Total Units

118-121

¹ ENG 1016 is for students who have transferred the first half of the GE writing requirement or received 3 units of AP English Language credit. It is a supplemental 2-unit research course, which fulfills the second half of the GE writing requirement.

² Each course in this section (except EDU 4017) has prerequisites and requires 20 hours in a field placement in order to meet the required field hours toward the California Preliminary Teaching Credential. See Notes.

³ Candidates interested in completing their credential can apply to take additional Education credential courses as an undergraduate or graduate student.

Note(s):

- Completion of this program partially fulfills requirements for a Teaching Credential in the State of California. Refer to the School of Education website for further information.
- Teacher Education majors must earn a grade of C- or higher in all non-EDU courses required by the major and in all 4000-level elective courses to get credit towards the major.
- Teacher Education majors must earn a grade of C or higher in all Education (EDU) courses, to get credit for credential courses (as per the California Commission for Teacher Credentialing guidelines).
- All candidates are required to obtain a Certificate of Clearance, a clear TB test, personal liability insurance, and the passage of FERPA training, prior to registration in any Education course.
- Passage of the California Basic Skills Test (CBEST) is required prior to registration in their third EDU course.
- Failure to complete the fieldwork requirement in an Education (EDU) course will result in a non-passing grade for that course.
- Candidates who entered the Cross-Disciplinary Studies-Teacher Education major in the 2016-17 academic year and beyond, and who fulfill all major requirements, are covered by the Elementary Subject Matter Competency Waiver and waived from the CSET exam toward the Multiple Subjects Teaching Credential. Candidates who fulfill major requirements listed in catalogs prior to 2016-17 must pass the Multiple Subjects CSET exam upon completion of 12 Education units.
