

Admission Requirements

Admission to the University

Candidates are eligible to be considered for the Educational Leadership programs when the following conditions are met:

Transform:

~ Engage of ways of thinking and being to embrace the positive power of diversity and advocacy for universal and social justice within the classrooms, schools, districts, and communities.

~ Apply faith-based influences and beliefs within educational organizations.

Empower:

~ Reflect and engage in on-going scholarly, professional, and spiritual growth.

~ Serve as research-based transformational leaders within their classrooms, schools, districts, and communities.

Program Eligibility

The eligibility requirements are the same for the degree to which the credential program is attached. Please see that degree.

Credential Requirements

Preliminary Education Specialist Credential holders can earn a Clear credential by completing our CTC-approved Induction program consisting of the following requirements:

- GED 613A, B, C - Reflective Coaching Seminar Year 1 (3) offered in one (1) unit increments in concurrent semesters
- GED 614A, B, C - Reflective Coaching Seminar Year 2 (3) offered in one (1) unit increments in concurrent semesters

The above are offered in one (1) unit increments in concurrent semesters.

Choose one:

- SPE 651 - Methods of Teaching Students with Emotional and Behavioral Disorders (4)

- SPE 652 - Methods of Teaching Students with Autism Spectrum Disorder (4)
- SPE 653 - Methods of Teaching Students with Traumatic Brain Injury (4)
- SPE 654 - Methods of Teaching Students with Other Health Impairments (4)

Total: 15 units

Professional Clear Teaching Credential: Multiple Subject or Single Subject

For: Teachers working in private, charter or public schools who need to complete an Induction program in order to Clear their Preliminary California Teaching Credential.

The 2042 Clear Credential program requires 12 units of advanced courses and on-site coaching to be taken AFTER completion of the preliminary credential and can be completed in two years. The PLNU Induction program is approved and accredited by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CCTC) to earn the Clear Teaching Credential for the Ryan or 2042 Credential.

A PLNU Credential Analyst reviews the transcripts and credential renewal requirements for each teacher participating in the Partnership Program.

Program Learning Outcomes

Candidates who complete the Multiple and Single Subject Clear Credential program will be able to:

Equip

- Work collaboratively with school site personnel and university faculty to gain a deepened understanding and competence of effective pedagogy and ability to apply academic instruction that includes universal access and equity for all students.
- Maintain competencies in knowledge, skills, and attitudes that demonstrate the ability to implement the California Standards for the Teaching Profession in order to maximize student success.
- Develop attitudes and skills to effectively communicate with all students - special needs, diverse cultural groups, and second language learners.

Transform

- Demonstrate how to identify, clarify, and address barriers to student learning while partnering with community resources to achieve academic goals.
- Cultivate ongoing self-evaluation and lifelong learning habits that promote dispositions of noble character.

Empower

- Honor diversity while using pedagogical skill to implement principles of equity and empowerment.
- Commit to ongoing professional development, a lifestyle of integrity and fairness and the use of high ethical and professional values in the field with administrators, colleagues, parents, and students.

Program Eligibility for the Clear Teaching Credential: Multiple Subject or Single Subject

See the degree to which the credential program is attached.

Credential Requirements

See the degree to which the credential program is attached.

Multiple and Single Subject Preliminary Credential holders can earn a Clear credential by completing our CTC approved Induction program consisting of the following requirements:

- GED 613A, B, C - Reflective Coaching Seminar Year 1 (3) offered in one (1) unit increments in concurrent semesters
- GED 614A, B, C - Reflective Coaching Seminar Year 2 (3) offered in one (1) unit increments in concurrent semesters
Six (6) additional units based on a candidate's Individualized Learning Plan (ILP) might include:
- GED 628 - Using Technology to Enhance Teaching and Learning (2)
- GED 628P - Instructional Technology Project (1)
- GED 668 - Advanced Practice for English Learners (3)
- GED 677 - Teaching Strategies for Special Populations (3)
- Total Professional Clear Advanced Coursework (12 semester units)

Note(s):

Elective units toward the Clear Credential are suggested as they meet components of the California Standards for the Teaching Profession. Elective units are ultimately determined by the candidate, their assigned coach, and the program director based on the goals in the Individual Learning Plan (ILP).

The needs of Ryan Credential Candidates are addressed separately if there are CTC requirements beyond those offered above.

Those interested in seeking a Master of Arts in Education in Leadership in Learning in addition to the Professional Clear Credential may apply their Clear coursework to the M.A. degree. This degree requires 36 units (12 courses) of graduate level work. Candidates usually take six units per semester including summers.

Certificate

Graduate Certificates in Business Administration

The Fermanian School of Business Graduate Certificates are only offered to Fermanian School of Business alumni or in conjunction with select corporate sponsors. A student completing the graduate certificate will earn graduate academic credit that, upon acceptance into the Evening MBA program, can be applied toward the graduate requirements of such program. Post-M.S.N. Clinical Nurse Specialist Certificate

Program Overview

The Post-M.S.N. Certification programs are designed to prepare the student to assume the role of Clinical Nurse Specialist. The program is designed for working professionals. Classes are held one to two nights per week and some Saturdays. Clinical Nurse Specialist options are available in the following areas:

- Adult/Gerontology Nursing
- Pediatric Nursing
- Family/Individual Health

Program Learning Outcomes

Candidates who complete the Post-M.S.N. Certification programs will be able to:

- Inquire Faithfully: The student will demonstrate knowledge, skill and behavior of the evidence-based practice of nursing which integrates growth in reasoning, analysis, decision-making and the application of theory with the goal of advocating for others and/or self. This includes holistic nursing skills and the nursing process.
- Care Faithfully: The student will embrace a calling to the ministry of compassionate care for all people in response to God's grace, which aims to foster optimal health and bring comfort in suffering and death.
- Communicate Faithfully: The student will actively engage in the dynamic interactive process that is intrapersonal and interpersonal with the goal of advocating for others and/or self. This includes effective, culturally appropriate communication which conveys information, thoughts, actions and feelings through the use of verbal and nonverbal skills.
- Follow Faithfully: The student will integrate the ordinary work* by complying with and adhering to regulatory and professional standards (e.g., ANA Code of Ethics, The California Board of Registered Nursing, Scope of Nursing Practice, SON Handbook). This includes taking responsibility, being accountable for all actions and treating others with respect and dignity.

- Lead Faithfully: The student will incorporate a foundational relationship with Christ and others and embrace a willingness to serve others in the midst of life circumstances (e.g., illness, injustice, poverty). The student will role-model the need for "Sabbath Rest" as a means for personal renewal, and true care of self, so that service to others is optimally achieved. The student will incorporate the characteristics of a servant leader including: humility, courage, forgiveness, discernment.

*Defined as claiming the challenge from Florence Nightingale that nursing is a "divine imposed duty of ordinary work."

Program Eligibility for the Post-M.S.N. Certification

- M.S.N. degree from a National League for Nursing (NLN) or Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) or regionally accredited program (i.e., WASC);
- Current California licensure as a registered nurse;
- At least one year of continuous full-time nursing experience in a United States healthcare facility within the previous five years; current employment strongly recommended;
- Official transcripts - B.S.N. and M.S.N. All foreign transcripts must have a course by course evaluation by World Education Services or another member of the National Association of Credential Evaluation Services that includes a degree equivalency and GPA;
- A completed university application;
- Two personal letters of recommendation;
- A completed School of Nursing graduate program application;
- Two professional recommendations;
- A personal essay of 250 words demonstrating graduate level writing skills and the importance of graduate study to the applicant;
- An interview with the graduate nursing selection committee;
- Basic computer literacy which includes knowledge of Explorer, Word, Outlook, PowerPoint, and the ability to perform an internet database search.

English Language Requirements

A satisfactory command of the English language is required for admission to the Graduate School of Nursing. Applicants, including international applicants, permanent residents, immigrants and transfer students who are not citizens of the United States on the date of admission and whose native language is other than English, must meet this requirement. A test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) is the measure of competency. The test must have been taken within the past two years. The following scores must be met:

- 550 for the paper-based test
- 80 for the internet based test with a minimum section requirement score of 20 in reading, listening, speaking, and writing.

Only the following countries are exempt from proof of English proficiency: Australia, Canada, Ireland, United Kingdom, and New Zealand.

Other Provisions

To satisfy the requirements of the university's clinical agencies, upon acceptance into the program students are required to provide copies of the following documentation:

- Current California licensure as a registered nurse;
- Current Healthcare Provider CPR certificate from the American Heart Association;

- Completed School of Nursing Health Form Packet with proof of immunizations (the university only accepts copies of your official immunization record or paper documentation of titers);
- Current TB screening upon admission into the program (2 step process);
- Current HIPAA certificate;
- Infection Control Module; and
- Background check and drug screening (failure to pass this may result in an inability to complete the program)

Per agreement with the San Diego Nursing Service Education consortium and affiliated hospitals, a background check and drug screening is required prior to the student's first clinical experience. If a red flag occurs from either the background check or drug screening, this may result in immediate dismissal from the program.

Graduation Requirements

Successful completion of all required program courses including:

1. A cumulative grade-point average of 3.000 or higher. A minimum grade of B- is required to progress in the program. Students needing to repeat more than two courses may not progress in the program and may be dismissed; and
2. All accounts paid in full.
3. All requirements for the program must be completed within an eight-year period from the time of initial enrollment in the program.

Reading and Literacy Added Authorization

This added authorization is a 12-unit program for credentialed teachers who want specialized certification to teach reading in the PreK-12 setting. The program follows an explicit philosophy and purpose based on current, confirmed replicable and reliable research in literacy as referenced in the California Preschool Learning Foundations and Frameworks (Volume 1) and the California Reading/Language Arts Framework.

Upon successful completion of all coursework, candidates may apply to the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC) for the Reading and Literacy Added Authorization. Candidates must have completed three years of successful K-12 teaching at the time of submission to CTC for this added authorization. Please contact the credential analyst at the branch campus for further information.

Program Learning Outcomes

Candidates who complete the Reading and Literacy Added Authorization will be able to:

Equip: Maintain competencies in knowledge and skills by demonstration of the following:

1. Utilize research-based instructional practices, intervention models and strategies in reading and language arts to create a culture of literacy for all students.
2. Utilize current research in literacy, state standards, and the application of the teaching model of "plan, teach, reflect, and apply" to maximize student success and to effectively communicate with all students - special needs, diverse cultural groups, and second language learners.

Transform: Promote the success of all students by demonstration of the following:

1. Collect and analyze data to advocate for all students.
2. Cultivate on-going self-evaluation and lifelong learning habits that promote PLNU dispositions of noble character.

Empower: Promote the success of all students by demonstration of the following:

1. Research and identify research-based strategies to help struggling readers.
2. Reflect on the research based strategies that were applied during intervention and how they had implications for the candidate's instructional practices.

Program Eligibility for the Reading and Literacy

See the degree to which the certificate program is attached.

Graduation Requirements

See the degree to which the certificate is attached.

Candidates complete the following coursework:

- GED 628 - Using Technology to Enhance Teaching and Learning (2) (BTSA Standard 16)
- GED 696 - Advanced Research-Based Literacy Instruction for all Students (3)
- GED 697 - Advanced Literacy Assessment, Instruction and Intervention for all Students (3)
- GED 689 - Master's Research and Design (3)
- GED 689P1 - Culminating Research Project Support (.5)

Bachelor Degrees - Adult Degree Completion

Adult Degree Completion

Policies and general education requirements for all bachelor degrees are listed here.

Mission

The bachelor degree completion programs exist to provide working adult students the opportunity to complete a quality college degree in a schedule and format particularly designed to meet their unique needs, responding to the unique and ever-changing needs in the marketplace. The curriculum for each major is interdisciplinary and liberal arts in nature. All courses of study integrate a Christian world view and are committed to continual improvement.

Admissions Requirements

To be admitted to an adult degree completion program the student must:

1. Complete at least 40 semester units*
 - a. with a minimum cumulative GPA of at least 2.75
 - b. from an accredited institution
 - c. as evidenced by an official transcript sent directly from each college or university attended. (*)
2. Attain the minimum age of 23, OR minimum age of 21 with an associate's degree, OR minimum age of 21 with significant work experience.
3. Submit an application for admission.
4. Complete an interview with an admissions advisor

NOTE: All students are expected to have some proficiency with computer technology (email, Internet and word processing).

The following 36 credit units of general education core requirements: () are required for graduation and it is advised that they be completed prior to beginning a course of study

- a. Communication-6 semester units (of which one course must be in English Composition)
- b. Humanities/Fine Arts-6 semester units (at least one course must be from the following: literature, philosophy, art or music appreciation, art or music history, fine arts, or history)
- c. Natural Science and Math-6 semester units (at least one course must be in Math)
- d. Social and Behavioral Sciences-6 semester units
- e. Bible and Theology - 6 semester units (at least one course must be taken from PLNU)
- f. An additional 6 semester units must be earned in any of the above areas.

General education deficiencies may be completed after admittance, but at least 20 units must be completed prior to starting the program cohort. Three units of appropriate prior learning credit (see below) may be used to meet one of the general education areas-with the exception of English Composition and Math.

The PLNU General Education Learning Outcomes (GELO's) will be addressed and measured within the PLNU degree program to ensure the GE outcomes that we value are demonstrated.

*Prospective students who meet the other criteria but do not have the required semester units for entrance or are lacking in the core requirements will be advised how to correct any deficiency. An admissions advisor will assist with the development of a written pre-admission educational plan, which may include bridge courses taken at PLNU. Only courses from an accredited institution (approved by CHEA and USDE) will be accepted by transfer. Prospective students who do not meet the minimum GPA requirement may be accepted under an exception. (See criteria for acceptance of students under GPA exception.)

Admissions under Exception

Applicants who do not meet the minimum standards for admissions, but who can demonstrate an exceptionally rich experiential background and/or have shown a dramatic change in academic performance, may petition the academic department or school for a special review of their status. The academic department or school reviews the student's application package and determines the merits and appropriateness of the request.

In order to apply for admissions under exception, the applicant must also provide a statement outlining the applicant's reasons and justification for requesting an exception to admission policies with supporting documentation. All exception materials must be submitted to the Office of Graduate Admissions. The applicant is also required to schedule an interview with a Point Loma Nazarene University academic advisor from the school to which the applicant is applying.

Following the interview, the academic advisor submits a summary of the applicant's interview and petition package to the department chair or dean of the school. The department chair or dean is the final authority for admissions under exception, except where approval is required from the Graduate and Extended Studies Committee (GESC) Chair, or GESC.

Graduation Requirements

In order for a student to receive the bachelor's degree in an adult degree completion program, the following requirements must be met:

1. A total of 120 semester units must be earned with an overall 2.0 grade point average and all general core education requirements met. ()
2. Complete all program requirements, with no course grade lower than "C" and minimum resident grade point average of 2.0 for the minimum thirty-six (36) units completed in the Point Loma Nazarene University major program.
3. In addition to the program units earned through the adult degree completion program, additional semester units must be earned to meet the degree completion requirements of 120 total semester units. A maximum 24 units can be earned through the following non-traditional methods:
 - a. Testing (CLEP, Dantes)
 - b. Prior Learning recommended for university academic credit by three American Council on Education or the Council on Adult and Experiential Learning (ACE, CAEL - see below) and Military Experience credit (ACE, CAEL - see below)
4. Application for graduation must be made prior to the start of the final semester. Application for graduation must be made prior to the start of the final semester. All program requirements must be complete prior to participation in Commencement ceremonies. If no more than nine (9) units are lacking to complete the required 120 unit minimum, application to participate with a completion plan is possible.
5. All bills paid with the student in good standing.

Notes:

American Council on Education (ACE) provides guidance on workplace learning. See <http://www.acenet.edu/higher-education/topics/Pages/Adult-Learners.aspx> for more information.

Credit for Prior Learning (CPL) is not credit for "life experience." It is credit for prior learning and students must demonstrate through a portfolio that learning has taken place. The faculty will evaluate the portfolio to determine how much credit should be given for the learning accomplished. See <http://www.cael.org/pla.htm> for examples of how this is described. To receive PLC credit students would enroll in a PLC assessment course to learn the portfolio submission process.

Applicable Catalog

Students in continuous enrollment may elect to graduate under the curricular requirements of either the Catalog for the year in which they enter the university or the Catalog of a subsequent year. Those whose enrollment is not continuous (i.e. not enrolled for more than one term) as regular students are subject to the Catalog requirements for the year in which they re-enter the university or that of a subsequent year of enrollment. A student may not combine requirements from two or more catalogs.

Maximum and Minimum Course Loads

The maximum course load for an adult degree completion student is 17 units. Overloads may be carried with the written approval of the Dean of the College of Extended Learning on the recommendation of the academic unit leader. This must be filed with the Office of Records prior to the applicable registration period. If a student has failed a PLNU course or is on academic probation the academic unit leader, in consultation with Student Financial Services, can limit the number of units in a given term. For financial aid purposes, a full-time course load for adult degree completion students is twelve units per semester; a three-quarter course load is nine units; and a half-time course load is six units. For further information regarding financial aid, students should contact their Student Financial Services representative.

Transcripts

A complete and official transcript of coursework is available in the Office of Records. By federal law, requests must be accompanied by a written signature. Transcripts may not be released to anyone other than the student except by written authorization. Unofficial transcripts are available from the Office of Records. Forms for ordering both are available on the university website. Current students may print their own unofficial transcripts from the university website. Expedited processing and electronic ordering of transcripts are both available for an additional fee.

Course Offerings and Class Schedules

All course offerings are posted on the university website. The university reserves the right to cancel any class with insufficient enrollment and make necessary changes in its schedule and programs.

Prerequisite/Co-Requisite

Some courses listed in this catalog stipulate either a prerequisite or a co-requisite. A prerequisite is a condition or requirement that must be fulfilled prior to enrolling in a course, such as a specific student classification, permission of the instructor, or another course. A co-requisite refers to a condition or a requirement that must be met prior to or concurrent with enrollment in a course.

Credit Hour Policy

According to the United States Department of Education with regard to the credit hour definition, one semester unit represents an hour (minimum fifty minutes) of class time per week for at least 15 weeks (Carnegie definition). Two hours of preparation are normal for each hour of class.

Face-to-face instructional hours are equivalent to the following:

- 1 credit hour = 750 minutes instructional time
- 2 credit hours = 1500 minutes
- 3 credit hours = 2250 minutes
- 4 credit hours = 3000 minutes

Web-Facilitated courses use web based technology to facilitate what is essentially a face to face course. These offerings can be up to 25% online/web based work.

Hybrid or Blended courses use online and face to face delivery. A substantial proportion of the content (between 26% and 79%) is delivered online, and it typically uses online discussion and has a reduced number of face to face meetings.

Online courses have the majority of content online and typically do not have face to face meetings.

Academic unit leadership will monitor the unit of credit policy through the course syllabus, schedule, and faculty governance policies and procedures.

Add/Drop Policy

Adding a Class. The deadline for students to register for courses is prior to the first day of class. Exceptions to this deadline will only be considered if students have extenuating circumstances beyond their control with the approval of the school dean/department chair and the Dean of the College of Extended Learning. Documentation is then filed with the Office of Records.

Dropping a Class. Students may drop a course through the first 50% of the period of offering; enrollment will be deleted from the student's permanent record. After that, a student with extenuating personal circumstances may request permission of the program director to withdraw from the course. If approved, a W will appear on the transcript with no impact on the GPA. If the petition is not approved or not submitted, the grade of WF will be assigned or a letter grade in accordance with the grading policy noted in the syllabus as determined by the instructor of record. Students should consider refund and transcript implications when dropping a class.

Academic Honesty

The Point Loma Nazarene University community holds the highest standards of honesty and integrity in all aspects of university life. Any violation of the university's commitment is a serious affront to the very nature of Point Loma's mission and purpose.

Violations of academic honesty include cheating, plagiarism, falsification, identity fraud, aiding academic dishonesty, and malicious interference.

Cheating is the use of unauthorized assistance that results in an unfair advantage over other students. It includes but is not limited to: bringing and/or using unauthorized notes, technology or other study aids during an examination; looking at other students' work during an exam or in an assignment where collaboration is not allowed; attempting to communicate with other students in order to get help during an exam or in an assignment where collaboration is not allowed; obtaining an examination prior to its administration; allowing another person to do one's work and submitting it as one's own; submitting work done in one class for credit in another without the instructor's permission.

Plagiarism is the use of an idea, phrase, or other materials from a source without proper acknowledgment of that source. It includes but is not limited to: the use of an idea, phrase, or other materials from a source without proper acknowledgment of that specific source in a work for which the student claims authorship; the misrepresentation and/or use of sources used in a work for which the student claims authorship; the use of papers purchased online as all or part of an assignment for which the student claims authorship; submitting written work, such as laboratory reports, computer programs, or papers, which have been copied from the work of other students, with or without their knowledge and consent.

Falsification is the alteration of information or forging of signatures on academic forms or documents. It includes but is not limited to: using improper methods of collecting or generating data and presenting them as legitimate; altering graded work and submitting it for re-grading; falsifying information on official academic documents such as drop/add forms, incomplete forms, petitions, recommendations, letters of permission, transcripts or any other university document; misrepresenting oneself or one's status in the university.

Academic identity fraud is the act of allowing a person to impersonate the registered student, by doing the academic work and by submitting it as if it were the work of the registered person. This encompasses both face to face and online environments. It includes, but is not limited to: having another person complete a course assignment, take an examination, respond to discussion board questions, or complete any kind of academic exercise on behalf of the registered student. In such cases, it may be considered collusion to commit fraud on the part of both parties.

Aiding academic dishonesty is assisting another person in violating the standards of academic honesty. It includes but is not limited to: allowing other students to look at one's own work during an exam or in an assignment where collaboration is not allowed; providing information, material, or assistance to another person knowing that it may be used in violation of academic honesty policies; providing false information in connection with any academic honesty inquiry.

Malicious intent is misuse of academic resources or interference with the legitimate academic work of other students. It includes but is not limited to: removing books, journals, or pages of these from the library without formal checkout; hiding library materials; refusing to return reserve readings to the library; damaging or destroying the projects, lab, or studio work or other academic product of fellow students.

A student remains responsible for the academic honesty of work submitted in PLNU courses and the consequences of academic dishonesty beyond receipt of the final grade in the class and beyond the awarding of the diploma. Ignorance of these catalog policies will not be considered a valid excuse or defense. Students may not withdraw from a course as a response to a consequence.

Response Procedure

The following response procedure is recommended to faculty who discover a violation of academic honesty:

1. Fact-Finding: The faculty member should attempt to speak or otherwise communicate informally with the student as the first step.

2. Communication of Consequence: Once the violation is discovered, the instructor should send a written communication to the student regarding the incident and the consequences. Instructors can give students an "F" on a specific assignment or an "F" in the course as a consequence of violations of academic honesty. In cases of academic identity fraud, the act or acts could be interpreted as a criminal offense and could mean administrative withdrawal from Point Loma Nazarene University.
3. Internal Communication: The instructor must send a report of the incident to the program director, department chair or school dean, the college dean, and the Dean of the College of Extended Learning and the Vice Provost for Academic Administration. The report should include a description of the violation, the action taken, and evidence of the violation. The official record of the incident is maintained by the Office of Records.
4. Further Action: If a student has been guilty of prior instances of misconduct, additional disciplinary steps may be taken by the program director or the college dean in consultation with the reporting instructor(s). These additional steps should be communicated to the student in writing and reported to the Vice Provost for Academic Administration for inclusion in the student record. Depending upon the seriousness of the incident or pattern of incidents, further actions can include probation, suspension, or expulsion.

Appeal Procedure

The following appeal procedure should be used by a student who wishes to appeal consequences associated with a finding of academic dishonesty.

1. Instructor: The student should present a written appeal of the penalty to the instructor involved. The instructor should respond in writing, with a copy of the student appeal and instructor response also sent to the program director.
2. Program Director or School Dean: In the event that satisfactory resolution to the appeal is not achieved between the student and the instructor, the student may submit the appeal in writing to the program director or school dean, who will review the appeal and send a written ruling to the student and instructor, college dean and Vice Provost for Academic Administration.
3. College Dean: Student appeals not resolved at the departmental or school level should be taken to the Dean of the College of Extended Learning for review. The college dean will review the appeal and send a written ruling to the student, instructor, and department chair or school dean, and Vice Provost for Academic Administration.
4. Administrative Committee: Student appeals not resolved at the college dean level can be submitted to an administrative committee including two uninvolved college deans, and a member of the Graduate and Extended Studies Committee appointed by the Provost, and the Vice Provost for Academic Administration. The appeal decision reached by this committee is final.

Class Attendance

Regular and punctual attendance at all class sessions is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. Therefore, regular attendance and participation in each course are minimal requirements. Absences are counted from the first official meeting of the class regardless of the date of the student's enrollment. If more than 20 percent of the classes are reported as missed, the faculty member may initiate the student's de-enrollment from the course without advance notice to the student. If the date of de-enrollment is past the last date to withdraw from a class, the student will be assigned a grade of "F" or "NC." There are no refunds for courses where a de-enrollment was processed.

A student who registers late must therefore be exceptionally careful about regular attendance during the remainder of the course. Registered students who neither attend the first class session nor inform the instructor of record of their desire to remain in the class may, at the request of the instructor, be removed from the class roster.

Exceptions to the foregoing attendance regulations due to extenuating circumstances beyond the student's control may be granted only by appeal to the Dean of the College of Extended Learning. Students should consult the syllabus of each course for specific applications of and elaborations on the above attendance policy.

Online Class Attendance

Students taking online courses are expected to attend each week of the course. Attendance is defined as participating in an academic activity within the online classroom which includes posting in a graded activity in the course. (Note: Logging into the course does not qualify as participation and will not be counted as meeting the attendance requirement.)

Students who do not attend at least once in any 3 consecutive days will be issued an attendance warning. Students who do not attend at least once in any 7 consecutive days will be dropped from the course retroactive to the last date of recorded attendance.

Students who anticipate being absent for an entire week of a course should contact the instructor in advance for approval and make arrangements to complete the required coursework and/or alternative assignments assigned at the discretion of the instructor. Acceptance of late work is at the discretion of the instructor and does not waive attendance requirements.

Academic Behavior Policy

Both faculty and students at Point Loma Nazarene University have the right to expect a safe and ordered environment for learning. Any student behavior that is disruptive or threatening is a serious affront to Point Loma Nazarene University as a learning community. Students who fail to adhere to appropriate academic behavioral standards may be subject to discipline. Although faculty members communicate general student expectations in their syllabi and disruptive student conduct is already addressed in the Graduate and Professional Studies Student Handbook, the purpose of this policy is to clarify what constitutes disruptive behavior in the academic setting and what actions faculty and relevant administrative offices may take in response to such disruptive student behavior.

"Disruption," as applied to the academic setting, means classroom, instructor or classmate-related or online student behavior that a reasonable faculty member would view as interfering with or deviating from normal classroom, class-related, or other faculty-student activity (advising, co-curricular involvement, etc.). Faculty members are encouraged to communicate positive behavior expectations at the first class session and to include them in course syllabi. Examples of disruptive classroom behavior include, but are not limited to:

- persistent speaking without being recognized or interrupting the instructor or other speakers;
- overt inattentiveness (sleeping or reading the newspaper in class);
- inordinate or inappropriate demands for instructor or classroom time or attention;
- unauthorized use of cell phone or computer;
- behavior that distracts the class from the subject matter or discussion;
- unwanted contact with a classmate in person, via social media or other means;
- inappropriate public displays of affection;
- refusal to comply with reasonable instructor direction;
- invasion of personal space, physical threats, harassing behavior or personal insults and/or
- rude, insensitive or uncivil behavior in online course discussion boards.

The policy applies if the behavior is reported by a faculty member or academic administrator and occurs exclusively or primarily in a student-faculty member interaction whether in a physical or online classroom environment. Incidents which involve both academic and non-academic behavior may result in responses coordinated by the Vice Provost for Academic Administration, The Dean of the College of Extended Learning and the academic program director.

Civil and polite expression of disagreement with the course instructor, during times when the instructor permits discussion, is not in itself disruptive behavior and is not prohibited.

Some students possess medical or psychological conditions that may affect functioning within the standards of the university. Although such students may be considered disabled and are protected under the Rehabilitation Act/ADA, they are required to meet the fundamental university academic and behavioral policy as described in the Graduate and Professional Studies Student Handbook, the Graduate and Professional Studies Catalog and/or faculty syllabi.

Response Procedure

The following response procedure is recommended to faculty who witness or experience disruptive behavior, either in the classroom or in contact with an enrolled student outside the classroom. Depending on its severity, disruptive behavior would result in responses from an escalated use of the strategies below:

1. Verbal and/or written request to stop behavior and warning of potential consequences.
2. Exclusion from the current class period/activity.
3. E-mailed report to program director, dean, and the Vice Provost for Academic Administration (VPAA) (in cases of a severe instance, or multiple instances) depending on faculty wish and severity, may result in:
 - Filing of report and no further action.
 - Student meeting with VPAA and the dean and/or academic program director to develop and sign classroom behavior and growth plan detailing appropriate behaviors and consequences for failure to comply.

Depending on the frequency and severity of the student behavior, consequences may include permanent exclusion from a specific class up to and including administrative withdrawal from the university.

Note: Faculty should immediately report by phone students in an academic context who express either intent to harm themselves or to harm others to the Office of the VPAA, the Dean of the College of Extended Learning or the academic program director, in that order. (University personnel observing non-academic behavior incidents on the part of graduate or Adult Degree Completion students should report non-academic incidents to the academic program director or building manager.) If events occur in classes after university business hours, faculty should call Department of Public Safety and ask to speak to the highest ranking officer who will notify administrative personnel. Students who report tendency to self-harm will not be subject to disciplinary action for making PLNU officials aware of that tendency.

Academic Accommodations

While all students are expected to meet the minimum standards for completion of this course as established by the instructor, students with disabilities may require academic adjustments, modifications or auxiliary aids/services. At Point Loma Nazarene University (PLNU), these students are requested to register with the Disability Resource Center (DRC), located in the Bond Academic Center. (DRC@pointloma.edu or 619-849-2486). The DRC's policies and procedures for assisting such students in the development of an appropriate academic adjustment plan (AP) allows PLNU to comply with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act. Section 504 (a) prohibits discrimination against students with special needs and guarantees all qualified students equal access to and benefits of PLNU programs and activities. After the student files the required documentation, the DRC, in conjunction with the student, will develop an AP to meet that student's specific learning needs. The DRC will thereafter email the student's AP to all faculty who teach courses in which the student is enrolled each semester. The AP must be implemented in all such courses.

If students do not wish to avail themselves of some or all of the elements of their AP in a particular course, it is the responsibility of those students to notify their professor in that course. PLNU highly recommends that DRC students speak with their professors during the first two weeks of each semester about the applicability of their AP in that particular course and/or if they do not desire to take advantage of some or all of the elements of their AP in that course.

Examinations

Examinations may be deferred due only to illness or other equally valid conditions over which the student has no control. Approval for deferral must occur before the scheduled examination. Faculty and/or the department or school has the authority to grant examination deferral.

Grading System

Traditional letter grades (A, B, C, D, F) including plus and minus grades are used to indicate the level of scholarship earned for each course. Except for the correction of an error, all traditional letter grades are final at the conclusion of the academic term. Once the degree has been posted on the student's official transcript, no change of grade action is allowed for courses leading to the degree. The grade of 'C' is the lowest grade acceptable for credit.

[CR] Credit. The grade utilized for designated courses which are graded on a Credit/No Credit basis. Courses graded Credit are counted toward a student's total number of units but have no grade-point value and no effect on the grade-point average.

[I] Incomplete. A grade of Incomplete is given for work which has been completed partially in a satisfactory manner, but which, for valid reasons such as illness or death in the family, is not finished. The grade of I is to be given only on the basis of extraordinary circumstances clearly beyond the student's control. The grade of I is regarded as a deficiency grade and may be removed by the assignment of additional work to make up the deficiency; or, in cases where the incomplete is assigned because of inability to take a final examination, by a special examination. A grade of Incomplete must be made up within two weeks of the end of the course. If the work is not completed, the grade earned will be entered according to completed work for computation into the grade-point average. Until made up, a grade of I is considered as F in determining the student's grade-point average, and eligibility for financial assistance. Note: Federal fair use policy requires ending access to Canvas resources after three weeks. Instructors should keep this in mind when establishing incomplete grade resolution requirements and deadlines.

[IP] In Progress. A provisional grade assigned to courses, such as field work courses, that extend longer than a term due to the nature of the course requirements. The grade of IP carries no grade points and is replaced by the grade earned when the requirements for the course are properly completed. If the work is not completed within one calendar year from the end of the term date of enrollment, the course registration will be concluded and a grade of No Credit [NC] assigned or a grade based on completed work for computation into the grade-point average.

[NC] No Credit. The grade recorded for all non-passing work in those courses graded on a Credit/No Credit basis. The NC grade has no grade-point value and no effect on the grade-point average. In order to complete an NC course to meet degree or credential requirements, including one that was an IP and reverted to NC, a student assigned this grade must register again for the course.

[W] Withdrawn. This grade is recorded when a student doing passing work is given permission by the program director to drop a course after the first 50 % of the course (for exceptional circumstances such as personal and family emergency).

[WF] Withdrawn under failing conditions. This grade is recorded when a student does not request permission or whose petition to withdraw from a class is denied after 50% of the class has passed. A grade of WF is considered the same as an F in calculating the grade-point average.

Grade Points. Letter grades are converted to numerical equivalents for computation according to the following scale.

Courses in which grades of IP, W, CR, and NC are received are not included in determining the grade-point average.

Minimum Grades Required. All students admitted to an adult degree completion program must maintain a program (major course of study) grade-point average of 2.000 (C) or better and a cumulative grade-point average of 2.000 (C) or better as a condition of remaining in the program.

Students are required to earn at least a "C" in all program courses to graduate. Students may repeat courses in which they earned a grade lower than a C. If this is done, each grade appears on the transcript, but the lower grade is not used for grade-point calculation. Students receiving Veterans Benefits may not be eligible for benefits when repeating a course.

Course Grade Appeals

It is the responsibility of the faculty to evaluate student performance and assign grades. The university has established a course grade appeal policy, however, that may be used when a student believes the syllabus was not followed in the grade calculation or if it is thought that grading was done in a capricious and arbitrary manner. The appeal policy does not include student dissatisfaction with a grade based on the faculty member's professional judgment. A Course Grade Appeal Form may be obtained from the Office of Records and must be filed by the last day of the following term in which the grade was given.

Certificate Requirements

Optional certificates are offered in some schools or departments. The requirements governing certificates are as follows:

- A certificate is a skill based program responsive to employer and/or market need that supplements a student's graduate or degree completion studies. Point Loma Nazarene University offers certificates which may be one of three types: academic, professional development or attendance certificates.
- Academic certificates will be between six (6) and eighteen (18) graduate level units. Professional development certificates are based on a ten (10) hours per CEU formula. Attendance certificates are awarded on the basis of full session attendance.
- 50% or more of the units being applied to the certificate must be unique to that certificate.
- Only academic certificates that appear in the student's catalog of record may be earned at the point of graduation.
- Students must earn a 3.0 cumulative grade point average for an academic certificate with no grade lower than C.
- Of the total graduate units in the academic certificate, a minimum of two-thirds must be earned in residence.
- Academic certificate programs will state clearly whether they can be applied to a PLNU degree.
- Neither professional development nor attendance certificates can be converted to academic credit or applied to university programs or degrees.

Independent Study

Independent studies at the university level enable students to enrich their academic experience by pursuing topics and research in a closely supervised program with an academic supervisor. In such a study, a qualified student works with the instructor to develop a plan and syllabus. Adult degree completion students may receive credit for up to six units of independent study to be applied to their degree program. No more than four units may be received from one project or study.

An independent study form and proposal must be submitted with a registration form to the program director, with an approved copy filed with the Office of Records. The independent study must be approved by the instructor, academic unit leader, and the respective dean. Independent study fees may apply depending on circumstances.

Prior Learning Credit

In addition to the program units earned through the adult degree completion program, additional semester units must be earned to meet the degree completion requirements of 120 total semester units. A maximum of 24 units can be evaluated for credit through the following non-traditional methods:

- Testing (CLEP, Dantes)

- Prior Learning for university academic credit as evaluated by the American Council on Education (ACE) or the Council on Adult and Experiential Learning (CAEL) or the Military Experience credit
American Council on Education (ACE) provides guidance on workplace learning. See <http://www.acenet.edu/higher-education/topics/Pages/Adult-Learners.aspx> for more information.

Credit for Prior Learning (CPL) is not credit for "life experience." It is credit for prior learning and students must demonstrate through a portfolio that learning has taken place. The faculty will evaluate the portfolio to determine how much credit should be given for the learning accomplished. The student is responsible for any costs accrued for completing the evaluation.

Transfer Credit

Transfer credit is defined as undergraduate credit earned at other accredited institutions. Students in adult degree completion programs must transfer in a minimum of forty (40) units. At least 36 units must be taken in residence.

Academic Standing

Normal Academic Progress

The academic progress of all students is reviewed by the Dean of the College of Extended Learning. Those who maintain the minimum required grade-point average are in satisfactory scholastic standing and as such are making progress toward a degree. To remain free of academic probation, students must earn a minimum cumulative grade-point average specified by the program in which they are enrolled. The Adult Degree Completion program requires a GPA of 2.0 for the major course of study, with a minimum grade of C grade counting toward the completion of a program requirement. Consistent with undergraduate degree policy, a cumulative GPA of 2.000 is required for graduation.

Unsatisfactory Academic Progress

Point Loma takes seriously a student's inability to make satisfactory progress toward the goal of a degree. The university works with students placed on academic probation to create links between them, advisors, program directors, and other support staff. Policies concerning students on academic probation are administered by the Dean of the College of Extended Learning.

Note: Students who receive federal, state, or veterans aid must meet certain qualitative and quantitative standards of academic progress. As a result, it may be possible for a student to be on academic probation at the university but be ineligible for federal, state and veterans aid. Additional information on PLNU's financial aid satisfactory progress policy is available in the PLNU Student Financial Services Office.

Academic Warning

Students whose semester or session GPA is below acceptable standards may receive a letter of Academic Warning. This includes courses without final grades, such as in progress courses or incomplete courses.

Academic Probation Alert

Students whose cumulative GPA meets the minimum standard for academic good standing, but whose session GPA for a regular semester falls below the program minimum, are placed on alert status. While not technically on academic probation, these students are under the strict supervision of the Office of the Dean of the College of Extended Learning and may be required to repeat courses in which they received a low grade.

Academic Probation

Students whose cumulative GPA falls below minimum standards are placed on academic probation. Probationary students who fail to earn the minimal required session GPA for their program the following semester are disqualified from continuing at the university.

Continuance on Academic Probation

Students who are on probation and earn at least the required GPA for their program during the current session, but whose cumulative GPA is below that standard, may be continued on academic probation at the discretion of the Vice Provost for Graduate and Professional Services, considering all factors. These students are under the strict supervision of the Office of the Vice Provost for Graduate and Professional Services.

Academic Disqualification

Students whose cumulative GPAs fall below the minimum requirements for two consecutive semesters are disqualified. Students who are disqualified from continuation at the university due to performance below minimum GPA standard will receive a letter from the Dean of the College of Extended Learning describing the reason for the disqualification, the student's eligibility or ineligibility to apply for readmission and the route to readmission if eligible.

Withdrawal and Readmission

Withdrawal from the University

There are times when a student finds it necessary to withdraw from the university. In order to avoid being administratively withdrawn, courses and incompletes being converted to a failing grade, and financial payments going into default, students are required to notify the Office of Records and complete a Notice of Intent to Withdraw from the university. If withdrawal occurs while a course is still in progress, students must also follow the procedures listed below for withdrawing from a course.

Withdrawal from a Course

Students may drop a course at any time up to the last day allowable to drop a course. If this action leaves the student with no further courses, a withdrawal form (available online) must be filed in a timely manner. Students with extenuating circumstances, such as personal or family emergencies after the last day to drop, may contact the Center for Student Success to begin the process for withdrawal. If the action is approved, courses are then graded with a W (withdrawal) unless the faculty deems the student's performance to be unsatisfactory at the time of withdrawal, at which point a WF grade would be assigned.

Students who cease attending or never attended a course for which they are registered receive an F in that course if the above procedures for dropping/withdrawing are not followed.

Financial implications for withdrawals may be found under "Refund Policy."

Readmission

Students who have been admitted to the university, have attended classes, and have subsequently withdrawn formally or failed to register for more than one semester (or two sequential Quads) must complete a Readmit form through the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies Admissions. Students who have been administratively withdrawn or who have not been enrolled for three calendar years from the last date of attendance must submit a new application in all cases. Students who are successfully readmitted are subject to the program requirements of the catalog under which they re-enter unless a leave of absence has been granted.

Administrative Withdrawal

Students who have not attended or enrolled in a course for one semester, are not currently completing coursework and have not officially withdrawn, will be administratively withdrawn. Such withdrawal may have financial aid implications. Students with this status must submit a new application to the university and to their degree program.

Curricular Exceptions

Occasionally, an exception to the requirements in this catalog may be appropriate. For consideration of a curricular exception, students must file a Curricular Exceptions petition with their program director. The program director will make a recommendation to the appropriate dean. If approved by the Dean of the College of Extended Learning. Decisions regarding exceptions are based on the merit of each individual case.

All curricular exceptions combined may not exceed 20% of the total units required for the degree or credential. The rationale for such changes must be substantiated with official academic records that become part of the student's PLNU academic records in the Office of Records.

Examples of curricular exceptions include: a course substitution of one PLNU course substituting for another PLNU course; or a circumstance requiring the student to take an elective to replace the unit requirement for the program.

Application for Graduation

A student who intends to graduate must complete an Application for Degree Candidacy obtained from their Student Services Counselor. The form must be filed with the Office of Records no less than 60 days prior to the anticipated degree posting date. All work taken toward a degree must be completed in full with passing grades recorded prior to the anticipated degree posting date. Degrees are conferred three (3) times per year at the close of each academic term. If all program requirements for the semester of application are not completed, the student must reapply for graduation. Degrees are posted in the semester of final registration and/or completion of final requirements.

Commencement convocation is held two times a year, at the close of the fall and spring terms. All candidates who completed their work and had their degree posted in the current academic year may participate. A candidate who is deficient in meeting graduation requirements by nine (9) units may be permitted to participate in the following commencement. The diploma is available to graduates approximately 10 weeks after satisfactory completion of all work for the degree after the closest degree confirmation date.

All candidates must complete all program courses to participate in Commencement unless all of the following are met:

- There are no more than nine (9) non-program units lacking to complete the required units for the degree; and
- There is an approved plan to complete the remaining units in the immediately following term

Graduation Honors

Graduation with Latin Honors. The university recognizes academic excellence with the following honors designation based exclusively on the residential grade-point average (GPA earned in residence at PLNU):

- Summa cum Laude (highest honors), 3.900 and above
- Magna cum Laude (high honors), 3.700 to 3.899
- Cum Laude (honors), 3.500 to 3.699

Final honors are designated on diplomas. To be considered for honors a student must have a minimum cumulative grade-point average of 3.500, including all transfer work. The specific level of honors noted above is only based on PLNU residential units.

The university announces unofficial honors during the commencement ceremony using these calculations and based on units earned by the conclusion of the previous term. Official honors are posted with the degree.

Education Records (FERPA) and Directory Information

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 as amended affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. These include: 1) the right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days of the day the university receives a request for access, 2) the right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading, 3) the right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student's education records, and 4) the right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by Point Loma to comply with the requirements of FERPA.

FERPA has specifically identified certain information called directory information that may be disclosed without student consent. Although directory information may be disclosed without student consent, PLNU is not required to release directory information.

