

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION MINOR

A minor in Business Administration is for those who wish to complement study in another area with a basic background in business. The minor consists of introductory courses in Economics, Accounting, and upper-division courses designed to acquaint the student with disciplines essential to business success.

Code	Title	Units
Lower-Division Requirements
ACC 2000	Principles of Accounting for Non-Business Majors ¹	3
MGT 2012	Principles of Management	3
Choose one (1) course from the following:		3
ECO 1000	Survey of Economics (FE)
ECO 1001	Principles of Macroeconomics (FE)
ECO 1002	Principles of Microeconomics (FE)
Upper-Division Requirements
MKT 3032	Principles of Marketing	3
Choose nine (9) units from any upper-division course in Business, Accounting, Marketing, Management, Finance or Economics		9
Total Units		21

¹ ACC 2001 and ACC 2002 sequence may be substituted for ACC 2000.