The university has defined directory information as name, address (including electronic mail), telephone number, date and place of birth, major field of study, dates of attendance, enrollment status, degrees, honors and awards received, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, degree candidacy, and the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended. This information may be provided, upon review by the Vice Provost for Academic Administration, as public information or to individuals who demonstrate a valid need to contact students.

Periodically, PLNU conducts formal and informal photo and video shoots (around the campus and at off-campus events and activities) for use in university publications, social media, promotional videos/commercials, and the PLNU Web site. Students who require that no identifiable image be used by the university must notify Marketing and Creative Services in writing prior to the second Monday of each semester. Students should email their request to photo-optout@pointloma.edu and include their full name and student ID number. In addition, PLNU may submit information about students' participation in school activities to media outlets. Students who require that their names be excluded from such stories must notify Marketing and Creative Services in writing prior to the second Monday of each semester.

The university may disclose education records to college officials with legitimate educational interests. A college official is a person employed by the university; a member of the Board of Trustees; or an individual serving on a committee, such as disciplinary or grievance committees. A college official has a legitimate educational interest if the information aids the official in fulfilling professional functions. PLNU also includes among college officials a student appointed to an official committee or assisting another official in performing tasks and outside service providers who perform an institutional service of function such as attorneys, auditors, and the National Student Clearinghouse. The university may also disclose education records to post-secondary institutions in which a student is seeking or intending to enroll, or is already attending if the disclosure is for purposes related to the student's enrollment or transfer.

Questions relative to FERPA policies should be referred to the Office of the Vice Provost for Academic Administration or may be referenced at FERPA.

Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) with a Concentration in Management and Marketing

Program Description

The Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) with a Concentration in Management and Marketing provides students who attain an Associate of Science in Business Administration degree or complete equivalent coursework with a means to complete a quality four-year bachelor's degree in business. Students who complete the BBA will be prepared to lead organizations through core knowledge in management and marketing, and skilled business practices including critical analysis, communication, problem solving and ethical values.

Program Learning Outcomes

Students who complete the Bachelor of Business Administration with a Concentration in Management and Marketing will be able to:

- Demonstrate general knowledge of theories and practices in the core areas of business.
- Critically analyze and apply business knowledge to solve complex business situations.
- Demonstrate effective business communication through both written and verbal means.
- Formulate decisions informed by ethical attitudes and values.
- Collaborate effectively in teams.
- Demonstrate an in-depth knowledge of management theory.
- Apply management knowledge and concepts to recommend organizational improvements.
- Demonstrate an in-depth knowledge of marketing theory.
- Apply marketing knowledge and concepts in the analysis of an integrated marketing communication (IMC) plan.

Graduation Requirements

In order for a student to receive the Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) with a Concentration in Management and Marketing in the adult degree completion program, the following requirements must be met:

1. A total of 120 semester units must be earned with an overall 2.0 grade point average and all general education requirements met.
2. Completion of an Associate of Science in Business Administration degree, containing 60 semester units of business core and general education or equivalent coursework that meets approved requirements.
3. Completion of the required 60 units in the Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) with a Concentration in Management and Marketing from Point Loma Nazarene University with a minimum grade of "C" in each course and an overall 2.75 grade point average for the BBA semester units.
4. All bills paid with the student in good standing.
5. Application for graduation must be made prior to the start of the final semester. All program requirements must be complete prior to participation in Commencement ceremonies. All candidates must complete all progra courses to participate unless all of the following are met.

There are no more than six (6) units lacking to complete the required 120 unit minimum

There is an approved plan to complete remaining units in the immediately following term.

Admissions Requirements

Child Development

Mission

The Bachelor of Arts degree program in Child and Adolescent Development is to provide working adult students the opportunity to complete a quality college degree via a schedule and format especially designed to meet their unique needs. This curriculum will help support student development toward a personal commitment to improving 1) the lives of individuals and families in their professional endeavors, 2) the lives of community members, and 3) their personal family life.

Program Learning Outcomes (PLO):

1. Identify and describe normative similarities and differences of intellectual, emotional, social and physical theories at each developmental stage from prenatal through adolescence.
2. Evaluate the effects of family systems on the development of children and adolescents.
3. Identify and discuss scientific research in understanding different philosophical views of growth and development both historic and current.
4. Assess research of theoretical and appropriate practical elements of parenting to facilitate decisions for a healthy environment for children and adolescents.
5. Evaluate the effects of society and culture upon the family microsystems, family types and the subsequent macrosystems with which they co-exist.
6. Identify career paths and professional areas of service within the child and adolescent profession.

Graduation Requirements

In order for a student to receive the bachelor's degree in an adult degree completion program, the following requirements must be met:

1. A total of 120 semester hours must be earned with an overall 2.0 grade point average and all general core education requirements met. ()
2. Complete the required program hours in the major (program) from Point Loma Nazarene University with a minimum grade of "C" in each course and an overall 3.0 grade point average for the major (program).
3. In addition to the program hours earned through the adult degree completion program, additional semester hours must be earned to meet the degree completion requirements of 120 total semester hours. A maximum 24 hours can be earned through the following non-traditional methods:
 - a. Testing (CLEP, Dantes)
 - b. Prior Learning and Military Experience credit (PLC, ACE - see below)
4. Application for graduation must be made prior to the start of the final semester.
5. All bills paid with the student in good standing.

Notes:

- Prior Learning Credit (PLC) is not credit for "life experience." It is credit for prior learning and students must demonstrate through a portfolio that learning has taken place. The faculty will evaluate the portfolio to determine how much credit should be given for the learning accomplished. See <http://www.cael.org/pla.htm> for examples of how this is described. To receive PLC credit students would enroll in a PLC assessment course to learn the portfolio submission process.
- American Council on Education (ACE) provides guidance on workplace learning. See <http://www.acenet.edu/higher-education/topics/Pages/Adult-Learners.aspx> for more information.

Program Prerequisites

Incoming students are strongly recommended to have completed the following courses with a grade of C or better prior to acceptance into this program:

- College Composition - 6 units (Writing 110 or 115/116 at PLNU)
- Nutrition - transferrable level (FCS225 or 305 at PLNU)

First semester students must pass CDV320 and WRT301 as the first courses - with a grade of C or better in order to take any other CDV course or move forward in the program.

Child Development Core Courses

- BST 304 (B, C, J, M, N) - Biblical Perspectives (4)

Students who already have this certification will be allowed to substitute an alternative one unit class.*

Total Required units: 47

Elective Courses

- CIT 141 - Intermediate Excel (1)
- CIT 321 - Network+ Exam Prep (1)
- CIT 331 - Security+ Exam Prep (1)
- CIT 341 - Project+ Exam Prep (1)
- CIT 471 - Information Technology Practicum (1-4)

Electives needed: 2 units

Program Total Units: 49

Up to 13 units of approved coursework may be transferred into this major.

Criminal Justice

The focus of the Criminal Justice Major is to provide higher education in the context of a Christian worldview where students' minds are engaged and challenged and service in the criminal justice professions become an expression of faith. This is accomplished through a curriculum where a student's career is enhanced through integration of a focused educational program, a faith perspective and a professional life. The program integrates specialized knowledge and skills with concepts of grace, restorative justice, and cultural competency which support the Sociology and Social Work departmental mission to nurture servant scholars who critically evaluate social and cultural patterns and who constructively engage in society as agents of hope.

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this program, the student will be able to:

1. Demonstrate ability to apply theoretical and legal foundations of criminal justice.
2. Demonstrate knowledge of each of the components of the criminal justice system: the historical background, structure, function, and purpose.
3. Integrate and apply understanding of the social realities, discrimination, and the conflicts in the criminal justice system resulting from racial, socio-economic, and cultural inequities.
4. Apply foundational skills; demonstrate core competencies (such as ethical and professional behavior and critical thinking) in a professional internship setting.
5. Demonstrate written and oral communication skills needed to effectively engage in a career in criminal justice.

Integrated Studies with an Emphasis in Education

Designed for working adults, the Integrated Studies with an Emphasis in Education major will allow candidates to concurrently work on an initial teaching credential while completing a Bachelor of Arts degree. This major, offered at Point Loma Nazarene University's Mission Valley and Bakersfield branch campuses, is an ideal major for aspiring teachers wanting to teach elementary grade levels. The Integrated Studies program:

- provides for approximately 100 hours of fieldwork in local public schools
- allows teacher candidates to complete coursework for their bachelor's degree and preliminary teaching credential in 4 terms.

Program Learning Outcomes

The Point Loma Nazarene University Institutional Learning Outcomes guide the development of each program learning outcome within the Integrated Studies Degree. Because this degree is housed in the School of Education, Student Learning Outcomes in each course are aligned within the overarching conceptual framework of "Equip, Transform and Empower."

Equip

Learning: Informed by our faith in Christ

1. Evaluate the educational, cultural, interpersonal, and social environments within the professional workplace from an ethical and Christian context
2. Demonstrate problem-solving and decision-making skills within the context of a diverse educational environment.

Transform

Organizational Management

Mission

The Bachelor of Arts degree program in Organizational Management exists to provide working adult students the opportunity to complete a quality college degree in a schedule and format particularly designed to meet their needs, responding to the unique and ever-changing needs in the marketplace. The curriculum is interdisciplinary and liberal arts in nature, with the major emphasis on general management and relationship development skills building. The program integrates a Christian world view and is committed to continual improvement.

Program Learning Outcomes:

The Point Loma Nazarene University Organizational Management graduate is prepared for expanded roles within his or her organization through enhanced abilities to:

1. Evaluate the political, interpersonal and social environments within the business or professional workplace from an ethical and Christian context.
2. Demonstrate problem-solving and decision-making skills within the context of a diverse cultural environment.
3. Distinguish how the role of a manager needs to continually adapt in relation to human capital, social influence, political structure, relational development and situational ethics.
4. Evaluate personal, interpersonal, social strengths and weaknesses, and incorporate personal style to effectively and ethically influence the workplace.

Graduation Requirements:

In order for a student to receive the bachelor's degree in an adult degree completion program, the following requirements must be met:

1. A total of 120 semester hours must be earned with an overall 2.0 grade point average and all general core education requirements met. ()
2. Complete the required program hours in the major (program) from Point Loma Nazarene University with a minimum grade of "C" in each course and an overall 3.0 grade point average for the major (program).
3. In addition to the program hours earned through the adult degree completion program, additional semester hours must be earned to meet the degree completion requirements of 120 total semester hours. A maximum 24 hours can be earned through the following non-traditional methods:
 - a. Testing (CLEP, Dantes)
 - b. Prior Learning and Military Experience credit (PLC, ACE - see below)
4. Application for graduation must be made prior to the start of the final semester.
5. All bills paid with the student in good standing.

Notes:

- Prior Learning Credit (PLC) is not credit for "life experience." It is credit for prior learning and students must demonstrate through a portfolio that learning has taken place. The faculty will evaluate the portfolio to determine how much credit should be given for the learning accomplished. See <http://www.cael.org/pla.htm> for examples of how this is described. NOTE: The BA in Organizational Management is an approved program under PLNU's WASC Regional Accreditation. It is not an ACBSP approved program. For those interested in an ACBSP approved program, PLNU offers, through the Fermanian School of Business, a BA in Business Administration and a BS in Business Administration with majors in various areas.

Admissions Requirements:

To be admitted to an adult degree completion program the student must:

1. Complete at least 40 semester units*
 - a. with a minimum cumulative GPA of at least 2.75
 - b. from an accredited institution
 - c. as evidenced by an official transcript sent directly from each college or university attended. (*)

2. Attain the minimum age of 23, OR minimum age of 21 with an associate's degree, OR minimum age of 21 with significant work experience.
3. Submit an application for admission.
4. Complete an interview with an admissions advisor

The following 36 credit units of general education core requirements: () are required for graduation and it is advised that they be completed prior to beginning a course of study

- a. Communication-6 semester units (of which one course must be in English Composition)
- b. Humanities/Fine Arts-6 semester units (at least one course must be from the following: literature, philosophy, art or music appreciation, art or music history, fine arts, or history)
- c. Natural Science and Math-6 semester units (at least one course must be in Math)
- d. Social and Behavioral Sciences-6 semester units
- e. Bible and Theology - 6 semester units (at least one course must be taken from PLNU)
- f. An additional 6 semester units must be earned in any of the above areas.

General education deficiencies may be completed after admittance, but at least 20 units must be completed prior to starting the program cohort. Three units of appropriate prior learning credit (see below) may be used to meet one of the general education areas-with the exception of English Composition and Math.

The PLNU General Education Learning Outcomes (GELO's) will be addressed and measured within the PLNU degree program to ensure the GE outcomes that we value are demonstrated.

*Prospective students who meet the other criteria but do not have the required semester units for entrance or are lacking in the core requirements will be advised how to correct any deficiency. An admissions advisor will assist with the development of a written pre-admission educational plan, which may include bridge courses taken at PLNU. Only courses from an accredited institution where at least a grade of "C" has been earned will be accepted by transfer. Prospective students who do not meet the minimum GPA requirement can be accepted under exception. (See criteria for acceptance of students under GPA exception.)

Admissions under Exception:

Applicants who do not meet the minimum standards for admissions, but who can demonstrate an exceptionally rich experiential background and/or have shown a dramatic change in academic performance, may petition the academic department or school for a special review of their status. The academic department or school reviews the student's application package and determines the merits and appropriateness of the request.

In order to apply for admissions under exception, the applicant must also provide a statement outlining the applicant's reasons and justification for requesting an exception to admission policies with supporting documentation. All exception materials must be submitted to the Office of Graduate Admissions. The applicant is also required to schedule an interview with a Point Loma Nazarene University academic advisor from the school to which the applicant is applying.

Following the interview, the academic advisor submits a summary of the applicant's interview and petition package to the department chair or dean of the school. The department chair or dean is the final authority for admissions under exception.

RN to BSN - Adult Degree Completion

The RN to BSN degree program exists to provide students the opportunity to complete a degree in a schedule. The format of the program is designed to meet needs of the working nurse while responding to the ever changing marketplace. The curriculum is designed to build on the educational experience already achieved in preparing for the RN role. The program integrates Christian world view and is committed to continual improvement.

Program Learning Outcomes

Inquiring Faithfully - Student will demonstrate knowledge, skill and behavior of the evidence-based practice of nursing which integrates growth in reasoning, analysis, decision-making and the application of theory with the goal of advocating for others and/or self. This includes holistic nursing skills and nursing process.

- Initiates dialogue regarding current practice to improve healthcare
- Demonstrates the use of evidence-based practices as an advocate for self and others
- Promotes positive client outcomes using evidence-based data
- Provides holistic care by considering all of the client needs (e.g. physical, psychosocial, spiritual, environmental) including family in a multicultural community
- Engages in self-care practices that facilitate optimal care of clients

Caring Faithfully - The student will embrace a calling to the ministry of compassionate care for all people in response to God's grace, which aims to foster optimal health and bring comfort in suffering and death.

- Demonstrates compassionate care to all people while mirroring Christ's love for all.
- Partners with the community to establish a trusting relationship
- Demonstrates ethics and values consistent with the practice of professional nursing

Communicating Faithfully - The student will actively engage in the dynamic interactive process that is intrapersonal and interpersonal with the goal of advocating for others and/or self. This includes effective, culturally appropriate communication conveying information, thoughts, actions and feelings through the use of verbal and nonverbal skills.

- Engages in active listening to promote therapeutic relationships
- Demonstrates effective verbal and nonverbal communication skills to provide patient care
- Dialogs with members of the healthcare team, including the patient, to facilitate positive patient outcomes
- Advocates for patients/families and self
- Implements patient care while honoring the diversity of patients, families and communities.

Following Faithfully - Defined as claiming the challenge from Florence Nightingale that nursing is a "divine imposed duty of ordinary work." The nursing student will integrate the ordinary work by complying with and adhering to regulatory and professional standards (e.g. ANA Code of Ethics, the California Board of Registered Nursing, Scope of National Practice, SON handbook.) This includes taking responsibility, being accountable for all actions and treating others with respect and dignity.

- Engages in a professional practice environment that promotes nursing excellence
- Provides patient care within the boundaries designated by regulatory agencies, professional practices and ethical standards of a Christian nurse
- Avails self of learning opportunities to cultivate the life-long learning process

Leading Faithfully - The student will incorporate a foundational relationship with Christ and others and embrace a willingness to serve others in the midst of life circumstances (e.g. illness, injustice, poverty). The student will role-model the need for "Sabbath Rest" as a means of personal renewal, and true care of the self, so that service to others is optimally achieved. The student will incorporate the characteristics of a servant leader including: humility, courage, forgiveness, discernment.

- Provides graceful service through compassionate responses to others' needs
- Demonstrates the principles of a servant leader as a reflection of Christ's love
- Exhibits patient advocacy that reflects sensitivity to diversity in a holistic manner.

Program Eligibility

Each student applying to this program must have successfully completed at least 1 year of an ADN program. All students in this program must be licensed as a Registered Nurse in the state of California prior to the 3rd term of the program.

Early Acceptance

Early Acceptance into the RN to BSN program allows students to apply to PLNU while they are in their second or third semester at a Community College Nursing program. The student will go through the application process with PLNU in the Summer to take the RN to BSN writing course during the summer before ADN graduation. Within two semesters after ADN graduation, these students return to PLNU to continue the RN to BSN program.

- Completion of at least two full semesters in ADN program
- 3.0 cumulative overall GPA for provisional admittance as Early Accept RN-BSN
- To be granted full acceptance upon return, after ADN completion:
 - Pass WRT300 course with "C" or better
 - Maintain minimum 2.75 cumulative GPA for the remainder of ADN program
- Tuition rate from WRT300 course honored if return for full program within two semesters of completing ADN
 - Spring graduates return by Fall
 - Summer graduates return by Spring
 - Fall graduates return by Summer

Graduation Requirements

Thirty-six (36) units in residence at PLNU are required for completion of this program. Additionally, there are core requirements listed for all Adult Degree Completion programs that need to be met in diverse areas to fulfill the PLNU liberal arts education model (i.e. communication/writing, humanities, mathematics, natural, social, and behavior sciences).

A minimum total number of 120 units is required completion of the Bachelor of Nursing Science degree.

Nursing Requirements

All 300 level nursing courses need to be successfully completed with a C or better prior to registering for 400 level courses.

Program Learning Outcomes

Candidates who complete the Doctor of Nursing Practice program will be able to:

- Inquire Faithfully: The graduate will demonstrate knowledge, skill and behavior of the evidence based practice of nursing which integrates growth in reasoning, analysis, decision-making, and the application of theory with the goal of advocating for others and/or self. This includes holistic nursing skills and the nursing process.
- Care Faithfully: The graduate will embrace a calling to the ministry of compassionate care for all people in response to God's grace, which aims to foster optimal health and bring comfort in suffering and death.
- Communicate Faithfully: The graduate will actively engage in the dynamic interactive process that is intrapersonal and interpersonal with the goal of advocating for others and/or self. This includes effective, culturally appropriate communication conveys information, thoughts, actions and feelings through the use of verbal and nonverbal skills.
- Follow Faithfully: Defined as claiming the challenge from Florence Nightingale that nursing is a "divine imposed duty of ordinary work". The graduate will integrate the ordinary work by complying with and adhering to regulatory and professional standards (e.g. ANA Code of Ethics, the California Board of Registered Nursing Scope of Nursing Practice, SON Handbook). This includes taking responsibility, being accountable for all actions and treating others with dignity.
- Lead Faithfully: The graduate will incorporate a foundational relationship with Christ and others and embrace a willingness to serve others in the midst of life circumstances (e.g. illness, injustice, poverty). The graduate will role-model the need for "Sabbath Rest" as a means of personal renewal, and true care of self, so that service to others is optimally achieved. The graduate will incorporate the characteristics of a servant leader including: humility, courage, forgiveness, discernment.

Program Eligibility for Doctor of Nursing Practice

Admission to the program is based on an overall appraisal of the applicant's ability to undertake doctoral study and their contributions to the discipline of nursing as evidenced by the following:

- Documentation of active RN license,
- Official transcripts,
- Minimum grade point average of 3.2 (MSN),
- Curriculum Vitae or Resume,
- Current employment in nursing or at least 1 year of full time nursing practice in the last 5 years,
- Three (3) professional letters of recommendation,
- A typed statement identifying a change of practice issue related to professional goals,
- Example of scholarly work (e.g. work related presentation or project, paper from prior educational endeavors, professional presentation: published document, power point or poster), and
- A completed application form and fee.

English Language Requirements

A satisfactory command of the English language is required for admission to the Graduate School of Nursing. All applicants whose native language is not English, must meet this requirement-including international applicants, permanent residents, immigrants, and transfer students who are not citizens of the United States on the date of admission. A Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) is the measure of competency. The test must have been taken within the past two years with minimum scores of:

- 550 for the paper-based test, and
- 80 for the internet-based test with a minimum section requirement score of 20 in reading, listening, speaking, and writing. Only the following countries are exempt from proof of English proficiency: Australia, Canada, Ireland, United Kingdom, and New Zealand.

Graduation Requirements

In addition to successful completion of all didactic course work, the student will:

- Complete a total of 1,000 hours of clinical residency (documented clinical hours achieved in an MSN advance practice role will be included),
- Implement and defend a DNP Project-examples of this include: Quality Improvement project at the unit or organization level,
- A minimum grade point average of 3.0.
- A minimum grade of B- in all courses, (Students needing to repeat more than two courses may not progress and may be dismissed from the program)
- Deliver a professional presentation of DNP Project in a community forum,
- Submission of a manuscript for publication in a peer-reviewed journal, and
- All requirements for graduate degrees must be completed within an eight-year period from the time of initial enrollment in the program.

Colleges, Schools and Departments

Academic Governance

Point Loma Nazarene University is committed to broad-based participation in decision making as evidenced in the organization of the faculty and administration. Both groups serve, often with student members, on a wide range of councils and committees that deal with administrative and faculty areas of concern. Recommendations are brought to faculty meetings and/or to the administration through the Administrative Cabinet. A complete listing of the committee structure is included in the Faculty Handbook.

In matters of graduate and professional program curriculum, the various academic units propose changes through the Graduate and Extended Studies Committee (GESC), and then on to a general meeting of the faculty acting as a committee of the whole. The Provost provides general direction to these efforts with the assistance of the Vice Provosts. The Academic Affairs Committee of the Board of Trustees acts upon matters of policy relative to the academic program.

Department of Biology

Mission Statement

The purpose of the PLNU graduate program in biology is to provide an opportunity for working professionals, particularly teachers, to develop a deeper understanding of biological principles and methods, as well as to explore the relationship between science and faith.

Program Director and Department Chair

Program Director: Dianne L. Anderson, Ph.D.

Biology Department Chair: Dawne M. Page, Ph.D.

Masters

General Biology, Master of Science

Program Description

The master's degree in general biology is an academic degree designed for working professionals. This program requires completion of either an original thesis or six additional elective units and a comprehensive exam.

The thesis option is appropriate for those who wish to design and carry out an original research project in teaching and learning in biology. The comprehensive exam option is appropriate for those who wish to take more biology coursework to supplement their background knowledge.

Program Learning Outcomes

Candidates who complete the Master of Science in General Biology program will be able to:

- Discuss major concepts and theories in biology;
- Carry out and communicate various experimental methods and types of data analysis;
- Demonstrate knowledge and skills in critical thinking, such as analysis and synthesis, as applied to primary literature in the field of biology, as well as in science education; and
- Distinguish between science and faith, and recognize the potential compatibility of the two domains.

Program Eligibility for the General Biology Master of Science Program

- A completed application for admission to the biology program;
- Official transcripts from regionally accredited institutions, one of which must indicate the completion of a baccalaureate degree;
- Successful completion of an undergraduate upper-division grade-point average of at least 2.750;
 - Two recommendation letters from any of the following:
 - a principal
 - department head
 - former college/university professor
 - other professional colleague
- A writing sample on assigned topics which indicates graduate-level ability;
- Test score on either the GRE subject test in biology or the biology Major Field Test; and
- An interview with the appropriate graduate director or coordinator.

Graduation Requirements

1. A completed Application for Degree Candidacy (on-line or in the Office of Records, Point Loma campus);
2. Completion of the approved graduate program of 34 units, including the thesis or comprehensive exam;
3. A cumulative grade-point average of 3.000 or higher. A student may earn a maximum of two "C" grades in the program;
4. All accounts paid in full; and
5. All requirements for graduate degrees must be completed within an eight-year period from the time of initial enrollment in the program.

Students will develop an academic plan within the first semester of enrollment to determine the appropriate electives based on bachelor's degree coursework, teaching experience, and professional goals.

College of Extended Learning

Mission Statement

The College of Extended Learning is to provide learning opportunities to non-traditional and adult students through:

- Innovation
- Service
- Relationships
- Excellence

The goal is to develop strategic thinking servant leaders who will lead and transform organizations based on ethical and biblical principles.

Dean and Associate Dean:

College of Extended Learning Dean: David Phillips, D.Min

College of Extended Learning Associate Dean: Aaron Nunez, Ph.D.

Masters

Organizational Leadership

The Masters of Arts in Organizational Leadership is offered in a distance education format and specifically designed to align with the PLNU mission to equip, empower, and transform individuals for servant leadership in a dynamically changing world. The program provides academic preparation that can be immediately applied to the life situations in which the students live and it is a direct response to the strategic priorities of the university.

The MA in Organizational Leadership is an approved program under PLNU's WASC Regional Accreditation. Though this is not an ACBSP approved program, for those interested in that type of program, PLNU offers an MBA through its Fermanian School of Business.

*Those who graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Organizational Management from PLNU with a 3.75 GPA will be given advanced standing in this program.

Program Learning Outcomes

The Point Loma Nazarene University Master of Arts in Organizational Leadership graduate is prepared for expanded roles within his or her organization through enhanced abilities to:

1. Evaluate how Christian virtues support the practices of leadership within an organizational system.
2. Interpret how organizational knowledge relates to management, the practices of planning, leadership of change and conflict, and oversight of human resources, and illustrate how that integrates with Christian, legal, and regulatory roles.
3. Analyze the evidence of personal leadership style, strengths, and skills, and how that supports their various functions within an organization.
4. Adapt leadership concepts to real-life organizational situations.

Graduation Requirements

1. Successful completion of the required Strategic Organizational Leadership curriculum with a minimum of (36) semester units of coursework. Students receiving Advanced Standing will be required to complete a minimum of (30) semester units.

2. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher. No more than two "C" grades are permitted to fulfill required courses in the program. A third "C" requires one of the three courses to be repeated. Any course receiving a grade lower than a "C" must be repeated and the units will not be added to earned units.
3. Successful completion of the two culminating courses with a minimum of "B-" grade.
4. Successfully complete a personal interview (in person or using video conferencing technology) at the end of the program to review the things that have been learned and how the student felt that the program equipped him/her for servant leadership. The interviews are designed to ensure that the student has a clear understanding of the material covered and to evaluate the effectiveness of the program. To comply with U.S. Department of Education and accreditation requirements, students are required to show a government issued photo I.D.

Course Requirements

This program can be completed in less than 2 years (approximately 15 months). Classes are designed as collaborative learning experiences where students and instructors are engaged in asynchronous dialog throughout the week. It is comprised of 8 four credit-hour courses and 4 one unit courses (36 credit hours). Students learn in community as they participate in a cohort experience that not only provides for a great learning experience, but develops a network of friends who share common goals.

- SOL 601 - Assessing Leadership Skills (4)
- SOL 602 - Concepts of Strategic Leadership (4)
- SOL 603 - Organizational Systems and Behavior (4)
- SOL 604 - Organizational Communication (4)
- SOL 606 - Human Resources Issues (4)
- SOL 607 - Financial Reporting in Organizations (4)
- SOL 617 - Ethics in Organizations (1)
- SOL 618 - Legal Environment of Organizations (1)
- SOL 620 - Practice of Leadership (4)
- SOL 621 - Developing a Strategic Plan (4)
- SOL 631 - Graduate Writing and Research (1)
- SOL 641 - Leadership Portfolio Development (1)

Bachelor Degrees - Adult Degree Completion

Adult Degree Completion

Policies and general education requirements for all bachelor degrees are listed here.

Mission

The bachelor degree completion programs exist to provide working adult students the opportunity to complete a quality college degree in a schedule and format particularly designed to meet their unique needs, responding to the unique and ever-changing needs in the marketplace. The curriculum for each major is interdisciplinary and liberal arts in nature. All courses of study integrate a Christian world view and are committed to continual improvement.

Admissions Requirements

To be admitted to an adult degree completion program the student must:

1. Complete at least 40 semester units*

- a. with a minimum cumulative GPA of at least 2.75
 - b. from an accredited institution
 - c. as evidenced by an official transcript sent directly from each college or university attended. (*)
2. Attain the minimum age of 23, OR minimum age of 21 with an associate's degree, OR minimum age of 21 with significant work experience.
3. Submit an application for admission.
4. Complete an interview with an admissions advisor

NOTE: All students are expected to have some proficiency with computer technology (email, Internet and word processing).

The following 36 credit units of general education core requirements: () are required for graduation and it is advised that they be completed prior to beginning a course of study

- a. Communication-6 semester units (of which one course must be in English Composition)
- b. Humanities/Fine Arts-6 semester units (at least one course must be from the following: literature, philosophy, art or music appreciation, art or music history, fine arts, or history)
- c. Natural Science and Math-6 semester units (at least one course must be in Math)
- d. Social and Behavioral Sciences-6 semester units
- e. Bible and Theology - 6 semester units (at least one course must be taken from PLNU)
- f. An additional 6 semester units must be earned in any of the above areas.

General education deficiencies may be completed after admittance, but at least 20 units must be completed prior to starting the program cohort. Three units of appropriate prior learning credit (see below) may be used to meet one of the general education areas-with the exception of English Composition and Math.

The PLNU General Education Learning Outcomes (GELO's) will be addressed and measured within the PLNU degree program to ensure the GE outcomes that we value are demonstrated.

*Prospective students who meet the other criteria but do not have the required semester units for entrance or are lacking in the core requirements will be advised how to correct any deficiency. An admissions advisor will assist with the development of a written pre-admission educational plan, which may include bridge courses taken at PLNU. Only courses from an accredited institution (approved by CHEA and USDE) will be accepted by transfer. Prospective students who do not meet the minimum GPA requirement may be accepted under an exception. (See criteria for acceptance of students under GPA exception.)

Admissions under Exception

Applicants who do not meet the minimum standards for admissions, but who can demonstrate an exceptionally rich experiential background and/or have shown a dramatic change in academic performance, may petition the academic department or school for a special review of their status. The academic department or school reviews the student's application package and determines the merits and appropriateness of the request.

In order to apply for admissions under exception, the applicant must also provide a statement outlining the applicant's reasons and justification for requesting an exception to admission policies with supporting documentation. All exception materials must be submitted to the Office of Graduate Admissions. The applicant is also required to schedule an interview with a Point Loma Nazarene University academic advisor from the school to which the applicant is applying.

Following the interview, the academic advisor submits a summary of the applicant's interview and petition package to the department chair or dean of the school. The department chair or dean is the final authority for admissions under exception, except where approval is required from the Graduate and Extended Studies Committee (GESCC) Chair, or GESCC.

Graduation Requirements

In order for a student to receive the bachelor's degree in an adult degree completion program, the following requirements must be met:

1. A total of 120 semester units must be earned with an overall 2.0 grade point average and all general core education requirements met. ()
2. Complete all program requirements, with no course grade lower than "C" and minimum resident grade point average of 2.0 for the minimum thirty-six (36) units completed in the Point Loma Nazarene University major program.
3. In addition to the program units earned through the adult degree completion program, additional semester units must be earned to meet the degree completion requirements of 120 total semester units. A maximum 24 units can be earned through the following non-traditional methods:
 - a. Testing (CLEP, Dantes)
 - b. Prior Learning recommended for university academic credit by three American Council on Education or the Council on Adult and Experiential Learning (ACE, CAEL - see below) and Military Experience credit (ACE, CAEL - see below)
4. Application for graduation must be made prior to the start of the final semester. Application for graduation must be made prior to the start of the final semester. All program requirements must be complete prior to participation in Commencement ceremonies. If no more than nine (9) units are lacking to complete the required 120 unit minimum, application to participate with a completion plan is possible.
5. All bills paid with the student in good standing.

Notes:

American Council on Education (ACE) provides guidance on workplace learning. See <http://www.acenet.edu/higher-education/topics/Pages/Adult-Learners.aspx> for more information.

Credit for Prior Learning (CPL) is not credit for "life experience." It is credit for prior learning and students must demonstrate through a portfolio that learning has taken place. The faculty will evaluate the portfolio to determine how much credit should be given for the learning accomplished. See <http://www.cael.org/pla.htm> for examples of how this is described. To receive PLC credit students would enroll in a PLC assessment course to learn the portfolio submission process.

Applicable Catalog

Students in continuous enrollment may elect to graduate under the curricular requirements of either the Catalog for the year in which they enter the university or the Catalog of a subsequent year. Those whose enrollment is not continuous (i.e. not enrolled for more than one term) as regular students are subject to the Catalog requirements for the year in which they re-enter the university or that of a subsequent year of enrollment. A student may not combine requirements from two or more catalogs.

Maximum and Minimum Course Loads

The maximum course load for an adult degree completion student is 17 units. Overloads may be carried with the written approval of the Dean of the College of Extended Learning on the recommendation of the academic unit leader. This must be filed with the Office of Records prior to the applicable registration period. If a student has failed a PLNU course or is on academic probation the academic unit leader, in consultation with Student Financial Services, can limit the number of units in a given term. For financial aid purposes, a full-time course load for adult degree completion students is twelve units per semester; a three-quarter course load is nine units; and a half-time course load is six units. For further information regarding financial aid, students should contact their Student Financial Services representative.

Transcripts

A complete and official transcript of coursework is available in the Office of Records. By federal law, requests must be accompanied by a written signature. Transcripts may not be released to anyone other than the student except by written authorization. Unofficial transcripts are available from the Office of Records. Forms for ordering both are available on the university website. Current students may print their own unofficial transcripts from the university website. Expedited processing and electronic ordering of transcripts are both available for an additional fee.

Course Offerings and Class Schedules

All course offerings are posted on the university website. The university reserves the right to cancel any class with insufficient enrollment and make necessary changes in its schedule and programs.

Course Numbering System

100-
299 Lower-division courses
300- Upper-division courses
499

Prerequisite/Co-Requisite

Some courses listed in this catalog stipulate either a prerequisite or a co-requisite. A prerequisite is a condition or requirement that must be fulfilled prior to enrolling in a course, such as a specific student classification, permission of the instructor, or another course. A co-requisite refers to a condition or a requirement that must be met prior to or concurrent with enrollment in a course.

Credit Hour Policy

According to the United States Department of Education with regard to the credit hour definition, one semester unit represents an hour (minimum fifty minutes) of class time per week for at least 15 weeks (Carnegie definition). Two hours of preparation are normal for each hour of class.

Face-to-face instructional hours are equivalent to the following:

- 1 credit hour = 750 minutes instructional time
- 2 credit hours = 1500 minutes
- 3 credit hours = 2250 minutes
- 4 credit hours = 3000 minutes

Web-Facilitated courses use web based technology to facilitate what is essentially a face to face course. These offerings can be up to 25% online/web based work.

Hybrid or Blended courses use online and face to face delivery. A substantial proportion of the content (between 26% and 79%) is delivered online, and it typically uses online discussion and has a reduced number of face to face meetings.

Online courses have the majority of content online and typically do not have face to face meetings.

Academic unit leadership will monitor the unit of credit policy through the course syllabus, schedule, and faculty governance policies and procedures.

Add/Drop Policy

Adding a Class. The deadline for students to register for courses is prior to the first day of class. Exceptions to this deadline will only be considered if students have extenuating circumstances beyond their control with the approval of the school dean/department chair and the Dean of the College of Extended Learning. Documentation is then filed with the Office of Records.

Dropping a Class. Students may drop a course through the first 50% of the period of offering; enrollment will be deleted from the student's permanent record. After that, a student with extenuating personal circumstances may request permission of the program director to withdraw from the course. If approved, a W will appear on the transcript with no impact on the GPA. If the petition is not approved or not submitted, the grade of WF will be assigned or a letter grade in accordance with the grading policy noted in the syllabus as determined by the instructor of record. Students should consider refund and transcript implications when dropping a class.

Academic Honesty

The Point Loma Nazarene University community holds the highest standards of honesty and integrity in all aspects of university life. Any violation of the university's commitment is a serious affront to the very nature of Point Loma's mission and purpose.

Violations of academic honesty include cheating, plagiarism, falsification, identity fraud, aiding academic dishonesty, and malicious interference.

Cheating is the use of unauthorized assistance that results in an unfair advantage over other students. It includes but is not limited to: bringing and/or using unauthorized notes, technology or other study aids during an examination; looking at other students' work during an exam or in an assignment where collaboration is not allowed; attempting to communicate with other students in order to get help during an exam or in an assignment where collaboration is not allowed; obtaining an examination prior to its administration; allowing another person to do one's work and submitting it as one's own; submitting work done in one class for credit in another without the instructor's permission.

Plagiarism is the use of an idea, phrase, or other materials from a source without proper acknowledgment of that source. It includes but is not limited to: the use of an idea, phrase, or other materials from a source without proper acknowledgment of that specific source in a work for which the student claims authorship; the misrepresentation and/or use of sources used in a work for which the student claims authorship; the use of papers purchased online as all or part of an assignment for which the student claims authorship; submitting written work, such as laboratory reports, computer programs, or papers, which have been copied from the work of other students, with or without their knowledge and consent.

Falsification is the alteration of information or forging of signatures on academic forms or documents. It includes but is not limited to: using improper methods of collecting or generating data and presenting them as legitimate; altering graded work and submitting it for re-grading; falsifying information on official academic documents such as drop/add forms, incomplete forms, petitions, recommendations, letters of permission, transcripts or any other university document; misrepresenting oneself or one's status in the university.

Academic identity fraud is the act of allowing a person to impersonate the registered student, by doing the academic work and by submitting it as if it were the work of the registered person. This encompasses both face to face and online environments. It includes, but is not limited to: having another person complete a course assignment, take an examination, respond to discussion board questions, or complete any kind of academic exercise on behalf of the registered student. In such cases, it may be considered collusion to commit fraud on the part of both parties.

Aiding academic dishonesty is assisting another person in violating the standards of academic honesty. It includes but is not limited to: allowing other students to look at one's own work during an exam or in an assignment where collaboration is not allowed; providing information, material, or assistance to another person knowing that it may be used in violation of academic honesty policies; providing false information in connection with any academic honesty inquiry.

Malicious intent is misuse of academic resources or interference with the legitimate academic work of other students. It includes but is not limited to: removing books, journals, or pages of these from the library without formal checkout; hiding library materials; refusing to return reserve readings to the library; damaging or destroying the projects, lab, or studio work or other academic product of fellow students.

A student remains responsible for the academic honesty of work submitted in PLNU courses and the consequences of academic dishonesty beyond receipt of the final grade in the class and beyond the awarding of the diploma. Ignorance of these catalog policies will not be considered a valid excuse or defense. Students may not withdraw from a course as a response to a consequence.

Response Procedure

The following response procedure is recommended to faculty who discover a violation of academic honesty:

1. Fact-Finding: The faculty member should attempt to speak or otherwise communicate informally with the student as the first step.
2. Communication of Consequence: Once the violation is discovered, the instructor should send a written communication to the student regarding the incident and the consequences. Instructors can give students an "F" on a specific assignment or an "F" in the course as a consequence of violations of academic honesty. In cases of academic identity fraud, the act or acts could be interpreted as a criminal offense and could mean administrative withdrawal from Point Loma Nazarene University.
3. Internal Communication: The instructor must send a report of the incident to the program director, department chair or school dean, the college dean, and the Dean of the College of Extended Learning and the Vice Provost for Academic Administration. The report should include a description of the violation, the action taken, and evidence of the violation. The official record of the incident is maintained by the Office of Records.
4. Further Action: If a student has been guilty of prior instances of misconduct, additional disciplinary steps may be taken by the program director or the college dean in consultation with the reporting instructor(s). These additional steps should be communicated to the student in writing and reported to the Vice Provost for Academic Administration for inclusion in the student record. Depending upon the seriousness of the incident or pattern of incidents, further actions can include probation, suspension, or expulsion.

Appeal Procedure

The following appeal procedure should be used by a student who wishes to appeal consequences associated with a finding of academic dishonesty.

1. Instructor: The student should present a written appeal of the penalty to the instructor involved. The instructor should respond in writing, with a copy of the student appeal and instructor response also sent to the program director.
2. Program Director or School Dean: In the event that satisfactory resolution to the appeal is not achieved between the student and the instructor, the student may submit the appeal in writing to the program director or school dean, who will review the appeal and send a written ruling to the student and instructor, college dean and Vice Provost for Academic Administration.
3. College Dean: Student appeals not resolved at the departmental or school level should be taken to the Dean of the College of Extended Learning for review. The college dean will review the appeal and send a written ruling to the student, instructor, and department chair or school dean, and Vice Provost for Academic Administration.
4. Administrative Committee: Student appeals not resolved at the college dean level can be submitted to an administrative committee including two uninvolved college deans, and a member of the Graduate and Extended Studies Committee appointed by the Provost, and the Vice Provost for Academic Administration. The appeal decision reached by this committee is final.

Class Attendance

Regular and punctual attendance at all class sessions is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. Therefore, regular attendance and participation in each course are minimal requirements. Absences are counted from the first official meeting of the class regardless of the date of the student's enrollment. If more than 20 percent of the classes are reported as missed, the faculty member may initiate the student's de-enrollment from the course without advance notice to the student. If the date of de-enrollment is past the last date to withdraw from a class, the student will be assigned a grade of "F" or "NC." There are no refunds for courses where a de-enrollment was processed.

A student who registers late must therefore be exceptionally careful about regular attendance during the remainder of the course. Registered students who neither attend the first class session nor inform the instructor of record of their desire to remain in the class may, at the request of the instructor, be removed from the class roster.

Exceptions to the foregoing attendance regulations due to extenuating circumstances beyond the student's control may be granted only by appeal to the Dean of the College of Extended Learning. Students should consult the syllabus of each course for specific applications of and elaborations on the above attendance policy.

Online Class Attendance

Students taking online courses are expected to attend each week of the course. Attendance is defined as participating in an academic activity within the online classroom which includes posting in a graded activity in the course. (Note: Logging into the course does not qualify as participation and will not be counted as meeting the attendance requirement.)

Students who do not attend at least once in any 3 consecutive days will be issued an attendance warning. Students who do not attend at least once in any 7 consecutive days will be dropped from the course retroactive to the last date of recorded attendance.

Students who anticipate being absent for an entire week of a course should contact the instructor in advance for approval and make arrangements to complete the required coursework and/or alternative assignments assigned at the discretion of the instructor. Acceptance of late work is at the discretion of the instructor and does not waive attendance requirements.

Academic Behavior Policy

Both faculty and students at Point Loma Nazarene University have the right to expect a safe and ordered environment for learning. Any student behavior that is disruptive or threatening is a serious affront to Point Loma Nazarene University as a learning community. Students who fail to adhere to appropriate academic behavioral standards may be subject to discipline. Although faculty members communicate general student expectations in their syllabi and disruptive student conduct is already addressed in the Graduate and Professional Studies Student Handbook, the purpose of this policy is to clarify what constitutes disruptive behavior in the academic setting and what actions faculty and relevant administrative offices may take in response to such disruptive student behavior.

"Disruption," as applied to the academic setting, means classroom, instructor or classmate-related or online student behavior that a reasonable faculty member would view as interfering with or deviating from normal classroom, class-related, or other faculty-student activity (advising, co-curricular involvement, etc.). Faculty members are encouraged to communicate positive behavior expectations at the first class session and to include them in course syllabi. Examples of disruptive classroom behavior include, but are not limited to:

- persistent speaking without being recognized or interrupting the instructor or other speakers;
- overt inattentiveness (sleeping or reading the newspaper in class);
- inordinate or inappropriate demands for instructor or classroom time or attention;
- unauthorized use of cell phone or computer;
- behavior that distracts the class from the subject matter or discussion;
- unwanted contact with a classmate in person, via social media or other means;
- inappropriate public displays of affection;
- refusal to comply with reasonable instructor direction;
- invasion of personal space, physical threats, harassing behavior or personal insults and/or
- rude, insensitive or uncivil behavior in online course discussion boards.

The policy applies if the behavior is reported by a faculty member or academic administrator and occurs exclusively or primarily in a student-faculty member interaction whether in a physical or online classroom environment. Incidents which involve both academic and non-academic behavior may result in responses coordinated by the Vice Provost for Academic Administration, The Dean of the College of Extended Learning and the academic program director.

Civil and polite expression of disagreement with the course instructor, during times when the instructor permits discussion, is not in itself disruptive behavior and is not prohibited.

Some students possess medical or psychological conditions that may affect functioning within the standards of the university. Although such students may be considered disabled and are protected under the Rehabilitation Act/ADA, they are required to meet the fundamental university academic and behavioral policy as described in the Graduate and Professional Studies Student Handbook, the Graduate and Professional Studies Catalog and/or faculty syllabi.

Response Procedure

The following response procedure is recommended to faculty who witness or experience disruptive behavior, either in the classroom or in contact with an enrolled student outside the classroom. Depending on its severity, disruptive behavior would result in responses from an escalated use of the strategies below:

1. Verbal and/or written request to stop behavior and warning of potential consequences.
2. Exclusion from the current class period/activity.
3. E-mailed report to program director, dean, and the Vice Provost for Academic Administration (VPAA) (in cases of a severe instance, or multiple instances) depending on faculty wish and severity, may result in:
 - Filing of report and no further action.
 - Student meeting with VPAA and the dean and/or academic program director to develop and sign classroom behavior and growth plan detailing appropriate behaviors and consequences for failure to comply.

Depending on the frequency and severity of the student behavior, consequences may include permanent exclusion from a specific class up to and including administrative withdrawal from the university.

Note: Faculty should immediately report by phone students in an academic context who express either intent to harm themselves or to harm others to the Office of the VPAA, the Dean of the College of Extended Learning or the academic program director, in that order. (University personnel observing non-academic behavior incidents on the part of graduate or Adult Degree Completion students should report non-academic incidents to the academic program director or building manager.) If events occur in classes after university business hours, faculty should call Department of Public Safety and ask to speak to the highest ranking officer who will notify administrative personnel. Students who report tendency to self-harm will not be subject to disciplinary action for making PLNU officials aware of that tendency.

Academic Accommodations

While all students are expected to meet the minimum standards for completion of this course as established by the instructor, students with disabilities may require academic adjustments, modifications or auxiliary aids/services. At Point Loma Nazarene University (PLNU), these students are requested to register with the Disability Resource Center (DRC), located in the Bond Academic Center. (DRC@pointloma.edu or 619-849-2486). The DRC's policies and procedures for assisting such students in the development of an appropriate academic adjustment plan (AP) allows PLNU to comply with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act. Section 504 (a) prohibits discrimination against students with special needs and guarantees all qualified students equal access to and benefits of PLNU programs and activities. After the student files the required documentation, the DRC, in conjunction with the student, will develop an AP to meet that student's specific learning needs. The DRC will thereafter email the student's AP to all faculty who teach courses in which the student is enrolled each semester. The AP must be implemented in all such courses.

If students do not wish to avail themselves of some or all of the elements of their AP in a particular course, it is the responsibility of those students to notify their professor in that course. PLNU highly recommends that DRC students speak with their professors during the first two weeks of each semester about the applicability of their AP in that particular course and/or if they do not desire to take advantage of some or all of the elements of their AP in that course.

Examinations

Examinations may be deferred due only to illness or other equally valid conditions over which the student has no control. Approval for deferral must occur before the scheduled examination. Faculty and/or the department or school has the authority to grant examination deferral.

Grading System

Traditional letter grades (A, B, C, D, F) including plus and minus grades are used to indicate the level of scholarship earned for each course. Except for the correction of an error, all traditional letter grades are final at the conclusion of the academic term. Once the degree has been posted on the student's official transcript, no change of grade action is allowed for courses leading to the degree. The grade of 'C' is the lowest grade acceptable for credit.

[CR] Credit. The grade utilized for designated courses which are graded on a Credit/No Credit basis. Courses graded Credit are counted toward a student's total number of units but have no grade-point value and no effect on the grade-point average.

[I] Incomplete. A grade of Incomplete is given for work which has been completed partially in a satisfactory manner, but which, for valid reasons such as illness or death in the family, is not finished. The grade of I is to be given only on the basis of extraordinary circumstances clearly beyond the student's control. The grade of I is regarded as a deficiency grade and may be removed by the assignment of additional work to make up the deficiency; or, in cases where the incomplete is assigned because of inability to take a final examination, by a special examination. A grade of Incomplete must be made up within two weeks of the end of the course. If the work is not completed, the grade earned will be entered according to completed work for computation into the grade-point average. Until made up, a grade of I is considered as F in determining the student's grade-point average, and eligibility for financial assistance. Note: Federal fair use policy requires ending access to Canvas resources after three weeks. Instructors should keep this in mind when establishing incomplete grade resolution requirements and deadlines.

[IP] In Progress. A provisional grade assigned to courses, such as field work courses, that extend longer than a term due to the nature of the course requirements. The grade of IP carries no grade points and is replaced by the grade earned when the requirements for the course are properly completed. If the work is not completed within one calendar year from the end of the term date of enrollment, the course registration will be concluded and a grade of No Credit [NC] assigned or a grade based on completed work for computation into the grade-point average.

[NC] No Credit. The grade recorded for all non-passing work in those courses graded on a Credit/No Credit basis. The NC grade has no grade-point value and no effect on the grade-point average. In order to complete an NC course to meet degree or credential requirements, including one that was an IP and reverted to NC, a student assigned this grade must register again for the course.

[W] Withdrawn. This grade is recorded when a student doing passing work is given permission by the program director to drop a course after the first 50 % of the course (for exceptional circumstances such as personal and family emergency).

[WF] Withdrawn under failing conditions. This grade is recorded when a student does not request permission or whose petition to withdraw from a class is denied after 50% of the class has passed. A grade of WF is considered the same as an F in calculating the grade-point average.

Grade Points. Letter grades are converted to numerical equivalents for computation according to the following scale.

Courses in which grades of IP, W, CR, and NC are received are not included in determining the grade-point average.

Minimum Grades Required. All students admitted to an adult degree completion program must maintain a program (major course of study) grade-point average of 2.000 (C) or better and a cumulative grade-point average of 2.000 (C) or better as a condition of remaining in the program.

Students are required to earn at least a "C" in all program courses to graduate. Students may repeat courses in which they earned a grade lower than a C. If this is done, each grade appears on the transcript, but the lower grade is not used for grade-point calculation. Students receiving Veterans Benefits may not be eligible for benefits when repeating a course.

Course Grade Appeals

It is the responsibility of the faculty to evaluate student performance and assign grades. The university has established a course grade appeal policy, however, that may be used when a student believes the syllabus was not followed in the grade calculation or if it is thought that grading was done in a capricious and arbitrary manner. The appeal policy does not include student dissatisfaction with a grade based on the faculty member's professional judgment. A Course Grade Appeal Form may be obtained from the Office of Records and must be filed by the last day of the following term in which the grade was given.

Certificate Requirements

Optional certificates are offered in some schools or departments. The requirements governing certificates are as follows:

- A certificate is a skill based program responsive to employer and/or market need that supplements a student's graduate or degree completion studies. Point Loma Nazarene University offers certificates which may be one of three types: academic, professional development or attendance certificates.

- Academic certificates will be between six (6) and eighteen (18) graduate level units. Professional development certificates are based on a ten (10) hours per CEU formula. Attendance certificates are awarded on the basis of full session attendance.
- 50% or more of the units being applied to the certificate must be unique to that certificate.
- Only academic certificates that appear in the student's catalog of record may be earned at the point of graduation.
- Students must earn a 3.0 cumulative grade point average for an academic certificate with no grade lower than C.
- Of the total graduate units in the academic certificate, a minimum of two-thirds must be earned in residence.
- Academic certificate programs will state clearly whether they can be applied to a PLNU degree.
- Neither professional development nor attendance certificates can be converted to academic credit or applied to university programs or degrees.

Independent Study

Independent studies at the university level enable students to enrich their academic experience by pursuing topics and research in a closely supervised program with an academic supervisor. In such a study, a qualified student works with the instructor to develop a plan and syllabus. Adult degree completion students may receive credit for up to six units of independent study to be applied to their degree program. No more than four units may be received from one project or study.

An independent study form and proposal must be submitted with a registration form to the program director, with an approved copy filed with the Office of Records. The independent study must be approved by the instructor, academic unit leader, and the respective dean. Independent study fees may apply depending on circumstances.

Prior Learning Credit

In addition to the program units earned through the adult degree completion program, additional semester units must be earned to meet the degree completion requirements of 120 total semester units. A maximum of 24 units can be evaluated for credit through the following non-traditional methods:

- Testing (CLEP, Dantes)
- Prior Learning for university academic credit as evaluated by the American Council on Education (ACE) or the Council on Adult and Experiential Learning (CAEL) or the Military Experience credit

American Council on Education (ACE) provides guidance on workplace learning. See <http://www.acenet.edu/higher-education/topics/Pages/Adult-Learners.aspx> for more information.

Credit for Prior Learning (CPL) is not credit for "life experience." It is credit for prior learning and students must demonstrate through a portfolio that learning has taken place. The faculty will evaluate the portfolio to determine how much credit should be given for the learning accomplished. The student is responsible for any costs accrued for completing the evaluation.

Transfer Credit

Transfer credit is defined as undergraduate credit earned at other accredited institutions. Students in adult degree completion programs must transfer in a minimum of forty (40) units. At least 36 units must be taken in residence.

Academic Standing

Normal Academic Progress

The academic progress of all students is reviewed by the Dean of the College of Extended Learning. Those who maintain the minimum required grade-point average are in satisfactory scholastic standing and as such are making progress toward a degree. To remain free of academic probation, students must earn a minimum cumulative grade-point average specified by the program in which they are enrolled. The Adult Degree Completion program requires a GPA of 2.0 for the major course of study, with a minimum grade of C grade counting toward the completion of a program requirement. Consistent with undergraduate degree policy, a cumulative GPA of 2.000 is required for graduation.

Unsatisfactory Academic Progress

Point Loma takes seriously a student's inability to make satisfactory progress toward the goal of a degree. The university works with students placed on academic probation to create links between them, advisors, program directors, and other support staff. Policies concerning students on academic probation are administered by the Dean of the College of Extended Learning.

Note: Students who receive federal, state, or veterans aid must meet certain qualitative and quantitative standards of academic progress. As a result, it may be possible for a student to be on academic probation at the university but be ineligible for federal, state and veterans aid. Additional information on PLNU's financial aid satisfactory progress policy is available in the PLNU Student Financial Services Office.

Academic Warning

Students whose semester or session GPA is below acceptable standards may receive a letter of Academic Warning. This includes courses without final grades, such as in progress courses or incomplete courses.

Academic Probation Alert

Students whose cumulative GPA meets the minimum standard for academic good standing, but whose session GPA for a regular semester falls below the program minimum, are placed on alert status. While not technically on academic probation, these students are under the strict supervision of the Office of the Dean of the College of Extended Learning and may be required to repeat courses in which they received a low grade.

Academic Probation

Students whose cumulative GPA falls below minimum standards are placed on academic probation. Probationary students who fail to earn the minimal required session GPA for their program the following semester are disqualified from continuing at the university.

Continuance on Academic Probation

Students who are on probation and earn at least the required GPA for their program during the current session, but whose cumulative GPA is below that standard, may be continued on academic probation at the discretion of the Vice Provost for Graduate and Professional Services, considering all factors. These students are under the strict supervision of the Office of the Vice Provost for Graduate and Professional Services.

Academic Disqualification

Students whose cumulative GPAs fall below the minimum requirements for two consecutive semesters are disqualified. Students who are disqualified from continuation at the university due to performance below minimum GPA standard will receive a letter from the Dean of the College of Extended Learning describing the reason for the disqualification, the student's eligibility or ineligibility to apply for readmission and the route to readmission if eligible.

Withdrawal and Readmission

Withdrawal from the University

There are times when a student finds it necessary to withdraw from the university. In order to avoid being administratively withdrawn, courses and incompletes being converted to a failing grade, and financial payments going into default, students are required to notify the Office of Records and complete a Notice of Intent to Withdraw from the university. If withdrawal occurs while a course is still in progress, students must also follow the procedures listed below for withdrawing from a course.

Withdrawal from a Course

Students may drop a course at any time up to the last day allowable to drop a course. If this action leaves the student with no further courses, a withdrawal form (available online) must be filed in a timely manner. Students with extenuating circumstances, such as personal or family emergencies after the last day to drop, may contact the Center for Student Success to begin the process for withdrawal. If the action is approved, courses are then graded with a W (withdrawal) unless the faculty deems the student's performance to be unsatisfactory at the time of withdrawal, at which point a WF grade would be assigned.

Students who cease attending or never attended a course for which they are registered receive an F in that course if the above procedures for dropping/withdrawing are not followed.

Financial implications for withdrawals may be found under "Refund Policy."

Readmission

Students who have been admitted to the university, have attended classes, and have subsequently withdrawn formally or failed to register for more than one semester (or two sequential Quads) must complete a Readmit form through the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies Admissions. Students who have been administratively withdrawn or who have not been enrolled for three calendar years from the last date of attendance must submit a new application in all cases. Students who are successfully readmitted are subject to the program requirements of the catalog under which they re-enter unless a leave of absence has been granted.

Administrative Withdrawal

Students who have not attended or enrolled in a course for one semester, are not currently completing coursework and have not officially withdrawn, will be administratively withdrawn. Such withdrawal may have financial aid implications. Students with this status must submit a new application to the university and to their degree program.

Curricular Exceptions

Occasionally, an exception to the requirements in this catalog may be appropriate. For consideration of a curricular exception, students must file a Curricular Exceptions petition with their program director. The program director will make a recommendation to the appropriate dean. If approved by the Dean of the College of Extended Learning. Decisions regarding exceptions are based on the merit of each individual case.

All curricular exceptions combined may not exceed 20% of the total units required for the degree or credential. The rationale for such changes must be substantiated with official academic records that become part of the student's PLNU academic records in the Office of Records.

Examples of curricular exceptions include: a course substitution of one PLNU course substituting for another PLNU course; or a circumstance requiring the student to take an elective to replace the unit requirement for the program.

Application for Graduation

A student who intends to graduate must complete an Application for Degree Candidacy obtained from their Student Services Counselor. The form must be filed with the Office of Records no less than 60 days prior to the anticipated degree posting date. All work taken toward a degree must be completed in full with passing grades recorded prior to the anticipated degree posting date. Degrees are conferred three (3) times per year at the close of each academic term. If all program requirements for the semester of application are not completed, the student must reapply for graduation. Degrees are posted in the semester of final registration and/or completion of final requirements.

Commencement convocation is held two times a year, at the close of the fall and spring terms. All candidates who completed their work and had their degree posted in the current academic year may participate. A candidate who is deficient in meeting graduation requirements by nine (9) units may be permitted to participate in the following commencement. The diploma is available to graduates approximately 10 weeks after satisfactory completion of all work for the degree after the closest degree confirmation date.

All candidates must complete all program courses to participate in Commencement unless all of the following are met:

- There are no more than nine (9) non-program units lacking to complete the required units for the degree; and
- There is an approved plan to complete the remaining units in the immediately following term

Graduation Honors

Graduation with Latin Honors. The university recognizes academic excellence with the following honors designation based exclusively on the residential grade-point average (GPA earned in residence at PLNU):

- Summa cum Laude (highest honors), 3.900 and above
- Magna cum Laude (high honors), 3.700 to 3.899
- Cum Laude (honors), 3.500 to 3.699

Final honors are designated on diplomas. To be considered for honors a student must have a minimum cumulative grade-point average of 3.500, including all transfer work. The specific level of honors noted above is only based on PLNU residential units.

The university announces unofficial honors during the commencement ceremony using these calculations and based on units earned by the conclusion of the previous term. Official honors are posted with the degree.

Education Records (FERPA) and Directory Information

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 as amended affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. These include: 1) the right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days of the day the university receives a request for access, 2) the right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading, 3) the right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student's education records, and 4) the right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by Point Loma to comply with the requirements of FERPA.

FERPA has specifically identified certain information called directory information that may be disclosed without student consent. Although directory information may be disclosed without student consent, PLNU is not required to release directory information.

The university has defined directory information as name, address (including electronic mail), telephone number, date and place of birth, major field of study, dates of attendance, enrollment status, degrees, honors and awards received, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, degree candidacy, and the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended. This information may be provided, upon review by the Vice Provost for Academic Administration, as public information or to individuals who demonstrate a valid need to contact students.

Periodically, PLNU conducts formal and informal photo and video shoots (around the campus and at off-campus events and activities) for use in university publications, social media, promotional videos/commercials, and the PLNU Web site. Students who require that no identifiable image be used by the university must notify Marketing and Creative Services in writing prior to the second Monday of each semester. Students should email their request to photo-optout@pointloma.edu and include their full name and student ID number. In addition, PLNU may submit information about students' participation in school activities to media outlets. Students who require that their names be excluded from such stories must notify Marketing and Creative Services in writing prior to the second Monday of each semester.

The university may disclose education records to college officials with legitimate educational interests. A college official is a person employed by the university; a member of the Board of Trustees; or an individual serving on a committee, such as disciplinary or grievance committees. A college official has a legitimate educational interest if the information aids the official in fulfilling professional functions. PLNU also includes among college officials a student appointed to an official committee or assisting another official in performing tasks and outside service providers who perform an institutional service of function such as attorneys, auditors, and the National Student Clearinghouse. The university may also disclose education records to post-secondary institutions in which a student is seeking or intending to enroll, or is already attending if the disclosure is for purposes related to the student's enrollment or transfer.

Questions relative to FERPA policies should be referred to the Office of the Vice Provost for Academic Administration or may be referenced at FERPA.

Department of Kinesiology

Masters

Master of Science in Athletic Training

The Master of Science in Athletic Training is a 60-unit program comprising two eight-week summer terms and four traditional 16-week terms.

The MS-AT is designed to prepare highly knowledgeable and career-focused professionals for the dynamic and rapidly growing field of athletic training. The MS-AT will challenge and fully equip students to become highly effective allied health care professionals and lifelong learners who incorporate a Christian perspective, academic excellence and professional/relational proficiency. The MS-AT will consist of extensive laboratory and clinical experiences designed to provide a multifaceted learning experience that incorporates current research and scholarly instruction. The desired outcome of the curriculum is to emphasize an evidence-based approach to healthcare with the integration of Christian faith to produce intellectually and spiritually sound clinicians who are service oriented and focused on providing patient-centered care. Graduates will achieve the entry-level competencies necessary to take and pass the certification examination offered by the National Athletic Trainers' Association Board of Certification (NATABOC).

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the Master of Science in Athletic Training (MS-AT), the successful student will be able to:

1. To prepare students to demonstrate competency in interpreting evidence-based research and improving clinical standards and practice through clinical question development and research methodology
2. To prepare students to develop expertise in the athletic training domains through an integrative experiential clinical model
3. To equip students with appropriate knowledge and educational foundation required for an entry-level Certified Athletic Trainer
4. To prepare students to establish and understand the importance of inter-professional relationships, while collaborating with other health care professionals to become effective communicators
5. To prepare students to demonstrate preparation, knowledge and skill in the delivery of comprehensive health care to a diverse set of patients with musculoskeletal injuries and conditions and illnesses in a distinctly moral and ethical manner, integrating Christian faith with clinical practice.

Program Eligibility

The Masters of Science in Athletic Training program has two routes for admission, with each route requiring the prospective student to complete the required course prerequisites. These routes include:

1. A student who has obtained a bachelor's degree and the essential prerequisites from a regionally accredited college or university. Applicants will apply through the university's application process.
OR
2. The 3+2 accelerated program in coordination with the Bachelor of Arts in Exercise and Sport Science (Pre-Allied Health Concentration) and prerequisites at Point Loma Nazarene University. Advising for this route of admission is critical and applicants will apply directly through the department using an internal application.

To be reviewed for acceptance into this program, the following must be in place:

- It is highly recommended to submit completed admission application by December 1.
- To be considered for admission, applicants must submit the following:
- Completed application through the graduate website or completed internal application
- Official transcripts from all colleges/universities attended
- Cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher in last 60 undergraduate credits
- Prerequisite course GPA of 3.0 or higher with no course grade below a "C" and all prerequisites taken in the previous seven years
- Official GRE Scores
- Hours verification form (200 hours volunteering under the direct supervision of a certified athletic trainer)
- 3 Letters of Recommendation which describe academic and clinical abilities (1 must be from a certified athletic trainer that has observed your clinical skills and another must be from a professor/teacher who can describe your academic abilities)
- (International Students Only) - applicants who have completed their undergraduate degree outside of the United States are required to achieve an acceptable score on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), minimum 550 (paper-based), or 80 (internet-based).
- Prerequisite Courses (Prerequisite course syllabi are required at the time of application)
- Human Anatomy + Lab
- Human Physiology + Lab
- Kinesiology or Biomechanics
- Exercise Physiology + Lab
- General Psychology
- Athletic Training/Care and Prevention of Athletic Injuries
- General Chemistry + Lab

Recommended Courses

- Statistics
- General Physics

Additional information

- If a combined Anatomy/Physiology course is taken, two semester or three quarter courses are required.
- Prerequisite courses may be repeated only once; the second grade will then be used to calculate GPA.
- Pass/Credit grades for prerequisite courses will be accepted if the granting institution has a C or better basis for a grade of Credit/Pass.
- Courses which have received advanced placement credit (AP or CLEP) may fulfill prerequisite requirements. The credit hours and grade points will not be computed in the GPA calculation.
- Students who are offered admission are required to financially commit and enrollment deposit with the Office of Graduate Admission. Generally, the deposit must be received within two weeks of notification of admission.
- Students must satisfactorily complete all remaining prerequisite course requirements in accordance with the admission requirements before beginning MS AT coursework.
- Accepted students are required to meet technical standards and specific health requirements (e.g., vaccinations).
- Persons who have been dismissed from another athletic training program are not eligible for consideration for admission to Point Loma Nazarene University.
- Applicants who decline or are denied admission may reapply in any subsequent year. Admission requirements are subject to change, and admission in one year does not guarantee admission in any subsequent year.
- Persons who cannot pass an FBI/Department of Justice Background Check are not eligible for clinical education rotations and are not admissible to the program.
- Point Loma Nazarene University considers all applicants without regard to race, religion, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, marital status, sexual orientation, special needs, veteran status or any other characteristic protected by applicable state or federal civil rights laws. Some information requested in the application is requested for federal or accreditation reporting and will not be used in a discriminatory manner.

Post-Admission Documentation

- After admission into the MS in Athletic Training program, the following documentation must be submitted to the AT program director prior to the beginning of any coursework:
- CPR Certification. Emergency Cardiac Care or CPR/AED for the Professional Rescuer (note: online CPR courses and Lay Responder Certification are not accepted)
- Immunizations record (e.g., hepatitis B, TB-test within the past 2 months, etc.)
- Federal background check will be completed upon arrival to campus in the summer

Graduation Requirements

1. Successful completion of all didactic and clinical requirements with a minimum 3.0 grade point average
2. A completed application for degree candidacy conveyed to the Office of Records,
3. All student accounts paid in full, and
4. All requirements completed within three years from the time of initial enrollment.

Required Courses

Master of Science in Kinesiology

The Master of Science in Kinesiology (MS-KIN) is designed to prepare highly knowledgeable and career-focused professionals for the dynamic and rapidly growing fields of exercise science, sport management, sport performance. The MS-KIN program develops graduates who integrate the current best research evidence with professional practice to solve relevant problems in the disciplines related to Kinesiology. Students collaborate with faculty and professional colleagues to improve outcomes in clients, patients, or business systems related to healthcare, sport, and fitness. Student will also gain advanced specialization and/or certification in a discipline of their choice through focused study in a concentration.

The MS-KIN is a 30 unit accelerated graduate program designed especially for young professionals and recent graduates of a four year baccalaureate degree program. The program has a common core and a concentration of 17 units. Upon completing the core, all students will choose from one of three areas of concentration: Exercise Science, Sport Performance, or Sport Management. Students who choose the Sport Management concentration may substitute up to 6 units from the Fermanian School of Business MBA courses for core requirements.

A fourth concentration in Integrative Wellness is a fully online track with 12 units of foundational course requirements and 18 units in the concentration.

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon completing the core curriculum of the MS-KIN, students will be able to:

1. Appraise current research data in Kinesiology and integrate it into professional practice to solve relevant problems and make effective decisions.
2. Work independently and with a team to persuasively communicate essential information in their discipline.
3. Demonstrate appropriate breadth of knowledge of the background and principle research in their specialization in order to conduct an independent research project.
4. Serve various populations, integrating compassionate care and the Christian faith with their professional practice.
5. Pursue an active and growing involvement in their discipline by achieving advanced certification and/or membership in a related professional organization.

Upon completing an area of concentration, students are expected to attain the following outcomes:

Exercise Science

1. Incorporate current best evidence to make effective decisions about the optimal care of patients and clients.
2. Apply knowledge of the metabolic and physiologic benefits of exercise toward creating effective exercise interventions to treat and prevent metabolic diseases.
3. Work with a team of colleagues to perform common laboratory assessments to determine health, fitness, and disease states in a series of patients.

Sport Performance

1. Integrate clinical experience with the use of the current best evidence to make effective decisions about the optimal care of patients and clients.
2. Develop and apply technical knowledge in sports performance and/or sports medicine through direct patient care and client interaction that improves health outcomes.
3. Work with a team of colleagues to construct and present a critical appraisal of a current topic to enhance professional practice in sport performance.

Sport Management

1. Demonstrate essential knowledge of basic management and prioritization principles in the business of sport.
2. Work with a team of colleagues to construct and present an effective risk management plan and operating budget for a sport, fitness, or physical education setting.
3. Develop technical knowledge, effective leadership, and decision-making skills while performing professional service (at least 100 hours) related to sport management.

Integrative Wellness (online program)

1. Apply evidence-based coaching strategies and behavior change techniques to facilitate meaningful lifestyle changes and improved health outcomes

2. Collaborate with colleagues in a wide variety of settings to provide an integrative and holistic approach to healthcare, health education, and health promotion
3. Evaluate the influence of biopsychosocial factors on health, healing, and well-being to design lifestyle interventions to prevent and manage chronic diseases.

Program Eligibility

To be reviewed for acceptance into this program, the following must be in place:

- Completed application for admission to the PLNU Graduate programs and Master of Science in Kinesiology program, including a $50 non-refundable application fee.
- Personal essay that describes why the candidate desires to participate in the Master of Science in Kinesiology and outlines professional goals for the future
- Baccalaureate degree from a regionally-accredited institution, as evidenced on an official transcript with a posted degree.
- Undergraduate GPA of 3.0 or higher.
- Two references (e.g., professors or employers) who have current knowledge of the applicant's character, academic ability, and professional potential.
- Special Undergraduate course prerequisites:

Exercise Science concentration - courses in Human Anatomy and Physiology, Structural Kinesiology/Biomechanics, and Exercise Physiology

Sport Performance concentration - courses in Human Anatomy and Physiology, Structural Kinesiology/Biomechanics, and Exercise Physiology; BOC-Certified Athletic Trainers or Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialists (NSCA) will be looked upon favorably for graduate assistantships.

Sport Management - no prerequisite courses are required. However, students enrolling in courses in the Fermanian School of Business will need to meet any prerequisites for those courses.

Integrative Wellness (online program) - no prerequisite courses are required. However a baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution in a health, wellness or fitness related program OR a non-health related baccalaureate degree and an NCAA accredited health, fitness, or wellness certification (or equivalent) is required.

Graduation Requirements

1. Successful completion of all core requirements, an area of concentration, and the project or thesis,
2. A completed application for degree candidacy conveyed to the Office of Records,
3. All student accounts paid in full, and
4. All requirements completed within five years from the time of initial enrollment.

Clinical Counseling

The Master of Arts in Clinical Counseling (MACC) program can be completed in two years of continuous enrollment. Classes are designed as collaborative learning experiences where students and instructors are engaged in asynchronous dialog throughout the week. Students learn in community as they participate in a cohort experience that not only provides for a great learning environment, but also develops a network of friends who share common goals.

Students in the MACC program will decide, by the end of their first year, whether to pursue clinical hours to become either a Licensed Professional Clinical Counselor (LPCC) or a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT). During the second year of the program, students enroll in supervised practicum as clinical counseling trainees. Our practicum students are required to serve the community of San Diego by providing no/low-cost counseling at our on-site training clinic in Mission Valley before being placed in off-site practicum locations.

Upon graduation the student applies to the Board of Behavioral Sciences to become a registered intern and then continues to accrue the necessary hours of clinical experience in order to sit for the state licensing examination to become either an LPCC or an LMFT.

Program Learning Outcomes for Clinical Counseling

The core curriculum of the Master of Arts in Clinical Counseling program is to develop students with these key outcomes:

1. Students will articulate a clear, accurate understanding of their professional identity as either an LMFT or LPCC, or both.
2. Students will demonstrate knowledge of the fundamental domains in their selected area of specialization, in professional clinical counseling (i.e., foundations; counseling prevention, and intervention, diversity & advocacy; assessment; research & evaluation; and diagnosis) or marriage and family therapy (i.e., human development, family dynamics, systemic thinking, interactional theories, traditional and contemporary marriage and family theories, research and cultural context).
3. Students will demonstrate ability to apply relevant research and evaluation models in practice of clinical counseling.
4. Students will demonstrate skills and practices of clinical counseling in the delivery of mental health services (e.g., assessment, diagnosis, treatment, termination, documentation, & ethical practice).
5. Students will deliver mental health services with multicultural competence and sensitivity.
6. Students will demonstrate ability to integrate faith with clinical ^[11]_[SEP] counseling practice in clinically appropriate, culturally sensitive, and ethical manner.

Admission Requirements

Point Loma Nazarene University assesses the Master of Arts in Clinical Counseling applicants on the basis of evidence submitted via application documentation. Applications will be processed upon receipt of all required materials. To be admitted into the Clinical Counseling program, an applicant must meet these requirements:

1. Submit a completed Point Loma Nazarene University online application form.
2. Have earned a bachelor's degree or graduate degree from an accredited institution, with a cumulative undergraduate or graduate grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 or higher on a 4.0 scale (*). All hours at the degree level from accredited institutions will be considered in calculating the cumulative GPA. Applicants must submit one official transcript from all colleges and universities attended for undergraduate and graduate work.

Note: Official Transcript: a transcript with a registrar's seal from the institution granting credit sent directly to Point Loma Nazarene University, 3900 Lomaland Dr., San Diego, CA 92106

If your University provides official electronic transcripts, please email to gradprocessing@pointloma.edu.

1. Submit a professional resume.
2. Submit a 500-600 word () Statement of Purpose addressing the following topics:
 - A personal statement on why you wish to participate in the MASOL program,
 - Your current philosophy of leadership,
 - Your relevant academic and professional experience, and
 - Your future career or life goals.

(*) Contact a graduate enrollment counselor regarding the exceptions process if you don't meet the minimum GPA requirement.

()The five-paragraph essay is to be formatted in APA style and should reflect your best writing. For help in writing the essay, see statementofpurpose.com. Your paper will be graded on a 5-point scale, and you must receive a minimum 3.5 to meet the benchmark.

Admissions UNDER EXCEPTION

Applicants who do not meet the minimum standards for admissions, but who can demonstrate an exceptionally rich experiential background and/or have shown a dramatic change in academic performance, may petition the academic department or school for a special review of their status. The academic department or school reviews the petition along with the student's application package and determines the merits and appropriateness of the request.

A copy of the petition must be filed with the Office of Graduate Admissions. In order to apply for admissions under exception, the applicant must also provide a statement outlining the applicant's reasons and justification for requesting an exception to admission policies with supporting documentation. The applicant is also required to schedule an interview with a Point Loma Nazarene University academic advisor from the school to which the applicant is applying.

Following the interview, the academic advisor submits a summary of the applicant's interview and petition package to the department chair or dean of the school. The Graduate and Extended Studies Committee is the final authority for admissions under exception.

Graduation Requirements

1. Successful completion of all core requirements, an area of concentration, and the project or thesis,
2. A completed application for degree candidacy conveyed to the Office of Records,
3. All student accounts paid in full, and
4. All requirements completed within eight years from the time of initial enrollment.
5. A personal interview (in person or using video conferencing technology) with the student will take place at the end of the program to review the things that have been learned and how the student felt the program equipped him/her for servant leadership. The interviews are designed to ensure that the student has a clear understanding of the material covered in courses taken and to evaluate the effectiveness of the program.

Note: Student reviews will be in person (face-to-face) or use video conferencing technology. To comply with U.S. Department of Education and accreditation requirements, students are required to show a government issued photo I.D.

Program Eligibility

Point Loma Nazarene University assesses the Master of Arts in Clinical Counseling applicants on the basis of evidence submitted via online application documentation. Applications will be processed upon receipt of all required materials. To be admitted into the Clinical Counseling program, an applicant must meet these requirements:

- Submit online application for admissions (includes $50 non-refundable application fee)
 - Fee waived if applicant is one of the following: PLNU alum, current or former military and their dependents, PLNU employee
- Submit official transcripts with proof of earned baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution.
 - Send official transcripts to:
Point Loma Nazarene University

Office of Graduate Admissions

3900 Lomaland Dr.

San Diego, CA 92106

Official electronic transcripts must be emailed to: gradprocessing@pointloma.edu

- Specifically state how you would like to use your master's degree from PLNU to further your career in a 3-5 page essay. Make sure you clearly touch on the three points
 - Clarify what job setting you see yourself pursuing upon completing the MACC and specify how this degree program will help you in that setting.
 - Describe how you will appraise, utilize, and integrate specific Biblical or ethical principles and /or counseling theories into your future professional practice
 - State how your previous education and work experiences have uniquely prepared you for success in the MACC program.
- Submit a resume/vita
- Submit three professional references including name, title, phone, and email for each reference
- Background check through LiveScan
- Completion of the MMPI 2 personality assessment administered through the department
- Interview with the Department of Graduate Psychology
- Ensure undergraduate course prerequisites are met

Exceptions Policy: If you have below a 3.0 GPA in your baccalaureate degree you will need to speak with your enrollment counselor for more information on the exceptions materials needed for your particular program.

Adult Degree Completion Programs

Mission

The Bachelor degree completion programs exists to provide working adult students the opportunity to complete a quality college degree in a schedule and format particularly designed to meet their unique needs, responding to the unique and ever-changing needs in the marketplace. The curriculum for each major is interdisciplinary and liberal arts in nature. All courses of study integrate a Christian world view and are committed to continual improvement.

Admissions Requirements:

To be admitted to an Adult Degree Completion program the student must:

1. Complete at least 40 semester hours with a minimum cumulative GPA of at least 2.75 from an accredited institutio as evidenced by an official transcript sent directly from each college or university attended. (*)
 2. Attain the minimum age of 23, OR minimum age of 21 with an associate's degree, OR minimum age of 21 with significant work experience.
 3. Submit an application for admission.
 4. Complete an interview with an admission's advisor.
1. The following 36 credit hours of general education core requirements: () are required for graduation and it is advised that they be completed prior to beginning
 - a. Communication-6 semester hours (of which one course must be in English Composition)
 - b. Humanities/Fine Arts-6 semester hours (at least one course must be from the following: literature, philosophy, art or music appreciation, art or music history, fine arts, or history)
 - c. Natural Science and Math-6 semester hours (at least one course must in Math)
 - d. Social and Behavioral Sciences-6 semester hours
 - e. Bible and Theology - 6 semester hours (at least one course must be taken from PLNU)
 - f. An additional 6 semester hours must be earned in any of the above areas.

General education deficiencies may be completed after admittance, but at least 20 hours must be completed prior to starting the program cohort. Three hours of appropriate prior learning credit (see below) may be used to meet one of the general education areas-with the exception of English Composition and Math.

The PLNU General Education Learning Outcomes (GELO's) will be addressed and measured within the PLNU degree program to ensure the GE outcomes that we value are demonstrated.

*Prospective students who meet the other criteria but do not have the required semester hours for entrance or are lacking in the core requirements will be advised how to correct any deficiency. An admissions advisor will assist with the development of a written pre-admission educational plan, which may include bridge courses taken at PLNU. Only courses from an accredited institution where at least a grade of "C" has been earned will be accepted by transfer. Prospective students who do not meet the minimum GPA requirement can be accepted under exception. (See criteria for acceptance of students under GPA exception.

Admissions Under Exception:

Applicants who do not meet the minimum standards for admissions, but who can demonstrate an exceptionally rich experiential background and/or have shown a dramatic change in academic performance, may petition the academic department or school for a special review of their status. The academic department or school reviews the student's application package and determines the merits and appropriateness of the request.

In order to apply for admissions under exception, the applicant must also provide a statement outlining the applicant's reasons and justification for requesting an exception to admission policies with supporting documentation. All exception materials must be submitted to the Office of Graduate Admissions. The applicant is also required to schedule an interview with a Point Loma Nazarene University academic advisor from the school to which the applicant is applying.

Following the interview, the academic advisor submits a summary of the applicant's interview and petition package to the department chair or dean of the school. The department chair or dean is the final authority for admissions under exception.

Attendance Policy:

At Point Loma Nazarene University, we strongly encourage attendance at all scheduled classes. Regular attendance reduces the repetition required in course material and allows the class to run smoothly and progress together as well as increasing the morale of students and instructors alike.

Absences are counted from the first official meeting of the class regardless of the date of the student's enrollment. Consequently, students who register late must monitor carefully their attendance during the remainder of the semester. Registered students who neither attend the first class session nor inform the faculty of their desire to remain in the class may, at the request of the instructor, be dropped from the class.

When the number of accumulated absences in a class, for any cause, exceeds 10% of the total number of class meetings, the faculty member should send an email to the student and the Director of Student Success warning of attendance jeopardy. In the online format, a specific amount of time withdrawn from the class discussion board, as determined by the course's instructor, will correlate to an absence. There are no exceptions to this policy except by previous written agreement with the instructor.

If more than 20% of the total number of class meetings is reported as missed and the student has been notified in writing, the faculty member or Vice Provost for Academic Administration (VPAA) may initiate the student's de-enrollment from the course without further advanced notice to the student. If the date of de-enrollment is past the last date to withdraw from a class, the student will be assigned a grade of "F" or "NC" and there will be no refund of tuition for that course.

Exceptions to the foregoing attendance regulations due to extenuating circumstances may be granted only by appeal to the Director of Student Success. Students are responsible to consult the syllabus of each course for specific applications of the above attendance policy.

Graduation Requirements:

Graduation Requirements:

In order for a student to receive the bachelor's degree in an adult degree completion program, the following requirements must be met:

1. A total of 120 semester hours must be earned with an overall 2.0 grade point average and all general core education requirements met. ()
2. Complete the required program hours in the major (program) from Point Loma Nazarene University with a minimum grade of "C" in each course and an overall 3.0 grade point average for the major (program).
3. In addition to the program hours earned through the Adult Degree Completion program, additional semester hours must be earned to meet the degree completion requirements of 120 total semester hours. A maximum 24 hours can be earned through the following non-traditional methods:
 - a. Testing (CLEP, Dantes)
 - b. Credit for Prior Learning and Military Experience credit (CPL, ACE - see below)
4. Application for graduation must be made prior to the start of the final semester.
5. All bills paid with the student in good standing.

Notes:

- Credit for Prior Learning (CPL) is not credit for "life experience." It is credit for prior learning and students must demonstrate through a portfolio that learning has taken place. The faculty will evaluate the portfolio to determine how much credit should be given for the learning accomplished. See <http://www.cael.org/pla.htm> for examples of how this is described. To receive CPL credit students would enroll in a CPL assessment course to learn the portfolio submission process.
- American Council on Education (ACE) provides guidance on workplace learning. See <http://www.acenet.edu/higher-education/topics/Pages/Adult-Learners.aspx> for more information.

Applicable Catalog

Students in continuous enrollment may elect to graduate under the curricular requirements of either the Catalog for the year in which they enter the university or the Catalog of a subsequent year. Those whose enrollment is not continuous (i.e. not enrolled for more than one term) as regular students are subject to the Catalog requirements for the year in which they re-enter the university or that of a subsequent year of enrollment. A student may not combine requirements from two or more catalogs.

Maximum and Minimum Course Loads

The maximum course load for an adult degree completion student is 17 units. Overloads may be carried with the written approval of the Dean of the College of Extended Learning on the recommendation of the academic unit leader. This must be filed with the Office of Records prior to the applicable registration period. If a student has failed a PLNU course or is on academic probation the academic unit leader, in consultation with Student Financial Services, can limit the number of units in a given term. For financial aid purposes, a full-time course load for adult degree completion students is twelve units per semester; a three-quarter course load is nine units; and a half-time course load is six units. For further information regarding financial aid, students should contact their Student Financial Services representative.

Transcripts

A complete and official transcript of coursework is available in the Office of Records. By federal law, requests must be accompanied by a written signature. Transcripts may not be released to anyone other than the student except by written authorization. Unofficial transcripts are available from the Office of Records. Forms for ordering both are available on the university website. Current students may print their own unofficial transcripts from the university website. Expedited processing and electronic ordering of transcripts are both available for an additional fee.

Course Offerings and Class Schedules

All course offerings are posted on the university website. The university reserves the right to cancel any class with insufficient enrollment and make necessary changes in its schedule and programs.

Course Numbering System

100-
299 Lower-division courses
300- Upper-division courses
499

Prerequisite/Co-Requisite

Some courses listed in this catalog stipulate either a prerequisite or a co-requisite. A prerequisite is a condition or requirement that must be fulfilled prior to enrolling in a course, such as a specific student classification, permission of the instructor, or another course. A co-requisite refers to a condition or a requirement that must be met prior to or concurrent with enrollment in a course.

Credit Hour Policy

According to the United States Department of Education with regard to the credit hour definition, one semester unit represents an hour (minimum fifty minutes) of class time per week for at least 15 weeks (Carnegie definition). Two hours of preparation are normal for each hour of class.

Face-to-face instructional hours are equivalent to the following:

1 credit hour = 750 minutes instructional time
2 credit hours = 1500 minutes
3 credit hours = 2250 minutes
4 credit hours = 3000 minutes

Web-Facilitated courses use web based technology to facilitate what is essentially a face to face course. These offerings can be up to 25% online/web based work.

Hybrid or Blended courses use online and face to face delivery. A substantial proportion of the content (between 26% and 79%) is delivered online, and it typically uses online discussion and has a reduced number of face to face meetings.

Online courses have the majority of content online and typically do not have face to face meetings.

Academic unit leadership will monitor the unit of credit policy through the course syllabus, schedule, and faculty governance policies and procedures.

Add/Drop Policy

Adding a Class. The deadline for students to register for courses is prior to the first day of class. Exceptions to this deadline will only be considered if students have extenuating circumstances beyond their control with the approval of the school dean/departement chair and the Dean of the College of Extended Learning. Documentation is then filed with the Office of Records.

Dropping a Class. Students may drop a course through the first 50% of the period of offering; enrollment will be deleted from the student's permanent record. After that, a student with extenuating personal circumstances may request permission of the program director to withdraw from the course. If approved, a W will appear on the transcript with no impact on the GPA. If the petition is not approved or not submitted, the grade of WF will be assigned or a letter grade in accordance with the grading policy noted in the syllabus as determined by the instructor of record. Students should consider refund and transcript implications when dropping a class.

Academic Honesty

The Point Loma Nazarene University community holds the highest standards of honesty and integrity in all aspects of university life. Any violation of the university's commitment is a serious affront to the very nature of Point Loma's mission and purpose.

Violations of academic honesty include cheating, plagiarism, falsification, identity fraud, aiding academic dishonesty, and malicious interference.

Cheating is the use of unauthorized assistance that results in an unfair advantage over other students. It includes but is not limited to: bringing and/or using unauthorized notes, technology or other study aids during an examination; looking at other students' work during an exam or in an assignment where collaboration is not allowed; attempting to communicate with other students in order to get help during an exam or in an assignment where collaboration is not allowed; obtaining an examination prior to its administration; allowing another person to do one's work and submitting it as one's own; submitting work done in one class for credit in another without the instructor's permission.

Plagiarism is the use of an idea, phrase, or other materials from a source without proper acknowledgment of that source. It includes but is not limited to: the use of an idea, phrase, or other materials from a source without proper acknowledgment of that specific source in a work for which the student claims authorship; the misrepresentation and/or use of sources used in a work for which the student claims authorship; the use of papers purchased online as all or part of an assignment for which the student claims authorship; submitting written work, such as laboratory reports, computer programs, or papers, which have been copied from the work of other students, with or without their knowledge and consent.

Falsification is the alteration of information or forging of signatures on academic forms or documents. It includes but is not limited to: using improper methods of collecting or generating data and presenting them as legitimate; altering graded work and submitting it for re-grading; falsifying information on official academic documents such as drop/add forms, incomplete forms, petitions, recommendations, letters of permission, transcripts or any other university document; misrepresenting oneself or one's status in the university.

Academic identity fraud is the act of allowing a person to impersonate the registered student, by doing the academic work and by submitting it as if it were the work of the registered person. This encompasses both face to face and online environments. It includes, but is not limited to: having another person complete a course assignment, take an examination, respond to discussion board questions, or complete any kind of academic exercise on behalf of the registered student. In such cases, it may be considered collusion to commit fraud on the part of both parties.

Aiding academic dishonesty is assisting another person in violating the standards of academic honesty. It includes but is not limited to: allowing other students to look at one's own work during an exam or in an assignment where collaboration is not allowed; providing information, material, or assistance to another person knowing that it may be used in violation of academic honesty policies; providing false information in connection with any academic honesty inquiry.

Malicious intent is misuse of academic resources or interference with the legitimate academic work of other students. It includes but is not limited to: removing books, journals, or pages of these from the library without formal checkout; hiding library materials; refusing to return reserve readings to the library; damaging or destroying the projects, lab, or studio work or other academic product of fellow students.

A student remains responsible for the academic honesty of work submitted in PLNU courses and the consequences of academic dishonesty beyond receipt of the final grade in the class and beyond the awarding of the diploma. Ignorance of these catalog policies will not be considered a valid excuse or defense. Students may not withdraw from a course as a response to a consequence.

Response Procedure

The following response procedure is recommended to faculty who discover a violation of academic honesty:

1. Fact-Finding: The faculty member should attempt to speak or otherwise communicate informally with the student as the first step.
2. Communication of Consequence: Once the violation is discovered, the instructor should send a written communication to the student regarding the incident and the consequences. Instructors can give students an "F" on a specific assignment or an "F" in the course as a consequence of violations of academic honesty. In cases of academic identity fraud, the act or acts could be interpreted as a criminal offense and could mean administrative withdrawal from Point Loma Nazarene University.
3. Internal Communication: The instructor must send a report of the incident to the program director, department chair or school dean, the college dean, and the Dean of the College of Extended Learning and the Vice Provost for Academic Administration. The report should include a description of the violation, the action taken, and evidence of the violation. The official record of the incident is maintained by the Office of Records.
4. Further Action: If a student has been guilty of prior instances of misconduct, additional disciplinary steps may be taken by the program director or the college dean in consultation with the reporting instructor(s). These additional steps should be communicated to the student in writing and reported to the Vice Provost for Academic Administration for inclusion in the student record. Depending upon the seriousness of the incident or pattern of incidents, further actions can include probation, suspension, or expulsion.

Appeal Procedure

The following appeal procedure should be used by a student who wishes to appeal consequences associated with a finding of academic dishonesty.

1. Instructor: The student should present a written appeal of the penalty to the instructor involved. The instructor should respond in writing, with a copy of the student appeal and instructor response also sent to the program director.
2. Program Director or School Dean: In the event that satisfactory resolution to the appeal is not achieved between the student and the instructor, the student may submit the appeal in writing to the program director or school dean, who will review the appeal and send a written ruling to the student and instructor, college dean and Vice Provost for Academic Administration.
3. College Dean: Student appeals not resolved at the departmental or school level should be taken to the Dean of the College of Extended Learning for review. The college dean will review the appeal and send a written ruling to the student, instructor, and department chair or school dean, and Vice Provost for Academic Administration.
4. Administrative Committee: Student appeals not resolved at the college dean level can be submitted to an administrative committee including two uninvolved college deans, and a member of the Graduate and Extended Studies Committee appointed by the Provost, and the Vice Provost for Academic Administration. The appeal decision reached by this committee is final.

Class Attendance

Regular and punctual attendance at all class sessions is considered essential to optimum academic achievement. Therefore, regular attendance and participation in each course are minimal requirements. Absences are counted from the first official meeting of the class regardless of the date of the student's enrollment. If more than 20 percent of the classes are reported as missed, the faculty member may initiate the student's de-enrollment from the course without advance notice to the student. If the date of de-enrollment is past the last date to withdraw from a class, the student will be assigned a grade of "F" or "NC." There are no refunds for courses where a de-enrollment was processed.

A student who registers late must therefore be exceptionally careful about regular attendance during the remainder of the course. Registered students who neither attend the first class session nor inform the instructor of record of their desire to remain in the class may, at the request of the instructor, be removed from the class roster.

Exceptions to the foregoing attendance regulations due to extenuating circumstances beyond the student's control may be granted only by appeal to the Dean of the College of Extended Learning. Students should consult the syllabus of each course for specific applications of and elaborations on the above attendance policy.

Online Class Attendance

Students taking online courses are expected to attend each week of the course. Attendance is defined as participating in an academic activity within the online classroom which includes posting in a graded activity in the course. (Note: Logging into the course does not qualify as participation and will not be counted as meeting the attendance requirement.)

Students who do not attend at least once in any 3 consecutive days will be issued an attendance warning. Students who do not attend at least once in any 7 consecutive days will be dropped from the course retroactive to the last date of recorded attendance.

Students who anticipate being absent for an entire week of a course should contact the instructor in advance for approval and make arrangements to complete the required coursework and/or alternative assignments assigned at the discretion of the instructor. Acceptance of late work is at the discretion of the instructor and does not waive attendance requirements.

Academic Behavior Policy

Both faculty and students at Point Loma Nazarene University have the right to expect a safe and ordered environment for learning. Any student behavior that is disruptive or threatening is a serious affront to Point Loma Nazarene University as a learning community. Students who fail to adhere to appropriate academic behavioral standards may be subject to discipline. Although faculty members communicate general student expectations in their syllabi and disruptive student conduct is already addressed in the Graduate and Professional Studies Student Handbook, the purpose of this policy is to clarify what constitutes disruptive behavior in the academic setting and what actions faculty and relevant administrative offices may take in response to such disruptive student behavior.

"Disruption," as applied to the academic setting, means classroom, instructor or classmate-related or online student behavior that a reasonable faculty member would view as interfering with or deviating from normal classroom, class-related, or other faculty-student activity (advising, co-curricular involvement, etc.). Faculty members are encouraged to communicate positive behavior expectations at the first class session and to include them in course syllabi. Examples of disruptive classroom behavior include, but are not limited to:

- persistent speaking without being recognized or interrupting the instructor or other speakers;
- overt inattentiveness (sleeping or reading the newspaper in class);
- inordinate or inappropriate demands for instructor or classroom time or attention;
- unauthorized use of cell phone or computer;
- behavior that distracts the class from the subject matter or discussion;
- unwanted contact with a classmate in person, via social media or other means;
- inappropriate public displays of affection;
- refusal to comply with reasonable instructor direction;
- invasion of personal space, physical threats, harassing behavior or personal insults and/or
- rude, insensitive or uncivil behavior in online course discussion boards.

The policy applies if the behavior is reported by a faculty member or academic administrator and occurs exclusively or primarily in a student-faculty member interaction whether in a physical or online classroom environment. Incidents which involve both academic and non-academic behavior may result in responses coordinated by the Vice Provost for Academic Administration, The Dean of the College of Extended Learning and the academic program director.

Civil and polite expression of disagreement with the course instructor, during times when the instructor permits discussion, is not in itself disruptive behavior and is not prohibited.

Some students possess medical or psychological conditions that may affect functioning within the standards of the university. Although such students may be considered disabled and are protected under the Rehabilitation Act/ADA, they are required to meet the fundamental university academic and behavioral policy as described in the Graduate and Professional Studies Student Handbook, the Graduate and Professional Studies Catalog and/or faculty syllabi.

Response Procedure

The following response procedure is recommended to faculty who witness or experience disruptive behavior, either in the classroom or in contact with an enrolled student outside the classroom. Depending on its severity, disruptive behavior would result in responses from an escalated use of the strategies below:

1. Verbal and/or written request to stop behavior and warning of potential consequences.
2. Exclusion from the current class period/activity.
3. E-mailed report to program director, dean, and the Vice Provost for Academic Administration (VPAA) (in cases of a severe instance, or multiple instances) depending on faculty wish and severity, may result in:
 - Filing of report and no further action.
 - Student meeting with VPAA and the dean and/or academic program director to develop and sign classroom behavior and growth plan detailing appropriate behaviors and consequences for failure to comply.

Depending on the frequency and severity of the student behavior, consequences may include permanent exclusion from a specific class up to and including administrative withdrawal from the university.

Note: Faculty should immediately report by phone students in an academic context who express either intent to harm themselves or to harm others to the Office of the VPAA, the Dean of the College of Extended Learning or the academic program director, in that order. (University personnel observing non-academic behavior incidents on the part of graduate or Adult Degree Completion students should report non-academic incidents to the academic program director or building manager.) If events occur in classes after university business hours, faculty should call Department of Public Safety and ask to speak to the highest ranking officer who will notify administrative personnel. Students who report tendency to self-harm will not be subject to disciplinary action for making PLNU officials aware of that tendency.

Academic Accommodations

While all students are expected to meet the minimum standards for completion of this course as established by the instructor, students with disabilities may require academic adjustments, modifications or auxiliary aids/services. At Point Loma Nazarene University (PLNU), these students are requested to register with the Disability Resource Center (DRC), located in the Bond Academic Center. (DRC@pointloma.edu or 619-849-2486). The DRC's policies and procedures for assisting such students in the development of an appropriate academic adjustment plan (AP) allows PLNU to comply with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act. Section 504 (a) prohibits discrimination against students with special needs and guarantees all qualified students equal access to and benefits of PLNU programs and activities. After the student files the required documentation, the DRC, in conjunction with the student, will develop an AP to meet that student's specific learning needs. The DRC will thereafter email the student's AP to all faculty who teach courses in which the student is enrolled each semester. The AP must be implemented in all such courses.

If students do not wish to avail themselves of some or all of the elements of their AP in a particular course, it is the responsibility of those students to notify their professor in that course. PLNU highly recommends that DRC students speak with their professors during the first two weeks of each semester about the applicability of their AP in that particular course and/or if they do not desire to take advantage of some or all of the elements of their AP in that course.

Examinations

Examinations may be deferred due only to illness or other equally valid conditions over which the student has no control. Approval for deferral must occur before the scheduled examination. Faculty and/or the department or school has the authority to grant examination deferral.

Grading System

Traditional letter grades (A, B, C, D, F) including plus and minus grades are used to indicate the level of scholarship earned for each course. Except for the correction of an error, all traditional letter grades are final at the conclusion of the academic term. Once the degree has been posted on the student's official transcript, no change of grade action is allowed for courses leading to the degree. The grade of 'C' is the lowest grade acceptable for credit.

[CR] Credit. The grade utilized for designated courses which are graded on a Credit/No Credit basis. Courses graded Credit are counted toward a student's total number of units but have no grade-point value and no effect on the grade-point average.

[I] Incomplete. A grade of Incomplete is given for work which has been completed partially in a satisfactory manner, but which, for valid reasons such as illness or death in the family, is not finished. The grade of I is to be given only on the basis of extraordinary circumstances clearly beyond the student's control. The grade of I is regarded as a deficiency grade and may be removed by the assignment of additional work to make up the deficiency; or, in cases where the incomplete is assigned because of inability to take a final examination, by a special examination. A grade of Incomplete must be made up within two weeks of the end of the course. If the work is not completed, the grade earned will be entered according to completed work for computation into the grade-point average. Until made up, a grade of I is considered as F in determining the student's grade-point average, and eligibility for financial assistance. Note: Federal fair use policy requires ending access to Canvas resources after three weeks. Instructors should keep this in mind when establishing incomplete grade resolution requirements and deadlines.

[IP] In Progress. A provisional grade assigned to courses, such as field work courses, that extend longer than a term due to the nature of the course requirements. The grade of IP carries no grade points and is replaced by the grade earned when the requirements for the course are properly completed. If the work is not completed within one calendar year from the end of the term date of enrollment, the course registration will be concluded and a grade of No Credit [NC] assigned or a grade based on completed work for computation into the grade-point average.

[NC] No Credit. The grade recorded for all non-passing work in those courses graded on a Credit/No Credit basis. The NC grade has no grade-point value and no effect on the grade-point average. In order to complete an NC course to meet degree or credential requirements, including one that was an IP and reverted to NC, a student assigned this grade must register again for the course.

[W] Withdrawn. This grade is recorded when a student doing passing work is given permission by the program director to drop a course after the first 50 % of the course (for exceptional circumstances such as personal and family emergency).

[WF] Withdrawn under failing conditions. This grade is recorded when a student does not request permission or whose petition to withdraw from a class is denied after 50% of the class has passed. A grade of WF is considered the same as an F in calculating the grade-point average.

Grade Points. Letter grades are converted to numerical equivalents for computation according to the following scale.

Courses in which grades of IP, W, CR, and NC are received are not included in determining the grade-point average.

Minimum Grades Required. All students admitted to an adult degree completion program must maintain a program (major course of study) grade-point average of 2.000 (C) or better and a cumulative grade-point average of 2.000 (C) or better as a condition of remaining in the program.

Students are required to earn at least a "C" in all program courses to graduate. Students may repeat courses in which they earned a grade lower than a C. If this is done, each grade appears on the transcript, but the lower grade is not used for grade-point calculation. Students receiving Veterans Benefits may not be eligible for benefits when repeating a course.

Course Grade Appeals

It is the responsibility of the faculty to evaluate student performance and assign grades. The university has established a course grade appeal policy, however, that may be used when a student believes the syllabus was not followed in the grade calculation or if it is thought that grading was done in a capricious and arbitrary manner. The appeal policy does not include student dissatisfaction with a grade based on the faculty member's professional judgment. A Course Grade Appeal Form may be obtained from the Office of Records and must be filed by the last day of the following term in which the grade was given.

Certificate Requirements

Optional certificates are offered in some schools or departments. The requirements governing certificates are as follows:

- A certificate is a skill based program responsive to employer and/or market need that supplements a student's graduate or degree completion studies. Point Loma Nazarene University offers certificates which may be one of three types: academic, professional development or attendance certificates.

- Academic certificates will be between six (6) and eighteen (18) graduate level units. Professional development certificates are based on a ten (10) hours per CEU formula. Attendance certificates are awarded on the basis of full session attendance.
- 50% or more of the units being applied to the certificate must be unique to that certificate.
- Only academic certificates that appear in the student's catalog of record may be earned at the point of graduation.
- Students must earn a 3.0 cumulative grade point average for an academic certificate with no grade lower than C.
- Of the total graduate units in the academic certificate, a minimum of two-thirds must be earned in residence.
- Academic certificate programs will state clearly whether they can be applied to a PLNU degree.
- Neither professional development nor attendance certificates can be converted to academic credit or applied to university programs or degrees.

Independent Study

Independent studies at the university level enable students to enrich their academic experience by pursuing topics and research in a closely supervised program with an academic supervisor. In such a study, a qualified student works with the instructor to develop a plan and syllabus. Adult degree completion students may receive credit for up to six units of independent study to be applied to their degree program. No more than four units may be received from one project or study.

An independent study form and proposal must be submitted with a registration form to the program director, with an approved copy filed with the Office of Records. The independent study must be approved by the instructor, academic unit leader, and the respective dean. Independent study fees may apply depending on circumstances.

Prior Learning Credit

In addition to the program units earned through the adult degree completion program, additional semester units must be earned to meet the degree completion requirements of 120 total semester units. A maximum of 24 units can be evaluated for credit through the following non-traditional methods:

- Testing (CLEP, Dantes)
- Prior Learning for university academic credit as evaluated by the American Council on Education (ACE) or the Council on Adult and Experiential Learning (CAEL) or the Military Experience credit

American Council on Education (ACE) provides guidance on workplace learning. See <http://www.acenet.edu/higher-education/topics/Pages/Adult-Learners.aspx> for more information.

Credit for Prior Learning (CPL) is not credit for "life experience." It is credit for prior learning and students must demonstrate through a portfolio that learning has taken place. The faculty will evaluate the portfolio to determine how much credit should be given for the learning accomplished. The student is responsible for any costs accrued for completing the evaluation.

Transfer Credit

Transfer credit is defined as undergraduate credit earned at other accredited institutions. Students in adult degree completion programs must transfer in a minimum of forty (40) units. At least 36 units must be taken in residence.

Academic Standing

Normal Academic Progress

The academic progress of all students is reviewed by the Dean of the College of Extended Learning. Those who maintain the minimum required grade-point average are in satisfactory scholastic standing and as such are making progress toward a degree. To remain free of academic probation, students must earn a minimum cumulative grade-point average specified by the program in which they are enrolled. The Adult Degree Completion program requires a GPA of 2.0 for the major course of study, with a minimum grade of C grade counting toward the completion of a program requirement. Consistent with undergraduate degree policy, a cumulative GPA of 2.000 is required for graduation.

Unsatisfactory Academic Progress

Point Loma takes seriously a student's inability to make satisfactory progress toward the goal of a degree. The university works with students placed on academic probation to create links between them, advisors, program directors, and other support staff. Policies concerning students on academic probation are administered by the Dean of the College of Extended Learning.

Note: Students who receive federal, state, or veterans aid must meet certain qualitative and quantitative standards of academic progress. As a result, it may be possible for a student to be on academic probation at the university but be ineligible for federal, state and veterans aid. Additional information on PLNU's financial aid satisfactory progress policy is available in the PLNU Student Financial Services Office.

Academic Warning

Students whose semester or session GPA is below acceptable standards may receive a letter of Academic Warning. This includes courses without final grades, such as in progress courses or incomplete courses.

Academic Probation Alert

Students whose cumulative GPA meets the minimum standard for academic good standing, but whose session GPA for a regular semester falls below the program minimum, are placed on alert status. While not technically on academic probation, these students are under the strict supervision of the Office of the Dean of the College of Extended Learning and may be required to repeat courses in which they received a low grade.

Academic Probation

Students whose cumulative GPA falls below minimum standards are placed on academic probation. Probationary students who fail to earn the minimal required session GPA for their program the following semester are disqualified from continuing at the university.

Continuance on Academic Probation

Students who are on probation and earn at least the required GPA for their program during the current session, but whose cumulative GPA is below that standard, may be continued on academic probation at the discretion of the Vice Provost for Graduate and Professional Services, considering all factors. These students are under the strict supervision of the Office of the Vice Provost for Graduate and Professional Services.

Academic Disqualification

Students whose cumulative GPAs fall below the minimum requirements for two consecutive semesters are disqualified. Students who are disqualified from continuation at the university due to performance below minimum GPA standard will receive a letter from the Dean of the College of Extended Learning describing the reason for the disqualification, the student's eligibility or ineligibility to apply for readmission and the route to readmission if eligible.

Withdrawal and Readmission

Withdrawal from the University

There are times when a student finds it necessary to withdraw from the university. In order to avoid being administratively withdrawn, courses and incompletes being converted to a failing grade, and financial payments going into default, students are required to notify the Office of Records and complete a Notice of Intent to Withdraw from the university. If withdrawal occurs while a course is still in progress, students must also follow the procedures listed below for withdrawing from a course.

Withdrawal from a Course

Students may drop a course at any time up to the last day allowable to drop a course. If this action leaves the student with no further courses, a withdrawal form (available online) must be filed in a timely manner. Students with extenuating circumstances, such as personal or family emergencies after the last day to drop, may contact the Center for Student Success to begin the process for withdrawal. If the action is approved, courses are then graded with a W (withdrawal) unless the faculty deems the student's performance to be unsatisfactory at the time of withdrawal, at which point a WF grade would be assigned.

Students who cease attending or never attended a course for which they are registered receive an F in that course if the above procedures for dropping/withdrawing are not followed.

Financial implications for withdrawals may be found under "Refund Policy."

Readmission

Students who have been admitted to the university, have attended classes, and have subsequently withdrawn formally or failed to register for more than one semester (or two sequential Quads) must complete a Readmit form through the Office of Graduate and Professional Studies Admissions. Students who have been administratively withdrawn or who have not been enrolled for three calendar years from the last date of attendance must submit a new application in all cases. Students who are successfully readmitted are subject to the program requirements of the catalog under which they re-enter unless a leave of absence has been granted.

Administrative Withdrawal

Students who have not attended or enrolled in a course for one semester, are not currently completing coursework and have not officially withdrawn, will be administratively withdrawn. Such withdrawal may have financial aid implications. Students with this status must submit a new application to the university and to their degree program.

Curricular Exceptions

Occasionally, an exception to the requirements in this catalog may be appropriate. For consideration of a curricular exception, students must file a Curricular Exceptions petition with their program director. The program director will make a recommendation to the appropriate dean. If approved by the Dean of the College of Extended Learning. Decisions regarding exceptions are based on the merit of each individual case.

All curricular exceptions combined may not exceed 20% of the total units required for the degree or credential. The rationale for such changes must be substantiated with official academic records that become part of the student's PLNU academic records in the Office of Records.

Examples of curricular exceptions include: a course substitution of one PLNU course substituting for another PLNU course; or a circumstance requiring the student to take an elective to replace the unit requirement for the program.

Application for Graduation

A student who intends to graduate must complete an Application for Degree Candidacy obtained from their Student Services Counselor. The form must be filed with the Office of Records no less than 60 days prior to the anticipated degree posting date. All work taken toward a degree must be completed in full with passing grades recorded prior to the anticipated degree posting date. Degrees are conferred three (3) times per year at the close of each academic term. If all program requirements for the semester of application are not completed, the student must reapply for graduation. Degrees are posted in the semester of final registration and/or completion of final requirements.

Commencement convocation is held two times a year, at the close of the fall and spring terms. All candidates who completed their work and had their degree posted in the current academic year may participate. A candidate who is deficient in meeting graduation requirements by nine (9) units may be permitted to participate in the following commencement. The diploma is available to graduates approximately 10 weeks after satisfactory completion of all work for the degree after the closest degree confirmation date.

All candidates must complete all program courses to participate in Commencement unless all of the following are met:

- There are no more than nine (9) non-program units lacking to complete the required units for the degree; and
- There is an approved plan to complete the remaining units in the immediately following term

Graduation Honors

Graduation with Latin Honors. The university recognizes academic excellence with the following honors designation based exclusively on the residential grade-point average (GPA earned in residence at PLNU):

- Summa cum Laude (highest honors), 3.900 and above
- Magna cum Laude (high honors), 3.700 to 3.899
- Cum Laude (honors), 3.500 to 3.699

Final honors are designated on diplomas. To be considered for honors a student must have a minimum cumulative grade-point average of 3.500, including all transfer work. The specific level of honors noted above is only based on PLNU residential units.

The university announces unofficial honors during the commencement ceremony using these calculations and based on units earned by the conclusion of the previous term. Official honors are posted with the degree.

Education Records (FERPA) and Directory Information

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 as amended affords students certain rights with respect to their education records. These include: 1) the right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days of the day the university receives a request for access, 2) the right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading, 3) the right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student's education records, and 4) the right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by Point Loma to comply with the requirements of FERPA.

FERPA has specifically identified certain information called directory information that may be disclosed without student consent. Although directory information may be disclosed without student consent, PLNU is not required to release directory information.

The university has defined directory information as name, address (including electronic mail), telephone number, date and place of birth, major field of study, dates of attendance, enrollment status, degrees, honors and awards received, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, degree candidacy, and the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended. This information may be provided, upon review by the Vice Provost for Academic Administration, as public information or to individuals who demonstrate a valid need to contact students.

Periodically, PLNU conducts formal and informal photo and video shoots (around the campus and at off-campus events and activities) for use in university publications, social media, promotional videos/commercials, and the PLNU Web site. Students who require that no identifiable image be used by the university must notify Marketing and Creative Services in writing prior to the second Monday of each semester. Students should email their request to photo-optout@pointloma.edu and include their full name and student ID number. In addition, PLNU may submit information about students' participation in school activities to media outlets. Students who require that their names be excluded from such stories must notify Marketing and Creative Services in writing prior to the second Monday of each semester.

The university may disclose education records to college officials with legitimate educational interests. A college official is a person employed by the university; a member of the Board of Trustees; or an individual serving on a committee, such as disciplinary or grievance committees. A college official has a legitimate educational interest if the information aids the official in fulfilling professional functions. PLNU also includes among college officials a student appointed to an official committee or assisting another official in performing tasks and outside service providers who perform an institutional service of function such as attorneys, auditors, and the National Student Clearinghouse. The university may also disclose education records to post-secondary institutions in which a student is seeking or intending to enroll, or is already attending if the disclosure is for purposes related to the student's enrollment or transfer.

Questions relative to FERPA policies should be referred to the Office of the Vice Provost for Academic Administration or may be referenced at FERPA.

Bachelor Degrees - Adult Degree Completion

Child Development

Mission

The Bachelor of Arts degree program in Child and Adolescent Development is to provide working adult students the opportunity to complete a quality college degree via a schedule and format especially designed to meet their unique needs. This curriculum will help support student development toward a personal commitment to improving 1) the lives of individuals and families in their professional endeavors, 2) the lives of community members, and 3) their personal family life.

Program Learning Outcomes (PLO):

1. Identify and describe normative similarities and differences of intellectual, emotional, social and physical theories at each developmental stage from prenatal through adolescence.
2. Evaluate the effects of family systems on the development of children and adolescents.
3. Identify and discuss scientific research in understanding different philosophical views of growth and development both historic and current.
4. Assess research of theoretical and appropriate practical elements of parenting to facilitate decisions for a healthy environment for children and adolescents.
5. Evaluate the effects of society and culture upon the family microsystems, family types and the subsequent macrosystems with which they co-exist.
6. Identify career paths and professional areas of service within the child and adolescent profession.

Graduation Requirements

In order for a student to receive the bachelor's degree in an adult degree completion program, the following requirements must be met:

1. A total of 120 semester hours must be earned with an overall 2.0 grade point average and all general core education requirements met. ()
2. Complete the required program hours in the major (program) from Point Loma Nazarene University with a minimum grade of "C" in each course and an overall 3.0 grade point average for the major (program).
3. In addition to the program hours earned through the adult degree completion program, additional semester hours must be earned to meet the degree completion requirements of 120 total semester hours. A maximum 24 hours can be earned through the following non-traditional methods:
 - a. Testing (CLEP, Dantes)
 - b. Prior Learning and Military Experience credit (PLC, ACE - see below)
4. Application for graduation must be made prior to the start of the final semester.
5. All bills paid with the student in good standing.

Notes:

- Prior Learning Credit (PLC) is not credit for "life experience." It is credit for prior learning and students must demonstrate through a portfolio that learning has taken place. The faculty will evaluate the portfolio to determine how much credit should be given for the learning accomplished. See <http://www.cael.org/pla.htm> for examples of how this is described. To receive PLC credit students would enroll in a PLC assessment course to learn the portfolio submission process.
- American Council on Education (ACE) provides guidance on workplace learning. See <http://www.acenet.edu/higher-education/topics/Pages/Adult-Learners.aspx> for more information.

Program Prerequisites

Incoming students are strongly recommended to have completed the following courses with a grade of C or better prior to acceptance into this program:

- College Composition - 6 units (Writing 110 or 115/116 at PLNU)
- Nutrition - transferrable level (FCS225 or 305 at PLNU)

Criminal Justice

The focus of the Criminal Justice Major is to provide higher education in the context of a Christian worldview where students' minds are engaged and challenged and service in the criminal justice professions become an expression of faith. This is accomplished through a curriculum where a student's career is enhanced through integration of a focused educational program, a faith perspective and a professional life. The program integrates specialized knowledge and skills with concepts of grace, restorative justice, and cultural competency which support the Sociology and Social Work departmental mission to nurture servant scholars who critically evaluate social and cultural patterns and who constructively engage in society as agents of hope.

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this program, the student will be able to:

1. Demonstrate ability to apply theoretical and legal foundations of criminal justice.
2. Demonstrate knowledge of each of the components of the criminal justice system: the historical background, structure, function, and purpose.
3. Integrate and apply understanding of the social realities, discrimination, and the conflicts in the criminal justice system resulting from racial, socio-economic, and cultural inequities.
4. Apply foundational skills; demonstrate core competencies (such as ethical and professional behavior and critical thinking) in a professional internship setting.
5. Demonstrate written and oral communication skills needed to effectively engage in a career in criminal justice.

Graduation Requirements

In order for a student to receive the bachelor's degree in an adult degree completion program, the following requirements must be met:

1. A total of 120 semester hours must be earned with an overall 2.0 grade point average and all general core education requirements met. ()
2. Complete the required program hours in the major (program) from Point Loma Nazarene University with a minimum grade of "C" in each course and an overall 3.0 grade point average for the major (program).
3. In addition to the program hours earned through the adult degree completion program, additional semester hours must be earned to meet the degree completion requirements of 120 total semester hours. A maximum 24 hours can be earned through the following non-traditional methods:
 - a. Testing (CLEP, Dantes)
 - b. Prior Learning and Military Experience credit (PLC, ACE - see below)
4. Application for graduation must be made prior to the start of the final semester.
5. All bills paid with the student in good standing.

Notes:

- Prior Learning Credit (PLC) is not credit for "life experience." It is credit for prior learning and students must demonstrate through a portfolio that learning has taken place. The faculty will evaluate the portfolio to determine how much credit should be given for the learning accomplished. See <http://www.cael.org/pla.htm> for examples of how this is described. To receive PLC credit students would enroll in a PLC assessment course to learn the portfolio submission process.
- American Council on Education (ACE) provides guidance on workplace learning. See <http://www.acenet.edu/higher-education/topics/Pages/Adult-Learners.aspx> for more information.

Criminal Justice Core Courses

Prior to the last term, a "Social Problems" course must be completed (SOC103 at PLNU) prior to registration for the Restorative Justice course in term 4.

Integrated Studies with an Emphasis in Education

Designed for working adults, the Integrated Studies with an Emphasis in Education major will allow candidates to concurrently work on an initial teaching credential while completing a Bachelor of Arts degree. This major, offered at Point Loma Nazarene University's Mission Valley and Bakersfield branch campuses, is an ideal major for aspiring teachers wanting to teach elementary grade levels. The Integrated Studies program:

- provides for approximately 100 hours of fieldwork in local public schools
- allows teacher candidates to complete coursework for their bachelor's degree and preliminary teaching credential in 4 terms.

Program Learning Outcomes

The Point Loma Nazarene University Institutional Learning Outcomes guide the development of each program learning outcome within the Integrated Studies Degree. Because this degree is housed in the School of Education, Student Learning Outcomes in each course are aligned within the overarching conceptual framework of "Equip, Transform and Empower."

Equip

Learning: Informed by our faith in Christ

1. Evaluate the educational, cultural, interpersonal, and social environments within the professional workplace from an ethical and Christian context
2. Demonstrate problem-solving and decision-making skills within the context of a diverse educational environment.

Organizational Management

Mission

The Bachelor of Arts degree program in Organizational Management exists to provide working adult students the opportunity to complete a quality college degree in a schedule and format particularly designed to meet their needs, responding to the unique and ever-changing needs in the marketplace. The curriculum is interdisciplinary and liberal arts in nature, with the major emphasis on general management and relationship development skills building. The program integrates a Christian world view and is committed to continual improvement.

Program Learning Outcomes:

The Point Loma Nazarene University Organizational Management graduate is prepared for expanded roles within his or her organization through enhanced abilities to:

1. Evaluate the political, interpersonal and social environments within the business or professional workplace from an ethical and Christian context.
2. Demonstrate problem-solving and decision-making skills within the context of a diverse cultural environment.
3. Distinguish how the role of a manager needs to continually adapt in relation to human capital, social influence, political structure, relational development and situational ethics.

4. Evaluate personal, interpersonal, social strengths and weaknesses, and incorporate personal style to effectively and ethically influence the workplace.

Graduation Requirements:

In order for a student to receive the bachelor's degree in an adult degree completion program, the following requirements must be met:

1. A total of 120 semester hours must be earned with an overall 2.0 grade point average and all general core education requirements met. ()
2. Complete the required program hours in the major (program) from Point Loma Nazarene University with a minimum grade of "C" in each course and an overall 3.0 grade point average for the major (program).
3. In addition to the program hours earned through the adult degree completion program, additional semester hours must be earned to meet the degree completion requirements of 120 total semester hours. A maximum 24 hours can be earned through the following non-traditional methods:
 - a. Testing (CLEP, Dantes)
 - b. Prior Learning and Military Experience credit (PLC, ACE - see below)
4. Application for graduation must be made prior to the start of the final semester.
5. All bills paid with the student in good standing.

Notes:

- Prior Learning Credit (PLC) is not credit for "life experience." It is credit for prior learning and students must demonstrate through a portfolio that learning has taken place. The faculty will evaluate the portfolio to determine how much credit should be given for the learning accomplished. See <http://www.cael.org/pla.htm> for examples of how this is described. To receive PLC credit students would enroll in a PLC assessment course to learn the portfolio submission process.
- American Council on Education (ACE) provides guidance on workplace learning. See <http://www.acenet.edu/higher-education/topics/Pages/Adult-Learners.aspx> for more information.

NOTE: The BA in Organizational Management is an approved program under PLNU's WASC Regional Accreditation. It is not an ACBSP approved program. For those interested in an ACBSP approved program, PLNU offers, through the Fermanian School of Business, a BA in Business Administration and a BS in Business Administration with majors in various areas.

Admissions Requirements:

To be admitted to an adult degree completion program the student must:

1. Complete at least 40 semester units*
 - a. with a minimum cumulative GPA of at least 2.75
 - b. from an accredited institution
 - c. as evidenced by an official transcript sent directly from each college or university attended. (*)
2. Attain the minimum age of 23, OR minimum age of 21 with an associate's degree, OR minimum age of 21 with significant work experience.
3. Submit an application for admission.
4. Complete an interview with an admissions advisor

The following 36 credit units of general education core requirements: () are required for graduation and it is advised that they be completed prior to beginning a course of study

- a. Communication-6 semester units (of which one course must be in English Composition)

- b. Humanities/Fine Arts-6 semester units (at least one course must be from the following: literature, philosophy, art or music appreciation, art or music history, fine arts, or history)
- c. Natural Science and Math-6 semester units (at least one course must in Math)
- d. Social and Behavioral Sciences-6 semester units
- e. Bible and Theology - 6 semester units (at least one course must be taken from PLNU)
- f. An additional 6 semester units must be earned in any of the above areas.

General education deficiencies may be completed after admittance, but at least 20 units must be completed prior to starting the program cohort. Three units of appropriate prior learning credit (see below) may be used to meet one of the general education areas-with the exception of English Composition and Math.

The PLNU General Education Learning Outcomes (GELO's) will be addressed and measured within the PLNU degree program to ensure the GE outcomes that we value are demonstrated.

*Prospective students who meet the other criteria but do not have the required semester units for entrance or are lacking in the core requirements will be advised how to correct any deficiency. An admissions advisor will assist with the development of a written pre-admission educational plan, which may include bridge courses taken at PLNU. Only courses from an accredited institution where at least a grade of "C" has been earned will be accepted by transfer. Prospective students who do not meet the minimum GPA requirement can be accepted under exception. (See criteria for acceptance of students under GPA exception.)

Admissions under Exception:

Applicants who do not meet the minimum standards for admissions, but who can demonstrate an exceptionally rich experiential background and/or have shown a dramatic change in academic performance, may petition the academic department or school for a special review of their status. The academic department or school reviews the student's application package and determines the merits and appropriateness of the request.

In order to apply for admissions under exception, the applicant must also provide a statement outlining the applicant's reasons and justification for requesting an exception to admission policies with supporting documentation. All exception materials must be submitted to the Office of Graduate Admissions. The applicant is also required to schedule an interview with a Point Loma Nazarene University academic advisor from the school to which the applicant is applying.

Following the interview, the academic advisor submits a summary of the applicant's interview and petition package to the department chair or dean of the school. The department chair or dean is the final authority for admissions under exception.

RN to BSN - Adult Degree Completion

The RN to BSN degree program exists to provide students the opportunity to complete a degree in a schedule. The format of the program is designed to meet needs of the working nurse while responding to the ever changing marketplace. The curriculum is designed to build on the educational experience already achieved in preparing for the RN role. The program integrates Christian world view and is committed to continual improvement.

Program Learning Outcomes

Inquiring Faithfully - Student will demonstrate knowledge, skill and behavior of the evidence-based practice of nursing which integrates growth in reasoning, analysis, decision-making and the application of theory with the goal of advocating for others and/or self. This includes holistic nursing skills and nursing process.

- Initiates dialogue regarding current practice to improve healthcare
- Demonstrates the use of evidence-based practices as an advocate for self and others
- Promotes positive client outcomes using evidence-based data
- Provides holistic care by considering all of the client needs (e.g. physical, psychosocial, spiritual, environmental) including family in a multicultural community
- Engages in self-care practices that facilitate optimal care of clients

Caring Faithfully - The student will embrace a calling to the ministry of compassionate care for all people in response to God's grace, which aims to foster optimal health and bring comfort in suffering and death.

- Demonstrates compassionate care to all people while mirroring Christ's love for all.
- Partners with the community to establish a trusting relationship
- Demonstrates ethics and values consistent with the practice of professional nursing

Communicating Faithfully - The student will actively engage in the dynamic interactive process that is intrapersonal and interpersonal with the goal of advocating for others and/or self. This includes effective, culturally appropriate communication conveying information, thoughts, actions and feelings through the use of verbal and nonverbal skills.

- Engages in active listening to promote therapeutic relationships
- Demonstrates effective verbal and nonverbal communication skills to provide patient care
- Dialogs with members of the healthcare team, including the patient, to facilitate positive patient outcomes
- Advocates for patients/families and self
- Implements patient care while honoring the diversity of patients, families and communities.

Following Faithfully - Defined as claiming the challenge from Florence Nightingale that nursing is a "divine imposed duty of ordinary work." The nursing student will integrate the ordinary work by complying with and adhering to regulatory and professional standards (e.g. ANA Code of Ethics, the California Board of Registered Nursing, Scope of National Practice, SON handbook.) This includes taking responsibility, being accountable for all actions and treating others with respect and dignity.

- Engages in a professional practice environment that promotes nursing excellence
- Provides patient care within the boundaries designated by regulatory agencies, professional practices and ethical standards of a Christian nurse
- Avails self of learning opportunities to cultivate the life-long learning process

Leading Faithfully - The student will incorporate a foundational relationship with Christ and others and embrace a willingness to serve others in the midst of life circumstances (e.g. illness, injustice, poverty). The student will role-model the need for "Sabbath Rest" as a means of personal renewal, and true care of the self, so that service to others is optimally achieved. The student will incorporate the characteristics of a servant leader including: humility, courage, forgiveness, discernment.

- Provides graceful service through compassionate responses to others' needs
- Demonstrates the principles of a servant leader as a reflection of Christ's love
- Exhibits patient advocacy that reflects sensitivity to diversity in a holistic manner.

Program Eligibility

Each student applying to this program must have successfully completed at least 1 year of an ADN program. All students in this program must be licensed as a Registered Nurse in the state of California prior to the 3rd term of the program.

Early Acceptance

Early Acceptance into the RN to BSN program allows students to apply to PLNU while they are in their second or third semester at a Community College Nursing program. The student will go through the application process with PLNU in the Summer to take the RN to BSN writing course during the summer before ADN graduation. Within two semesters after ADN graduation, these students return to PLNU to continue the RN to BSN program.

- Completion of at least two full semesters in ADN program
- 3.0 cumulative overall GPA for provisional admittance as Early Accept RN-BSN
- To be granted full acceptance upon return, after ADN completion:
 - Pass WRT300 course with "C" or better
 - Maintain minimum 2.75 cumulative GPA for the remainder of ADN program
- Tuition rate from WRT300 course honored if return for full program within two semesters of completing ADN
 - Spring graduates return by Fall
 - Summer graduates return by Spring
 - Fall graduates return by Summer

Graduation Requirements

Thirty-six (36) units in residence at PLNU are required for completion of this program. Additionally, there are core requirements listed for all Adult Degree Completion programs that need to be met in diverse areas to fulfill the PLNU liberal arts education model (i.e. communication/writing, humanities, mathematics, natural, social, and behavior sciences).

A minimum total number of 120 units is required completion of the Bachelor of Nursing Science degree.

Nursing Requirements

All 300 level nursing courses need to be successfully completed with a C or better prior to registering for 400 level courses.

Fermanian School of Business

Mission Statement

To provide to the world business leaders with Christ-like character.

Dean and Associate Dean

Fermanian School of Business Dean: Daniel Bothe
Associate Dean of Graduate Business Education: Jamie McIlwaine, DBA

Masters

Master of Business Administration

Program Description

The PLNU Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree provides a balance of qualitative and quantitative business knowledge and prepares the students with the wisdom to make critical decisions with purpose. The Fermanian School of Business offers the MBA in three (3) formats: an Evening or Online MBA for experienced working professionals that can be completed in two years, and a Daytime MBA for recent college graduates designed to be completed in one year.

Program Learning Outcomes

Candidates who complete the Master of Business Administration program will be able to:

- Demonstrate competency of the concepts, models and theories in the core business disciplines.
- Integrate learning across core business disciplines to identify key strategies and opportunities.
- Identify business issues and recommend solutions using analytical and critical thinking skills.
- Evaluate the impact of business decisions in a global context.
- Analyze the ethical impacts of executive-level decision making.
- Convey ideas and decisions clearly through effective communication.
- Demonstrate the ability to work collaboratively and function as an effective team member.

Candidates who complete the concentration in Organizational Leadership will be able to:

- Apply organizational behavior concepts to analyze and make recommendations regarding corporate culture.

Candidates who complete the concentration in Innovation and Entrepreneurship will be able to:

- Apply innovation and entrepreneurship knowledge and methods in the development of viable innovations.

Candidates who complete the concentration in Project Management will be able to:

- Apply project management knowledge, concepts and processes in the development of a project management plan.

Candidates who complete the concentration in Healthcare Management will be able to:

- Apply project management knowledge, concepts and processes in the development of a project management plan for a healthcare environment.

Graduation Requirements

1. A completed Application for Degree Candidacy (online or in the Office of Records, Point Loma campus).
2. Successful completion of all required curriculum with a minimum of 42 semester units of coursework.
3. Achievement of a cumulative GPA of 3.000 or higher. A student may earn a maximum of six units of "C" grades in the program. Any course in which a student receives a grade lower than a "C" must be repeated and the units will not be added to earned units.
4. All accounts paid in full.
5. All requirements for graduate degrees must be completed within an eight-year period from the time of initial enrollment in the program.

Program Prerequisite

All students must successfully complete the Excel Leveling Module, or equivalent, prior to their first course in the program.

Course Prerequisites

Prerequisite Leveling Modules are required for BUS 615 Accounting for Decision Making, BUS 670 Financial Management, and BUS625 Applied Research Methods. All students must successfully pass the prerequisite leveling modules prior to beginning to respective courses.

Evening and Online MBA Program

The Evening and Online MBA programs are for experienced working professionals who want to take control of their career by acquiring four important drivers of influential leadership - deep qualitative and quantitative business knowledge, wisdom in the face of difficult business decisions, a powerful personal network, and inspiration to follow your purpose. The program is designed to be completed in two years. However, students may accelerate their program or extend it over a longer period of time to accommodate their schedules.

A collegial environment supports depth of learning and builds strong relationships among faculty and peers. In the cohort model, students progress through the curriculum together, completing the 36 units of core business courses and 6 units of electives. Students may select from four concentrations, including Organizational Leadership, Innovation and Entrepreneurship, Project Management, and Healthcare Management. The Online MBA offers the Organizational Leadership concentration in an online format. All students may take any concentration in a face-to-face format.

The Fermanian School of Business Evening MBA program is committed to serving the experienced business professional with the best value in quality, academic rigor, professional support services, and individual attention to support students in meeting their academic and professional goals.

Program Eligibility for the Evening and Online MBA

Daytime MBA Program

The Daytime MBA program is for recent college graduates who want an accelerated opportunity to build four important drivers of initial career success - business knowledge, real world experience, personal network, and purpose. The Daytime MBA is a three semester program that is completed in one year.

The Daytime MBA program consists of 42 units of core courses that have been selected to effectively prepare recent graduates to successfully launch their professional career. Included in these core courses is a 3-unit Field Experience where teams of students work with a company executive to analyze, strategize and solve a live business challenge.

The Fermanian School of Business Daytime MBA program is committed to serving all MBA students with the best value in quality, academic rigor, professional support services, and individual attention to assist students in meeting their academic and professional goals.

Program Eligibility for the Daytime MBA Program

- A completed application for admission to the program
- A recently earned baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution as evidenced by official transcripts from the accredited institution(s)
- Two (2) letters of recommendation
- Resume
- A personal essay that describes why the applicant desires to participate in the Daytime MBA program and a description of the applicant's future goals
- The successful completion of a post-baccalaureate professional certificate program (e.g., CPA) or graduate degree program, or scores from the Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT)

School of Education

Mission Statement

Point Loma Nazarene University's School of Education is a vital Christian learning community that exists to develop high-performing, reflective educators of noble character who impact the lives of learners to influence the broader community.

Vision Statement

Point Loma Nazarene University School of Education is a prominent Christian voice in higher education - known for innovation in the areas of pedagogy, leadership, clinical practice, and technology.

The School of Education is recognized as:

- A Christian learning community that promotes excellence in academic preparation, wholeness in personal development, and faithfulness to mission
- A source of expertise and resources within the surrounding communities
- A vital force of change in the transformation of educational landscapes
- An exemplary model of servant leadership and commitment to ministry
- A candidate-centered learning environment where diversity is respected, valued, and encouraged

School of Education (SOE) members strive to be servant leaders who model the ongoing pursuit of knowledge integrated with beliefs and values. Both faculty and staff live out their faith by presenting a positive environment for candidates, local learning communities, and the profession. They play significant roles in the ongoing professional dialogue within the local, regional, state, and national educational communities. They promote diverse learning environments advocating for responsive and technology-infused pedagogy. The SOE inspires, affirms, and prepares candidates to serve collaboratively and effectively with professional excellence, honesty, integrity, and sensitivity. "For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works..." Ephesians 2:10a.

Graduates, given excellence in academic preparation, wholeness in personal development and faithfulness to mission, leave the SOE empowered to be servant leaders. With a depth of caring and the power of practice as educational leaders, graduates are vital forces of change in transforming the educational landscapes that lay before them. "Be very careful then, how you live-not as unwise, but as wise, making the most of every opportunity..." Ephesians 5:15-16.

The SOE believes that true advocacy begins with each faculty member and his or her understanding of the positive power of diversity. Candidates are exposed to socioeconomic, linguistic, religious, cognitive, and cultural diversity within learning communities and supported in the transferring of these theoretical principles into educational practices to promote social justice. Faculty, candidates, and graduates are recognized for pursuing equity and access for those who are marginalized and minimized by unjust and/or unthinking social and educational practices and policies. Responding to the Wesleyan heritage of pursuing a life of holiness, the SOE embraces and embodies a Christ-like ethic of love and sacrifice on behalf of those they serve as educators and leaders. "Finally brothers, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable-if anything is excellent or praiseworthy-think about such things." Philippians 4:8.

Conceptual Framework

The SOE's outcomes focus on "whole-person" transformation throughout the preparation program. The themes - equip, transform, and empower are the foundational and philosophical structure on which each of the programs is developed, implemented, assessed, and improved. The measures integrate the SOE's values and beliefs that are shared about the landscape of learning:

- EQUIP deep and coordinated understanding of the knowledge, skills, and dispositions demonstrated by effective educators.
- TRANSFORM ongoing development and competence to apply the knowledge, skills, and dispositions of effective educators in supportive diverse environments.
- EMPOWER the continual transformation and commitment to refining professional practice.

Deans and Center Directors

School of Education Dean: Deborah Erickson, Ed.D.
Associate Dean/Bakersfield Center Director: Jill Hamilton-Bunch, Ph.D.
Mission Valley Center Directors: Patricia Maruca, Ed.D. and Robert Graeff, Ed.D.

Career Opportunities

Courses are sequenced to prepare candidates for success in 21st-century classrooms and schools and successful completion of the California Teacher Performance Assessment (CalTPA) and the California Administrator Performance (CalAPA). Methodologies based on current practice and research are modeled and reinforced throughout the program.

Admission to the university is considered Level 1 admission to the School of Education (SOE). However, it neither implies nor guarantees approval for clinical practice (Level 2 admission) or admission to any credential or degree program. If, in the opinion of the SOE, a student fails to meet acceptable professional and personal standards, the department may disqualify any individual from attempting to complete preparation for a career in education.

The School of Education offers an undergraduate major in Cross Disciplinary Studies with the option of completing the 2042 preliminary credential in Multiple Subjects. Complete information on this program can be found in the PLNU Undergraduate Catalog.

All prospective educators should work with an advisor to plan their educational program and establish the proper sequence of courses and the fulfillment of all professional requirements. The Credentialing and Educational Placement Office provides a variety of services: transcript evaluation, credential applications, and career services for the student. The credential analyst acts as a liaison between the candidate and the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing.

Accreditation

PLNU's education programs are accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE). NCATE is recognized by the U.S. Department of Education and the Council of Higher Education Accreditation to accredit education programs for the preparation of teachers and other professional school personnel. In addition to meeting the NCATE gold standard of excellence, the School of Education credential and certificate programs are accredited by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing.

Credential and Certificate Programs

In addition to its degree-based programs, the School of Education offers a credential program and six (6) certificate programs that can be added to an existing preliminary or clear credential, and seven (7) Added Authorizations that can be added to an existing Special Education credential. These credential and certificate programs range from 12-15 total units and provide opportunity for further specialization and a link between theory and practice.

School of Education Courses

School of Education graduate course descriptions are organized into sections - EDU, GED, GEL and SPE. The EDU courses are related to the Master of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.) program and the preliminary teaching credentials. The GED courses are for advanced educational programs that would typically come after the preliminary teaching credentials and Master of Arts in Education courses. GEL courses focus on Educational Administration, while SPE denotes Master of Arts in Special Education courses.

Masters

Master of Arts in Teaching, Preliminary Teaching Credentials

The School of Education offers a specially designed Master of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.) degree that includes one of the four preliminary teaching credentials approved by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing:

- Multiple Subject - teaching credential program designed for candidates seeking to teach at the elementary grade levels or in P - Adult self-contained, general education classrooms.
- Single Subject - teaching credential program designed for candidates seeking to teach at the junior high, middle school, or high school levels or in a departmentalized setting serving grades P - Adult.
- Mild/Moderate - one of the two (2) Educational Specialist Preliminary teaching credentials. This authorization is related to services for individuals with a primary disability of specific learning disabilities, emotional disturbance, mild/moderate intellectual disability, other health impairment, and autism spectrum disorders within the disability area.
Moderate/Severe - authorization related to services for individuals with a primary disability for autism, moderate/severe intellectual disability, emotional disturbance, and multiple disabilities.

*Completing credential courses does not guarantee the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC) will issue a credential. If any requirements for a preliminary credential are altered by the CTC during the candidate's program, the candidates will be held responsible for those requirements in accordance with regulations designated by this accrediting agency.

The M.A.T. is offered in two (2) phases to candidates who hold a Bachelor's degree:

1. Phase I consists of 23 -29 units of coursework and 10 units of clinical practice (student teaching) culminating in a preliminary teaching credential (33 - 39 units). The candidate is not required to finish Phase II of the M.A.T. degree in order to earn the preliminary credential.
2. Phase II usually takes place after a candidate has obtained the preliminary credential and has obtained a first teaching position. Phase II consists of 7-13 units, depending on the program, for a total of 46 units.

Program Learning Outcomes

Candidates who complete the Master of Arts in Teaching, Preliminary Teaching Credentials and Professional Services Credentials will be able to:

Equip

- Promote the success of all students by being servant leaders who serve collaboratively and effectively with professional excellence, honesty, integrity, and sensitivity.

Transform

- Demonstrate the positive power of diversity and advocacy for universal social justice within their classrooms, schools, districts, and communities; and
- Apply faith-based influences and beliefs within educational organizations.

Empower

- Reflect and engage in on-going scholarly, professional, and spiritual growth; and

 - Multiple Subject candidates are required to pass the CSET: MS (101, 202, and 103).
 - Special Education candidates may meet this requirement by completing a state-approved subject matter program or passing the CSET in an NCLB-core subject area.
- Professional Preparation: met by completing the sequence of courses for the appropriate credential program.
- US Constitution: Knowledge of the Constitution is demonstrated by either a California Commission on Teacher Credentialing approved college level course, by exam, or by a workshop followed by an exam offered by PLNU.
- Developing English Language Skills: Met by passing one of the following courses: EDU 610 (Multiple Subject or Special Education) or EDU 620 (single subject).
- Teacher Performance Assessment (TPA)/E-Portfolio: All candidates are also required to successfully pass California's Teacher Performance Assessment (TPA). All credential candidates are required to establish an electronic portfolio, providing evidence of meeting required competencies.
- Current CPR Certification: Successful completion of an approved infant-child-adult CPR course and documentation of that fact is required before applying for a preliminary credential.
- Computer Level I Competencies: Computer Level I competencies are imbedded into Education coursework and successful completion of coursework will meet this standard.
- Health Clearance: Evidence must be presented that the candidate is free from tuberculosis.
- Certificate of Clearance: Teacher candidates must possess or apply for a Certificate of Clearance or CCTC document that requires fingerprinting clearance as they apply for admission to the credential program.
- Reading Instruction Competence Assessment (RICA): Multiple Subject and Education Specialist candidates are required to pass the Reading Instruction Competence Assessment (RICA) exam prior to applying for a teaching credential.

*Note: The above must be completed in order to obtain a credential.

Point Loma Nazarene University provides a handbook for each credential program. The M.A.T. Candidate Handbook is provided to those applying to the program and contains the actual forms required for credential program admission, fieldwork, and clinical practice, as well as the instructions for completion.

Once admitted to the program, candidates are assessed during each course as well as in their fieldwork experiences. Decisions regarding each candidate's ability to continue in the program are made prior to both the first and second student teaching assignments.

Upon successful completion of all requirements and coursework, candidates may apply for the appropriate Preliminary credential with the credential analyst at the branch campus.

The California Teaching Performance Assessments (TPA)

The School of Education implements the CalTPA as one of several measures to assess candidate proficiency and the preliminary credential program effectiveness for ALL preliminary credential programs. The CTC requires that all credential candidates pass the Teaching Performance Assessment before applying for a teaching credential as defined in Standard 19 of the 2042 credential document.

Information about TPA

All preliminary teacher candidates at Point Loma Nazarene University in Multiple Subject, Single Subject, and Special Education programs are required to participate in the Teaching Performance Assessment (CalTPA) program, as defined in Standard 19 of the 2042 credential document, while engaged in coursework leading to a credential.

The CalTPA process is an integrated part of the individual class coursework and clinical practice experience.

All candidates are required to follow the calendar and deadlines of the CalTPA process and must receive a passing score on all four tasks to be recommended for a teaching credential.

The Teacher Education Assessment Fee of $500.00 includes all assessment services except a fee of $50.00 for late submission per task and a rescoring fee of $75.00 for each re-submitted task.

The content of the four tasks will be introduced, practiced and completed throughout the preliminary credential course of study following an intentional course sequence:

1. Subject Specific Pedagogy Task
2. Designing Instruction Task
3. Assessing Learning Task
4. Culminating Teaching Experience Task

Submittal procedures for each of the four performance assessment tasks are as follows:

- Every candidate submits Tasks 1 through 4 on the dates designated using the Task Stream E-Portfolio system.
- The Task 3 submission includes the required student work samples scanned and uploaded into Task Stream.
- The Task 4 submission includes the required attachment of student work and the required video tape of the teaching sequence uploaded into Task Stream.
- Any task not submitted to Task Stream by the date and time designated is charged an additional $50 late fee.
- Task scores are provided to candidates within three weeks after submittal.
- Each task is scored on a 4-point rubric as prescribed by the CCTC.
- Candidates must achieve a score level of 3 or 4 to pass each task.

If a candidate does not score above a score level 2 for a task that is submitted, the following procedure will be implemented.

- The candidate reviews the instructional material provided through EDU600A and the assessor comments, and completes the resubmittal form.
- The candidate rewrites the task and submits the first rewrite including a $75 rescoring fee.

- The candidate's rewrite of the task is scored. If the candidate scores above a score level 2, the task is complete.
- If the candidate does not score above a score level 2, the candidate meets with the TPA Liaison or designee and enrolls in EDU 691 Special Studies (1 unit) where specific content is covered in the student's area of need.
- The candidate rewrites and resubmits the task and pays an additional $75 rescoring fee.
- The candidate's rewrite is rescored.
- If after the second rewrite the candidate does not score above a score level 2, a special review of the candidate's status in the program is completed with the Branch Campus Director, TPA Liaison, and the candidate's advisor to consider removal from the credential program.
- At the end of the CalTPA process, the candidate must have a cumulative score of 12 points across all 4 tasks in order to have successfully completed the CalTPA.
- If a candidate does not pass a task, he or she may not continue taking further CalTPA tasks until passage of prior tasks. All candidates must successfully pass the CalTPA in order to be recommended for a Preliminary Credential by Point Loma Nazarene University.
- Candidates receive a certification of completion recorded on their transcript upon successfully completing all 4 tasks of the CalTPA.
- All candidates must adhere to the University's Academic Honesty Policy as written in the Graduate Catalog.

Title II Information

According to federal regulations, all accredited departments, schools, and colleges of education are required to report information regarding their candidates' passing rates on examinations. A summary of the passage rates may be found on the PLNU web site at www.pointloma.edu/education

Education, Master of Arts

Program Description

The Master of Arts degree in Education is an advanced academic degree that builds upon an appropriate undergraduate foundation. A total of 36 semester units are required to complete this program. The curriculum for each of the specializations in this degree links theory to practice for teachers, counselors, principals, and those in educational roles outside of the K-12 setting.

Program Learning Outcomes

Candidates who complete the Master of Arts in Education program will be able to:

Equip

- Promote the success of all students by understanding, responding to, and influencing the larger political, social, economic, legal, and cultural context.

Transform

- Promote the success of all students by modeling a personal code of ethics and developing professional leadership capacity.

Empower

- Promote the success of all students by collaborating with families and community members, responding to diverse community interests and needs, and mobilizing community resources.

Program Eligibility for the Master of Arts in Education

- Proof of completion of the California Basic Educational Skills Test (CBEST) or equivalent accredited by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CCTC). A minimum score is not required and applicants who do not pass the CBEST can be admitted and will be provided support to pass the CBEST as soon as possible. Candidates seeking a Master's degree which does not include an approved CCTC credential are not required to take the CBEST or equivalent exam;

- A cumulative undergraduate grade point average of 3.000 is required to be admitted in the M.A. in Education program. Candidates with a cumulative grade point average less than 3.000 may apply for "Admission under Exception" which is reviewed by the program director and dean;
- A writing sample that indicates graduate-level ability; and
- An interview with the appropriate program director or Admissions chair at a branch campus.

Applicants who do not meet the above standards but can demonstrate that they have an exceptionally rich experiential background and/or have demonstrated dramatic change in academic performance may petition the School of Education to review their status.

Graduation Requirements

1. A completed Application for Degree Candidacy (online or in the Records Office, Point Loma campus);
2. Satisfactory completion of the prescribed course of study with a cumulative grade point average of 3.000 or higher;
3. Completion of the approved graduate program consisting of a minimum of 36 units;
4. A recommendation from the program coordinator and director of the branch campus;
5. All accounts paid in full; and
6. All requirements for graduate degrees must be completed within an eight-year period from the time of initial enrollment in the program.

Up to six units of post-baccalaureate coursework aligned with the course of study below, and unused for a previous master's degree, may be transferred from other institutions toward this degree. Candidates desiring to transfer coursework must petition this through their advisor during the first semester of enrollment.

Transfer of Credits

Up to six units of approved post-baccalaureate coursework aligned with the course of study below, and unused for a previous Master's degree, may be transferred from other institutions toward this degree. Candidates desiring to transfer coursework must petition this through their advisor during the first semester of enrollment.

The Master of Arts in Education degrees are considered advanced degrees beyond preliminary teacher credential coursework, signified by GED course numbers. Prior coursework taken toward a preliminary teaching credential cannot be used as credit toward a PLNU Master of Arts in Education degree, concentration in Counseling and Guidance or Educational Administration. However, graduate credit earned toward a Clear Teaching credential may be approved for credit toward all of the concentrations in the Master of Arts in Education degree. PLNU credential candidates may utilize up to 12 units of post-baccalaureate credential coursework. Graduate credits purchased through PLNU for completion of a district-sponsored Induction Program may be applied toward the Master of Arts in Education, concentrations in Educational Administration and Leadership in Learning.

Concentrations

The Master of Arts in Education offers three concentrations: (1) Counseling and Guidance; (2) Educational Leadership; or (3) Teaching and Learning.

- Counseling and Guidance
- Educational Administration
- Leadership In Learning

Counseling and Guidance

The purpose of the concentration in Counseling and Guidance is to prepare counselors for service to students in a changing world. Candidates have three options:

1. Candidates desiring to serve as school counselors in California's public schools complete the Pupil Personnel Services (PPS) credential that requires forty-eight (48) semester units listed below, or
2. Candidates can complete the Master of Arts degree with the required thirty-six (36) units, or
3. Candidates can complete the Master of Arts degree with a specialization in College Counseling and Student Development

The admissions requirements for the above options are identical and students can complete a change of degree/program form to move from one option to the other.

Program Learning Outcomes for the Master of Arts in Education - Counseling and Guidance

The program learning outcomes for the Master of Arts in Counseling and Guidance are built on and related to the School of Education outcomes symbolized in three themes: equip, transform, and empower. The Counseling and Guidance concentration implements these major themes in the curriculum.

Equip

- Maintain competencies in knowledge, skills of the school counseling profession, and attitudes that demonstrate the ability to ethically implement, maintain, and advocate for a results-based counseling program.

Transform

- Promote the comprehensive counseling program through modeling of servant leadership that focuses on positive outcomes for diverse school communities in the belief that all students can learn and succeed.

Empower

- Engage in on-going professional self-evaluation and personal self-reflection using the dispositions.
- Assess student needs routinely and use technology to conduct, analyze, and evaluate research data and communicate results to all school stakeholders.

Reading and Literacy Added Authorization (8 units)

This added authorization is an eight (8) unit program for credentialed teachers who want specialized certification to teach reading in the PreK-12 setting. The program follows an explicit philosophy and purpose based on current, confirmed, replicable, and reliable research in literacy as referenced in the California Preschool Learning Foundations and Frameworks (Volume 1) and the California Reading/Language Arts Framework.

Upon successful completion of all coursework, candidates may apply to the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC) for the Reading and Literacy Added Authorization. Candidates must have completed three (3) years of successful K-12 teaching at the time of submission to CTC for this added authorization.

- GED 628 - Using Technology to Enhance Teaching and Learning (2)
- GED 696 - Advanced Research-Based Literacy Instruction for all Students (3)
- GED 697 - Advanced Literacy Assessment, Instruction and Intervention for all Students (3)

Approved Coursework

In addition to the above courses, elective courses may be added to fulfill the thirty-six (36) unit requirement for completion of the Master's degree requirements. Candidates seeking to transfer credit must make this request during the first semester of enrollment.

Candidates with their preliminary credential coursework from an accredited university may request to apply up to six (6) units of approved coursework. Candidates with the preliminary credential coursework from PLNU may apply up to twelve (12) units of approved coursework to the Master of Arts in Education if it has not been previously used toward another degree.

Master's Total: 36 Units

Special Education, Master of Arts

Program Description

The Master of Arts degree in Special Education is an advanced academic degree. A Clear Education Specialist credential may be completed within this degree with an additional three (3) units. One of the following Added Authorizations is included within the degree: Adapted Physical Education (APE), Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD), Early Childhood Special Education (ECSE), Emotional Disturbance (ED), Other Health Impairment (OHI), Orthopedic Impairment (OI), and/or Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI). A total of 36 semester units are required for the degree. The curriculum provides a deeper specialization in contemporary issues in the field of special education.

Program Learning Outcomes

The program learning outcomes for the M.A. in Special Education are built on and related to the School of Education outcomes that are symbolized in three themes: equip, transform, and empower. The M.A. in the Special Education program then applies these major themes to this program.

Candidates who complete the Master of Arts in Special Education program will be able to:

Equip

- Promote the success of all students by being a servant leader that serves collaboratively and effectively with professional excellence, honesty, integrity, and sensitivity.

Transform

- Engage in ways of thinking and being to embrace the positive power of diversity and advocacy for universal social justice within the classrooms, schools, districts, and communities.
- Apply faith-based influences and beliefs within educational organizations.

Empower

- Reflect and engage in on-going scholarly, professional, and spiritual growth.
- Serve as research-based transformational leaders within their classrooms, schools, districts, and communities.

Program Eligibility to the Master of Arts in Special Education

- Education and Grade-Point Average: Candidates must have completed a baccalaureate or higher degree from a regionally accredited college or university. A cumulative undergraduate grade point average of 3.000 is required to be admitted into the Master of Arts in Special Education program. Candidates with a cumulative grade point average less than 3.000 may apply for "Admission under Exception;"
- Two or more letters of recommendation from appropriate persons who have the knowledge of the applicant's character and ability to work with children or youth. (References from friends or relatives are not appropriate.);
- Master of Arts in Special Education interview: All candidates must complete a personal interview with an admissions chair.

Graduation Requirements

1. A completed Application for Degree Candidacy (online or in the Records Office, Point Loma campus);
2. Satisfactory completion of the prescribed course of study with a cumulative grade-point average of 3.000 or higher and no grade lower than a C in any course;
3. Completion of the approved graduate program consisting of a minimum of 36 units;
4. Recommendation from the program coordinator;
5. All accounts paid in full;
6. All requirements for graduate degrees must be completed within an eight (8)-year period from the time of initial enrollment in the program.

The Master of Arts in Special Education builds on the foundation of the Preliminary Education Specialist credential and the Council for Exceptional Children's Professional Standards. Candidates develop advanced level knowledge, skills, and dispositions aligned with professional standards and directly apply research-based theory and "best practices" as they teach students with special needs in their own classrooms.

The Clear Education Specialist credential requirements can be incorporated into this advanced degree and are strategically aligned and blended with Induction requirements to equip special education to address the Clear (Level II) credential proficiency requirements as they complete their Induction requirements.

Up to six (6) units of post-baccalaureate coursework aligned with the course of study below may be transferred from other institutions toward this degree. Candidates seeking transfer credit should make this request during the first semester of enrollment. Candidates who completed their preliminary Education Specialist, Mild/Moderate credentials through PLNU may apply up to 12 units of this coursework toward the MA in Special Education. Candidates who completed their preliminary Education Specialist, Moderate/Severe credentials through PLNU may apply up to 12 units of this coursework toward the MA in Special Education. Candidates who completed both their preliminary Education Specialist, Mild/Moderate and Moderate/Severe credentials through PLNU may apply up to 15 units of this coursework toward the MA in Special Education.

Credential

Clear Administrative Services Credential

Program Description

The Clear Administrative Services Credential program builds upon the preliminary administrative credential and prepares school administrators to establish and sustain a vital learning community that supports powerful teaching and learning for the success of all students. This is an evidence-based program. Candidates develop a plan for their graduate level coursework and fieldwork, building on the evidence of prior knowledge, skills, and dispositions that they bring into the program. This program is aligned with the California Professional Standards for Educational Leaders (CPSELs).

All instructors are veteran school leaders with decades of experience as principals and district office administrators. Their background and experiences are diverse and include schools and districts with special needs in Title 1, Program Improvement, Curriculum Audits, diverse demographic, language and socio-economic populations.

Program Learning Outcomes

Candidates who complete the Clear Administrative Service Credential program will be able to:

Equip: Promote the success of all students by:

- Demonstrating an understanding of the greater political, social, economic, legal, and cultural context;
- Responding to and influencing the greater political, social, economic, legal, and cultural context; and
- Demonstrating the development of professional leadership capacity.

Transform: Promote the success of all students by:

- Responding to diverse community interests and needs;
- Collaborating with families and community members; and
- Modeling a personal code of ethics.

Empower: Promote the success of all students by:

- Facilitating the development, articulation, implementation, and stewardship of a vision of learning that is shared and supported by the school community;
- Advocating, nurturing, and sustaining a school culture and instructional program conducive to student learning and staff development and growth; and
- Ensuring management of the organization, operation, and resources for a safe, efficient, and effective learning environment.

Admission Requirements

Admission to the University

Candidates are eligible to be considered for the Educational Leadership programs when the following conditions are met:

- Application;
- Two (2) letters of recommendation;
- Application fee;
- Official transcripts showing completion of a baccalaureate or higher-level degree from an institution that is accredited by a regional accrediting association;
- Overall university grade-point average (GPA) of 3.00 or better on a four-point scale - a cumulative GPA of 3.00 alone does not guarantee acceptance into the program;
- Submission of CBEST or equivalence;
- An interview with the area Program Admissions Chair;
- Formal acceptance to PLNU as a student.

Program Admission Requirements

Verification and Passage of the CBEST (credential students);

Writing sample indicating graduate level writing ability. Writing sample should be in the form of an essay and respond to the following prompts:

- Describe your professional career goals;
- Describe the experience that helped you determine these goals. You may want to include multi-cultural and professional experiences;

Professional Clear Teaching Credential: Multiple Subject or Single Subject

For: Teachers working in private, charter or public schools who need to complete an Induction program in order to Clear their Preliminary California Teaching Credential.

The 2042 Clear Credential program requires 12 units of advanced courses and on-site coaching to be taken AFTER completion of the preliminary credential and can be completed in two years. The PLNU Induction program is approved and accredited by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CCTC) to earn the Clear Teaching Credential for the Ryan or 2042 Credential.

A PLNU Credential Analyst reviews the transcripts and credential renewal requirements for each teacher participating in the Partnership Program.

Program Learning Outcomes

Candidates who complete the Multiple and Single Subject Clear Credential program will be able to:

Equip

- Work collaboratively with school site personnel and university faculty to gain a deepened understanding and competence of effective pedagogy and ability to apply academic instruction that includes universal access and equity for all students.
- Maintain competencies in knowledge, skills, and attitudes that demonstrate the ability to implement the California Standards for the Teaching Profession in order to maximize student success.
- Develop attitudes and skills to effectively communicate with all students - special needs, diverse cultural groups, and second language learners.

Transform

- Demonstrate how to identify, clarify, and address barriers to student learning while partnering with community resources to achieve academic goals.
- Cultivate ongoing self-evaluation and lifelong learning habits that promote dispositions of noble character.

Empower

- Honor diversity while using pedagogical skill to implement principles of equity and empowerment.
- Commit to ongoing professional development, a lifestyle of integrity and fairness and the use of high ethical and professional values in the field with administrators, colleagues, parents, and students.

Program Eligibility for the Clear Teaching Credential: Multiple Subject or Single Subject

School of Nursing

Mission Statement

The School of Nursing at Point Loma Nazarene University exists to support the university Wesleyan Mission and to provide an interdisciplinary learning program of excellence. Graduates of the School of Nursing are distinctly identified by grace, truth, and holiness, serving others after the example of Christ, as they are sent to fulfill their calling as professional nurses.

So He got up from the meal, took off His outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around His waist. After that, He poured water into a basin and began to wash His disciple's feet, drying them with a towel that was wrapped around Him. Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet. I have set an example that you should do as I have done for you. John 13:4-5 (NIV)

Vision Statement

The School of Nursing at Point Loma Nazarene University embraces, as a covenant, the commitment to excellence within a dynamic Christian environment in which each one will engage in the sacred work of nursing. This sacred work involves symbolically removing one's shoes in service of others.

Take off your sandals for the place you are standing is holy ground. Exodus 3:5 (NIV)

Masters

Nursing, Master of Science in Nursing

Program Description

The Master of Science in Nursing program at Point Loma Nazarene University is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education and approved by the California Board of Registered Nurses. The program is designed for working professionals with classes held one to two nights per week and some Saturdays. Clinical Nurse Specialist options are available in the following areas:

- Adult/Gerontology Nursing
- Pediatric Nursing
- Family/Individual Health

There is also an option to obtain an MSN with a specialized concentration in education or business. Eight units of specialized coursework must be taken in either education or business for the concentration option. The MSN is designed to provide the Registered Nurse with an MSN in preparation for roles in leadership/management or education. The MSN degree without specialization is an interdisciplinary degree. Depending on which degree concentration is selected, nurses may be prepared for the following positions: adjunct professor, clinical nurse educator, staff developer, unit based educator, patient education coordinator, magnet coordinator, nurse manager, nurse lead, nursing supervisor, nursing project manager, quality manager, quality improvement coordinator, or case manager.

Program Learning Outcomes

Candidates who complete the Master of Science in Nursing program will be able to:

- Inquire Faithfully: The student will demonstrate knowledge, skill, and behavior of the evidence-based practice of nursing which integrates growth in reasoning, analysis, decision-making, and the application of theory with the goal of advocating for others and/or self. This includes holistic nursing skills and the nursing process.

- Care Faithfully: The student will embrace a calling to the ministry of compassionate care for all people in response to God's grace, which aims to foster optimal health and bring comfort in suffering and death.
- Communicate Faithfully: The student will actively engage in the dynamic interactive process, both intrapersonal and interpersonal, with the goal of advocating for others and/or self. This includes effective, culturally appropriate communication which conveys information, thoughts, actions, and feelings through the use of verbal and nonverbal skills.
- Follow Faithfully: The student will integrate the ordinary work* by complying with and adhering to regulatory and professional standards (e.g., American Nurses Association Code of Ethics, The California Board of Registered Nursing, Scope of Nursing Practice, PLNU School of Nursing Handbook). This includes taking responsibility, being accountable for all actions, and treating others with respect and dignity.
- Lead Faithfully: The student will incorporate a foundational relationship with Christ and others and embrace a willingness to serve others in the midst of life circumstances (e.g., illness, injustice, poverty). The student will model the need for "Sabbath Rest" as a means of personal renewal, and true care of self, so that service to others is optimally achieved. The student will incorporate the characteristics of a servant leader including: humility, courage, forgiveness, and discernment.

*Defined as claiming the challenge from Florence Nightingale that nursing is a "divine imposed duty of ordinary work."

English Language Requirements

A satisfactory command of the English language is required for admission to the Graduate School of Nursing. All applicants whose native language is not English, must meet this requirement - including international applicants, permanent residents, immigrants, and transfer students who are not citizens of the United States on the date of admission. A Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) is the measure of competency. The test must have been taken within the past two years with minimum scores of:

- 550 for the paper-based test
- 80 for the internet- based test with a minimum section requirement score of 20 in reading, listening, speaking, and writing. Only the following countries are exempt from proof of English proficiency: Australia, Canada, Ireland, United Kingdom, and New Zealand.

Other Provisions

To satisfy the requirements of the university's clinical agencies, upon acceptance into the program students are required to provide copies of the following documentation:

- Current California licensure as a registered nurse;
- Current Healthcare Provider CPR certificate from the American Heart Association;
- Completed School of Nursing Health Form Packet with proof of immunizations (the university only accepts copies of official immunization record or paper documentation of titers);
- Current TB screening upon admission into the program; 2 step process;
- Current HIPAA certificate;
- Infection Control Module; and
- Background check and drug screening (failure to pass this may result in an inability to complete the program).

Per agreement with the San Diego Nursing Service Education consortium and affiliated hospitals, a background check and drug screening is required prior to the student's first clinical experience. If a red flag occurs from either the background check or drug screening, this may result in immediate dismissal from the program.

NOTE for non-enrolled students taking graduate courses: we recommend allowing non-Bachelor prepared students to take 500 level classes and Bachelor prepared students to take 600 level classes that do not have the clinical component.

Exceptions Policy

Applicants who do not meet the above eligibility standards, but who can demonstrate an exceptionally rich experiential background and/or demonstrate dramatic change in academic performance, may petition the School of Nursing to review their status (see Admission Requirements and Procedures, Admission under Exception).

Graduation Requirements

1. A completed Application for Degree Candidacy (online);
2. Completion of the approved graduate program, including a comprehensive exam.
 - 37-38 units for B.S.N. entry
 - 48-49 units for R.N. entry
3. A cumulative grade-point average of 3.000 or higher. A minimum grade of B- is required to progress in the program. Students needing to repeat more than two courses may not progress in the program and may be dismissed; and
4. All accounts paid in full.
5. All Comprehensive Exams must be submitted within 1 year from when the exam was originally due. Failure to meet this requirement will result in dismissal from the program.
6. All requirements for graduate degrees must be completed within an eight-year period from the time of initial enrollment in the program.

Core Courses for R.N. to M.S.N.

For those entering the program with an R.N. (without a B.S.N.), the three (3) courses below must be successfully completed before advancement in the M.S.N. GNSG 600 level courses. The courses must be taken in order and outside transfer is not accepted. These courses are not required for those entering with a B.S.N.

School of Theology and Christian Ministry

Mission Statement

Graduate programs exist primarily as a response to the need for post-graduate theological education for ministry in the Southwest Educational Region of the Church of the Nazarene served by Point Loma Nazarene University. This graduate program exists in a community of learning and living in covenant to Christ, embodied in a Christian liberal arts context. This offers the strength of rich diversity of various Christian traditions and of critical reflection in the inter-disciplinary relationship of learners and leaders. Therefore, those providing leadership in the program see their task as:

- Preparing both clergy and lay leaders for serving in Christian congregations and related institutions;
- Preparing scholars for higher education in the public realm, the church, and the academy; and
- Enlarging the vision of practical theology and Christian mission as a public enterprise, responding to the increasingly complex theological, ethical, and socio-political issues facing the worlds of the present and the future.

Dean and Program Directors

Dean: Mark Maddix, Ph.D.

Program Director Master of Arts: Christian Ministry: Mark Maddix, Ph.D.

Program Director Master of Arts: Christian Ministry - Spanish: Jonathan Salgado, Ph.D

Centers

Point Loma Nazarene University maintains the following center within the organization of the School of Theology and Christian Ministry:

- The Center for Pastoral Leadership

Courses Designed for the Graduate Level

Courses numbered at the 400 undergraduate level in the School of Theology and Christian Ministry may be approved as electives by the program director. Graduate students taking such courses must meet higher qualitative and quantitative standards in order for the course to qualify for graduate credit. Course content areas cannot be repeated between a student's undergraduate and graduate programs.

- Enlarging the vision of practical theology and Christian mission as a public enterprise, responding to the increasingly complex theological, ethical, and socio-political issues facing the worlds of the present and the future.

Program Description

The Master of Arts in Christian Ministry program is designed to educate and accommodate students who live at a distance (often in ministry assignments). Courses are offered in one week intensives or during weekends. Students are expected to engage in completing online discussions, reading assignments, and writing term papers as part of the hybrid classes. The curriculum has a strong emphasis on both academic rigor (preparation for possible continuation of graduate studies) and practical ministry. This program is offered in English and Spanish.

The degree is designed around four central emphases which are highlighted in the core courses:

- Christian Formation
- Christian Scripture
- Church in Mission
- Christian Tradition

Prior to completion of the thirty-six (36) required units for the PLNU Master of Arts in Christian Ministry degree, students will have the option to request of the Office of Records that the PLNU degree not be posted, allowing the maximum number of units to be utilized toward the completion of the Master of Divinity degree as outlined in the partnership agreement between PLNU and Nazarene Theological Seminary.

Vision Statement

The purpose of this degree is to provide a program in academic and professional ministry competencies rooted in the classic theological disciplines and engaged with contemporary life, resulting in leadership skills in the formation of character in Christian communities. The desired outcome is the integration of theology and ministry culminating in graduates who are “practical thinkers and thinking practitioners.” The program builds on basic prerequisites in undergraduate work and professional experience, providing education intended to lead to lifelong learning.

Program Learning Outcomes

Students who successfully complete PLNU's Master of Arts in Christian Ministry program will be able to:

- Incorporate Christian formation in the local congregation and the life of the candidate;
- Interpret scripture especially as related to preaching and teaching in the local church;
- Explain the nature, mission, and social context of the Church, especially as related to ecclesial practices and leadership of the pastor in the local congregation; and
- Analyze theology, ethics, and Church history, especially as related to the Wesleyan tradition in contemporary ministry.

Program Eligibility for the Master of Arts in Christian Ministry

- Completion of a baccalaureate degree from an accredited institution or the equivalent;
- A completed application for admission to the program;
- Official transcripts indicating an approved undergraduate degree;
- An interview with the director of the Master of Arts in Christian Ministry program; and

- A writing sample which includes a statement of commitment to Christian values and to excellence in scholarship.

Prerequisites

- Completion of an acceptable undergraduate degree from an accredited institution plus the completion of one year of full-time Christian ministry in a local church setting.
- Students should read carefully the general regulations concerning admission to a graduate program at Point Loma Nazarene University and the basic requirements for graduate degrees that appear in this Graduate Catalog.

Graduation Requirements

1. A completed Application for Degree Candidacy (online or in the Office of Records, main campus);
2. A completed graduation application with appropriate approvals;
3. Successful completion of all core course requirements (12 units) and a minimum of 24 units total units completed at PLNU;
4. Completion of a minimum of 36 units (including core courses);
5. Cumulative grade-point average of 2.75 or higher; and
6. All accounts paid in full.

All requirements for graduate degrees must be completed within an eight-year period from the time of initial enrollment in the program.

Required Courses

The following courses are required for the Master of Arts: Christian Ministry degree.

- BIB 635 - Christian Scripture (3)
- BIB 637 - Interpreting Christian Scripture (3)
- CHU 652 - Christian Tradition (3)
- CMI 612 - Christian Formation (3)
- CMI 622 - Preaching and Teaching the Scripture (3)
- CMI 646 - Church in Mission (3)
- CMI 662 - Leadership and Ministry (3)
- CMI 676 - Christian Mission in Local Contexts (3)
- CMI 677 - Congregational Discipleship and Formation (3)
- CMI 678 - Pastoral Care and Counseling (3)
- PHL 611 - Christian Ethics (3)
- THE 672 - Wesleyan Theology and Contemporary Ministry (3)

Total: 36 Units

Transfer Credit

Students can transfer up to six (6) approved units from the following:

- 1) transfer of coursework from Nazarene Theological Seminary*;

- 2) transfer of approved graduate-level course work;
- 3) cross-referenced graduate-level course work in the School of Theology and Christian Ministry; or
- 4) registration in Christian Ministry 690 Special Studies.

*Students transferring units from Nazarene Theological Seminary may do so up to the limit approved by the Graduate and Extended Studies Committee and specified in the partnership agreement between PLNU and NTS.

Athletic Training

ATR 600 - Seminar in Athletic Training

(1)

This course is designed to introduce the athletic training student to the athletic training program and the resources available during their 1st and 2nd year experience. During this course students will be exposed to the resources in the PLNU library as well as professional development tools (Myers Briggs/Strengths Quest.) Selected topics pertinent to the field of athletic training and applicable to all levels of the athletic training major are presented. Course includes student presentations, guest speakers, faculty speakers and topics that are not covered in other courses in the curriculum.

ATR 605 - Research Methods and Statistical Techniques for Clinical Decision Making in Sports Medicine

This course will explore the variety in research design and statistics commonly used in clinical research, further developing student analytical skills needed to support professional evidence-based practice in athletic training. Students will evaluate the merit and relevance of published research to the practice of athletic training from the perspective of experimental methodology and design. This course also provides an overview of statistics including descriptive and inferential statistics and one-way ANOVA. Students should have a basic understanding of conducting library and Internet information searches prior to taking this course.

Students will select a topic of interest related to athletic training, conduct a review of the literature, define a research question, and prepare and present a report to their peers. Students will complete Collaborative Institutional Training Initiative (CITI training).

ATR 607 - Research Project Seminar

(1)

In this course, students begin their research projects and make a formal written presentation. This proposal should contain project idea or problem statement, review of literature and a description of how the project will be conducted. This is a directed study under the supervision of faculty.

ATR 608 - Research Seminar II

This is the second in the sequence of two research seminar courses. Students will collect data, perform data analysis, and write the results, and discussion sections for their athletic training research projects. Students will revise and refine their final capstone project, develop a presentation, and present their findings. This is directed study under the supervision of a faculty research mentor.

ATR 610 - Therapeutic Interventions

(3)

The purpose of this course is to provide a foundation of therapeutic exercise principles and techniques. The scope is inclusive of approaches applicable to common sports medicine problems. Emphasis will be on clinical decision making to design, implement, and assess a comprehensive rehabilitation plan. Students will be exposed to contemporary and traditional rehabilitation approaches for a variety of conditions. Competency in design, implementation, and assessment of plans of care, while exposing students to a wide variety of therapeutic exercises will be stressed in an integrated laboratory experience.

Corequisite(s): ATR 610L

ATR 610A - Evidence Practice and Concepts in Sports Medicine

(3)

This course is designed to introduce provide the student with an introduction into the athletic training program. During this course students will be introduced to the major topics in athletic training. Students will also formulate clinical questions and become evidence based practitioners.

ATR 610L - Therapeutic Interventions Laboratory

(1)

This lab provides laboratory time for the practice of exercise techniques and treatment. Students will develop problem-solving skills required in the modification of treatments while treating athletic injury using a case study based approach.

Pre or Corequisite(s): ATR610

ATR 611 - Advanced Functional Movement Interventions

(3)

This course and integrated laboratory provides an in-depth study of the musculoskeletal and mechanical aspects of anatomical structures as related to human movement and function. This course will apply physics concepts, tissue responses and adaptations, and human movement concepts in preparation for rehabilitation techniques (such as joint mobilizations), exercise prescription, and for evaluation and recognition of injury. Joint mobilizations will be taught, along with the theory behind and rationale for joint mobilization. Movement of individual joints, kinetic chain and whole body motion will be analyzed. Clinical evaluation of movement (sport and general), posture, and gait will be introduced. Students will be able to evaluate and treat a variety of disorders through the analysis and application of musculoskeletal mechanics, applied neurology, articular function, biomechanical principles within movement, and material/biomechanical properties of biological tissues.

ATR 615 - Therapeutic Agents

This course is designed to introduce students to the contemporary usage and basic foundation of therapeutic modalities, transmission of energy, infrared, and mechanical therapy. Through lecture, discussion, and laboratory experience, an evidence based approach of musculoskeletal rehabilitation involving therapeutic modalities will be examined.

ATR 615L - Therapeutic Agents Lab

This course is designed to allow students to apply and integrate their didactic knowledge during a laboratory setting. Students will learn to apply all of the therapeutic agents learned in class to patients in clinical settings.

ATR 620 - Pharmacology for Allied Health Care Professionals

In-depth study of the pathophysiology and pharmacologic treatment of major illnesses, injuries, and diseases observed in clinical settings. This course is designed for professional phase Athletic Training students.

ATR 650 - Psychology of Sport, Injury and Rehabilitation

This course addresses a variety of integrated psychosocial topics involving the patient, the health care professional, and response to injury. Topics include motivation, self confidence, personality traits, emotional response to injury, interpersonal and cross-cultural communication. This course is designed for professional phase Athletic Training students.

ATR 665 - Leadership and Management in Athletic Training

(3)

This course focuses on management, administration, leadership, and professional responsibilities associated with providing health care in an athletic training room, health care facility, and related venues that provide health care to athletes and others involved in physical activities. Topics include athletic training room design, budget, organization and administration of pre-participation physical exams, components of a medical record, regulations, insurance, personnel management.

ATR 670 - Nutrition for Athletic Trainers

This course discusses the physiological processes of digestion, absorption, and assimilation of food, fluids, nutritional supplements, herbs, and ergogenic aids specific to the energy needs for sports participation and the physically active. Topics include weight loss/gain, body composition, performance, illness, injury, and eating disorders.

ATR 685 - General Medical Conditions and Medical Terminology

(3)

This course addresses general medical disorders and conditions pertaining to sports medicine and inquiries into the latest research of related issues. Topics include etiology, pathology, assessment, and risks associated with common diseases, impairments, and physical disabilities within the athletic population.

ATR 687 - Evidence Based Orthopedic Assessment of the Lower Extremity

(3)

This course addresses evaluation techniques and care for musculoskeletal injuries to the lower extremities for graduate-level athletic training students. The student must integrate knowledge of anatomical structures, physiology principles and evaluative techniques to provide a basis for evidence based critical decision-making in an injury management environment.

ATR 687L - Evidence Based Orthopedic Assessment of the Lower Extremity Laboratory

This course is designed to provide students with a comprehensive hands on approach to injury evaluation and assessment of lower extremity pathologies. During this lab students will learn and begin to develop a systematic approach to injury evaluation. Students will learn special testing and injury evaluation techniques.

Pre or Corequisite(s): ATR 687

ATR 688 - Evidence Based Orthopedic Assessment of the Spine and Upper Extremity

(3)

This course addresses evaluation techniques and care for musculoskeletal injuries to the upper extremities and spine for graduate-level athletic training students. The student must integrate knowledge of anatomical structures, physiology principles and evaluative techniques to provide a basis for decision-making using the current evidence in an injury management environment.

Concurrent: ATR688L

ATR 688L - Evidence Based Orthopedic Assessment of the Spine and Upper Extremity Laboratory

(1)

This course is designed to provide students with a comprehensive hands on approach to injury evaluation and assessment of upper extremity and spinal pathologies. During this lab students will learn and begin to develop a systematic approach to injury evaluation. Students will learn special testing and injury evaluation techniques

Corequisite(s): ATR688

ATR 690 - Clinical Internship I

(3)

This course is the first of five required athletic training clinical education courses.

Athletic training students will be evaluated on clinical integration proficiency of knowledge, skills, and abilities including: general health and fitness assessment; environmental conditions assessment; recognition of emergencies and acute injury care; and professional communication and documentation strategies. Additionally, students will be expected to build upon their acquired knowledge to actively engage in facilitated integration of skills and abilities covered in the curriculum. Students will be assigned to clinical education experiences under the direct supervision of a preceptor. Students will explore evidence-based practice and reflect upon their clinical experiences to facilitate critical thinking and clinical decision making skills development. Students must complete a minimum 200 and a maximum of 500 clinical hours.

ATR 691 - Clinical Internship II

(3)

This course is the second of five required athletic training clinical education courses. Athletic training students will be evaluated on clinical integration proficiency of knowledge, skills, and abilities including: taping, wrapping, bracing, protective equipment fitting; clinical assessment, diagnosis and therapeutic intervention of the lower extremity and spine; and professional communication and documentation strategies. Additionally, students will be expected to build upon their acquired knowledge to actively engage in facilitated integration of skills and abilities covered in the curriculum. Students will be assigned to clinical education experiences under the direct supervision of a preceptor. Students will explore evidence-based practice and reflect upon their clinical experiences to facilitate critical thinking and clinical decision making skills development.

Prerequisite(s): ATR690

ATR 692 - Clinical Preceptorship

(3)

This course is the third of five clinical education courses. During this course and clinical rotation students will be expected to build upon their knowledge of general medical conditions as well as be exposed to the different allied health professions (Surgery, Orthopedics, General Medicine and Physical Therapy). Students will be assigned to clinical education experiences under the direct supervision of a preceptor. Students will explore evidence-based practice and reflect upon their clinical experiences to facilitate critical thinking and clinical decision making skills

Pre or Corequisite(s): ATR691

ATR 693 - Clinical Practicum I

(3)

This course is the fourth of five required athletic training clinical education courses. Athletic training students will be evaluated on clinical integration proficiency of knowledge, skills, and abilities including: clinical assessment, diagnosis and therapeutic intervention of the upper extremity, head, neck, thorax and patients with common illnesses; psychosocial motivational strategies; recognition and referral of mental health disorders; and professional communication and documentation strategies. Additionally, students will be expected to build upon their acquired knowledge to actively engage in facilitated integration of skills and abilities covered in the curriculum. Students will be assigned to clinical education experiences under the direct supervision of a preceptor. Students will explore evidence-based practice and reflect upon their clinical experiences to facilitate critical thinking and clinical decision making skills development

Pre or Corequisite(s): ATR692

ATR 694 - Clinical Practicum II

(3)

This course is the fifth of five athletic training clinical experience courses. Athletic training students will be evaluated on clinical integration proficiencies taught the previous semester including: comprehensive therapeutic intervention, clinical examination, and diagnosis of musculoskeletal injury; common illnesses and conditions; psychosocial strategies and referral; professional communication and documentation strategies. Additionally, students will be expected to build upon their acquired knowledge and practice those skills and techniques previously covered in the curriculum. Students will be assigned to clinical education experiences under the direct supervision of a preceptor. Students will explore evidence-based practice and reflect upon their clinical experiences to facilitate critical thinking and clinical decision making skills development. Students must complete 200 clinical hours.

Pre or Corequisite(s): ATR693

ATR 699 - Athletic Training Capstone

(2)

This course will focus on athletic training practice acts and registration, professional responsibility, continuing education, governing bodies, scope of practice, community awareness, and preparation for the Board of Certification (BOC) exam. Topics include resume and cover letter building, interviewing techniques, transitioning from being a student to becoming a professional, networking and effective strategies for taking the BOC exam.

Bachelor of Business Administration

BBU 313 - Administrative Communication

(3)

With an emphasis on speaking and writing in the business field, this course is designed to help students improve and polish their professional communication skills in the workplace. In this course, students learn the skills needed to secure employment and communicate effectively in a professional business setting. Specifically, students learn to create an impressive resume, write and deliver various professional reports, effectively interview for employment, compose professional routine and persuasive letters, conduct informational interviews, and create professional portfolios. Students exit the course with the professional communication skills needed to stand out in the business world and in the job search process.

BBU 480 - International Business

(3)

This course provides an overview of business strategies, challenges and opportunities that exist in a global business environment. Students will explore the various economic, political, legal, social, and cultural contexts in which international businesses operate. In addition, students will develop a global business strategy, participate in a cross-cultural experience, and complete an in-depth research project on a specific country. BIB 637 - Interpreting Christian Scripture

(3)

An introduction to diverse ways of reading Christian Scripture from ancient to modern, with an emphasis on its theological significance for ministry.

BIB 685 - Bible and Christian Ministry

(3)

This course presents selected topics relating to Biblical interpretation and ministry. May be repeated for a total of six units.

Certificate of Interpretation

BIO 495 - Special Topics - Naturalist Interpretation

(3)

Instruction includes topics specific to how to conduct research for information of a particular location and unique characteristics of that environment and ecosystem.

COM 260 - Advanced Public Speaking

(3)

Development of speaking skills for public and professional arenas, such as business, government, media, education and the ministry. Appropriate presentational technology is examined along with audience analysis and adaptation techniques. (This course will include interpretation presentations at the place of internship.)

HIS 320 - United States History 1800-1914

An analysis of the political leadership of Andrew Jackson and Abraham Lincoln; the ideas of liberalism, nationalism, expansion, and industrialization; the social impact of religious revivals, slavery, and feminism; and the cataclysmic impact of the Mexican, Civil, and Spanish-American wars as the nation hurtled toward world power status after World War I.

HIS 370 - California History

A comprehensive survey of California from prehistory through Spanish exploration, Mexican rule, and evolution as an American state since 1850. Emphasis is placed on comparing myth to reality, new directions in interpretation, and demonstrating how past social, economic, and political events have had an impact on the present.

INT 200 - Learning Methodology

The students will explore what the sciences of cognitive and educational psychology tell us about the process of learning; students will learn how to understand and improve their ability to help others learn new concepts and information. The course will be focused on direct application to the interpretive process. Topics will include the major theories of learning, memory and motivation, our knowledge of how we learn various subjects, learning barriers, demographic differences and differences in individual versus group learning.

INT 201 - Formal Interpretive Communication

Formal Interpretive Communication teaches a variety of oral techniques used to connect the audiences with environmental, historical and natural subject matters. This course will equip students with the ability to communicate interesting and effective messaging to a captive audience. Among this and other concepts, techniques will be shared and developed for how to convey interesting and necessary information concisely through effective written program development. Students will learn how the role of the interpreter includes transforming standard information into an intriguing narrative that will spark meaningful conversation afterward.

INT 202 - Informal Interpretive Communication

(3)

This course teaches students how to interact with small non-captive audiences in groups of various settings. Students are taught the skills to adapt complex information into communicable formats as the situation permits. Amongst the topics that will be covered are the appropriate methods of contextual interpretation, which includes active listening as well as effective, often spontaneous, speaking. Through practice, students will learn that interpretive communication in an informal setting takes patience, approachability, and knowledge, imparted to the audience in a compelling way.

INT 203 - Non-Personal Interpretive Communication

This is a fundamental course in multimedia natural resource interpretive creation. This course will help students stay informed on changing societal trends as well as understand the design elements for signs, exhibits, websites, flyers, posters, book covers, brochures, newsletters, social media and multimedia slide presentations. It will utilize learning methodologies to effectively communicate messaging and attract attention using alternative delivery mediums. Students will learn the techniques needed to write engaging material that is specific to its interpretive medium and format, as well as the audience's needs and parameters, dictated by diverse backgrounds, age groups, and cultures. A background in basic computer skills required.

INT 205 - Interpretive Design

Interpretive Design focuses on the process of creating influential presentations and displays that are message focused, factually accurate and leave lasting impressions with the ability to change and impact visitors. This course will provide an overview of historical preservation, wildlife, art, live plant, animal and building/room design.

INT 206 - Capstone Research/Field Experience

The capstone project is designed to show a comprehensive mastery and application of the concepts and practices presented in the program. The project is designed to meet the requirements and allow students to use their assignment for submission when applying for NAI Heritage Interpreter Certification. The capstone is broken into three sections: planning, interpretation, and presentation. Each section is designed to help the student with the next phase of the project.

The capstone requires experience within an organization that utilizes naturalist interpretation. This can be through full or part time employment or an internship/co-op/special field experience, an investigation of a special topic and/or development of a project, directed readings/study or a research project for an organization. In meeting this requirement, it will be important for students to be able to demonstrate they are getting an "integrated" field experience in natural resources and environmental education.

PSC 103 - Earth Science

An introductory survey of the disciplines of geology, oceanography, meteorology, and astronomy with discussion of philosophical and societal issues.

Prerequisite(s): MTH099 - Elementary Algebra

Child Development

For Adult Degree Completion Child Development program

CDV 310 - Early Childhood Curriculum and Learning Theory

(4)

This course examines early childhood education theories and philosophies. Practice of principles, curriculum, methods, material, and special needs of preschool and child children in first through third grade are discussed. Students gain experience in appropriate lesson plan writing with developmentally appropriate practices. Assessment of typical and non-typical learners as well as designing an emergent literacy plan is included. This course also focuses on meeting social/emotional needs of children and developing social/emotional competencies. A supervised field experience is required.

CDV 313 - Adolescent Development in the Family Context

This course focuses on the developmental changes and challenges of adolescents and their families as they deal with current societal issues, divorce, autonomy, peer relationships, sexuality, parent-adolescent communication, values, teen pregnancy, substance abuse, and adolescents as parents. These major issues affecting adolescents and their families are examined using data from a variety of theoretical, empirical, and clinical viewpoints. Fieldwork is required.

CDV 320 - Development of Children and Adolescents

This course is the study of physical, social, emotional, and intellectual growth in the development of the child, from prenatal months to adolescent years. Practical application is developed through field experience, journaling, and observations. This course also provides students with a comprehensive study of family development. Students will explore family education models including an understanding of diversity among families and childrearing practices. Students will strengthen their ability to meet needs of families by developing a parent education workshop and handbook. This course needs to be passed with a C or better before proceeding with any other course in the program.

CDV 325 - Child and Adolescent Nutrition and Health

This is a comprehensive study of the effect of nutrition on the development of the child, pre-natal through adolescent. This study focuses on nutrition and related health problems. Practical application will be developed through dietary planning and creating lesson plans to teach important nutritional health concepts to different age children.

CDV 355 - Development of Special Needs Children

This course is the study of developmental stages and strategies of guiding children and adolescents with special needs. A wide variety of children's exceptionalities including autism spectrum disorders, giftedness, physical challenges, learning disabilities, and behavior disorders will be covered. This course will examine the role of the adults influencing the child's social, emotional, intellectual, and physical growth. Family system theories and educational methods, environments, and programs are explored as they relate to the special needs child's developmental stages. Observation, field experiences, and visitations to community educational facilities are required.

CDV 403 - Development of Infants and Toddlers

This is an interdisciplinary study of physical, social, emotional, and intellectual development from birth to two years old which will include: exploration of the impact of culture, atypical behavior and development, socialization techniques, interpersonal relationships of infant-toddler and caregivers, suitable environments for health and safety, and legal requirements for infant-toddler care. This course also includes an in-depth study of attachment and focuses on recent research identifying the importance of intellectual development in the first two years of life. Classroom lecture and course readings are supplemented by required observation and field experience.

CDV 460 - Administration and Supervision in Early Childhood Education

This course is the application of basic principles in the guidance of young children, parent education, and staff development. This course focuses on the multidimensional roles of the early childhood program director/administrative styles, management tools and interpersonal skills that contribute to effective and NAYEC standards in this course. The California licensing requirements will be reviewed throughout the course. Visitations and observations of early childhood centers are required.

Prerequisite(s): CDV310

CDV 475 - Internship in Child Development

(1)

This practicum will provide the opportunity for career-related work experience in which students observe and actively participate using their acquired skills and knowledge. Students are under the supervision of a department faculty supervisor and a qualified on-site supervisor.

CDV 485 - Child Development, Family Systems, and Social Change

This course is the study of the development of the child as influenced by the family, school, and community. Emphasis is placed on analyzing the social influences on family systems, child care, schools, divorce, poverty, peer groups, mass media, diverse cultures, and community services on children's development. Visitation of centers and programs for children and adolescents required.

Prerequisite(s): Four (4) Child Development courses must be passed with a C or better prior to registration for this course.

CDV 495 - Capstone Professional Development

(1)

In this capstone, the student will create a professional eportfolio including introduction, professional statements, personal assessments, achievements, community service, practical application, and work samples. Each student will present his or her personal eportfolio to a panel of interested parties for assessment. This capstone gives students the opportunity to develop a professional voice. Available to students in their last semester of program courses.

WRT 301 - Writing for Child Development Professionals

(1)

Experience in reading, writing, and critical thinking centered on essay and research writing for Child Development. Library research and writing the source-based essay are major components of the course. Students will design a research project using the theoretical framework of a theorist studied in CDV320. This course needs to be passed with a C or better before proceeding with any other course in the program.

Clinical Counseling

PCY 103 - General Psychology

(3)

A survey of psychology as an empirical/behavioral science. Topics include biological correlates of behavior, learning, cognition, emotion, motivation, personality, assessment, development, psychopathology, psychotherapy, and social psychology. Letter Grade

Offered As: PSY103

PCY 308 - Developmental Psychology - Birth Through Adolescence

(4)

A systematic study of the physical, cognitive, social, and emotional development of the individual from birth through adolescence.

PCY 321 - Abnormal Psychology

(3)

Study of etiology, assessment, diagnosis, and treatment of various forms of abnormal behavior from various psychological perspectives. Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): One of: PCY 103 , PCY 308 , FCS150 or consent of instructor

PSY 601 - Issues in Psychotherapy - Theology Integration

(3)

This foundational course clarifies key issues in human nature and prepares the student for developing a world-view that is consistent with their theological and spiritual orientation. Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): PSY103 General Psychology, PSY321 Abnormal Psychology, PSY308 Human Development, and PSY601 Issues in Psychotherapy - Theology Integration

PSY 608 - Lifespan Development

(3)

The study of developmental issues and life events from infancy to old age and the effect of age upon cognitive, affective, personality and moral development. Attention is given to cultural, gender, and spiritual influences on development. Letter Grade

PSY 609 - Multicultural Theories and Development

(3)

The study of social and cultural foundations of the behavior of individuals, families, and diverse groups, including contextual factors effecting treatment (poverty, resilience, stress, divorce, family systems, etc.). Exploration of how therapeutic interventions impact culturally distinct populations. Letter Grade

PSY 611 - Professional Ethics and Law

(3)

Professional ethics and laws that apply to the counseling profession are identified and discussed. These include ethical, legal, and biblical standards for conduct, professional organizations, licensure, and developing a plan for lifelong professional and personal development with integrity. Letter Grade

PSY 621 - Psychodiagnostics and Mental Disorder Treatment

(3)

Principles of etiology, diagnosis, treatment, and prevention of mental disorders are explored through the lens of the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM5). Letter Grade

PSY 625 - Counseling Theories and Faith Integration

(3)

Major counseling theories and techniques are examined and applied in the context of the helping relationship. Letter Grade

PSY 626 - Counseling Theories and Faith Integration II

(3)

Continuing exploration of psychological therapies and techniques with emphasis on the adoption of a theoretical orientation for explaining the etiology and treatment of various mental disorders. Letter Grade

PSY 627 - Treatment of Children and Adolescents

(3)

The components of effective child psychotherapy are examined. Emphasis is placed on the process of diagnosis, understanding the systemic nature of child pathology, and evidence based practices for treatment. Letter Grade

PSY 628 - Abuse Assessment and Reporting

(3)

Examines legal, ethical, and clinical aspects of child and elder abuse reporting, such as mandatory methods of identifying victims, prevention and intervention, and treatment techniques. Letter Grade

PSY 629 - Marriage and Family Therapy

(3)

This course is an overview of current family systems theories and intervention techniques. Emphasis is placed on clinical application with case presentations. Letter Grade

PSY 630 - Treatment of Older Adults

(3)

A specialized course for students who wish to work with the rapidly expanding elderly segment of society. Focus is on the application of assessment and intervention techniques for older adults and their families. Letter Grade

PSY 633 - Career Development

(3)

A close look at career development theory, with emphasis on gender, family, and social/cultural issues that impact career choices. Techniques and assessment instruments that facilitate lifelong career development will be utilized. Letter Grade

PSY 645 - Group Counseling

(3)

Theories and techniques of group therapy are studied as well as basic and advanced group interventions. Students learn the stages of group dynamics, the curative factors of group therapy, and various types of group treatment. Letter Grade

PSY 650 - Psychological Testing and Assessment

(3)

This course provides students with the knowledge and skills necessary to administer, score, and interpret several assessment instruments. Students will be familiar with validity, reliability, and psychometric statistics. Letter Grade

PSY 658 - Crisis and Trauma Counseling

(3)

An investigation into the history and development of crisis intervention and trauma response. Develops required skills to effectively intervene and assist victims of tragedy or abuse. Letter Grade

PSY 660 - Human Sexuality

(3)

This course is a study of human sexuality and intimacy. Other areas of emphasis include gender issues, sexual disorders, sexual orientation, and sexual abuse. Letter Grade

PSY 665 - Psychopharmacology

(3)

Examination of commonly prescribed psychopharmacological medications, as well as the identification of their effects and side effects. Letter Grade

PSY 675 - Treatment of Substance Use Disorders

(3)

This course emphasizes evidence-based assessment and intervention skills in the treatment of addictions and compulsive behaviors, as well as co-occurring disorders. All facets of alcohol and substance abuse/dependency will be examined. Letter Grade

PSY 690 - Research Methodology

(3)

This course is an in depth examination of various experimental designs, statistical procedures, conclusions, and limitations of research parameters. Emphasis will be placed on the theoretical and practical applications of research methods of psychotherapy. Letter Grade

PSY 694 - Pre-Practicum

Prior to practicum assignments in various approved counseling centers, hospitals, clinics, and social service agencies, all students are required to be observed as they counsel at least one client at the onsite counseling center. Digital recordings of therapy sessions will be utilized to improve therapeutic skills, promote self-awareness, and an understanding of how people change. Upon approval by the Director of Clinical Training, the student will then enroll in PSY695 Practicum.

Offered summer only. Credit/No Credit.

PSY 695 - Supervised Practicum I

(2)

Supervised therapy experience in applied psychotherapeutic techniques at the Graduate Counseling Clinic or the PLNU Wellness Center. The 100-hour trainee practicum includes a minimum of 50 face to face contact hours (10 of which are group hours) and weekly individual and group supervision. Credit/No Credit

Prerequisite(s): PSY 608 , PSY 611 , PSY 621 , PSY 625 , PSY 645

PSY 696 - Supervised Practicum II

(2)

Supervised therapy experience that provides opportunity for a variety of counseling related activities in an off-campus setting. Off-campus and on-campus supervision will examine the student's ability to assess, diagnose, and treat individuals. The 300-hour practicum includes a minimum of 120 hours of direct, face-to-face service. Credit/No Credit

Prerequisite(s): PSY696

PSY 697 - Supervised Practicum III

(2)

Supervised therapy experience that provides opportunity for a variety of counseling related activities in an off-campus setting. Off-campus and on-campus supervision will examine the student's ability to assess, diagnose, and treat individuals. The 300-hour practicum includes a minimum of 120 hours of direct, face-to-face service. Credit/No Credit

Prerequisite(s): PSY 696

PSY 698A, B, C - Practicum Extension

(0)

Students who complete the three required practicum courses before the end of the program can continue to earn counseling hours toward licensure by staying in practicum status while completing the program. Credit/No Credit

Computer Information Technology

CIT 141 - Intermediate Excel

(1)

This course is an independent study, self-paced, competency based course designed for students who wish to develop a deeper knowledge of MS Excel functionality. The course will expand upon basic spreadsheet functions and introduce topics such as cell validation, advanced cell formatting, conditional functions, goal seek, pivot tables, multi-sheet functions, and other advanced topics. Students will complete knowledge assessment through hands-on simulation labs and online exams. A faculty advisor provides support and accountability in completing the requirements of the course. Although the course is self-paced, a minimum amount of progress must be made each week and all course requirements must be completed within assigned course time.

Prerequisite(s): A working knowledge of MS Excel that includes the use of cell entry, formatting, and use of common functions.

CIT 153 - IT Fundamentals

(3)

This course is an independent study, self-paced, competency based course designed for students who have little to no technical understanding of information technology, yet wish to begin the CIT program. The course will introduce basic technology topics, such as computer hardware, storage devices, computer peripherals, basic networking, setting up and maintaining a computer, installing and configuring software and basic trouble shooting techniques. Students will gain practical knowledge of computer concepts through simulation lab activities. A faculty advisor provides support and accountability in completing the requirements of the course. Although the course is self-paced, a minimum amount of progress must be made each week and all course requirements must be completed within assigned course time. The course aligns with topics covered in CompTIA's IT Fundamentals certification exam. Taught online.

CIT 214 - Introduction to Hardware and Networking

This course is designed to introduce the fundamentals of hardware and networking concepts including hardware components, network protocols, mobile devices and hardware and networking troubleshooting. In addition, students will acquire hands-on experience by working with hardware and networking simulators. The course aligns with topics covered in CompTIA's A+ 901 certification exam.

Prerequisite(s): CIT 153 or equivalent academic or work experience.

CIT 224 - Introduction to Operating Systems and Security

(4)

This course is designed to introduce the fundamentals of operating systems and security concepts including extensive topics in the Windows operating system, other operating systems, system security, software troubleshooting, and operational procedures. In addition, students will acquire hands-on experience by working with networking and security simulators. The course aligns with topics covered in CompTIA's A+ 902 certification exam.

Prerequisite(s): CIT 153 or equivalent academic or work experience.

CIT 261 - IT Fundamentals Exam Prep

This course is an independent study, self-paced, competency based course designed for students who wish to prepare for the CompTIA's IT Fundamentals certification exam. The course is intended for students who have already completed the CIT 153 course or have equivalent academic or work experience. Students will be required to complete a predetermined number of practice certification exams, assess knowledge domain deficiencies, and focus on acquiring the requisite knowledge to pass the certification exam. A faculty advisor provides support and accountability in completing the requirements of the course. Although the course is self-paced, a minimum amount of progress must be made each week and all course requirements must be completed within the assigned course time. Attempting the certification exam within the assigned course time is also required. Although passing the certification exam is not required to pass this course, the results of the certification exam will be used to determine the final grade in the course. Students already holding a current certification for this course are not eligible to take this course.

Prerequisite(s): CIT 153 or equivalent academic or work experience

CIT 311 - A+ Exam Prep

(1)

This course is an independent study, self-paced, competency based course designed for students who wish to prepare for the CompTIA's A+ certification exams (part 901 and 902). The course is intended for students who have already completed the CIT 214 and CIT 224 courses. Students will be required to complete a predetermined number of practice certification exams, assess knowledge domain deficiencies, and focus on acquiring the requisite knowledge domains to pass the certification exams. A faculty advisor provides support and accountability in completing the requirements of the course. Although the course is self-paced, a minimum amount of progress must be made each week and all course requirements must be completed within the assigned course time. Attempting the certification exams within the assigned course time is also required. Although passing the certification exams are not required to pass this course, the results of the certification exams will be used to determine the final grade in the course. Students already holding a current certification for this course are not eligible to take this course.

Prerequisite(s): CIT 214 and CIT 224

CIT 314 - Networking

(4)

This course is designed to provide an in-depth understanding to a wide range of network architectures and configuration options. The course explores the concepts of physical and virtual network design options and network administration requirements. The course will cover the topics of wired and wireless networking, network optimization and management, virtual local area networks, network types, network hardware and software and networking standards. In addition, students will acquire hands-on experience by working with networking and security simulators. This course aligns with topics covered in the CompTIA's Network+ certification exam.

Prerequisite(s): CIT 214

(1)

This course is an independent study, self-paced, competency based course designed for students who wish to prepare for the CompTIA's Network+ certification exam. The course is intended for students who have already completed the CIT 314 course. Students will be required to complete a predetermined number of practice certification exams, assess knowledge domain deficiencies, and focus on acquiring the requisite knowledge domains to pass the certification exams. A faculty advisor provides support and accountability in completing the requirements of the course. Although the course is self-paced, a minimum amount of progress must be made each week and all course requirements must be completed within the assigned course time. Attempting the certification exam within the assigned course time is also required. Although passing the certification exam is not required to pass this course, the results of the certification exams will be used to determine the final grade in the course. Students already holding a current certification for this course are not eligible to take this course.

Prerequisite(s): CIT 314

CIT 324 - Security and Information Assurance

(4)

This course is designed to provide an in-depth understanding to the concepts of data and network security. Other topics include access control, authentication, authorization, data security and integrity, encryption, recovery, and business continuity. Students will gain hands-on experience with firewalls, network security, application security, email security, and tools for securing, monitoring and auditing the IT network and systems environments through system security simulators. This course aligns with topics covered in the CompTIA's Security+ certification exam.

Prerequisite(s): CIT 224

(1)

This course is an independent study, self-paced, competency based course designed for students who wish to prepare for the CompTIA's Security+ certification exam. The course is intended for students who have already completed the CIT 324 course. Students will be required to complete a predetermined number of practice certification exams, assess knowledge domain deficiencies, and focus on acquiring the requisite knowledge domains to pass the certification exams. A faculty advisor provides support and accountability in completing the requirements of the course. Although the course is self-paced, a minimum amount of progress must be made each week and all course requirements must be completed within the assigned course time. Attempting the certification exam within the assigned course time is also required. Although passing the certification exam is not required to pass this course, the results of the certification exams will be used to determine the final grade in the course. Students already holding a current certification for this course are not eligible to take this course.

Prerequisite(s): CIT 324 or equivalent academic or work experience

CIT 334 - Project Management

(4)

This course is designed to provide the fundamentals of project management with an emphasis on managing unique challenges of information technology (IT) projects. Students will be introduced to the IT project management process using industry accepted methodologies. Extensive case related work will be used to help students understand the important aspects of time, performance, cost, and risk estimation in relation to the unique conditions often present in IT projects. Each of the critical phases of the IT project management process will be reviewed in detail using practical examples from the IT industry. Students are also introduced to computer-based project management software such as MS Project. This course aligns with topics covered in the CompTIA's Project+ certification exam and the PMI's CAPM certification exam.

Prerequisite(s): CIT 214 and CIT 224

(1)

This course is an independent study, self-paced, competency based course designed for students who wish to prepare for the CompTIA's Project+ certification exam. The course is intended for students who have already completed the CIT 334 course. Students will be required to complete a predetermined number of practice certification exams, assess knowledge domain deficiencies, and focus on acquiring the requisite knowledge domains to pass the certification exams. A faculty advisor provides support and accountability in completing the requirements of the course. Although the course is self-paced, a minimum amount of progress must be made each week and all course requirements must be completed within the assigned course time. Attempting the certification exam within the assigned course time is also required. Although passing the certification exam is not required to pass this course, the results of the certification exams will be used to determine the final grade in the course. Students already holding a current certification for this course are not eligible to take this course.

Prerequisite(s): CIT 334 or equivalent academic or work experience

CIT 354 - Database Design

(4)

This course is designed to provide an in-depth, hands-on introduction to designing and implementing databases that use relational technologies with a significant market presence. Hands-on assignments using an industry standard DBMS, such as MS SQL, MySQL, or Oracle Server will receive significant coverage in the course. SQL and various vendor extensions to the language will be covered. In addition, some advanced topics such as stored procedures and triggers will be covered.

Prerequisite(s): CIT 214 and CIT 224

CIT 364 - Web Design and Scripting

(4)

This course is designed to provide in-depth, hands-on instruction in designing and scripting Web sites using HTML5 and CSS3 standards. Techniques in page layout and graphic design will be introduced. Assignments will focus on hands-on use of modern web development practices using integrated development environments. In addition, the course will introduce popular website development and content management tools such as WordPress to show alternative development approaches to HTML5 and CCS3. Letter Grade

Prerequisite(s): CIT 153 or equivalent academic or work experience

CIT 414 - Web Programming

(4)

This course is designed to provide a practical approach to web development using either server side or client side scripting languages, such as PHP, ASP or JavaScript. This course teaches the core language and implementation of webpage based scripting. Students will learn the web programming language and practices through many hands-on assignments in developing web based applications. The integration of databases, such as MySQL or MS SQL will provide additional depth of knowledge. In addition the course will introduce other forms of modern web based protocols, such as XML, JSON and SOAP.

Prerequisite(s): CIT 354

CIT 424 - Visual Programming

(4)

This course is designed to provide a practical approach to event based visual programming using modern-general purpose programming languages, such as C#, Java, Python or Visual Basic. This course teaches the core concepts of programming, such as proper variable usage, decision structures, iterative structures, common data structures, and proper programming logic. Students will learn the programming language through many hands-on assignments in developing event based and visual computer applications. The integration of databases, such as MySQL or MS SQL will provide additional depth of knowledge. In addition the course will introduce object oriented programming techniques and the use of complex data structures.

Prerequisite(s): CIT 354

CIT 434 - Management of Information Systems

(4)

This course is designed to provide in-depth review of modern information systems management strategies and approaches. Topics in the course include management of operational strategy, server and network management practices, data reporting systems, social media management, business and IT strategic alignment, and disaster recovery. A review of incident cases will provide students with an understanding of how the course concepts can be applied in real world situations.

Prerequisite(s): CIT 214 and CIT 224

CIT 471 - Information Technology Practicum

(1-4)

This course is a supervised experience in which the student works with industry professionals to gain experience with managing information systems. The course may be taken for 1 to 4 units based on the number of engagement hours in the practicum. This course may be repeated to a total of four (4) units. Credit/No Credit

Prerequisite(s): Student has completed at least 16 credit hours in CIT course or related academic field and permission from the faculty advisor

CIT 481 - Information Technology Project

(1)

This course is a study of a selected problem or topic in Information Technology under the direction of a faculty advisor. The faculty advisor and student propose the research topic and course deliverables. Approval by the program director or department chair is required. May be repeated for up to two (2) units of credit. Credit/No Credit

Prerequisite(s): Student has completed at least 16 credit hours in CIT courses or related academic field and has permission from the faculty advisor.

Criminal Justice

SCJ 300 - Justice In a Complex Society

(4)

An introduction to and comparative examination of the components of the justice process dealing with delinquent and criminal behavior. Examines criminally deviant behavior in a complex society.

SCJ 310 - Criminology

(4)

The study of crime and criminal behavior, the role of law, efforts at prevention and control.

Prerequisite(s): Introduction to Sociology or equivalent course

SCJ 350A-D - Writing and Interviewing in the Criminal Justice Profession

(1) unit per semester for a total of (4) units

A series of four one-unit skills course segments designed to develop essential skills and competencies required for daily performance of duties in various criminal justice careers. Incorporates basic concepts for collecting and documenting evidence and procedures. A series of competency based-courses for report writing, interviewing, and communication skills.

SCJ350A focus is writing

SCJ350B focus is evidentiary and motivational interviewing

SCJ350C focus is internal communication

SCJ350D focus is communication and interaction with media, courts, and community.

SCJ 395 - Research Methods for Criminal Justice

(4)

Introduces major concepts of social research, provides skills to understand research results; awareness of influence of social and legal parameters of ethical research; opportunity to do analysis and apply research in the criminal justice arenas, identify research strategies to promote social/economic justice. Helps prepare students for capstone course.

Prerequisite(s): Statistics

SCJ 409 - Criminal Law II

(4)

Foundations for understanding the historical development, philosophy of law and constitutional provisions, social forces and application to the administration of justice; study of events and trends relating to law. Explore underlying theoretical issues and examine crimes against persons, habitation, property and public order, and morals.

Prerequisite(s): SCJ320 or consent of instructor

SCJ 410 - Constitutional Foundations

(4)

Examination of the federal constitutional provisions which impact the criminal justice system with an emphasis on the amendments in the Bill of Rights and law enforcement; the rights to due process and the assistance of counsel; penalties and constraints on the correctional system and the influences of a broader society.

SCJ 450 - Restorative Justice and Victimology

(4)

This course will provide a critical introduction to the fundamental principles and practices of restorative justice. The course explores the needs and roles of key "stakeholders" (victims, offenders, communities, justice systems), outlines the basic principles and values of restorative justice, and introduces some of the primary models of practice. It also addresses challenges to restorative justice - the dangers, the pitfalls - as well as possible strategies to help prevent restorative justice and victimology from theoretical, demographic, legal, and faith perspectives. The course builds an understanding of the relationships between restorative justice and victims, offenders, the criminal justice system. The emotional effects of crime and reconciliation will also be examined.

Prerequisite(s): Social Problems or equivalent course, or consent of instructor

SCJ 472 - Internship in Criminal Justice

(2)

The field experience provides students the opportunity to increase their professional competence through direct, supervised practice experiences in the community setting. As part of the capstone experience, it is a time of integration, of learning about the commonality of practice in spite of the diversity of settings. SCJ472 is to be completed concurrently with SCJ 476 Seminar as a capstone experience of application and professional integration.

Concurrent: SCJ 476

SCJ 476 - Seminar for Criminal Justice

(2)

As part of a capstone experience, this course draws on material learned in other courses, provides opportunity to integrate academic learning with personal and professional internship experiences. To be completed concurrently with 2-unit SCJ 472 Internship.

Concurrent: SCJ 472

SCL 300 - Career Development

(1)

This course explores how to reflect on personality preferences, interests, and values to intentionally pursue a fulfilling career. Students will engage in industry research to explore different fields of interest and set professional goals.

Students will be provided with an opportunity to build strategic marketing tools and begin networking for greater job search and career success.

General Biology

BIO 601 - Graduate Internship in Biology

(1-6)

This course is an elective option allowing students to gain research/ lab experience through internships at a variety of local businesses/organizations. The course may be repeated up to a total of six units. Credit/No Credit

BIO 611 - Science Education Seminar

(3)

This course involves discussion and integration of seminal papers in the area of science education with particular attention given to biology education. Predominantly on-line course delivery.

BIO 633 - History/Philosophy of Science

(3)

This course involves discussion of seminal works in the history and philosophy of science as a way of thinking. From this perspective, the course explores current interest in the nature of science as an integral part of the study of science. Predominantly on-line course delivery.

BIO 643 - Research Design in Science Education

(3)

This course promotes understanding of both qualitative and quantitative research design in science education, with a focus on current trends in the field. Predominantly on-line course delivery.

BIO 660 - Microbiology and Immunology

(3)

Concepts in microbiology, including the diversity and ecology of microscopic organisms, and in immunology, focusing on cellular and molecular regulation of the immune system in health and disease, are addressed from the perspective of teaching for conceptual understanding. Lecture and lab.

BIO 661 - Ecology of Plants and Animals

(3)

Concepts related to complex ecological systems with special emphasis on the interactions between plants and animals are addressed from the perspective of teaching for conceptual understanding. Lecture and field-oriented lab.

BIO 662 - Genetics and Molecular Biology

(3)

Concepts in genetics and molecular biology, including inheritance, organization, variability and expression of genes, with emphasis on the regulatory mechanisms that govern gene expression in eukaryotic and prokaryotic cells, are addressed from the perspective of teaching for conceptual understanding. Lecture and lab.

BIO 663 - Cell Biology

(3)

Concepts in cell biology, including the chemical basis of life, the structure and function of organelles, basic metabolic pathways, models for the origin of cells are addressed from the perspective of teaching for conceptual understanding. Lecture and lab.

BIO 664 - Developmental Biology

(3)

Concepts emerging from the union of the two disciplines of evolution and development that help us better understand both the process of development and of the diversity of life forms are central to this course. Emphasis will be placed on the concepts of modularity, developmental master control genes (toolkit genes) and genetic switches that are the keys to explaining how the diversity within the body plans of animals develop. These topics will be addressed from the perspective of teaching for conceptual understanding. Lecture and lab.

BIO 665 - Physiology of Plants and Animals

(3)

Concepts related to the physiological mechanisms that contribute to homeostasis in both plants and animals are addressed from the perspective of teaching for conceptual understanding. Lecture and lab.

BIO 667 - Marine Biology

(3)

Concepts in marine biology, including the ecology, function, and adaptations of marine organisms, are addressed from the perspective of teaching for conceptual understanding. Lecture and field-oriented lab

BIO 668 - Evolutionary Biology

(3)

The concept of evolution is viewed as the central theme unifying all of biology. In this course evolutionary processes will be discussed in their genetic, historical, religious, and ecological contexts. Topics covered include the agents of evolution, speciation, population genetics, and macroevolutionary trends in evolution. These topics will be addressed from the perspective of teaching for conceptual understanding. Lecture and lab.

BIO 682 - Research Proposal and Pilot Study

(1)

Students identify a research problem in biology education, then prepare a brief literature review and research design, followed by carrying out a pilot study with abbreviated analysis. Predominantly on-line course delivery.

BIO 683 (A,C,C,D,E,F) - Thesis

(1-6)

Students write a thorough literature review and bibliography related to their chosen biology education problem, then design, carry out, and analyze the results of their original research, draw conclusions, and propose implications of their findings. This process culminates with the completion of the student's written thesis, as well as a public presentation of the research. Students register for each thesis unit (683 a through f) in sequence (a through f) corresponding to the 6 units necessary to complete the thesis requirement. Students may register for as many as three thesis units in a single semester (i.e., 683a, 683b, and 683c) or as few as one unit. At the end of each semester a grade of Credit/No Credit is issued reflecting the student's satisfactory progress toward thesis completion. If in the final semester (BIO 683f) of thesis enrollment the student has not completed all requirements for the thesis, the student is automatically enrolled in thesis extension status for each subsequent semester until the thesis is completed. Credit/No Credit. A thesis extension fee is charged (see fee schedule) for each semester of thesis extension.

BIO 684 - Comprehensive Examination in General Biology

This exam is required for general biology students to complete their graduation requirements if the thesis option is not chosen. Credit/No Credit

BIO 690 - Special Studies in Biology

(1-3)

Selected studies in the area of biology as determined by the Department of Biology. Permission is required from the Chair of the Department of Biology and the course faculty. The student must be in good academic standing. Students may repeat the course for credit up to a maximum of 6 units. The repeated offering must cover different content.

BIO 692 - Perspectives on Science

(1,1)

Perspectives on Science is a monthly seminar series with speakers from research institutions and universities which address current research in their fields, including chemistry, biology, physics, astronomy, and geology. This course is designed to promote translation of these lectures to the science classroom, especially to the biology classroom. May be repeated up to three times for a total of six units. Credit/No Credit

Kinesiology

KIN 600 - Foundations in Kinesiology

(3)

This course provides an overview of the theory and applications in Kinesiology with specific emphasis on the exercise and sport sciences. Leadership, professionalism, and engagement in these disciplines from a Christian approach will be emphasized. Students will engage with the concept of incorporating exercise as preventive medicine. The course will also include an exploration and overview of laboratory procedures in each discipline and facilities tour (i.e. EMG, ultrasound, metabolic cart, movement screening, exercise testing). Students will formulate an initial research or capstone project idea as part of the MS degree, interfacing with program faculty and the university library to initially form and develop their research question or capstone project.

KIN 605 - Research Methods

(3)

This course is an introduction to research methods to acquaint the student with analyzing the professional literature. The course will explore both quantitative and qualitative research methods, including descriptive and inferential statistics. Topics will include: 1) selected techniques and designs used in research, with special emphasis given to planning, conducting, and reporting of research; and 2) applied statistical analysis and interpretation of data from the field of exercise and sport science. Students will produce an original pilot research project proposal including preliminary statistical design.

Students in the Sport Management concentration may substitute a BUS course for this core requirement (up to 6 units total may be substituted).*

KIN 610 - Evidence-Based Practice and Decision Making in Kinesiology

(3)

This course will enable students to practice the judicious use of current best evidence in making decisions about the care of individual patients and clients. Students will learn to integrate the best external evidence with their clinical expertise and patient concerns to: ask a focused question to satisfy the health needs of a specific patient; find the best evidence by searching the literature; critically appraise the literature; apply the results in clinical practice; and evaluate the outcomes in patients. This course is offered online.

KIN 611 - Managing Personnel, Facilities, and Events in Sports

(3)

This course will prepare sport professionals to plan athletic and fitness events, manage the personnel and facilities associated with these events and facilities, and design effective fitness and exercise programming. Students will be exposed to industry leading sport and fitness facilities and trends throughout the southern California region through periodical visits to these facilities. Contemporary issues in entrepreneurship in the sport and fitness industries will be addressed.

KIN 615 - Biomechanical and Neurological Basis of Human Movement

(3)

Students will explore advanced concepts in biomechanics and motor control (neuromechanics). Topics will include muscle/tendon function and architecture, motion analysis, sensorimotor system architecture, reflex pathways and excitability, and postural control. A combination of lectures, group work, demonstrations, laboratory experiences and prescribed readings will be used within the course.

KIN 617 - Lifestyle Medicine and Integrative Health

This course provides an overview of paradigm shifts in the field of healthcare, highlighting an increasingly integrative approach to medicine centered on treating the whole person- body, mind and spirit. Students will explore evidence-informed conventional, complementary and alternative approaches to health care, and examine lifestyle interventions in areas such as stress management, nutrition, sleep hygiene and physical activity in order to provide a multidimensional approach to optimal health and well-being.

KIN 620 - Marketing, Promotion and Public Relations in Sport

(3)

Students will explore and develop promotional and marketing strategies involved in the spectrum of the sport and fitness industries. Students will be equipped for the high school, collegiate and professional sport settings as well as personal, group, and comprehensive fitness facilities that promote a holistic approach to wellness.

KIN 625 - Special Topics in Exercise and Sports Science

(3)

The topics of this course will alternate based on faculty expertise and student interest. Each topic will provide students with a unique opportunity to gain certification or advanced specialization in an area of their choosing. Topics may include: Applied Function and Corrective Exercise; Exercise as Preventive Medicine; Movement Interventions for Aging, Disease Prevention and Health promotion; and Electrocardiography and Interpretation.

KIN 626 - Sport and Exercise Nutrition for Peak Performance

(3)

Students in the fitness and sport performance professions will learn the science of nutrition, including cellular biology, digestion, and metabolism of macronutrients and micronutrients, as well as the practical applications of coaching individual clients in nutrition to enhance performance.

KIN 627 - Behavior Change Models, Methods and Theories

(3)

This course examines widely accepted theories, models and methods for facilitating health behavior change. Topics include, but are not limited to, the transtheoretical model of behavioral change, self-determination theory, positive psychology, and motivational interviewing.

KIN 630 - Leadership in Sports

(3)

Both historical and contemporary aspects of leadership theory will be applied to various aspects of the sport industry, including post-secondary education, athletics administration, and the rapidly-growing business of sport.

KIN 635 - Advanced Practice in Movement Interventions and Corrective Exercise

(3)

This course will provide the fitness professional with in-depth expertise in various movement interventions to improve function, eliminate pain and enhance performance. Emphasis will be placed on designing individualized strength training and corrective exercise programs, and utilizing movement screening during functional interventions.

KIN 636 - Clinical Exercise Testing and Interpretation

(3)

This course emphasizes advanced study of the theoretical basis for exercise testing and practical procedures involved with pre-exercise screening and exercise testing. The course prepares students to utilize scientific rationale to design, implement and supervise exercise programming for those with chronic diseases, conditions and/or physical dysfunctions beyond cardiovascular and pulmonary disease. Students will interpret information from screening and will apply this to appropriate exercise intervention protocols. Students will be prepared to pursue certification as an ACSM Registered Clinical Exercise Physiologist. Note: 600 hours of preceptor-supervised clinical experience are also required for ACSM certification.

KIN 637 - Exercise and Nutrition for Health and Healing

(3)

This course evaluates the critical role that physical activity, exercise, and nutrition play in preventing and treating chronic diseases. Students will examine current research, established guidelines and best practices in order to design and deliver comprehensive lifestyle interventions that optimize health, healing, and well-being. Topics include integrative nutrition, functional fitness and mind-body interventions.

KIN 638 - Clinical Exercise Physiology

(3)

This course provides a detailed analysis of the effects of exercise on the organ systems of the body. Lecture and laboratory experiences will be related to apparently healthy populations as well as those with obesity, diabetes and metabolic syndrome. Letter Grade

KIN 640 - Finance and Economics of Sports

(3)

This course will provide students with an introduction and relevant application of the economic principles that influence athletic, sport and fitness organizations. Students will discuss and implement budgeting, financial statements, economic impact analysis and other related topics.

KIN 645 - Loaded Movement Training

(3)

This course explores methodology of Loaded Movement Training (LMT). Students will explore how the body adapts to LMT from a neuro, technical, and metabolic perspective and justify the use of LMT in an exercise program. Students will gain knowledge on how to design exercise workouts and programs using Loaded Movement Training for Sport Performance. eee

KIN 646 - Clinical Exercise Physiology and Metabolism

(3)

This course provides an advanced understanding of the clinical effects and physiologic adaptations of the human body to exercise interventions. The effects of exercise on the organ systems of the body will be explored through lecture and laboratory experiences with an emphasis toward combatting obesity, diabetes, and metabolic syndrome. The clinical application of current research will occur in lab settings.

KIN 647 - Integrative Health and Wellness Coaching

(3)

In this course, students will apply evidence-based behavior change strategies and effective communication techniques to facilitate client-centered coaching interventions. Emphasis will be placed on the development and refinement of practical coaching skills in order to empower clients to make meaningful and sustainable lifestyle changes. This course will also survey the current landscape and future opportunities within the evolving field of health and wellness coaching in order to prepare students for work in a variety of settings.

KIN 650 - Research Project Seminar in Kinesiology

This course provides students with guidance in the research process to deepen knowledge in an area of their professional interest. Students will complete and present an original research project including preliminary statistical design, data collection, data analysis, and presentation of results.

KIN 651 - Seminar in Kinesiology

This course will engage students in relevant Kinesiology issues in order to solve current problems and lead future initiatives. Industry experts will be invited to present on a broad range of topics including sport and fitness entrepreneurship, faithful leadership, media and public relations, sport and fitness technology, corporate wellness, behavior change and other topics of interest to students.

KIN 656 - Clinical Exercise Prescription

(3)

This course prepares students to utilize scientific rationale to design, implement and supervise exercise programming for patients with chronic diseases, conditions and/or physical dysfunctions of the cardiovascular, pulmonary, metabolic, musculoskeletal, neuromuscular, and immunologic systems. Students will interpret information from pre-exercise screening and exercise testing and will apply this information to appropriate exercise intervention protocols. Students will be prepared to pursue certification as an ACSM Registered Clinical Exercise Physiologist. Note: 600 hours of preceptor-supervised clinical experience are also required for ACSM certification.

Prerequisite(s): KIN 636 or consent of instructor

KIN 657 - Wellness Entrepreneurship

(3)

This course provides health and wellness professionals with a practical framework for entrepreneurship, emphasizing key principles for business success. Students will develop and apply entrepreneurial knowledge and skills necessary to make informed professional decisions regarding starting a new entrepreneurial opportunity, joining an entrepreneurial endeavor, acquiring an established business or creating a new venture within an existing organization.

KIN 660 - Directed Readings

(1)

This course provides advanced study in the essential research of a specific discipline in Kinesiology. Fundamental skills in reading and evaluating research will be acquired, including examining research paradigms, critically appraising study design and findings, and determining the practical relevance of the results. This course may be repeated for up to 2 units of credit.

Prerequisite(s): KIN 605 , KIN 610 or equivalent.

KIN 667 - Disruptive Health Technologies

(3)

This course evaluates effective uses of disruptive health technologies within the health and wellness industries to support long-term behavior change and improved well-being. Students will examine the science, design and real world application of these innovative technologies as an affordable and practical tool to deliver lifestyle interventions aimed at preventing and managing chronic disease.

KIN 675 - Gross Anatomy of the Musculoskeletal System

(3)

This course provides students with an intensive four-week experience in anatomical cadaver dissection and the application of structure to kinesiological function. The primary purpose of this course is to provide clinicians with a solid anatomical basis for understanding normal and abnormal function of the musculoskeletal system. This information is essential for the development of effective treatment interventions.

There is an additional fee of $250 to supplement cadaver dissection associated with this course.

Prerequisite(s): Human Anatomy and Physiology or consent of Instructor.

KIN 687 - Mind-Body Medicine

(3)

This course explores the dynamic interplay between mind, body, and behavior. Students will examine how emotional, mental, social, and spiritual factors affect health and well-being. Emphasis will be placed on evaluating mindfulness practices and integrative approaches to increase self-awareness, enhance self-care, and cultivate resilience in both patients and wellness professionals.

KIN 688 - Internship or Practicum in Kinesiology

(1-3)

The Internship or Practicum experience provides the student with practical knowledge and direct and relevant experience in their chosen discipline. Students may arrange the site(s) of internship or may inquire with their faculty advisor about opportunities in the San Diego region. Students can repeat KIN 688 and are required to complete 3 units total.

Prerequisite(s): Consent of Instructor.

KIN 695 - Comprehensive Examination

(0)

The comprehensive examination tests mastery of applied and theoretical concepts appropriate for the Master of Science degree. Exams consist of a one-day written exam (4-6 hours). $150

Prerequisite(s): Consent of Instructor.

KIN 698 - Capstone Project

(3)

This course provides an extended experience for the student to produce a final project on a specific topic of professional interest. Under the direction of a faculty advisor and thesis committee, and after completing KIN 600 and KIN 605, the student will conduct further data and will advance through the preparation and defense of a capstone project. This course aims to enable graduate students to gather and/or analyze data to advance their field and professional standing. The qualified student will have previously defended a project proposal successfully in KIN 605 .

Prerequisite(s): KIN 605 or equivalent, and consent of Program Director.

KIN 699 - Thesis

(3)

This course provides an extended research experience for the student in a specific topic of professional interest. Under the direction of a faculty advisor and thesis committee, and after completing KIN 600 and KIN 605 , the student will conduct further empirical research and will advance through the preparation and defense of a thesis or capstone project. Course Aim: This course aims to enable graduate students to conduct original research to advance their field and professional standing. The qualified student will have previously defended a thesis proposal successfully in KIN 605 .

Prerequisite(s): KIN 605 or equivalent, KIN 650 , KIN 660 and consent of Program Director.

(4)

This course reflects PLNU's commitment, as a Christian liberal arts college, to nurturing an appreciation for Scripture as the basis for creative personal faith and human life in the modern world. It is designed to foster knowledge and understanding of the literature and history of the Bible and to integrate faith, learning, and living from a Wesleyan perspective.

Offered As: BST304B, BST304C, BST304J, BST304M, BST304N

MRD 300 - Business and Professional Writing

(1)

This course will focus on preparing students on how to analyze and produce typical office documents, such as letters, memoranda, presentations, proposals, and reports. Through individual projects, students will develop purpose-driven messages that reflect the needs of professional audiences. It is designed to help strengthen skills of effective business and professional communication in both oral and written modes. After successful completion of this course, students will be better prepared to communicate effectively in a variety of professional situations.

MRD 301 - Personal Leadership Development

(4)

The course will focus on strengthening the student's analytical tools, management insights, and interpersonal skills while preparing them to build effective teams, resolve strategic problems, and drive change through the organization. This course will help students to refine a set of personal leadership skills to solve problems independently and to lead with confidence while sharpening analytical skills, improving self-awareness, how and why they react, how they are perceived as leaders, and a fresh and informed perspective on what they need to change in order to accomplish their individual leadership objectives.

MRD 302 - Group and Organizational Behavior

This course focuses on human behavior in organizations, emphasizing theoretical concepts and practical methods for understanding, analyzing, and predicting individual, group, and organizational behavior. Topics include work motivation, group dynamics, decision making, and organizational culture. Students will be introduced to behavior in organizations on interpersonal, group and inter-group levels. Group process is examined on concept and experiential levels to enhance understanding of interpersonal and group processes. Theories of Social Psychology and Group Psychology are reviewed and applied to current situations in the business environment.

MRD 303 - Effective Interpersonal Relations

This course examines communication and interpersonal relations within a productive work environment. Effectiveness in personal and social relationships is also covered through readings and exercise reviewing nonverbal communication, constructive feedback, dealing with and anger and resolving conflict. Students will develop a plan for effective relationships.

MRD 320 - Capstone Research - Planning

The Capstone course is a research project designed by the student, approved and completed under the supervision and guidance of the professor. The purpose of the Capstone is to create an opportunity for the bachelor degree candidate to focus on a specific area unique to the student's industry and career path. The Capstone is broken into three sections: planning, interpretation, and presentation. Each section is designed to help the student with the next phase of the project.

This section focuses on planning and creating a research topic by identifying a problem or topic that is relevant, reviewing prior research, and determining the research purpose, questions or hypotheses. Students will discover how to determine the relevancy of a topic, how to research previous studies and how to formulate the research questions to ensure the findings are constructed of clean good data.

MRD 402 - Resource Management

(4)

This course examines the role of managers in relation to understanding and managing the resources under their control including fiscal resources, human resources, production resources, and marketing resources. This course focuses on a practical approach to understanding fiscal statements, forecasting, planning, budgets, inventory, employee retention, hiring, and understanding marketing efforts and the true cost of customers and lead generation. This course has a special ethical and biblical emphasis regarding stewardship and handling all resources with care and respect.

MRD 403 - Managing with Personal and Professional Ethics

In this culminating course students will formulate a philosophy of life, providing a foundation for such concerns as ethics in business, respect for human rights, and a responsible lifestyle in the contemporary world. Ethical theories and personal values are examined through readings, analysis of the workplace, and classroom discussion.

MRD 404 - Principles of Management

(4)

In this culminating course students examine motivational theory and its application to individual and group functioning in work and home situations. Leadership styles related to profit and non-profit organizations are analyzed. The concept of negotiation is reviewed through readings and class activities with an analysis of the effect on productivity.

MRD 420 - Capstone Research - Interpretation and Evaluation

The Capstone course is a research project designed by the student, approved and completed under the supervision and guidance of the professor. The purpose of the Capstone is to create an opportunity for the bachelor degree candidate to focus on a specific area unique to the student's industry and career path. The Capstone is broken into three sections: planning, interpretation, and presentation. Each section is designed to help the student with the next phase of the project.

This course will focus both on cognitive skills (knowledge of the theories and strategies) and behavioral skills (enacting various strategies). The course also includes assessment tools whereby students can gain a greater understanding of their usual strategy along with its strengths and weaknesses. Critical thinking skills must be applied in the course. A mark of a leader is the ability to know when to go against prevailing thinking. So, while various 'lists' may be introduced during the course, students are expected to challenge those lists and ascertain what is valuable in them and what is not. The course is not designed to resolve all conflicts. Using real life case studies, this course explores the theories, practices and issues involved in managing conflict in interpersonal and intergroup settings. Also discussed are methods available to leaders to use conflict to advance their organization. Psychometric instrument used in this course: Thomas-Kilmann Conflict Mode Instrument.

MRD 424 - Capstone Research - Presentation and Reporting

This culminating course provides learners with an opportunity to explore a leadership topic of particular interest to the student and develop a researched paper on the topic. The paper must include the gathering of information on the topic and an analysis of how that information adds to the field of leadership studies. The instructor must approve topics and the instructor will monitor progress toward the completion of the topic.

This course will focus on the presentation of the work done by the students to the rest of the class and interested observers.

SCL 302 - Group and Organizational Behavior

(3)

This course focuses on human behavior in organizations, emphasizing theoretical concepts and practical methods for understanding, and analyzing individual, group, and organizational behavior. Topics include work motivation, group dynamics, decision making, and organizational culture. Students will be introduced to behavior in group and inter-group levels. Group process is examined on concept and experiential levels to enhance understanding of group processes.

SCL 401 - Cultural Influences in the Work Place

(4)

This course examines the increasingly diverse workplace and the need to expand our understanding of cultural influences on values, behaviors and forms of communication. It is an opportunity to recognize our own cultural influences in the workplace, situations that result from cross-cultural miscommunication or misunderstanding, and developing strategies to ensure cross cultural competency. Rather than a course on political correctness, students will build their cultural competence through the application of Christian virtues that inform acceptance and love in a world of segregation and intolerance.

Philosophy

PHL 611 - Christian Ethics

(3)

This course studies major Christian ethical theories and view of the moral life. It also examines contemporary moral issues such as justice, war, peace, work, and family

EDU 6CP1 - Clinical Practice Seminar I

(1)

This seminar course supports the Clinical Practice I experience through classroom inquiry and reflection on the general education curriculum and California standards, including the principles of effective classroom management, teaching methods, differentiation of instruction, lesson planning and delivery, and parent communication. Emphasis is placed on the modification of lessons and instructional support of English learners, diverse learners, and learners with exceptionalities. Candidates explore school and community demographics and consider methods for teaching diverse populations. A TPA Assessment fee is attached to this course. All candidates who are preparing for their first preliminary credential must enroll in EDU6CP1 during their first clinical practice placement and EDU 6CP2 during the second placement.

Corequisite(s): EDU 630

EDU 6CP2 - Clinical Practice Seminar II

(1)

This seminar course supports the Clinical Practice II experience through additional classroom inquiry and reflection on appropriate instructional strategies for learners with disabilities, the principles of effective classroom management, teaching methods, differentiation of instruction, lesson planning and delivery, and parent communication. Emphasis is placed on the modification of lessons and instructional support of English learners, diverse learners, and learners with exceptionalities. Candidates continue to explore school and community demographics and consider methods for teaching diverse populations.

Corequisite(s): EDU 634

EDU 600 - Foundations of Education and Learning Theory

(3)

This survey course provides an overview of the major laws and principles regarding the historical and contemporary purposes, roles, and functions of education in American society as well as an overview of the major concepts, theories, and research related to the cognitive, linguistic, social, emotional, and physical development of children and adolescents. Wesleyan perspectives in education are introduced.

EDU 601 - Language Acquisition and Diverse Populations

(3)

This theory course focuses on the principles of language acquisition and effective instructional practices for English learners. It further examines the pedagogy of educational equity to provide English learners access to the core curriculum. Foundational knowledge and classroom instructional practices are linked through the systematic study of phonemic awareness, oral language, and literacy development. Special emphasis is placed on the Structured English Immersion model as practiced in California schools. Effective instructional strategies that ensure active and equitable participation of learners who are culturally, ethnically, and socioeconomically diverse are introduced and applied through fieldwork experiences.

This course requires 20 hours of observation in the field.

EDU 602 - Foundations of Special Education

(3)

This survey course provides an overview of the major educational practices, theories, and research regarding diverse learners with disabilities. Emergent issues and best practices, including differentiated instruction, curricular adaptations and modifications, compliance with laws, ethical concerns, and characteristics and needs of learners with disabilities, will be examined. Principles of effective collaborative and interdisciplinary teaming, positive behavior supports, and inclusive educational programming are addressed. This course meets the special education mainstreaming requirement for all basic teaching credentials. This course requires 20 hours of observation in the field.

EDU 603 - Classroom Assessment and Research Practices

This methodology course analyzes assessment types, practices, and instruments used to evaluate student academic achievement utilizing formative, summative, formal, informal, as well as classroom-based and standardized measures. Candidates apply the knowledge and skills to design both whole class and differentiated instruction and Common Core State Standards (CCSS)-based assessments based on student profiles. The relationship between theory and practice provides the basis for reflection to encourage application of research-based assessment strategies in the classroom. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched and applied. Technology for teaching and learning is integrated in the course.

EDU 610 - Methods of Teaching Reading and Writing

This methodology course provides intensive instruction grounded in sound research to enable candidates to deliver a comprehensive program of systematic, explicit, and meaningfully-applied instruction in reading, writing, listening, and speaking. Opportunities for candidates to learn, understand, and effectively use materials, methods, and strategies to include culturally diverse literature for all learners are provided. Instruction is aligned to the state-adopted English Language Arts Common Core Standards (K-8) and the Next Generation English Language Development Standards. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active, and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically, and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched and applied through field work experience. Technology for teaching and learning is integrated in the course. This course requires 20 hours of observation in the field.

EDU 611 - Interdisciplinary Approaches to Teaching in the Content Areas

This methodology course emphasizes a cross-curricular approach to content-based instruction through critical thinking skills, basic analysis skills, study skills, and specific teaching strategies and methodology for active forms of learning. The process of interrelation of ideas and information within and across science, social studies, health, and physical education utilizing the academic content standards is emphasized. Included in this course is the integration of reading, writing, listening, and speaking across content areas. Instruction is aligned to the Common Core content standards (K-8) and the language needs of all learners. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched and applied. Technology for teaching and learning is integrated in the course.

EDU 612 - Differentiated Mathematics Instruction for All Learners

This methodology course addresses the planning of content-specific instruction and delivery of content consistent with Common Core (K-8) mathematics standards and the language needs of all learners. The interrelated components of a balanced program of mathematics and the fostering of positive attitudes toward mathematics are stressed. This course includes instruction in how to model concepts and teach learners to solve problems using multiple strategies and to anticipate, recognize, and clarify mathematical misunderstandings that are common among (K-8) learners. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically, and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched and applied through field work experience. Technology for teaching and learning is integrated in the course. This course requires 20 hours of observation in the field.

EDU 617 A, B, C, D - Teaching and Learning Capstone: Contemporary Issues in the Vocation of Education

(.5 - 2)

This course offers candidates the opportunity to develop knowledge, skills and dispositions related to contemporary issues and challenges in California's teaching/learning systems. Special attention will be given to those issues that impede or aid positive school, classroom and community cultures and students' general academic and social success. Utilizing an interdisciplinary focus grounded in Educational Learning/Teaching Theory and pedagogy, candidates explore personal and professional planning practices of self-assessment, missional or life purpose development. Must be taken four (4) times.

EDU 620 - Literacy Instruction for Secondary Teachers

This methodology course teaches the knowledge and skills necessary to support the literacy development of secondary learners, including English learners, across the content areas. The core areas of reading, writing, listening, and speaking, as outlined in the English Language Arts (7-12) Common Core standards, and the English Language Development standards, serve as the foundation and the focus. The development of reading comprehension skills, vocabulary development, and literary response and analysis and culturally diverse literature are emphasized. Instruction also emphasizes reading and writing across the curriculum to support content area knowledge. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched and applied through field work experience.

This course requires 20 hours of observation in the field.

EDU 621 - General Methods for Secondary Teachers

(3)

This methodology course explores current pedagogy and its research underpinnings with the goal of implementing specific strategies, techniques, and practice of the methods presented. Candidates will demonstrate mastery of specific competencies, including literacy and language development in detailed lesson plans to make content accessible to all learners through developmentally appropriate pedagogy, effective questioning techniques, and use of appropriate resources. Candidates' demonstration lessons provide opportunity for reflection on attempted practices. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched and applied through field work experience. Technology for teaching and learning is integrated in the course. This course requires 20 hours of observation in the field.

EDU 622 - Methods of Teaching Secondary Language Arts

This methodology course is designed to prepare prospective secondary-level (Grades 7- 12) candidates for successful teaching of language arts. Candidates become familiar with a variety of specific methods to use in teaching literature, composition, and language. The topics explored include the following: trends in English curriculum development, the six-trait writing process, assessment, classroom application of various forms of technology, and professional organizations. Instruction is aligned to the state adopted English Language Arts Common Core Standards (7-12) and the Next Generation English Language Development Standards. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched. (Equivalent to LIT 535 Methods of Teaching English (3). PLNU students who complete LIT 535 are exempt from taking EDU 622 for their preliminary single-subject credential program but must replace it with three (3) units of a graduate-level elective for the MAT degree.)

EDU 623 - Methods of Teaching Secondary Mathematics

This methodology course is designed to prepare prospective secondary-level (Grades 7- 12) candidates for successful teaching of mathematics content. Topics include: strategies and models for developing mathematical concepts, building skills for understanding and communicating mathematical ideas effectively, and techniques for teaching critical thinking and problem solving. Attention is also given to the following: methods of presentation, awareness of national mathematics organizations, the writing of unit/daily lesson plans, microteaching of a math lesson, selection of materials, inclusionary practices, classroom application of various forms of technology, and techniques for assessment. Instruction is aligned to the state-adopted Mathematics Common Core Standards (7-12) and the Next Generation English Language Development Standards. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched. (Equivalent to EDU 433 or Mathematics 463 Secondary School Mathematics, (3). PLNU students who complete EDU 433 or Mathematics 463 are exempt from taking EDU 623 for their preliminary single-subject credential program but must replace it with three (3) units of a graduate-level elective for the MAT degree.)

EDU 624 - Methods of Teaching Secondary Science

This methodology course is designed to prepare prospective secondary-level (Grades 7- 12) candidates for successful teaching of life and physical sciences. Topics include the following: pedagogical content knowledge, curriculum selection and design, safe laboratory management and operation, integration of language arts and mathematics in the science curriculum, methods and modalities of science teaching, assessment, classroom application of various forms of technology, and professional organizations. Micro-teaching, classroom observation and group and self-evaluation are included. Instruction is aligned to the state-adopted Science Common Core Standards (7-12) and the Next Generation English Language Development Standards. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically, and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched. (Equivalent to EDU 434 . PLNU students who complete EDU 434 are exempt from taking ED 624 for their preliminary single-subject credential program but must replace it with three (3) units of a graduate-level elective for the MAT degree.)

EDU 625 - Methods of Teaching Secondary Social Science

(3)

This methodology course is designed to prepare prospective secondary-level (Grades 7- 12) candidates for successful teaching of both the social and behavioral sciences. Topics include the following: instructional planning, evaluation and questioning techniques, research methods, and professional organizations. Instruction is aligned to the state-adopted Social Science Common Core Standards (7-12) and the Next Generation English Language Development Standards. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched. (Equivalent to EDU 435 . PLNU students who complete EDU 435 are exempt from taking EDU 625 for their preliminary single-subject credential program but must replace it with three (3) units of a graduate-level elective for the MAT degree.)

EDU 626 - Methods of Teaching Secondary Foreign Language

(3)

This methods course is based on the organizing principles of the California State Framework, the National Standards for the Learning of Foreign Languages in the 21st Century, the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Guidelines, and current research in methodology in foreign language instruction. Topics include the following: instructional planning, selection and classroom application of various forms of technology, evaluation and questioning techniques, research methods, and professional organizations. Each candidate will develop a unit of instruction suitable for a secondary level classroom. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched. (Equivalent to EDU 436 . PLNU students who complete EDU 436 are exempt from taking EDU626 for their preliminary single-subject credential program but must replace it with three (3) units of a graduate-level elective for the MAT degree.)

EDU 627 - Methods of Teaching Secondary Visual Arts

(3)

This methods course introduces the study to the theory and practice of teaching visual arts in secondary schools. Content is designed to address content areas of the California Visual Arts Standards in middle and high schools. Topics include the following: instructional planning and classroom management, selection and classroom application of various forms of technology, evaluation and questioning techniques, state and national content standards and assessments, research methods, professional organizations (National Association of Art Educators), and the inclusive classroom. Each candidate develops a unit of instruction suitable for a secondary level classroom. Each candidate is required to prepare a final portfolio of the work in the course. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched. (Equivalent to EDU 437 and ART 455 Visual Arts in the Classroom II, (3). PLNU candidates who complete EDU 437 or Art 455 are exempt from taking EDU 627 for their preliminary single-subject credential program but must replace it with three (3) units of a graduate-level elective for the MAT degree.)

EDU 628 - Methods of Teaching Secondary Physical Education

(3)

This methods course introduces the philosophical bases, instructional techniques and procedures, and the various elements involved in teaching physical education at the secondary level. Topics include the following: classroom teaching methods, practical application, and the California State Framework in Physical Education. Each candidate is required to prepare a final portfolio of the work in the course. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched. (Equivalent to EDU 438 . PLNU candidates who complete EDU 438 are exempt from taking EDU 628 for their preliminary single-subject credential program but must replace it with three (3) units of a graduate-level elective for the MAT degree.)

EDU 629 - Content-Specific Pedagogy of Secondary Teachers

This methodology course introduces candidates to a variety of assessments, instructional, and management strategies as related to secondary content subject matter. Candidates explore the delivery of instruction in the content areas in which they seek their credential with extensive research, practice, and reflection. Topics include the following: lesson planning and formative assessment. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched. (Equivalent to EDU 439 or Music Education 454 Secondary School Music Methods, (3). PLNU candidates who complete EDU 439 or Music Education 454 are exempt from taking EDU 629 for their preliminary single-subject credential program but must replace it with three (3) units of a graduate-level elective for the MAT degree.)

(4)

This Clinical Practice experience provides the candidate with an opportunity to work directly with learners in a university-assigned elementary classroom with a Cooperating Teacher. Candidates observe and apply instructional strategies under the leadership of the Cooperating Teacher to learn to manage and deliver instruction in the elementary classroom. The Cooperating Teacher models appropriate teaching methods, lesson planning and delivery, classroom management, use of technology, and parent communication. Throughout the student teaching experience, the teaching responsibility gradually shifts from the Cooperating Teacher to the candidate, with careful consideration as to when the candidate is ready to assume the full-day teaching experience. The Clinical Practice experience contributes to candidates' preparation to complete the California Teaching Performance Assessment (CalTPA) Cycle 1 required for credential completion. Credit/No Credit

Corequisite(s): EDU 6CP1

(4)

This Clinical Practice experience provides the Intern candidate with an opportunity to work directly with learners with the support of a district Cooperating Teacher and a University Supervisor. Candidates learn to manage and apply instructional strategies in the elementary classroom with the support of the district Cooperating Teacher and the University Supervisor. Candidates demonstrate basic skills in appropriate teaching methods, lesson planning and delivery, classroom management, use of technology, and parent communication. The Clinical Practice experience contributes to candidates' preparation to complete the California Teaching Performance Assessment (CalTPA) Cycle 1 required for credential completion. Credit/No Credit

(4)

This course is the second Clinical Practice teaching experience. Candidates are assigned to a different content area and/or grade level in an elementary classroom than in the first Clinical Practice experience with an approved Cooperating Teacher. Candidates observe and apply instructional strategies under the leadership of the Cooperating Teacher to learn to manage and deliver instruction in this new elementary classroom setting. The Cooperating Teacher models appropriate teaching methods, lesson planning and delivery, classroom management, use of technology, and parent communication. Throughout the student teaching experience, the teaching responsibility gradually shifts from the Cooperating Teacher to the candidate, with careful consideration as to when the candidate is ready to assume the full-day teaching experience. The Clinical Practice experience contributes to candidates' preparation to complete the California Teaching Performance Assessment (CalTPA) Cycle 2 required for credential completion. Credit/No Credit

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of Clinical Practice I and completion of all Teacher Education admission requirements

Corequisite(s): EDU 6CP2

(4)

This Clinical Practice experience provides the Intern candidate with an additional opportunity to work directly with learners with the support of a district Cooperating Teacher and a University Supervisor. Interns complete all their Supervised Intern Teaching in the grade level where they have been hired as "Teacher of Record." Candidates continue to learn to manage and apply instructional strategies in the elementary classroom with the support of the district Cooperating Teacher and the University Supervisor. Candidates demonstrate basic skills in appropriate teaching methods, lesson planning and delivery, classroom management, use of technology, and parent communication. The Clinical Practice experience contributes to candidates' preparation to complete the California Teaching Performance Assessment (CalTPA) Cycle 2 required for credential completion. Credit/No Credit

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of Clinical Practice I and completion of all Teacher Education admission requirements

Corequisite(s): EDU 6CP2

EDU 640 - Secondary Clinical Practice I (CalTPA Cycle 1)

(4)

This Clinical Practice experience provides the candidate with an opportunity to work directly with learners in a university-assigned secondary classroom with a Cooperating Teacher. Candidates observe and apply instructional strategies under the leadership of the Cooperating Teacher to learn to manage and deliver instruction in the secondary classroom. The Cooperating Teacher models appropriate teaching methods, lesson planning and delivery, classroom management, use of technology and parent communications. Throughout the student teaching experience, the teaching responsibility gradually shifts from the Cooperating Teacher to the candidate, with careful consideration as to when the candidate is ready to assume the full-day teaching experience. The Clinical Practice experience contributes to candidates' preparation to complete the California Teaching Performance Assessment (CalTPA) Cycle 1 required for credential completion. Credit/No Credit

Corequisite(s): EDU 6CP1

EDU 642 - Intern Secondary Clinical Practice I (CalTPA Cycle 1)

(4)

This Clinical Practice experience provides the Intern candidate with an opportunity to work directly with learners with the support of a district Cooperating Teacher and a University Supervisor. Interns complete all their Supervised Intern Teaching in the grade level/content area where they have been hired as "Teacher of Record." Candidates learn to manage and apply instructional strategies in the secondary classroom with the support of the district Cooperating Teacher and the University Supervisor. Candidates demonstrate basic skills in appropriate teaching methods, lesson planning and delivery, classroom management, use of technology and parent communication. The Clinical Practice experience contributes to candidates' preparation to complete the California Teaching Performance Assessment (CalTPA) Cycle 1 required for credential completion. Credit/No Credit

Corequisite(s): EDU 6CP1

EDU 644 - Secondary Clinical Practice II (CalTPA Cycle 2)

(4)

This course is the second Clinical Practice teaching experience. Student Teachers are assigned to a different content area and/or grade level in a secondary classroom than in the first Clinical Practice experience with an approved Cooperating Teacher. Candidates observe and apply instructional strategies under the leadership of the Cooperating Teacher to learn to manage and deliver instruction in this new secondary classroom setting. The Cooperating Teacher models appropriate teaching methods, lesson planning and delivery, classroom management, use of technology and parent communication. Throughout the student teaching experience, the teaching responsibility gradually shifts from the Cooperating Teacher to the candidate, with careful consideration as to when the candidate is ready to assume the full-day teaching experience. requirements

Corequisite(s): EDU 6CP2

EDU 648 - Intern Support Seminar

(3)

This course is designed to support the intern candidate in her/his classroom and educational setting. The intern candidate will receive a minimum of 10 hours of direct support from a university intern coach, which includes instructional strategies for English Learners and sound pedagogy.

May be repeated once.

EDU 650 - Assessment and Services for Students with Disabilities

(3)

This methodology course explores current knowledge and best practice in the screening, referral, assessment, and placement procedures necessary to identify and qualify learners with disabilities for special education services. The significant issues of learners with disabilities is reviewed through discussions of the developmental, academic, behavioral, social, communication, vocational, and community life skill needs of individual learners in order to develop and implement effective programs. Strategies in consultation and coordination of the assessment process are addressed.

EDU 651 - Curricular and Instructional Adaptations for Students with Mild/Moderate Disabilities

(3)

This methodology course provides current knowledge in the major educational practices of special education, including emergent issues, theories, and research as they relate to curricular and instructional decision-making for learners with mild/moderate disabilities. This course provides the necessary knowledge regarding curriculum, instruction, and technology, learning methodology and skill acquisition necessary to provide special education services.

EDU 652 - Collaboration and Consultation for IEP Implementation, Evaluation, and Program Improvement

(3)

This methodology course provides expanded knowledge regarding the synthesis of all aspects of educating learners with disabilities. The candidate is given the opportunity to synthesize information related to the assessment of standards, short-range and long-range planning for learners, transition services language, and the effective use of consultation and collaboration skills. An emphasis of this course is training for collaboration with learners, parents, family members, school personnel, and agency representatives to build teams to ensure effective transitions across the lifespan of all learners.

EDU 653 - Principles of Language Acquisition for Students with Moderate/Severe Disabilities

This theory course specifically examines issues of language acquisition as related to learners with moderate/severe disabilities. Areas examined include assessment, behavior management, and communication styles that impact learning.

The development of appropriate IEP goals, assistive technology, augmentative communication, and social skills instruction are emphasized. This course focuses on the principles of language acquisition and effective instructional practices for English learners. It further examines the pedagogy of educational equity to provide English learners access to the core curriculum. Foundational knowledge and classroom instructional practices are linked through the systematic study of phonemic awareness, oral language, and literacy development. Special emphasis is placed on the Structured English Immersion model as practiced in California schools. Effective instructional strategies that ensure active and equitable participation of learners who are culturally, ethnically, and socio-economically diverse are introduced and applied. This course requires 20 hours of observation in the field.

EDU 654 - Methods of Teaching Students with Moderate/Severe Disabilities

This methodology course examines curriculum and instruction appropriate for individualized services including supplementary aids, services, and technology. Curricular issues addressed include modification of the curriculum within inclusive settings and natural environments, selecting appropriate curricula materials, developing and modifying appropriate curricula, and developing individual instructional plans based on formative assessment. This course requires 20 hours of observation in the field.

EDU 655 - Organization and Management for Success in the Moderate/Severe Classroom

(3)

This methodology course focuses on issues of managing the learning environment to promote success in inclusive settings for learners with moderate/severe disabilities. Techniques in training support personnel to actively use appropriate monitoring systems for support in classroom settings and natural environments are studied. Strategies related to positive behavior supports across all learning environments are emphasized.

EDU 670EP - Clinical Practice Practicum - Multiple Subject

This Clinical Practice practicum experience provides the Multiple Subject candidate with the opportunity to work directly with learners with the support of a district cooperating teacher and a university supervisor. This course is designed for those candidates who hold a valid preliminary credential in the state of California and are seeking an additional preliminary credential in a new area. Candidates learn to manage and apply instructional strategies unique to the new credential with the support of a district Cooperating Teacher and a University Supervisor. Credit/No Credit

Prerequisite(s): Approval of the Associate Dean of the School of Education for Clinical Practice Practicum and completion of all Teacher Education admission and course requirements

EDU 670HP - Clinical Practice Practicum - Single Subject

(4)

This Clinical Practice practicum experience provides the Single Subject candidate with the opportunity to work directly with learners with the support of a district cooperating teacher and a university supervisor. This course is designed for those candidates who hold a valid preliminary credential in the state of California and are seeking an additional preliminary credential in a new area. Candidates learn to manage and apply instructional strategies unique to the new credential with the support of a district Cooperating Teacher and a University Supervisor. Credit/No Credit

Prerequisite(s): Approval of the Associate Dean of the School of Education for Clinical Practice Practicum and completion of all Teacher Education admission and course requirements

EDU 670M - Special Education Mild-Moderate Clinical Practice I (CalTPA Cycle 1)

(4)

This Clinical Practice experience provides the candidate with an opportunity to work directly with learners in a university assigned classroom setting with a Cooperating Teacher and focus on the general education curriculum and California standards. The candidate is placed in an inclusive classroom that serves general education students as well as students with disabilities. Candidates observe and apply instructional strategies under the leadership of the Cooperating Teacher to learn to manage and deliver the general education curriculum and California standards. The Cooperating Teacher models appropriate teaching methods, lesson planning and delivery, classroom management, use of technology and parent communication. Throughout the student teaching experience, the teaching responsibility gradually shifts from the Cooperating Teacher to the candidate, with careful consideration as to when the candidate is ready to assume the full-day teaching experience. The Clinical Practice experience contributes to candidates' preparation to complete the California Teaching Performance Assessment (CalTPA) Cycle 1 required for credential completion. Credit/No Credit

Corequisite(s): EDU 6CP1.

EDU 670MP - Clinical Practice Practicum - Education Specialist, Mild/Moderate

(4)

This Clinical Practice practicum experience provides the Mild/Moderate Education Specialist candidate with the opportunity to work directly with learners with the support of a district Cooperating Teacher and a University Supervisor. This course is designed for those candidates who hold a valid preliminary credential in the state of California and are seeking an additional preliminary credential in a new area. Candidates learn to manage and apply instructional strategies unique to the new credential with the support of a district Cooperating Teacher and a University Supervisor. Credit/No Credit

Prerequisite(s): Approval of the Associate Dean of the School of Education for Clinical Practice Practicum and completion of all Teacher Education admission and course requirements.

EDU 670S - Special Education Moderate-Severe Clinical Practice I (CalTPA Cycle 1)

(4)

This Clinical Practice experience provides the candidate with an opportunity to work directly with learners in a university assigned classroom setting with a Cooperating Teacher and focus on the general education curriculum and California standards. The candidate is placed in an inclusive classroom that serves general education students as well as students with disabilities. Candidates observe and apply instructional strategies under the leadership of the Cooperating Teacher to learn to manage and deliver the general education curriculum and California standards. The Cooperating Teacher models appropriate teaching methods, lesson planning and delivery, classroom management, use of technology and parent communication. Throughout the student teaching experience, the teaching responsibility gradually shifts from the Cooperating Teacher to the candidate, with careful consideration as to when the candidate is ready to assume the full-day teaching experience. The Clinical Practice experience contributes to candidates' preparation to complete the California Teaching Performance Assessment (CalTPA) Cycle 1 required for credential completion.

Corequisite(s): EDU 6CP1.

EDU 670SP - Clinical Practice Practicum - Education Specialist, Moderate/Severe

(4)

This Clinical Practice practicum experience provides the Moderate/Severe Education Specialist candidate with the opportunity to work directly with learners with the support of a district Cooperating Teacher and a University Supervisor. This course is designed for those candidates who hold a valid preliminary credential in the state of California and are seeking an additional preliminary credential in a new area. Candidates learn to manage and apply instructional strategies unique to the new credential with the support of a district Cooperating Teacher and a University Supervisor.

Credit/No Credit

Prerequisite(s): Approval of the Associate Dean of the School of Education for Clinical Practice Practicum and completion of all Teacher Education admission and course requirements.

EDU 672M - Intern Mild/Moderate Clinical Practice I (CalTPA Cycle 1)

(4)

This Clinical Practice experience provides the Mild/Moderate Education Specialist Intern candidate with an opportunity to work directly with learners with the support of a district Cooperating Teacher and a University Supervisor and focus on the general education curriculum and California standards. Candidates learn to manage and apply instructional strategies related to the general education curriculum and California standards with the support of the district Cooperating Teacher and the University Supervisor. Candidates demonstrate basic skills in appropriate teaching methods, lesson planning and delivery, classroom management, use of technology, and parent communication. The Clinical Practice experience contributes to candidates' preparation to complete the California Teaching Performance Assessment (CalTPA) Cycle 1 required for credential completion. Credit/No Credit

Corequisite(s): EDU 6CP1

EDU 672S - Intern Moderate/Severe Clinical Practice I (CalTPA Cycle 1)

(4)

This Clinical Practice experience provides the Moderate/Severe Education Specialist Intern candidate with an opportunity to work directly with learners with the support of a district Cooperating Teacher and a University Supervisor and focus on the general education curriculum and California standards. Candidates learn to manage and apply instructional strategies related to the general education curriculum and California standards with the support of the district Cooperating Teacher and the University Supervisor. Candidates demonstrate basic skills in appropriate teaching methods, lesson planning and delivery, classroom management, use of technology, and parent communication. The Clinical Practice experience contributes to candidates' preparation to complete the California Teaching Performance Assessment (CalTPA) Cycle 1 required for credential completion. Credit/No Credit

Corequisite(s): EDU 6CP1

EDU 674M - Special Education Clinical Practice II (CalTPA Cycle 2)

(4)

This Clinical Practice experience provides the Mild/Moderate Education Specialist candidate an opportunity to focus on instructional strategies appropriate for learners with disabilities. Student teachers are assigned to a different content area, grade level, or special education service area other than that in the first Clinical Practice experience with an approved Cooperating Teacher. Candidates observe and apply instructional strategies appropriate for learners with disabilities under the leadership of the Cooperating Teacher to learn to manage and deliver instruction. The Cooperating Teacher models appropriate teaching methods, lesson planning and delivery, classroom management, use of technology, and parent communication. Throughout the Clinical Practice experience, the teaching responsibility gradually shifts from the Cooperating Teacher to the candidate, with careful consideration as to when the candidate is ready to assume the full-day teaching experience. The Clinical Practice experience contributes to candidates' preparation to complete the California Teaching Performance Assessment (CalTPA) Cycle 2 required for credential completion. Credit/No Credit

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of Clinical Practice I and completion of all Teacher Education admission requirements

Corequisite(s): EDU 6CP2

EDU 674S - Moderate/Severe Clinical Practice II (CalTPA Cycle 2)

(4)

This Clinical Practice experience provides the Moderate/Severe Education Specialist candidate an opportunity to focus on instructional strategies appropriate for learners with disabilities. Student teachers are assigned to a different content area, grade level, or special education service area other than that in the first Clinical Practice experience with an approved Cooperating Teacher. Candidates observe and apply instructional strategies appropriate for learners with disabilities under the leadership of the Cooperating Teacher to learn to manage and deliver instruction. Candidates are expected to explore in-depth educational philosophical problems of their own selection. This course also provides a study of the relationship of elementary, secondary, and higher education in the United States and the sociological environment in which they function. It is intended that the candidate increases his/her ability to be perceptive about social environment and its influence upon human development and behavior. As candidates in the discipline of education, there should be increased ability to use social realities and understanding in working with the processes inherent in education.

GED 790 - Special Studies in Education

(1-9)

An intensive study on a special topic in education involving university faculty and/or lecturers. Consent of location director is required. May be repeated for a total of nine units. Credit/No Credit

GED 795 - Concurrent Course Assignments

(1-8)

Action research projects that correlate with each of the above courses.

GED 796 - Induction, Mentoring, and Advanced Fieldwork

(3)

This course utilizes assessments of leadership competency, mentoring, and university site-based coaching, development of an induction and a professional growth plan in collaboration with a district mentor and University Fieldwork Supervisor. The induction plan includes goals related to enhancing candidate competency in the California Professional Standards for Educational Leaders. Credit/No Credit

GED 797 - Professional Development and Assessment

(3)

This course provides professional development opportunities for the beginning administrator in areas of special interest or areas needing development. The candidate will continue to work toward achievement of the goals identified in the Individual Induction Plan (IIP). Formative and summative assessments of leadership competence are utilized to guide candidate growth and completion of the IIP. At the conclusion of GED 797 Professional Development and Assessment, the candidate will engage in a culminating exhibition with his/her mentor, University Fieldwork Supervisor, and peers, during which he/she presents a portfolio with evidence of having met the goals listed in the IIP. Credit/No Credit

Prerequisite(s): GED 796

GED 798 - Research Design Seminar

(2)

Discussion and study of research designs for planning and conducting research in the field of education. Seminar format.

GEL 603 - Instructional Leadership

(3)

This course addresses a candidate's knowledge of California's student academic content standards; appropriate and effective curriculum, instructional, and assessment practices; and the candidate's ability to analyze classroom instruction and provide focused, constructive feedback to teachers to improve teaching and learning for all students.

GEL 603F - Fieldwork and Practicum for Instructional Leadership

(1)

Application of coursework to directed experiences in school leadership. Credit/No Credit

Concurrent: Concurrent seminar may be required.

GEL 604 - Equitable and Socially Just School Communities

(3)

This course provides an opportunity for the candidate to learn how to work effectively as a leader with the entire school community. Candidates will understand and address the diverse expectations, needs, aspirations, and goals of family and community groups and learn how to mobilize community resources in planning and decision-making for student achievement. The program offers the candidate an opportunity to examine and evaluate their attitudes toward people of different races, cultures, and ethnic backgrounds as well as examine their attitudes towards sexual orientation and individuals with disabilities so they will be effective leaders in a diverse setting and value individuals from different family structures, religions, races, cultures, socio-economic statuses, and ethnic backgrounds, and treat them with fairness and respect. Candidates will learn theories, practices, and application of restorative justice and social justice models.

GEL 604F - Fieldwork and Practicum for Equitable and Socially Just Communities

(1)

Application of coursework to directed experiences in school leadership. Credit/No Credit

Concurrent: Concurrent seminar may be required.

GEL 605 - Organizational and Systems Leadership

(3)

This course provides an opportunity for the candidate to learn how to implement California school laws, guidelines, and other relevant federal, state, and local requirements and regulations; develop and implement the school's budget; and understand and manage the complex interaction of all of the school's systems to promote teaching and learning.

GEL 605F - Fieldwork and Practicum for Organizational and Systems Leadership

(1)

Application of coursework to directed experiences in school leadership. Credit/No Credit

Concurrent: Concurrent seminar may be required.

GEL 606 - School Improvement Leadership

(3)

This course provides multiple opportunities for the candidate to learn, practice, and reflect on school improvement and enhanced student achievement for all. This course addresses the candidate's knowledge and strategic implementation of appropriate and effective school improvement, theories and strategies, his/her ability to build capacity, as well as his/her ability to communicate and lead others in continuous improvement and monitoring of these efforts based on school outcomes.

There is an opportunity for collaborating with others to identify student and school needs, developing a data-based school growth plan, and identifying and using available human, fiscal, and material resources to implement the school growth plan, using change strategies based on current, relevant theories and best practices in school improvement.

GEL 606F - Fieldwork and Practicum for School Improvement Leadership

(1)

Application of coursework to directed experiences in school leadership. Credit/No Credit

Concurrent: Concurrent seminar may be required.

GEL 607 - Professional Learning and Growth Leadership

(3)

This course teaches candidates to model professional growth, framed around principles of adult learning, and identify and facilitate focused, developmentally appropriate professional growth opportunities to build individual and collective capacity. These capacities include collaborating with others to help achieve the school's vision through professional learning focused on improving teaching and learning. The program provides multiple opportunities for each candidate to learn, practice, and reflect on professional growth leadership.

Offered As: GED 601

GEL 607F - Fieldwork and Practicum for Professional Learning and Growth Leadership

(1)

Application of coursework to directed experiences in school leadership.

GEL 608 - Ethical and Visionary Leadership

(3)

This course provides an opportunity for the candidate to learn and develop and implement a school vision based in ethical, just, and moral practices to enhance learning for faculty, staff, and students. Leadership theories, problem and decision-making models and socially just practices will be explored through case studies and simulations. The candidate has multiple opportunities to model personal and professional ethics, integrity, justice, and fairness and receive feedback from faculty and peers; reflect on personal leadership beliefs and practices; develop mechanisms for sustaining personal motivation, commitment, energy and health and learn to balance professional and personal responsibilities.

GEL 608F - Fieldwork and Practicum for Ethical and Visionary Leadership

(1)

Application of coursework to directed experiences in school leadership. Credit/No Credit

Concurrent: Concurrent seminar may be required.

SPE 651 - Methods of Teaching Students with Emotional and Behavioral Disorders

(4)

This methodology course examines educational support strategies and intervention techniques suitable for students with emotional and behavioral challenges. Focus is given to understanding the function of behavior and its communicative intent. Measurement of behavior, reinforcement strategies, systematic program development, techniques for monitoring student progress, and procedures for increasing academic and socially appropriate behavior are emphasized.

SPE 652 - Methods of Teaching Students with Autism Spectrum Disorder

(4)

This methodology course prepares Education Specialists for the successful teaching of students with autism spectrum disorder (ASD). Topics include instructional planning and social stories, evaluation techniques and functional behavior assessment, research trends and outcomes, working with repetitive behaviors, sensory and movement disorders, atypical language development, and atypical social development. This course includes intentional practice in partnering for special education and related services, supporting students in the general curriculum, and promoting friendships for students with ASD.

SPE 653 - Methods of Teaching Students with Traumatic Brain Injury

(4)

This methodology course prepares Education Specialists for the successful teaching of students with the disability of traumatic brain injury (TBI). Candidates will become familiar with a variety of specific methods and strategies to use in teaching students who have experienced a head injury. Among topics included are the need for frequent evaluation and reevaluation because of the nature and trend of their recovery, especially in the first couple of years after the onset of the injury; determining supplementary aids and services; supporting the functional domains of memory, attention and concentration, executive functioning, self-awareness, and language. This course will examine a comprehensive plan for addressing the long-term effects of TBI requiring interventions to address present and anticipated future needs of the students.

(4)

This methodology course prepares Education Specialists for successful teaching of students with other health impairments (OHI). Topics include determining the presence of acute and chronic conditions associated with OHI, collaborating with health professionals in the monitoring of the student's disability, determining the nature of specially designed instruction and services, curriculum differentiation and design, safe management and operation of specialized equipment, integration of curriculum, and classroom application of various forms of assistive technology.

SPE 657 - Adapted Physical Education Methods and Inclusive Strategies

This methodology course equips candidates with the principles, current concepts, and trends in adapted physical education, emphasizing the nature and needs of students with disabilities. This course includes history, relevant legislation, growth and developmental factors, assessments, and individualized education plans related to adapted physical education. Effective instructional strategies and safe, appropriate individualized accommodations are practiced and applied through 30 hours of field-related activities.

Prerequisite(s): Competency in Kinesiology via one of these methods:

1. Passage of CSET exams in Physical Education
2. Single Subject Credential in Physical Education OR
3. Pre-requisite of 12 units of PE coursework in kinesiology and biomechanics (not required to be graduate level)

SPE 660 - Methods of Teaching Students with Orthopedic Impairments

(4)

This methodology course provides candidates with the knowledge and skills necessary to teach and engage students with orthopedic disabilities in essential skills including academics, independent living skills, personal independence skills, communication skills, psychosocial skills, and career and vocational experiences. Candidates develop and apply knowledge in adapting teaching techniques and methods of instruction to meet individual needs of students in schools, hospitals, and students' homes. Emphasis is given to factors such as individual needs, abilities, learning levels, and physical limitations of students, as well as the need for low and high assistive technology devices, services, and software applications that facilitate communication. Effective instructional strategies and interventions are practiced and applied through 30 hours of fieldwork experiences.

SPE 661 - Early Childhood Special Education Curriculum and Services

This methodology course provides an overview of early childhood special education and the provision of early intervention screening, assessment, planning, family involvement, and inclusive practices for young children with special needs. Candidates will build the skills to understand, analyze, and reflect upon best practices and use sound professional strategies to assist young children. The course will emphasize (a) an ecological approach to assessment of the young child; (b) partnerships with families; (c) the collaborative planning of the IFSP/IEP; and (d) the relationship between assessment and intervention services. Fieldwork experience is required.

School of Education - ISEE

EDU 4CP1 - Elementary Clinical Practice Seminar I

(1)

This seminar course supports the Clinical Practice I experience through classroom inquiry and reflection on the general education curriculum and California standards, including the principles of effective classroom management, teaching methods, differentiation of instruction, lesson planning and delivery, and parent communication. Emphasis is placed on the modification of lessons and instructional support of English learners, diverse learners, and learners with exceptionalities. Candidates explore school and community demographics and consider methods for teaching diverse populations. All candidates who are preparing for their first preliminary credential must enroll in EDU 4CP1 during their first clinical practice placement and EDU 4CP2 during the second placement.

Concurrent: EDU 440

EDU 4CP2 - Elementary Clinical Practice Seminar II

(1)

This seminar course supports the Clinical Practice II experience through additional classroom inquiry and reflection on appropriate instructional strategies for learners with disabilities, the principles of effective classroom management, teaching methods, differentiation of instruction, lesson planning and delivery, and parent communication. Emphasis is placed on the modification of lessons and instructional support of English learners, diverse learners, and learners with exceptionalities. Candidates continue to explore school and community demographics and consider methods for teaching diverse populations.

EDU 302 - Foundations of Education and Learning Theory

(3)

This survey course provides an overview of the major laws and principles regarding the historical and contemporary purposes, roles and functions of education in American society as well as an overview of the major concepts, theories and research related to the cognitive, linguistic, social, emotional and physical development of children and adolescents. Wesleyan perspectives in education are introduced. Effective instructional strategies that ensure active and equitable participation of all learners, as well as modifications for diverse learners with exceptionalities, are observed through fieldwork experiences. Task-stream registration is required.

EDU 306 - Principles of Language Acquisition

(3)

This course focuses on the principles of language acquisition and effective instructional practices for English learners. It further examines the pedagogy of educational equity to provide English learners access to the core curriculum. Foundational knowledge and classroom instructional practices are linked through the systematic study of phonemic awareness, oral language, and literacy development. Special emphasis is placed on the Structured English Immersion model as practiced in California schools. Effective instructional strategies that ensure active and equitable participation of learners who are culturally, ethnically, and socioeconomically diverse are introduced and applied through fieldwork experiences. This course requires 20 clock hours of observation and participation specific to culturally and linguistically diverse learners in a culturally diverse and inclusive school setting. Candidates are responsible for transportation to and from the school site. Task-stream registration required.

Prerequisite(s): EDU 302

EDU 324 - Differentiated Mathematics Instruction for All Learners

(3)

This methodology course addresses the planning of content-specific instruction and delivery of content consistent with state adopted (K-8) mathematics standards and the language needs of all learners. The interrelated components of a balanced program of mathematics and the fostering of positive attitudes toward mathematics are stressed. This course includes instruction in how to model concepts and teach learners to solve problems using multiple strategies and to anticipate, recognize and clarify mathematical misunderstandings that are common among K-8 learners. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched and applied through fieldwork experience. This course requires 20 clock hours of observation and participation specific to math instruction in a culturally diverse and inclusive school setting. Candidates are responsible for transportation to and from the school site. Task-stream registration required.

Pre or Corequisite(s): EDU 302, EDU 306

EDU 400A - Orientation to Assessment

(0)

Throughout the preliminary teaching credential program candidates participate in the performance based assessment system "CalTPA." The four assessments are submitted in various courses throughout the program. This seminar introduces candidates to the concepts and procedures for submission. Candidates already holding a Multiple Subject or Single Subject preliminary teaching credential are exempt from this course.

EDU 404 - Foundations of Special Education

(3)

This survey course provides an overview of the major educational practices, theories, and research regarding diverse learners with disabilities. Emergent issues and best practices, including differentiated instruction, curricular adaptations and modifications, compliance with laws, ethical concerns, and characteristics and needs of learners with disabilities, will be examined. Principles of effective collaborative and interdisciplinary teaming, positive behavior supports, and inclusive educational programming are addressed. Twenty (20) fieldwork hours are required. Task-stream registration required.

EDU 409 - Classroom Assessment and Research Practices

(3)

This methodology course provides intensive instruction grounded in sound research to enable candidates to deliver a comprehensive program of systematic, explicit, and meaningfully-applied instruction in reading, writing, listening, and speaking. Opportunities for candidates to learn, understand, and effectively use materials, methods, and strategies to include culturally diverse literature for all learners are provided. Instruction is aligned to the state adopted framework. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active, and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically, and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Technology for teaching and learning is integrated in the course.

EDU 410 - Methods of Teaching Reading and Writing

This methodology course provides intensive instruction grounded in sound research to enable candidates to deliver a comprehensive program of systematic, explicit, and meaningfully-applied instruction in reading, writing, listening, and speaking. Opportunities for candidates to learn, understand, and effectively use materials, methods, and strategies to include culturally diverse literature for all learners are provided. Instruction is aligned to the state adopted framework. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active, and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically, and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched and applied through field work experience. Technology for teaching and learning is integrated in the course. Twenty (20) fieldwork hours are required. Candidates are responsible for transportation to and from the school site.

Offered As: EDU 610

EDU 417 A, B, C, D - Teaching and Learning Capstone: Contemporary Issues in the Vocation of Education

(.5 - 2)

This course offers students the opportunity to develop a Personal and Professional Life Direction Plan integrating learning experiences and knowledge from all their academic areas of study, their faith, and their understanding and development of their Strengths. Utilizing an interdisciplinary focus grounded in Educational Learning/Teaching Theory and pedagogy, students explore personal and professional planning practices of self-assessment, missional or life purpose development, clarification and development of graduate school requirements and Croe professional perspectives typical of their major course of study.

EDU 420 - Literacy Instruction for Secondary Teachers

(3)

This methodology course teaches the knowledge and skills necessary to support the literacy development of secondary learners, including English learners, across the content areas. The core areas of reading, writing, listening, and speaking, as outlined in the English Language Arts (7-12) Common Core standards, and the English Language Development standards, serve as the foundation and the focus. The development of reading comprehension skills, vocabulary development, and literary response and analysis and culturally diverse literature are emphasized. Instruction also emphasizes reading and writing across the curriculum to support content area knowledge. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Twenty (20) fieldwork hours are required. Candidates are responsible for transportation to and from the school site.

Offered As: EDU 620

EDU 421 - General Methods for Secondary Teachers

(3)

This methodology course explores current pedagogy and its research underpinnings with the goal of implementing specific strategies, techniques, and practice of the methods presented. Candidates will demonstrate mastery of specific competencies, including literacy and language development in detailed lesson plans to make content accessible to all learners through developmentally appropriate pedagogy, effective questioning techniques, and use of appropriate resources. Candidates' demonstration lessons provide opportunity for reflection on attempted practices. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched and applied through field work experience. Technology for teaching and learning is integrated in the course. It is through this course that each candidate completes the CalTPA task "Designing Instruction" as a performance-based measure of the knowledge and skills taught in this course.

This course requires 20 hours of observation in the field.

EDU 422 - Interdisciplinary Approaches to Teaching in the Content Areas

(3)

This methodology course emphasizes a cross-curricular approach to content-based instruction through critical thinking skills, basic analysis skills, study skills and specific teaching strategies and methodology for active forms of learning.

The process of interrelation of ideas and information within and across science, social studies, health and physical education utilizing the academic content standards is emphasized. Included in this course is the integration of reading, writing, listening, and speaking across content areas. Instruction is aligned to the state adopted content standards (K-8) and the language needs of all learners. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched and applied. Technology for teaching and learning is integrated in the course.

Offered As: EDU 611

EDU 432 - Methods for Teaching Secondary Language Arts

(3)

This methodology course is designed to prepare prospective secondary-level (Grades 7- 12) candidates for successful teaching of language arts. Candidates become familiar with a variety of specific methods to use in teaching literature, composition, and language. The topics explored include the following: trends in English curriculum development, the six-trait writing process, assessment, classroom application of various forms of technology, and professional organizations. Instruction is aligned to the state adopted English Language Arts Common Core Standards (7-12) and the Next Generation English Language Development Standards. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched. (Equivalent to Literature 535 Methods of Teaching English.)

EDU 433 - Methods of Teaching Secondary Mathematics

(3)

This methodology course is designed to prepare prospective secondary-level (Grades 7- 12) candidates for successful teaching of mathematics content. Topics include: strategies and models for developing mathematical concepts, building skills for understanding and communicating mathematical ideas effectively, and techniques for teaching critical thinking and problem solving. Attention is also given to the following: methods of presentation, awareness of national mathematics organizations, the writing of unit/daily lesson plans, microteaching of a math lesson, selection of materials, inclusionary practices, classroom application of various forms of technology, and techniques for assessment. Instruction is aligned to the state-adopted Mathematics Common Core Standards (7-12) and the Next Generation English Language Development Standards. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched. (Equivalent to EDU 433 or Mathematics 463 Secondary School Mathematics, (3). PLNU students who complete EDU433 or Mathematics 463 are exempt from taking EDU 623 for their preliminary single subject credential program but need to replace it with three units of graduate-level elective for the MAT degree.)

EDU 434 - Methods of Teaching Secondary Science

This methodology course is designed to prepare prospective secondary-level (Grades 7- 12) candidates for successful teaching of life and physical sciences. Topics include the following: pedagogical content knowledge, curriculum selection and design, safe laboratory management and operation, integration of language arts and mathematics in the science curriculum, methods and modalities of science teaching, assessment, classroom application of various forms of technology, and professional organizations.

Micro-teaching, classroom observation and group and self-evaluation are included. Instruction is aligned to the state-adopted Science Common Core Standards (7-12) and the Next Generation English Language Development Standards. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically, and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched. (Equivalent to EDU434. PLNU students who complete EDU434 are exempt from taking EDU 624 for their preliminary single subject credential program but need to replace it with three hours of a graduate-level elective for the MAT degree.)

EDU 435 - Methods for Teaching Secondary Social Science

(3)

This methodology course is designed to prepare prospective secondary-level (Grades 7- 12) candidates for successful teaching of both the social and behavioral sciences. Topics include the following: instructional planning, evaluation and questioning techniques, research methods, and professional organizations. Instruction is aligned to the state-adopted Social Science Common Core Standards (7-12) and the Next Generation English Language Development Standards. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched. (Equivalent to EDU435, (3). PLNU students who complete EDU 435 are exempt from taking EDU 625 for their preliminary single subject credential program but need to replace it with three units of a graduate-level elective for the MAT degree)

EDU 436 - Methods for Teaching Secondary Foreign Language

(3)

This methods course is based on the organizing principles of the California State Framework, the National Standards for the Learning of Foreign Languages in the 21st Century, the American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Guidelines, and current research in methodology in foreign language instruction. Topics include the following: instructional planning, selection and classroom application of various forms of technology, evaluation and questioning techniques, research methods, and professional organizations. Each candidate will develop a unit of instruction suitable for a secondary level classroom. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched. (PLNU students who complete EDU436 are exempt from taking EDU 623 for their preliminary single subject credential program but need to replace it with three units of a graduate-level elective for the MAT degree.)

EDU 437 - Methods for Teaching Secondary Visual Arts

This methods course introduces the study to the theory and practice of teaching visual arts in secondary schools. Content is designed to address content areas of the California Visual Arts Standards in middle and high schools. Topics include the following: instructional planning and classroom management, selection and classroom application of various forms of technology, evaluation and questioning techniques, state and national content standards and assessments, research methods, professional organizations (National Association of Art Educators), and the inclusive classroom. Each candidate develops a unit of instruction suitable for a secondary level classroom. Each candidate is required to prepare a final portfolio of the work in the course. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched. (Equivalent to Art 455 Visual Arts in the Classroom II, (3). PLNU candidates who complete EDU437 or Art 455 are exempt from taking EDU 627 for their preliminary single subject credential program but need to replace it with three units of graduate level elective for the MAT degree.)

EDU 438 - Methods for Teaching Secondary Physical Education

(3)

This methods course introduces the philosophical bases, instructional techniques and procedures, and the various elements involved in teaching physical education at the secondary level. Topics include the following: classroom teaching methods, practical application, and the California State Framework in Physical Education. Each candidate is required to prepare a final portfolio of the work in the course. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched. (Equivalent to EDU638 Methods of Teaching Secondary Physical Education, (3). PLNU candidates who complete EDU438 are exempt from taking EDU 628 for their preliminary single subject credential program but need to replace it with three units of graduate level elective for the MAT degree.)

EDU 439 - Content-Specific Pedagogy for Secondary Teachers

(3)

This methodology course introduces candidates to a variety of assessments, instructional, and management strategies as related to secondary content subject matter. Candidates explore the delivery of instruction in the content areas in which they seek their credential with extensive research, practice, and reflection. Topics include the following: lesson planning and formative assessment. This course includes intentional practice of classroom management, active and equitable participation for culturally, ethnically, linguistically and academically diverse learners, lesson planning, and formative assessment to differentiate instruction for all learners. Modifications for diverse learners and learners with exceptionalities are researched. (Equivalent to EDU639 or Music Education 454 Secondary School Music Methods, (3). PLNU candidates who complete EDU439 or Music Education 454 are exempt from taking EDU 629 for their preliminary single subject credential program but need to replace it with three units of graduate level elective for the MAT degree.)

EDU 440 - Elementary Clinical Practice I

(4)

This Clinical Practice experience provides the candidate with an opportunity to work directly with learners in a university-assigned elementary classroom with a Cooperating Teacher. Candidates observe and apply instructional strategies under the leadership of the Cooperating Teacher to learn to manage and deliver instruction in the elementary classroom. The Cooperating Teacher models appropriate teaching methods, lesson planning and delivery, classroom management, use of technology, and parent communication. Throughout the student teaching experience, the teaching responsibility gradually shifts from the Cooperating Teacher to the candidate, with careful consideration as to when the candidate is ready to assume the full-day teaching experience. The Clinical Practice experience contributes to candidates' preparation to complete the California Teaching Performance Assessment (CalTPA) Cycle 1 required for credential completion. Credit/No Credit

EDU 453 - Organization and Management for Success in the Moderate/Severe Classroom

(3)

This methodology course focuses on issues of managing the learning environment to promote success in inclusive settings for learners with moderate to severe disabilities. Techniques in training support personnel to actively use appropriate monitoring systems for support in classroom settings and natural environments are studied. Strategies related to positive behavior supports across all learning environments are emphasized.

EDU 454 - Methods of Teaching Candidates with Moderate/Severe Disabilities

(3)

This methodology course examines curriculum and instruction appropriate for individualized services including supplementary aids, services, and technology. Curricular issues addressed include modification of the curriculum within inclusive settings and natural environments, selecting appropriate curricula materials, developing and modifying appropriate curricula, and developing individual instructional plans based on formative assessment. EDU 654

EDU 460 - Elementary Clinical Practice II

(4)

This course is the second Clinical Practice teaching experience. Student Teachers are assigned to a different content area and/or grade level in an elementary classroom than in the first Clinical Practice experience with an approved Cooperating Teacher. Candidates observe and apply instructional strategies under the leadership of the Cooperating Teacher to learn to manage and deliver instruction in this new elementary classroom setting. The Cooperating Teacher models appropriate teaching methods, lesson planning and delivery, classroom management, use of technology and parent communication. Throughout the student teaching experience, the teaching responsibility gradually shifts from the Cooperating Teacher to the candidate, with careful consideration as to when the candidate is ready to assume the full-day teaching experience. The Clinical Practice experience contributes to candidates' preparation to complete the California Teaching Performance Assessment (CalTPA) Cycle 2 required for credential completion. Credit/No Credit

Prerequisite(s): Successful completion of Clinical Practice I and completion of all Teacher Education admission requirements.

Corequisite(s): EDU 6CP2

EDU 492 - Assessment and Services for Students with Disabilities

(3)

This methodology course explores current knowledge and best practice in the screening, referral, assessment, and placement procedures necessary to identify and qualify learners with disabilities for special education services. The significant issues of learners with disabilities is reviewed through discussions of the developmental, academic, behavioral, social, communication, vocational, and community life skill needs of individual learners in order to develop and implement effective programs. Strategies in consultation and coordination of the assessment process are addressed.

Prerequisite(s): Consent of Program required.

EDU 493 - Curricular and Instructional Adaptations for Students with Mild/Moderate Disabilities

(3)

This methodology course provides current knowledge in the major educational practices of special education, including emergent issues, theories, and research as they relate to curricular and instructional decision-making for learners with mild/moderate disabilities. This course provides the necessary knowledge regarding curriculum, instruction, and technology, learning methodology and skill acquisition necessary to provide special education services.

Prerequisite(s): Consent of Program required.

EDU 494 - Collaboration and Consultation for IEP Implementation, Evaluation, and Program Improvement

(3)

This methodology course provides expanded knowledge regarding the synthesis of all aspects of educating learners with disabilities. The candidate is given the opportunity to synthesize information related to the assessment of standards, short-range and long-range planning for learners, transition services language, and the effective use of consultation and collaboration skills. An emphasis of this course is training for collaboration with learners, parents, family members, school personnel, and agency representatives to build teams to ensure effective transitions across the lifespan of all learners.

Prerequisite(s): Consent of Program required.

EDU 496 - Principles of Language Acquisition for Students with Moderate/Severe Disabilities

(3)

This theory course specifically examines issues of language acquisition as related to learners with moderate/severe disabilities. Areas examined include assessment, behavior management, and communication styles that impact learning. The development of appropriate IEP goals, assistive technology, augmentative communication, and social skills instruction are emphasized. This course focuses on the principles of language acquisition and effective instructional practices for English learners. It further examines the pedagogy of educational equity to provide English learners access to the core curriculum. Foundational knowledge and classroom instructional practices are linked through the systematic study of phonemic awareness, oral language, and literacy development. Special emphasis is placed on the Structured English Immersion model as practiced in California schools. Effective instructional strategies that ensure active and equitable participation of learners who are culturally, ethnically, and socio-economically diverse are introduced and applied through 20 hours of fieldwork experiences.

Prerequisite(s): Consent of Program required.

School of Nursing

BUS 687H - Healthcare Financial Management for Healthcare Professionals

(3)

This course provides a basic framework for understanding and using financial information for making decisions in the healthcare industry. Topics covered include: operating and capital budgets, cost-volume-profit relationships, variance analysis, time value of money, financial statements, government accounting, and ethics in financial management.

Prerequisite(s): None

BUS 688 - Healthcare Operations Management

(3)

This course provides a basic framework for understanding and using concepts, practices and tools of operations management in the healthcare industry. Topics include: healthcare operating systems, clinical process management and design, strategy and execution, process improvement and quality, problem solving and decision making, lean process improvement and statistical tools, patient flow, scheduling, forecasting and capacity management, supply chain, operational excellence, and principle-based system design.

Prerequisite(s): None

GED 670 - Applied Psychology of Learning

(3)

This course provides opportunity for application of research and theory with major attention devoted to the problems of learning, individual differences, and behavior.

GNSG 501 - Writing and Research

(3)

This course introduces foundational concepts and issues designed to assist the graduate student with scholarly writing skills and research inquiry techniques. Statistical methods for nursing research including: descriptive statistics, inferential statistics, sampling, hypothesis testing, frequency distribution, and correlation are included.

GNSG 545 - RN-MSN Transition I

(4)

This course explores Christian nursing history, scholarly writing, research, theory, and the legal/ethical foundations for practice in the professional role. This course prepares the student for GNSG 620 and GNSG 622. Not repeatable. Letter Grade

GNSG 546 - RN-MSN Transition II

(4)

This course provides a focused examination of health assessment across the human lifespan, focusing on the concepts of health promotion, disease prevention, and nursing care. Not repeatable. Letter Grade

GNSG 605L - Advanced Assessment and Health Promotion Across the Lifespan Practicum

(0.5)

This laboratory course provides opportunity for application of nursing assessment and health promotion theory as it relates to advanced practice nursing role. Not repeatable. Credit/No Credit

Corequisite(s): GNSG 605

GNSG 606 - Advanced Pathophysiology

(3)

This course is designed to provide the student focusing on Nursing Education concentration or the CNS role with a comprehensive theoretical foundation of the phenomena that produce alterations in human physiologic function across the life span.

GNSG 607 - Advanced Pharmacology

(3)

This course is designed to introduce the advanced pharmacology knowledge for registered nurses to practice at the advanced level. The course content includes principles of pharmacodynamics, pharmacokinetics, pharmacogenetics, pharmacotherapeutics, drug-drug, and drug-food interactions of broad categories of pharmacologic agents. The goal of the course is to prepare students with a well-grounded understanding of basic pharmacologic principles that are pertinent to the nursing specialty across the lifespan. Not repeatable. Letter Grade

GNSG 620 - Research Inquiry and Theory

(3)

This course builds the student's understanding of scholarly inquiry, knowledge generation, research design and methods, and research utilization as best practices in health care. Students will assume a leadership role in the development of the skills related to translational research, data collection and analysis, and evaluation culminating in dissemination of findings. A variety of theoretical frameworks will be presented and discussed, and the connection of theory guiding practice change will be highlighted. Not repeatable. Letter Grade

GNSG 622 - Evidence Based Practice Process

This course will assist in building the students' understanding of the process of Evidence Based Practice (EBP) and theoretical foundations. The EBP content will center on the development of clinical practice questions and review of the literature as it applies. Students will develop knowledge and skills in appraising the quality of research evidence, and subsequent application to improve clinical practice.

Not repeatable. Letter Grade

GNSG 624 - Adult/Gerontology Nursing CNS Role Acquisition

(2)

This course provides opportunity for exploration of advanced health concepts with an emphasis on critical synthesis from nursing and the social sciences as it relates to individuals with a focus on healthcare conditions associated with the young adult to older adult, including end of life. This course includes advanced theories of human development as it relates to the practice of nursing and education of clients as individuals or in groups. Not repeatable. Letter Grade

GNSG 624B - Adult Gerontology Theory: Prevention, Wellness Across the Continuum (A/G National Certification)

This course is designed to address the Prevention and wellness issues that challenge the adult gerontology individual across the continuum of aging. Specific aspects addressed will include wellness and prevention strategies and recommendations for young adults, older adults and the frail elderly populations based on the American Colleges of Nursing Education Adult Gerontology competencies. Note: A minimum grade of "B-" must be achieved in all co-requisite courses in order to progress in the program.

GNSG 624L - Adult/Gerontology Practicum

(1-3)

This practicum provides opportunity for exploration of advanced health concepts with an emphasis on critical synthesis from nursing and the social sciences as it relates to individuals with a focus on healthcare conditions associated with the young adult to older adult, including end of life. This course includes advanced theories of human development as it relates to the practice of nursing and education of clients as individuals or in groups. Repeatable up to 12 units. Credit/No Credit

GNSG 625 - Pediatric Nursing CNS Role Acquisition

This course provides the opportunity for exploration of advanced health concepts with an emphasis on critical synthesis from nursing and social sciences as it relates to the neonate through adolescence with an emphasis on family. This course focuses on growth and development and healthcare conditions associated with the pediatric patient. Not repeatable. Letter Grade

GNSG 625L - Pediatrics Role Practicum

(1-3)

This practicum provides the opportunity for exploration of advanced health concepts with an emphasis on critical synthesis from nursing and social sciences as it relates to the neonate through adolescence with an emphasis on family. This course focuses on growth and development and healthcare conditions associated with the pediatric patient. Repeatable up to 12 units. Credit/No Credit

GNSG 626 - Family/Individual Health Nursing CNS Role Acquisition

This course provides opportunity for exploration of advanced health concepts with an emphasis on critical synthesis from nursing and social sciences as it relates to individuals, including child bearing women, within the context of the family and community. Not repeatable. Letter Grade

GNSG 626L - Family/Individual Health Role Practicum

(1-3)

This practicum provides opportunity for exploration of advanced health concepts with an emphasis on critical synthesis from nursing and social sciences as it relates to individuals, including child bearing women, within the context of the family and the community.

Repeatable up to 12 units. Credit/No Credit

GNSG 630 - Educating Nurses for Radical Transformation

(3)

This course focuses on preparing the next generation of nurse educators (clinical or academic) to create positive change in nursing practice. Emphasis will be placed on analysis and synthesis of factors that influence health care so that nursing practice may be radically transformed. Practical application will be made in classroom and clinical settings and will focus on quality, safety, and innovation. Current research is explored to build upon best practices in nursing education.

GNSG 690 - Special Studies in Nursing

(1-3)

This course provides opportunity for selected studies in the area of Nursing as determined by the School of Nursing. Permission is required from the Dean of the School of Nursing and the course faculty. The student must be in good academic standing. Students may repeat the course for credit up to a maximum of 6 units. The repeat course must cover different content.

GNSG 695A - Comprehensive Exam A

(.5)

In partial completion of the MSN requirements with a clinical nurse specialist focus or general track, the student will complete an oral exam demonstrating breadth and depth of scholarly thought, critical analysis and synthesis of complex healthcare topics for the Masters prepared nurse. All nursing theory coursework must be completed prior to registering. Credit/No Credit

GNSG 695B - Comprehensive Exam B

(.5)

For final completion of the MSN requirements with a clinical nurse specialist or general track, the student will complete a written comprehensive exam demonstrating breadth and depth of scholarly thought, critical analysis and synthesis of complex healthcare topics for the Masters prepared nurse. All nursing theory course work must be completed prior to registering. Credit/No Credit

GNSG 701A - Introduction to Statistics and Data Analysis

(1)

Explores research design, methodology and data analysis. This course introduces the DNP student to the process of quantitative data analysis, including the procedures which are appropriate for handling these data in given situations. Inferential statistics are incorporated in the research process. Students will also acquire the knowledge and skills to evaluate the use of building infrastructure for the collection and analysis of interprofessional healthcare work force data.

GNSG 701B - Applied Statistics and Data Analysis

Explores research design, methodology and data analysis. This course introduces the DNP student to the process of quantitative data analysis, including the procedures which are appropriate for handling these data in given situations. Inferential statistics are incorporated in the research process. Students will also acquire the knowledge and skills to evaluate the use of building infrastructure for the collection and analysis of interprofessional healthcare work force data.

GNSG 703 - Healthcare Policy Leadership

(3)

This course reviews the legislative process focusing on individual involvement at the local state and national levels to effect healthcare change for individuals and patient populations, and marginalized groups. Advanced practice nurses are prepared to lead change to advance health. Students take a leadership role in the legislative process through analysis and synthesis of healthcare policy.

GNSG 705 - Informatics

An overview of concepts that formulate the framework for professional nursing practice. The historical, philosophical, and professional perspectives are presented as the genesis for the development of professional nursing. Emphasis is placed upon the theoretical basis for the science of nursing. Also included in the module are the concepts of communication between health providers to assist nurses as they develop health information, health education materials, and health presentations.

GNSG 707 - Project Management

Students will implement the principles of planning, scheduling and controlling activities within organizations. The conceptual underpinnings to apply knowledge, skills, tools, and techniques to a broad range of activities in order to develop and manage a project to successful completion will be emphasized. Utilization of evidence based practices are emphasized related to innovative practice change.

GNSG 708 - Healthcare Leadership Perspectives

Focuses on strategic management and organizational theories and evaluation of health, education or quality programs. Includes the principles of program evaluation necessary in monitoring quality initiatives.

GNSG 720 - Translating Research into Practice

This course builds on the student's understanding of evidence based practice, scholarly inquiry, knowledge generation, research design (quantitative and qualitative), methods in research and research utilization as best practices to inform and change health care. The student will evaluate healthcare practice and outcomes and participate in collaborative research dissemination. The scholarship of translational research and evidence based practice will support the student in constructing the first two chapters of an Evidence Based Change of Practice Project.

GNSG 722 - Evidence Based Practice Methods

This course incorporates the process of extensive critical appraisal and literature synthesis within the context of scholarly inquiry. Overview of methodology and statistical analysis is presented. The development of research methodology informs the clinical dissertation process. The scholarship of application will support the student in constructing the third chapter of a clinical dissertation.

Concurrent: GNSG 790A-D

GNSG 741 - Special Topics

(1-3)

This course provides opportunity for selected studies in the area of Nursing as determined by the School of Nursing. Permission is required from the Dean of the School of Nursing and the course faculty. The student must be in good academic standing.

Students may repeat the course for credit up to a maximum of 6 units. The repeat course must cover different content.

GNSG 758-769L - DNP Clinical Residency

(12) taken in one-unit increments

Individualized residency experience designed as a culminating experience for the advanced practice nurse. Focus is on operationalizing the role of the advanced nursing practice nurse and integrating evidence based practice as relevant to patient outcomes across the practice domains. The Role practicum hours will allow the student to apply and master the role of the DNP within a variety of specialty specific clinical settings. A total of 1000 clinical hours will be acquired.
Credit/No Credit

GNSG 780 - Context of Practice, Populations and Outcomes Management

(2)

This course will focus on clinical prevention (health promotion and risk reduction/illness prevention for individuals and families), chronic health care conditions and complex healthcare issues related to diverse patient populations. Through the analysis of policy processes, the student will actively engage in politically competent action to improve outcomes.

GNSG 790A-D - Doctor of Nursing Practice Project

The clinical dissertation is distinguished by the completion of a specific project that demonstrates synthesis of the student's work and lays the groundwork for future scholarship and expert clinical practice. It is a rigorous and significant academic work.

Clinical experience in advanced professional nursing practice, broadly defined practice scholarship in nursing education and interprofessional collaboration.

School of Nursing - ADC

NRS 350 - Communicating and Following Faithfully

(4)

This course examines the role of the professional nurse and utilizes self-reflection to internalize the value of being faithful to those placed in trust. This course explores Christian nursing history, scholarly writing, research, theory, and the legal/ethical foundations for practice in the professional role. This course explores the role of the nurse within the context of Christian service and caring and will analyze major nursing concepts including therapeutic communication and health informatics. Current trends in nursing management and servant leadership for communication, decision making and management of groups are also investigated. This course prepares students for NRS 360A. SOL 608A - Moral Leadership and the Christian Virtues

(3)

This course will engage learners into the tradition of Christian virtue ethics, studying how the Christian virtues of faith, hope and love purify, transform, and perfect the best practices of decision making in a leadership context. Study and discussions will be grounded in the Aristotelian, Augustinian, and Thomistic philosophical and theological thought and address moral realities, including participation in the ordering of personal goods, organizational goods, and societal goods into a common good. Research will focus on character formation from contemporary leadership practices and how the Christian virtues of faith, hope and love become visibly evident in the flourishing of the society, organization and persons within it.

SOL 609A - Leading and Building Teams

(3)

The course explores research, theories, and models of team performance, including the design and implementation of high-performance leadership in organizations. Assessments, simulations, and case studies are utilized by learners to gain further insight into personality styles, power and influence, trust building, risk taking, communication styles, motivational strategies, and team dynamics.

SOL 610A - Leading in Diverse Communities

(3)

This course examines the interactive impact of leaders on diverse communities. The course asks learners to identify the Christian leadership needed in communities (local, regional, national and international) and to explore the institutional influences of family, religion, education, government, and commerce.

SOL 617 - Ethics in Organizations

(1)

This course explores the theories of ethics and a process of ethical decision making in order to develop a stakeholder approach to managing in today's business environment. Students will be challenged to consider personal ethical standards (goals, norms, beliefs, and values) and to create a framework for evaluating ethical choices, resulting in the ability to develop, articulate, and implement a compelling moral decision.

(1)

This course investigates the key aspects of business law relevant to leaders and managers of organizations. Topics include contracts, strict and product liability, organizational structures, alternative dispute resolution and human resource law. Case studies and case law will be used to understand and apply legal concepts.

SOL 620 - Practice of Leadership

This culminating course provides learners with an opportunity to explore a leadership topic of particular interest to the student and develop a research paper on the topic. The paper must include the gathering of information on the topic and an analysis of how that information adds to the field of leadership studies. The instructor must approve topics and the instructor will monitor progress toward the completion of the topic.

SOL 620A - Practice of Leadership

(3)

This culminating course provides learners with an opportunity to explore a leadership topic of particular interest to the student and develop a researched paper on the topic. The paper must include the gathering of information on the topic and an analysis of how that information adds to the field of leadership studies. The instructor must approve topics and the instructor will monitor progress toward the completion of the topic.

SOL 621 - Developing a Strategic Plan

(4)

This culminating course surveys models and best practices for organizational strategic planning, including leaders' roles in the planning process and in implementing the plan at various operational levels. Various methods for analyzing and solving problems, as well as decision-making strategies, are examined for utilization as change in organizations' operations becomes necessary. Using the servant-leadership model, learners will discern how to serve others while staying focused on achieving results in line with the organization's values and integrity.

SOL 621A - Developing a Strategic Plan

(3)

This culminating course surveys models and best practices for organizational strategic planning, including leaders' roles in the planning process and in implementing the plan at various operational levels. Various methods for analyzing and solving problems, as well as decision-making strategies, are examined for utilization as change in organizations' operations becomes necessary. Using the servant-leadership model, learners will discern how to serve others while staying focused on achieving results in line with the organization's values and integrity.

SOL 631 - Graduate Writing and Research

This course initiates students into graduate level research methodologies and academic writing that will set the expectations for papers and articles they will write throughout the program. The focus of research methodologies will be qualitative in nature. Academic writing activities will focus on proficiency in APA format. The course will also develop students' Lines of Inquiry (LOI), which are students' personal research interests in the field of organizational leadership. The LOI students establish in this course will be an integrated assignment in each course throughout the program to gather data about the course content specifically related to their research interest in organizational leadership.

SOL 641 - Leadership Portfolio Development

This course helps students create a portfolio which serves as a significant portion of the final assessment to the program. Students will create a portfolio that presents findings concerning the Lines of Inquiry (LOI), which are students' personal research interests in the field of organizational leadership developed in the first course in the program. The LOI have helped students identify applications of material in each course in relation to their own interests in the field. The portfolio will be an accumulation of this information, complemented by current research in the field, and made presentation-ready for future professional use.

Prerequisite/Co-Requisite

Some courses listed in this Graduate Catalog stipulate either a prerequisite or a co-requisite. A prerequisite is a condition or requirement that must be fulfilled prior to enrolling in a course, such as a specific student classification, permission of the instructor, or another course. A co-requisite refers to a condition or a requirement that must be met prior to or concurrent with enrollment in a course.
